

AMERICAN OIL FOR CONSTIPATION

Absolutely Odorless Absolutely Tasteless

Especially recommended for internal use

SPECIAL WINDOW SALE

$1.00 Per 16 Fluid Ounces

25¢ Per 16 Fluid Ounces

REED & HORTON

THE REXALL STORE

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

Frank Percival was in from Millikan today.

W. H. Gardner is passing several days in Redmond.

T. A. McCann left last night on a week's business trip.

William Kline went to Portland today and will make his home there.

F. W. Smith, a traveling man from Portland, is here on his first trip into Bend.

Mrs. C. S. Hudson left Monday night for an extended stay in California.

Miss Marjorie Weshee, who has been here for a few days from Prineville, left for Portland today.

J. V. Baker and E. E. Kibbey are here from The Dalles for a few days looking after timber interests.

Joseph P. Bridges, of Portland, is here on business. He will probably take up a piece of land and locate here.

Alfred Matson, George Dorran, Dan Handich, Ed and Mike Opalick are here from Spokane and will be employed in a local mill.

Fred G. Smith, traveling freight agent for the Great Northern railway, spent a day in Bend and went out on this morning's train.

C. R. Jordan is here from Sisson, California and will work for The Shevlin-Hixon Company. He will probably have Mrs. Jordan join him soon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Cline came in yesterday from Fleetwood and are staying in town. Mrs. Cline is in the hospital. H. F. Swingle also came up with them.

The Bend Chess club has received from Redmond a challenge to play a correspondence game, according to Dr. J. H. Connarn. The challenge will be accepted.

Robert B. Gould was operated on for appendicitis in Portland yesterday. He is reported to have come through the operation with no complications and is expected to recover rapidly.

Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Tetro and children came in from Lakeview yesterday and boarded the morning train for Portland. They will remain in that city a few months visiting Mr. Tetro's parents.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

A. Umbarger went to Portland this morning.

J. C. Thorpe, of Tumalo, was in town yesterday.

N. J. Laughman is in Portland a few days on business.

E. M. Turner went to Portland today. He may go on to California.

Mrs. C. Purkis has gone to Pendleton, where she will make her home.

A. P. Barr is on his way to San Francisco for a pleasure trip. He will be gone a few months.

Seth Dixon returned this morning from Ontario. He has been there looking after mining interests.

J. F. Dawson, who is here from Colorado looking for a ranch location, spent the day in Redmond.

William Hanley came in this morning from Portland. He stopped here before going on to his ranch near Burns.

John Shires is on his way to St. Louis, where he has been called by the death of an uncle. He will return in a month.

Miss Musa Murphy and Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Morris went to Madras this morning. They will return this evening by automobile.

Mrs. Carl Johnson came in today after a three months trip to Minneapolis and Duluth, where she visited friends and relatives.

P. Ballcom and P. A. Ballcom are here from Sweet Grass, Montana, to look for grazing land. They will probably locate in this section.

J. D. Van Hook, a switchman in the local railroads yards, fell from the top of a freight car early this morning and received serious bruises.

Mrs. Douglas Johnson and two children, from Fremont, were passengers to Hood River this morning. They will join Mr. Johnson and make their home there.

Mrs. Vernon A. Forbes returned this morning from a lengthy trip in the east. Mr. Forbes went to Portland yesterday to meet her and accompanied her the rest of the way home.

Any who are interested in taking stenography or shorthand, or any other courses which may be given at a night school, are invited to meet at the new high school tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock.

Dennis Hunt, who has been night clerk at the Pilot Butte in the past few months, returned to his home at Lower Bridge today and will prepare to enlist soon. His place is being taken by F. A. Hamilton, recently from the Stuart hotel in San Francisco.

(From Monday's Daily.)

George T. Ogle, of Alfalfa, was in town Saturday.

Ralph Moore and son are here from Hay Creek, looking over land.

Miss Nelda Billups left this morning for a trip to Lewiston, Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brown, of Tumalo, were shopping in Bend Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Suthoff are down from Metolius for the weekend.

William Brown was in from Redmond, Saturday on real estate business.

Lee Thomas has returned from a week's trip to Portland. He came back yesterday.

Mrs. Maude Hubbard, of North Junction, is in Bend trying to trace a pair of stolen horses.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wells, of Pendleton, are passing a week in Bend with Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Horton.

John Atkinson has been seriously ill at his ranch the past few days. He was slightly improved yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Moss, of Lakeview, came in last night from a trip north and are now on their way home.

