BUY A BOND.

Oregon is facing its second Liberty Loan campaign.

This state is required to raise in Liberty bonds the sum of $16,500,000 and expected to raise over $24,000,000.

These bonds may be bought in any size from $50 up. They can be bought all in cash down or on the partial payment plan: 2 per cent down, 18 per cent in 30 days, 40 per cent in 60 days and 40 per cent in 90 days. They bear 4 per cent interest.

Patriotism demands that every citizen buy just as many Liberty bonds as he can afford.

Unless the entire country takes up its three billion dollar issue of Liberty bonds, the country faces one alternative alone. The money will have to be raised by direct taxation, and that means not only income taxes, but every form of taxation that could be devised.

Automobiles and gasoline, for example, as luxuries would probably be taxed until it would be almost impossible to own one.

By purchasing bonds the period of taxation for the war is spread over many years.

Liberty bonds are exempt from all taxation up to $5000.

Over that sum they are exempt from all state and local taxation and are liable only to the surtax.

They are especially a poor man's investment, but the bankers and corporations have already subscribed for millions of dollars of them.

It is planned by a careful districting of the state to give everyone an opportunity to purchase a Liberty bond.

You can buy one at your nearest bank.

smaller one which will be used for lunches when exhibits are given. With a special dining room of their own to practise in, the girls will be taught to serve meals correctly.

The rooms are connected by an outside gallery built on the southern California style. Here folk dances and pageants may be held. Adjoining the cooking classes will be those in typewriting and bookkeeping, separated by a glass partition. Twenty bookkeeping desks are to be installed and seven typewriter tables. Four class rooms, two of which are in the basement and will be devoted to grammar grades, complete the annex. The heating plant has been enlarged so as to include the hot air system of the old building and a steam heating plant for the new one. Two radiators are in each room of the new wing.

One of the bungalows in the yard will be used during the winter for lunches while the other will continue to house the manual training equipment. The old Central building will hold only three grade rooms during the remainder of the winter. It is planned to eventually move all of the classes out of it.

A basketball court is to be leveled off in the yard between the buildings and the large rocks hauled to one side and covered over with earth. It will not be necessary for pupils coming from the north end of town to come around the building to the front entrance any longer as a stairway has been put in at the back end of the new wing to accommodate them.

$68,250 SUBSCRIBED ON THE SECOND LIBERTY LOAN

Rev. Snyder spoke again this noon at the Pilot Butte Inn, where the weekly Commercial club luncheon was given over entirely to the discussion of the Liberty bond campaign. "We're a rich people, but we will learn what the word sacrifice means before this war is over," he declared. "No man has a right to profit in this war. What we make should be laid at the feet of the government for the nation's use.

"It's the boys who go to the trenches who will suffer, and it's up to us to reduce the minimum of danger so that they will have the maximum chance to come home safe. We can do this by subscribing to the Liberty Loan and increasing the sinews of war.

War Will Bring Glory.

"We are going to come out of this war a glorious nation, better prepared than ever to meet our responsibilities. The advance of civilization is being made possible. Eventually the nations must disarm, and the brotherhood of nations and the Fatherhood of God be recognized as the outcome of this conflict. But this is only to come to pass after the shedding of blood, and America is called on to do her share. We must pay the price, as have France and England paid, in men and in money."

Mr. De Long spoke for a few minutes, explaining the bonds before application blanks were passed around, most of these being taken home to be filled out later.

Canvass Planned.

Final preparations for the canvassing of Bend for subscriptions were made last night at a meeting of the local committee at the Pilot Butte Inn last night. H. J. Overturf, T. H. Foley and J. A. Eastes were named to district the city and to apportion the volunteer bond salesmen to the various sections. A second meeting will be held at 8 o'clock tonight and tomorrow the soliciting committee will start on a thorough search for subscriptions.

The following additional subscriptions were reported by the Bend banks today:

Makes Good in the North.

A cough remedy must be good to give satisfaction in a northern state's variable weather. Bertram Bros., Green Bay, Wis., write: "We have used Foley's Honey and Tar and recommend it to anyone who needs a good, reliable cough and cold remedy." Relieves croup, opens air passages, eases strangling fight for breath. Sold everywhere.—Adv.
