

THE CONQUEROR!

The one remedy that successfully Vanquishes Coughs and Colds.

Cherry Bark Cough Syrup

is Safe and Sure. No narcotics. No stimulants. It soothes the inflamed tissues and removes that tickling sensation.

EVERY BOTTLE GUARANTEED AT THE REXALL STORE

REED & HORTON

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

(From Wednesday's Daily.)
C. Ross, of Oregon City, made a trip to Redmond today.
Mrs. H. J. Overturf returned today from a trip to Portland.
Joe Steinhilber went to Deschutes today to bring in his horses.
Mrs. Frank Percival, of Millican, is passing several days in Bend.
J. F. Arnold and family returned last night from a visit in the east.
Mrs. L. F. Kelley and son spent the day in Redmond on business and pleasure.
O. D. Kyle, who has been looking over land in this vicinity, returned to St. Helens today.
Miss Lorene Woodruff is on her way home to Portland. She has been living at Lakeview recently.
Mrs. J. R. Mills, of Lewiston, Idaho, arrived here this morning and will visit her husband a short time.
Mrs. Ida Nichols, of Lakeview, passed the night in Bend before going to Stanfield, where she will visit a short time.
Mrs. W. M. Hector has returned to her home at Aureka, Washington, after visiting Robert Covey at La Pine a week.
Steve Steidl left last night for Goat Island, after passing 10 days at home with his parents. He is in the naval training school near San Francisco.

J. B. Miner yesterday moved out of his house in Bend and will take up his residence on a small ranch just east of Pilot Butte. William D. Searcey is purchasing the Bend home.
Dr. U. C. Coe returned early this week from Portland, where he assisted in examining the 23 applicants for doctor's certificates in Oregon. He will also attend another meeting of the medical board on January 18.
Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wray left last night for White Salmon, where they will visit Mr. Wray's brother before going to Portland and possibly Seattle. They will return within a week.
Eric Bolt, formerly principal of the Bend high school and now in the Y. M. C. A. at Vancouver Barracks, will be here Friday morning in order to take a final physical military examination. He will spend several days in this city.
C. Covert, organizer for the American Federation of Labor, passed a few days in Bend and left for Portland this morning. He was down to look into the eight-hour proposition so far as the mill workers are concerned. He found the situation here entirely satisfactory.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)
J. Ryan came in from Seattle this morning.
Clyde McKay is back from a short trip to Portland.
Vernon A. Bell, of Redmond, spent Sunday in Bend.
T. W. Vandever was down from the Vandever ranch over night.
Vernon A. Forbes returned from a brief business trip to Portland and Seattle.
George T. Ogle and Clarence Smith were in from Alfalfa yesterday on business.
Charles H. Erickson, of Bear Creek

Butte, was in yesterday after a load of wheat.
F. W. Oldenburg, of Deer Lodge, Montana, is here looking over the country a few days.
B. McNett, of Prineville, was here several days on business and returned home this morning.
R. A. Nelson is in Crane on his ranch at that place. He will come back to Bend again soon.
A. W. Olson, formerly with the Bend White Pine Sash Company, left Sunday night for Spokane.
Mrs. S. A. Goodman has gone to The Dalles, where she will remain indefinitely visiting her sister.
T. H. Foley returned yesterday from Portland, where he passed a few days on business for his company.
Miss Marie Haus returned today from a trip to her home in Weiser, Idaho, where she spent the holidays.
County Commissioner A. L. Mackintosh is in Seattle on business. He will be back the latter part of the week.
Mrs. Clark Paul and children, who have been here visiting her mother, returned to their home at Prineville today.
Mr. and Mrs. William Hobbs and Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Marion were in from Redmond last night to attend the theatre.
S. L. Wiggins returned from Portland Sunday night. He attended the irrigation congress both in that city and at Corvallis.
Dr. D. F. Brooks, of Minneapolis, spent the day in Bend looking over his interests in the Brooks-Scanlon Lumber Company.
Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Rainey and Will Brown have gone to Portland to pass a few days. They are moving away from Bend permanently.
Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Parker, of Paisley, were in Bend last night and left this morning for Camp Lewis, where they will visit their son two weeks.
Otto Hodges, of Prineville, is in Bend visiting his sister, Mrs. R. D. Ketchum. Mr. Hodges is now in the navy and has been home on a furlough.
Mrs. George Guier, of Alden, Washington, left for her home today. She came here from California and visited her daughter, Mrs. L. Borch, since last Saturday.
After looking over business opportunities in Bend, E. Harrison, of The Dalles, returned to that city this morning. He will probably come back here again soon.
Joe Deslett, one of the sawyers at the Shevlin-Hixon mill, returned Sunday from La Grande. He formerly resided in that city and had been on a 10-day visit with relatives and friends.
Mrs. Florence Makenson, who arrived here recently from New Mexico, has purchased Mrs. G. W. Hall's boarding house on Oregon street and will operate it from now on. Mr. and Mrs. Hall left last night for Portland, where they will join their sons now employed in the shipyards. Mr. Makenson, who is a cattle man in the south, will probably come to Bend to locate in the near future.