Mrs. Alice Benson Beach and son are passing a few days in Bend visiting friends. They are from Portland.

Fred Estes, formerly in business in Bend, has just returned from a four or five months' trip to Kentucky. He may decide to locate here again.

Ten candidates took the civil service examination for postal clerks and carriers Saturday. Three were women. The results of the tests will not be known for about a month.

(From Saturday's Daily.)

P. B. Johnson was in from Millikan yesterday on business.

Mrs. Kate E. Warner was in from Prineville today on business.

Clarence L. Smith came in from Alfalfa to market a hog yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Andros spent the day in Redmond with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. William Henderson, of Tumalo, were in Bend yesterday.

George Hilstrom has returned to Portland after a short visit in Bend.

Arthur Wurzweller, of Powell Butte, made a trip to town yesterday.

Mrs. Allen Willcox, of Powell Butte, was a visitor in Bend yesterday.

Joseph Varco, of Brothers, is visiting his brother, E. E. Varco, in Bend.

Dr. and Mrs. B. Ferrell are spending several days in Portland visiting friends.

P. H. Coffey has just returned from a trip by automobile to Klamath Falls.

Eighth grade grammar school examinations will be held on January 17 and 18.

W. P. Vandeventer has been in from the Vandeventer ranch the latter part of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Biladeau, from the Arnold neighborhood, came into Bend yesterday.

G. L. Dobson, of Des Moines, Iowa, is visiting his son, Guy Dobson, of Redmond. Yesterday he was in Bend to judge the high school debate and returned to Redmond this morning.

Mrs. Frank King, who came in on the Portland train today, is on her way home to Burns.

Earl C. Newkirk left last night for Washington, D. C., where he will join a forestry regiment.

Mrs. E. E. Hopkins and son, of Culver, were here last night to attend the debate. They returned home this morning.

Ward Russell has returned to his home at Moscow, Idaho. He passed three weeks in Bend with his brother-in-law, C. B. Cole.

George L. Frazure, of Salem, was in Bend over night. He went on to Prineville this morning, but will return again in a few days.

Martha E. Forgy, formerly of Millikan, is now in Everett, Washington, and will remain there until spring, according to a letter received here.

Mrs. E. Mitchell, E. Harrington and C. W. Clapp, all of Lower Bridge, passed last night in Bend. They are motoring to Arizona, where they will make their home.

Black Kid, Champagne Cloth top, novelty punched tip---a neat, dressy

Shoe at a reasonable price. Pair---

$5.75

SHOES FOR MEN

The Co-Operative Shoe

Union Made, in a variety of leathers and lasts. One pair sells another. Priced at per pair---

$7.00 to $9.00

"The Co-Operative Shoe
Honest All Through"

MANHEIMER BROTHERS

here by train. They left their car in Bend.

Mrs. Maine, of Lincoln, Nebraska, came in on this morning's train and stopped here a short while before going to Buffalo, where she will visit her son, Dr. George H. Hansen.

DR. TURNER
EYE SPECIALIST, of Portland
Visits Bend Monthly,
Watch Paper for Dates, or inquire of
THORSON, THE JEWELER

1-2-3

1. DOOR MATS
2. MUD SCRAPERS
3. WOODBASKETS

Phone now to have us send you one of the above---or all three.

Phone 401

F. DEMENT & CO.
The Preferred Stock Store
GROCERIES HARDWARE

WARNERS

BEND'S ECONOMY CENTER

First Showing Spring

GINGHAMS

We have placed on sale a case (50 pieces) of New Spring Dress Gingham. New goods --new patterns--a standard, fast color cloth--Per yard

19c

It really is cheaper now to buy bread than to bake. You eliminate all loss from trouble, have fresh bread all the time and you can get a variety of kinds of bread here.

American Bakery

FRED HUEY, Proprietor

HERE IN BEND EVERY DAY

on the job to give you efficient service at the shortest notice. Here to see that you get a correct fitting in the kind of glasses you need, here to stay and back up every bit of work I do.

DR. C. H. FRANCIS

With MYRON H. SYMONS, O'Kane Building
OPTICIAN OPTOMETRIST

I-N-S-U-R-A-N-C-E!

Somebody carries the insurance on your property. YOU can't do it without risking the savings of years. It will pay you to talk to me about it. I pay especial attention to the insurance of farm property.

W. FERGUSON

Office Foot of Oregon St.

P. O. Box 440