

Now About Records For Your Phonographs

WE have prepared for a large demand for Records this year and now have an extra large stock that contains the late pieces, the old favorites and the classics. You can have all of the greatest musicians of the world in your own home. Come in and make your selection early, pick out the record you have been wanting.

REED & HORTON
THE REXALL STORE

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

Ford Cox returned today from a brief trip to Portland.

W. M. Dickerson was in from Hemlock valley on business today.

J. Edward Larson returned Monday night from a trip to Burns.

Miss Hila Morse and Mrs. H. L. Vahl are visiting in Redmond this week.

H. M. Stephens came in this morning from Roseburg, where he passed Christmas at his home.

Donald McLaurin and Robert Innes are visiting here while on Christmas furloughs from Mare Island.

Lloyd Kelley, who has been at the naval training station at Goat Island, is passing a few days in Bend.

Principal H. M. Grant, of the high school, leaves tonight for Portland to attend the teachers' association meeting.

Miss Mabel Grant has come from Prineville to work in the office of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Skuse are spending a few days in Portland and will return the latter part of the week.

Vernon V. Harpham, supervisor of the Ochoco forest, is in town today. He will go back to Prineville tomorrow.

County School Superintendent Thompson has gone to Portland to attend the meeting of the state teachers' association this week.

Pilgrim Commandery No. 18 of the Knights Templar lodge held its annual Christmas observance yesterday afternoon in the Masonic hall.

Mr. and Mrs. John Fritz and little daughter, Marjorie, of Portland, are spending the holidays with Mrs. Fritz's mother, Mrs. H. C. Schenck, of Boulevard addition.

R. W. Harvey is visiting here from Mare Island. He brings word of T. L. Carriger, a former Bend man, who was recently transferred from the Rochester to the Mare Island Printing department. He will probably be appointed chief printer on the first of the year.

(From Monday's Daily.)

J. D. Donovan left for Portland Saturday.

W. E. Gurney, of Millican, was a Saturday visitor in town.

Charles A. Burns was in from Millican Saturday on business.

Ida Dahle is spending the holidays with her parents at Powell Butte.

Miss Daisy Stuart is spending the holidays in Seattle with her mother. Max Cunningham and Denton Burdick are in town today from Redmond.

Gladys Fleming and Genevieve Mc-days with Mrs. Morton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Bather.

Everett Brandenburg arrived Saturday noon from Eugene, where he has been attending school, to spend his Christmas vacation.

Lieutenant Saurman and Mrs. Saurman arrived yesterday morning on their way to Burns, where they will spend the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Hayes left for Portland Saturday night for a two weeks' visit with their children, who are attending school there.

B. L. Kidwell, who has been here the last week on business, left for Portland Saturday to spend the Christmas holidays with his family.

Douglas Mullarkey is passing his Christmas vacation in Bend with his father. He has been attending the University of Oregon the past semester.

Robert Horner, Don McLaurin and Steve Steidl are expected home on Christmas furloughs this evening. They are all stationed at Mare Island.

Evelyn Bedient, who has been working at the depot in Astoria, came in this morning to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Bedient.

George Vandeventer, who has been attending the University of Oregon medical school, is here to spend the holidays with his brother, Dr. J. C. Vandeventer, and other relatives.

Robert Innes, who has been stationed at Mare Island in the pay office, arrived this morning to spend his Christmas furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Innes.

Alfred Swanson left Saturday for Portland where he will spend Christmas. From there he expects to go to Seattle to take a position in his father's sawmill the first of the year.

Mr. and Mrs. Walsh, who have been living here for the last six months, left Saturday evening for New York City, where they will make their home in the future.

Hugh Thompson and Charles Comfort returned yesterday morning from the University of Oregon to spend the Christmas holidays with Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Thomson.

Lloyd Kelley, who has been in training at the yeoman school at Mare Island, came in Sunday to spend his Christmas furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Kelley.

Sandy Leonard passed through the city Saturday on his way to Burns to spend his Christmas furlough with his parents. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith accompanied him from here to Burns.

Because of the late arrival of the train Sunday night, Manager Rudow was unable to show "A Tale of Two Cities" in the evening, but put on "The Rosary." The Dickens play will be shown tonight.

