

Who wouldn't be thankful for a Victrola on Thanksgiving!

Everybody enjoys its delightful music and every hostess will be glad to have the Victrola help in the entertaining.

Such a splendid instrument is something for which to be truly thankful!

Come in and we'll gladly demonstrate the Victrola and play your favorite music.

The Victrola shown in illustration is the Victrola XIV, $150. Other styles $15 to $350. Victrolas $10 to $100. Easy terms, if desired.

REED & HORTON
THE REXALL DRUG STORE

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

(From Wednesday's Daily.)
T. C. Wilfong, of Lawen, is on his way to Bay City.
Mrs. H. D. Hartley was in yesterday from Tumalo.
Mrs. C. H. Erickson was in from Bear Creek Buttes yesterday.
E. D. Prairie has gone to San Francisco to spend several months.
Mrs. Hattie Thompson was in from her ranch at Imperial yesterday.
George S. Young is in Redmond a few days surveying for R. H. Parsons.

O. L. McVey is spending Thanksgiving in Terrebonne with his parents.
I. S. Wilson, of Barnes, spent several days in town and went to Prineville this morning.
Claire Habekost has gone to Portland to visit over Thanksgiving. She will be gone a week.
J. C. Clemens came in from Burns last night and went out to Pendleton on the morning train.
A nine pound boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Guy Smith Monday night at the Bend Surgical hospital.
W. P. Myers is at his home in Culver over Thanksgiving. Mrs. May Goodwin is also visiting at his home.
A. Whisnant returned this morning from a trip to Portland, where he has been since the latter part of last week.
Mrs. Carl McGee has gone to Metolius to spend Thanksgiving with her parents. Her husband will also go there tonight.
H. T. Benson has returned to Preston, Washington, after visiting two days with his son, A. T. Benson, at his home on the High Desert.
Mrs. W. E. Toney, of Vye, Nevada, spent the night in Bend before leaving for Portland, where she was called by the illness of her mother. She will probably remain north during the winter.
L. C. Sanders returned from a trip to Corvallis and Portland this morning and will remain until Friday when he leaves to enlist in the navy as a mechanic. His mother, Mrs. L. F. Sanders, accompanied him.
F. B. Waite, of Sutherlin, came in this morning to visit his son, Fendall

SILVERWARE

For THANKSGIVING and CHRISTMAS GIFTS

No matter whether you want a single piece or a chest assortment, we have it in Sterling or plate to suit your individual taste and pocket book as well.

LARSON & CO.

Watchmakers and Jewelers
BEND, OREGON
At the Sign of the Big Clock

MEN'S HATS AT A SAVING OF 50% TO 100%!

We are closing out our Men's Hat Stock on account of lack of floor space. There are several hundred and of good staple styles and shapes. To close out at far below actual market price.

- $3.50 and $3.00 guaranteed Boyer Hats, all colors... $2.10
- $2.50 down to $1.50 Leader Hats, your choice... $1.30
- The Famous OUNCE Work Hat, special... $1.50

SEE THEM IN OUR WINDOWS

SATHERS

Waite. He was accompanied by Judge George H. Durham, of Grants Pass. Both will remain until Sunday and are planning several trips around the nearby country.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

W. K. McCormick is in Stanfield for a month.
Mrs. Ralph Poindexter is in Portland a few days.
Francis Lamberty is in Portland over Thanksgiving.
Henry Anderson has gone to Portland to spend the winter.
Mrs. Mabel Stringer was in from Dry Lake on business yesterday.
Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Rice and son, Frank, were in from Redmond yesterday.
J. P. Keyes, of the Brooks-Seanton Lumber Co., is in Portland today on business.
Mrs. A. K. Morehouse left for Portland this morning after a short visit in this city.
Charlie Beers is visiting his home in Walla Walla and will remain there several weeks.
W. A. Riethmiller and Frank Sloan are spending the remainder of the week in The Dalles.

There will be no session of the schools on Thursday, but school will be held on Friday as usual.

Mrs. George Fellos, of San Diego, California, is in Bend and will go to her homestead for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Simpson have gone to Grizzly to spend Thanksgiving with Mr. Simpson's parents.

T. A. McCann and C. A. Johnson, of The Shevlin-Hixon Company, went to Portland last night on business.

C. M. Charleton has returned to his home at Powell Butte after spending a few days in Bend on business.

J. J. Ellinger was in Bend to attend the irrigation meeting at Grange hall last night and returned to Terrebonne this morning.

Mrs. A. W. Leverich, who has been visiting her brother, O. C. Cardwell, and her son, Roy Leverich, is on her way home to Albany. She was here three weeks.

C. E. Quimby, of Everett, Washington, who arrived on Sunday to attend the funeral of his daughter, Mrs. L. A. Huston, will leave on his return to Everett tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Oefstos, of Briggsdale, Colorado, started on their homeward journey today. They have been guests of Harry Crandall, of La Pine, the past month.

Mrs. H. H. Kilgore has gone to her home at Millican, after accompanying her husband to The Dalles. Mr. Kilgore is in the hospital there and is recovering from a recent illness.

(From Monday's Daily.)

Bird Basey left for Emmett, Idaho, this morning.

J. A. Wheeler and his mother have gone to Baker to spend the winter.

Arthur Nelson has gone to Mount Angel, where he will live this winter.

County Clerk J. H. Haner was in Bend for the day, from Prineville, Sunday.

Mrs. Grant Bell, guest of Mrs. Rudolph Wiblon 10 days, left for Corbett this morning.