(From Monday's Daily.)
S. S. Nelson was in Redmond today.
H. R. Bierly left for San Francisco this morning. He plans to live there.
The Woman's Club will meet Wednesday at the home of Mrs. E. D. Gilson.
Duncan McDonald, of Shaniko, is on his way home, after visiting three days on the High Desert.
Mr. and Mrs. I. F. McRoberts left for Silverton this morning. They spent seven weeks here visiting Mr. McRoberts' parents.
Mrs. L. A. Tucker has concluded her visit with her daughter, Mrs. Markart, and has gone to Portland. She was accompanied by her grandson.
Mrs. Mabel Johnson, of Hood River, has been here visiting her daughter, Mrs. Prince Staats, a short time and returned home today. Mr. and Mrs. Staats will move into Bend from their ranch tomorrow.
H. Richards, who has been stopping at the Altamont, has taken the Engleman house on Congress street. Mr. Richards is yard master for Brooks-Scanlon Lumber Company, and expects his family this evening from Elk River, Idaho.
(From Saturday's Daily)
P. C. Hardy was in yesterday from Deschutes.
F. V. Swisher, of Pinehurst, was in on business yesterday.
Art Richards, a Silver Lake rancher, is in on business today.
W. W. Grinstead was in from Millican yesterday on business.
Harrison Latham has returned from a short trip to Portland.
Jay Hogue, a rancher from Alfalfa, is in Bend looking after a stock shipment.
Frank W. Weber, of Bend, has taken a position as principal of the Sisters school.
Mrs. James Lampshire, of Burns, was a passenger on this morning's train for Portland.
E. J. Stauffer, B. T. Kasspohl and P. Stauffer are all in from Stauffer on business today.
D. M. Hunter, of Millican, spent the day in Bend on business. He was also purchasing supplies.
Among the Tumalo residents in Bend yesterday were Grover Gerking, Bert Miller and Carl Hatch.
Beginning with next Sunday the local drug stores will close in the afternoons from 1 till 5 o'clock.
William Hanna, of Mill City, is here looking over land for his brother, who expects to move to Bend soon.
Miss Margaret West is in Warren, Pennsylvania, where she is soon to become the bride of Herbert Howell.

JANUARY SALE OF WHITE

--The low prices on merchandise in this sale offer matchless opportunities to save. Buy now while these prices are effective. --The savings afforded should interest every thrifty housewife.

17 inch, Bleached, Linen Crash Toweling for this sale, a yard	15c
42 inch Pillow Cases, Sheeting, regularly 30c, for this Sale	27c
45 inch Pillow Case Sheeting, finest quality, regular 35c, sale price	31c
9-4 Finest Quality Unbleached Sheeting, regular 55c, sale price	47c
9-4 Finest Quality Bleached Sheeting, regular price 60c, sale price	52c
9-4 Good Quality Bleached Sheeting, regular price 55c, sale price	48c
20x44 Bleached Double Thread Bath Towels, special, each	25c
21x46 Bleached Double Thread Bath Towels, special, at	29c
24x48 Bleached Double Thread Bath Towels, 50c value, for	39c
13x26 Cotton Huck Towels at, each	7c
15x26 Cotton Huck Towels, heavy weight at, each	10c
18x40 Fancy Woven Border Huck Towels at, each	22c
33 inch Indian Head, value 25c sale price	22c
Lineweave White Goods, plains and fancies, at, yard—	18, 20, 25, 35c, 40, 45, 60c
Plisse Underwear Crepe, 30 inches wide SPECIAL, yard	20c
Extra Large Sizes Bed Spreads, Special, each	$1.50
Others at	$3.25, $3.50, $3.75, $4.75, $5.00
2500 yards Cambric, Embroideries, Insertions and Edges, to 4 1/2 inches wide, very special, yard	3 1/2c
Edges, from 4 to 7 inches, wide, values to 15c, very special, a yard	6 3/4c
Daisy Cloth, 28 inches wide at	18c
Good Quality Pillow Cases	25c, 35c
Cotton Table Damask yard	60c, 85c, $1.15
All Linen Table Damask, yard—	$1.50, $2.25, $2.50, $2.75