T. A. McCann, of The Shevlin-Hixon Company, returned on Saturday from a two weeks' trip to Spokane, Minneapolis and Portland. Mrs. McCann, who joined him in Portland, returned with him.

H. D. McBride returned Saturday evening from Portland where he assisted Mrs. W. M. Iredale in taking her husband to St. Vincent's hospital in that city for treatment. Mrs. Iredale will not return until Mr. Iredale is improved.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wiel arrived yesterday morning from Eureka, Montana, to spend the Christmas season with their son, K. B. Wiel, and daughter, Mrs. Gerry Horskotte. K. B. Wiel's son also came with them to visit his parents.

Lena Sherman, who has been working for the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company in this city for the last year, has been transferred to the Portland offices. She left Saturday evening for Portland and will take her new positions after New Year's.

Dance at Roberts' hall, December 29. Good music and good supper. 43p

(From Saturday's Daily.)

James Black was in today from his ranch at the head of the Deschutes.

Mrs. Delmar King is spending two weeks with relatives near Prineville.

Mark Beeman is visiting relatives in Portland during Christmas vacation.

Mrs. A. W. Spears left this morning for Portland, to live there permanently.

Mrs. Daisy Reed returned today from a two days trip to her home at La Pine.

Mrs. B. L. Reynolds was in from Redmond yesterday and went back this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. McCann were registered at Hotel Portland, in Portland Wednesday.

Miss Pearl Watson went back to Prineville today. She attended teachers' institute here.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Brumbaugh have gone to Portland to make their home in that city.

Mrs. Dennis Carmody will be the guest of relatives in Portland until after Christmas.

Mrs. Courtley Allen and children are in Hood River passing the holidays with relatives.

Rev. H. W. Cottrell concluded his short visit in this vicinity and returned to Portland today.

Mrs. Charles O'Neil and Mrs. E. T. Ashley, of Prineville, did their Christmas shopping in Bend yesterday.

Mrs. T. E. Trotter has gone to Seattle to visit her daughter several months. She will also stop in Portland on the way.

Mrs. C. A. Jones, who has been visiting her son, George Jones, since October, is making the return trip to her home in Los Angeles.

Miss Winifred Nelson and Miss Frances Thompson are spending the holidays in Portland. Miss Thompson is visiting at her friend's home.

Miss Mabel Spohn, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Glenn Slack, several days, is now on her way home to White Rock, South Dakota.

W. E. Sandel, of Tumalo, is making a trip to his old home at Sturges, Michigan, and will come back next March. He will stop in Spokane on the way.

Miss Annette Leonard and her brother, J. D. Leonard were in Bend on their way home to Burns. Mr. Leonard has been in a training camp and is on a short furlough.

Russell Wallace came in last night to visit his mother, Mrs. Harriet Graham, while on a six days furlough from the naval radio station at Lehta. He is stationed there as a radio electrician.

(From Friday's Daily.)

Mrs. A. J. Morse is staying with her sister in Redmond during the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Oreweller have returned from a trip to Portland.

A. J. Morse will erect a dwelling in Aubrey Heights in the near future. It is to cost $700.

A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Beaver last night. He is their second child.

Miss Hazel Baxter and little Helen Baxter are in Enterprise to spend the holidays with relatives.

Miss Esther Vale, who was here attending teachers' institute, returned today to her home at Roberts.

Mrs. Frank Sloan and daughter have gone to Stanfield to pass the holidays at their former home.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Aitken, of Sisters, are being felicitated upon the arrival of a small son Wednesday.

Mrs. N. R. Oliver and family have gone to Portland to join Mr. Oliver and make their home in the city. Mr. Oliver left last Sunday night.

Mrs. J. C. Loundree, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Adolph Kitzman, two weeks, left for her home in Portland this morning.

Mrs. Cora Fish, of Pringle Falls, is on her way to Great Falls, Montana, on a business trip. She will return about the first of the year, coming back via Spokane and Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Aumiller, of North Yakima, completed a business trip here and left this morning for Redmond, Portland and Astoria. They will spend Christmas with a daughter in the latter place.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Powell left this morning for Newport, Washington, to visit with Mr. Powell's daughter, Mrs. A. B. Siggins, during the holidays. Mrs. Powell expects to settle some business affairs in that city before returning to Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Baker were in Redmond today on a short trip. They plan to meet their daughter, Miss Esther Baker, who is coming in on tonight's train. She will be here from Wyoming to spend Christmas with her parents.