Mrs. T. E. J. Duffy, of Prineville, is ill with scarlet fever at the home of George Brosterhous.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Rice and son, Frank, are in today on business, from their home in Redmond.

E. T. Patrick has gone back to Shaniko after passing a short time with Harrison Gray, of Bend.

Mrs. George Bates and her youngest daughter have gone to San Francisco to visit her son at the Presidio.

Mrs. M. A. Tisdale, of Portland, visited J. N. Hunter's home two days and returned to the city this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith are receiving congratulations on the birth yesterday of their first child, a girl.

A train load of cattle brought up from Silver Lake by K. O. Buick was shipped to Portland yesterday. About 185 head were sent.

E. D. Moran and J. Miller, both of Spokane, were in this territory a few days looking over land and have now gone on to La Grande.

Joe Buckholz and Dennis McCole left yesterday for California in the former's car. They will tour the state during the winter.

Miss Grace Vandeventer is in from the Vandeventer ranch visiting her brother, Dr. J. C. Vandeventer. She will stay over Thanksgiving.

Mrs. F. H. Cole, of Enterprise, has concluded her visit with Mrs. Hubert Baxter and returned to her home. She has been here since last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Elliott and daughter, Mildred, will leave this evening on a three weeks' trip to Portland, Seattle and British Columbia.

Miss Rowena Campbell, who has been connected with the Western Union several months, will leave tonight for Redmond, where she has accepted a position with the railroad.

George M. Baker and Miss Helen Stafford were married Saturday evening by Justice of the Peace J. A. Eastes in the office of H. H. De Armond. Both young people are of this county.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gammell were passengers to The Dalles on this morning's train. They are on their way home to Heppner after visiting their son, Walter Gammell, at Tumalo six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert F. Schultz were in from Alfalfa today. With them was Mrs. Schultz's brother, Gustav Berry, who is visiting here from Decatur, Illinois.

H. J. Overturf and Fred Wallace returned yesterday from the land and stock show at Portland. Mr. Over-

LADIES' NEW PLAID SKIRTS

Very distinctive models--all wool material only
You must see them to appreciate their style value
The prices range from $11.50 to $14.50. Other Skirts up from $5

BETTER VALUES

WOOL DRESSES

All the season's best style features are represented the tailoring is faultless and the prices moderate
$17.50 to $25.00

LADIES' COATS

Beat the weather man to it
Get ready now. Coats brim-full of style--in Velours, Plushes, Pom Pons and Mixtures
$13.50 to $39.50

NEW ARRIVALS

--Gordon Ladies' Fur Sets in Red Fox, Hudson Seal, Black Martin, Skunk, etc.
Also Children's Sets.
Just in by express.

Merchandise bought here satisfies; that accounts for our rapidly growing business. It is a pleasure to purchase here and you are made to feel that your patronage is appreciated.

STOP AND SHOP AT

MANNHEIMER BROTHERS

The Best Place to Trade After All

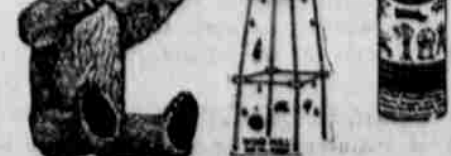

WARNER'S
Bend's Economy Center

SANTA CLAUS IS COMING!

Again the Dear Old Saint has chosen this store for his headquarters. With a larger stock and greater variety we now await your commands.

Santa Is Coming!

turf is of the opinion that the cattle exhibited was the best that has ever been shown in the northwest.
Sheriff Roberts, Vernon A. Forbes, W. C. Birdsall, Ralph Poindexter, Judge T. E. J. Duffy and others have returned from a hunting trip to the Narrows. They reported only a fair catch as the marshes are frozen over and the birds can only be found in the lakes.

(From Saturday's Daily.)

J. J. Gilliland was in Culver today.
Mrs. Lou Pulliam is in town from Tumalo today with her son.
Levi V. Smith made a business trip in from Millican today.
A. V. Wells went out to Portland this morning on a sales trip.
Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Wilson were in today from Powell Butte.
P. H. Mersdorf and Almus Neff were in from their ranches today.
Martin Hallmeyer is in from Dry Lake and may be employed here some time.

Miss Edith M. Lewis has gone to Portland to attend the wedding of her brother.

Bud Scott has gone back to Pendleton. He was employed in Bend three weeks.

Eldon Swank, of Lebanon, was in Bend today filling on a homestead near Brothers.

C. O. McNemar is at his home in Metolius to spend Thanksgiving week with relatives.

Mrs. W. G. Erb and children have gone to Eastern Idaho to make their home for the winter.

Cut This Out--It Is Worth Money. DON'T MISS THIS. Cut out this slip, enclose with 5c to Foley & Co., 2335 Sheffield Ave., Chicago, Ill., writing your name and address clearly. You will receive in return a trial package containing Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for coughs, colds and croup; Foley Kidney Pills and Foley Cathartic Tablets. Sold everywhere.--Adv.

Four chairs at your service at the Metropolitan. No waiting.--Adv.

Dr. Turner, eye specialist, of Portland, will be in Bend again Monday and Tuesday, December 3 and 4, at Thorsen's Jewelry store. Consult him. Don't forget the date. 38-9c

DR. TURNER
EYE SPECIALIST, of Portland
Visits Bend Monthly,
Watch Paper for Dates, or inquire of
THORSON, THE JEWELER