Sale of Gossard Corsets Continued

All sizes still available, but they are going rapidly, and if you wish to avail yourself of this sale opportunity, we advise an early selection.

$7.50 CORSETS	$6.25
$5.00 CORSETS	$3.50
$3.50 CORSETS	$2.67
$2.50 CORSETS	$1.89

STOP AND SHOP AT

MANNHEIMER BROTHERS

The Best Place to Trade After All

January Clearance! of Ladies' Princess Coats DISCOUNTED 25%

JUST 18 COATS LEFT
$25.00 Coats $18.75
$28.50 Coats $21.40
$35.00 Coats $26.25

Among these are the popular French Models Broadcloth and Serge in a great variety of colors

ASK FOR STYLE FOLDER

SATHERS

WARNERS BEND'S ECONOMY CENTER

January Sale of Sheeting, Muslin Cambrics

Prices that tell you to supply your needs now

81-in. Wearwell Sheeting, 60c grade, at	53c
81-in. Ideal Sheeting, 55c grade, at	49c
81-in. Pepperell Sheeting, 55c grade, at	47c
81-in. Golden Gate Sheeting, 70c grade, at	58c
81-in. Lockwood Sheeting, 60c grade, at	52c
81-in. Unbleached Lockwood Sheeting, 55c grade	47c
45-in. Bleached Wearwell Sheeting, 35c grade	29c
45-in. Ideal Sheeting, 30c grade, at	27c
42-in. Pepperell Sheeting, 27 1-2c grade, at	23c
36-in. Cameo Fine Cambric, 25c grade, at	19c
36-in. Daisy Bleached Muslin, 20c grade, at	16c

Roy C. Moulten, accompanied by his wife and son, came in yesterday from Burns and left this morning for Portland.

H. P. Fisher, of Garfield, Wash., who has been here two days looking into business matters, left this morning for his home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Powell have returned from a visit with their daughter at Newport, Washington. They were in the north two weeks.

Miss Ada Lockwood was sent by the county physician to Redmond yesterday. She will stay in the Redmond hospital while recuperating her health.

The Methodist church this week was the recipient of a gift of a lot worth $500, presented by W. H. Staats. This will be used as the site for a new parsonage, which will probably be erected before spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Barnes, of Prineville, who have been the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Brooks, left for Portland the latter part of the week. Their two children remained in Bend with their maid.

Word has recently been received by friends of Clay Cogswell, formerly a bookkeeper in the office of the Brooks-Scanlon Lumber Company, to the effect that he is now at the marine barracks at Mare Island. He enlisted the earlier part of last month.

The Epworth League is contemplating the installation of a social hall to be used by the young men and women of Bend, who have no homes here. It will be fitted up with tables, chairs and rugs and provided with music and papers and other such articles to add to its comfort.

(From Friday's Daily.)

Mr. and Mrs. A. Heuer have moved to Portland.

C. S. Hudson went to Portland on business last night.

Frank Sloan went to Portland last night on business.

A. B. Taylor is in Prineville today looking after contract work.

Samuel E. Lochery, of Brothers, was in town yesterday with a load of beef.

Miss Lois Simmons is back from her holiday-trip home to Twin Falls, Idaho.

Thomas Francis was a passenger to Redmond today. He came in yesterday from Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dunn, of Moro, concluded a short visit with their sons, Earl and Ralph Dunn, and returned home today.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. A. Smith, of Hartline, Wash., are visiting their son, R. M. Smith, of the Reed-Smith Mercantile Company.

WILL PAY THE HIGHEST MARKET PRICE FOR

RABBIT SKINS

E. E. VARCO BROTHERS
C. H. BISHOP, 1130 Kingston Ave., Bend