CONSULT

Dr. Turner, eye specialist of Portland, at Thorson's Jewelry store in Bend, January 10 and 11; in Redmond, January 9. —Adv.

JANUARY CLEARANCE

LADIES' READY-TO-WEAR

All Ladies' Coats at 20% off Regular Price

All Ladies' Suits at 20% off Regular Price

All Children's Coats at 20% off Regular Price

New Style Ladies' Novelty Shoes JUST IN

Mahogany Calf Lace Grey Nubuck Top, Military heel, at $7.75

Black Kid Lace Grey Nubuck Top, Military heel, at $7.50

Children's Shoes

Infants' Shoes, sizes 2 1-2 to 5, in gun metal button, also Cloth Top, at $1.50

Same, in sizes 5 1-2 to 8, at $1.75 and $1.85

Infants' Patent White Kid Top, button Shoes, sizes 2 1-2 to 5, at $2.15

Same, in sizes 5 1-2 to 8, at $2.25

The same painstaking fitting service. The same dependable qualities. The same low prices—in our Shoes for the Little Folks as for the Grown Ups.

STOP AND SHOP AT

MANNHEIMER BROTHERS

The Best Place to Trade After All

(From Thursday's Daily.)

H. Axline has gone to Portland to live.

Miss Clara Wattenburg has gone to Salem to visit her mother.

Miss Alice Rasmussen is in Corbett staying two weeks with relatives.

Mrs. O. W. B. Riley will spend Christmas in Portland with relatives.

C. V. Silvia has returned from a short trip to the Willamette valley.

Miss Doris Foster is passing the holidays in Portland with her mother.

Professor J. F. Brumbaugh, who spoke at teachers' institute, returned Corvallis today.

Miss Esther Jane Clarke is on her way to Seattle, where she will remain during vacation.

A. E. Hoss came in last night from Weiser, Idaho, and will return to his ranch at Tumalo.

Miss Marie Haws will leave tonight for Portland, where she will spend two weeks with relatives.

Eldon Sloan will visit in Echo over the Christmas holidays. He will be the guest of his aunt.

Mike Johnson, of Portland, was in Bend last night. He went out to Redmond on this morning's train.

Francis Threhouse went to Lewiston, Idaho, this morning. He had been here three days on a business trip.

Oscar Larson left today for North Dakota to visit relatives, whom he has not seen for six years. He will return within a month.

Mrs. Fred A. Rice, of Redmond, is in Bend visiting Mrs. H. C. Ellis. She came in last night and will remain the rest of the week.

An eight and a half pound girl was born this morning to Mr. and Mrs. Elemer Merrih at their home on Hawthorne avenue. This is their third child.

Miss Hazel Putney and Miss Elsie Olsen left for Medford this morning and will spend the holidays there. Miss Putney will be a guest at Miss Olsen's home.

L. A. McKenzie was on this morning's train bound for California. He will spend the winter months there visiting relatives and return to Bend in the spring.

Miss Alice Huffschmidt, a sister of R. E. Huffschmidt, and her niece, Miss Jean Fries, are here from San Francisco for the week. They will leave Bend Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McDonald and their granddaughter, Miss Nellie Leslie, will pass a week in Aberdeen, Washington, where they will visit a daughter, Mrs. Davidson.

DR. TURNER

EYE SPECIALIST, of Portland Visits Bend Monthly, Watch Paper for Dates, or Inquire of THORSON, THE JEWELER

We desire to extend to our many friends and patrons our Greetings and very best wishes for the New Year.

Larson & Co.

At the Sign of The Big Clock

Compliments of the Season

WARNER'S

CONSULT

Dr. Turner, eye specialist of Portland, at Thorson's Jewelry store in Bend, January 10 and 11; in Redmond, January 9. —Adv.

With kindest thoughts and best wishes for your continued happiness and welfare for the coming New Year.

SATHERS