Grocery Store Closing Out

Entire Stock of the Bennett Grocery Store Sold to the J. C. Penney Co. and is to be Sold Out Regardless of Cost.

NOTICE!
The J. C. Penney Co., operating 175 Department Stores, has selected Bend, Oregon, in which to open one of their new stores. In order to get a suitable location, we were obliged to purchase the grocery store owned by Mr. Louis Bennett. Since we never handle groceries in any of our stores and as we must have this room cleared out in a few weeks so we can get it in shape to open in early spring, we are going to sell out this stock as fast as possible. Price and profit is no object. What we want is the room. This stock is comprised of nothing but first class, reliable goods—This is not a hot-air proposition, out of which to make a lot of money. We simply want the room. This is your opportunity to secure your groceries at a big saving, at a time when a little saving means so much. J. C. PENNEY CO.

LOOK OVER OUR PRICE LIST! Watch Our Windows! Visit the Store!
Our space on this bill is limited. We can not quote prices on everything. The following will give you an idea what we are doing. Make out your list and come down to the store. The saving will be worth while.

It Is All in the Name

—May be correct, providing the name is built upon quality and satisfaction.

KEEN KUTTER on a pocket knife; Keen Kutter on a pair of shears, or Keen Kutter on a butcher knife implies quality and workmanship, linked with satisfaction.

LADIES—Insist on Keen Kutter on that next pair of shears, or MEN—Ask for a Keen Kutter knife, to insure satisfaction. Don't fail to glance at the Keen Kutter display in our show window—and remember the Keen Kutter trade mark.

"The recollection of quality remains long after the price is forgotten."

Beginning December 1, 1917,
INTERNAL REVENUE STAMPS

will be required on all bonds, certificates, notes, conveyances, proxies, powers of attorney, parcel post packages, sales agreements and other documents.

The booklet, "War Tax," which we have published for free distribution among our friends, contains full information about this stamp tax.

We will keep an ample supply of the different denominations of Revenue Stamps on hand, so that our friends may cover their needs conveniently.

Any business man anticipating the use of any considerable amount of such stamps, is invited to advise us of his approximate needs, so that we may order our supply accordingly.
