

BEFORE GOING OUT
ALWAYS APPLY

Rexall
Cream
Almonds

IT PREVENTS ROUGHNESS
and CHAPPING

4-ounce bottles
only 25 cents

REED & HORTON
THE REXALL STORE

That convenient place, just across from the Court House, is where they serve good Lunches.

ALL OUR CANDIES AND ICE CREAMS
ARE HOME MADE

McBride's Confectionery
Oregon Street Phone Red 1751 O'Kane Bldg.

close at 8 o'clock each evening. The extra operator, Joe Cotter, who has been here recently from Seattle, has been transferred back to that city.
S. E. Murray, district commercial manager, spent a few days here and left Saturday for Walla Walla.

(From Monday's Daily.)

C. E. Smith, of Sisters, was in town
today.

Miss Esther Jane Clark spent the day in Redmond.

T. H. Foley returned yesterday from a hasty trip to San Francisco.

Mrs. Zada MacGregor spent the day in Terrebonne visiting her three sons.

County Agricultural Agent R. A.
Ward came down from Redmond today on food conservation work.

Floyd Smith, who has been visiting here over the week-end, went back to Redmond this morning.

J. G. Heimrick and G. E. Manchester, who have a box factory at The Dalles, are passing a few days in town looking over the local mills.

N. H. Morgan, eastern sales agent for The Shevlin-Hixon Company, is here on his annual visit to the mills.

J. H. Haner returned Saturday night from a trip to Eugene. He went to Prineville on county business this morning.

G. E. Merrick, of the Labor Press, of Portland, is here making preliminary arrangements for holding the labor convention in Bend. He came in last night.

A bride of the week will be Miss Alice Johnson, who left today for Portland, where she will be married.
With her husband she will return to Bend in three days.

Injuries to his hip and foot received at one of the mills camps, where he was employed, caused J. E.
McGillvey to go to Portland last night for treatment. Dr. U. C. Coe accompanied him to the city.

(From Saturday's Daily)

C. S. Hudson returned this morning from a trip to Portland.

J. L. Couch was in today from Tumalo to consult a doctor.

Miss Dotty Ireland came in this morning from Prineville to visit her brother.

Mrs. M. S. Andros and small son, Lee, are passing two days in Redmond with friends.

Mrs. Minta Howard and Lillian Keith were in from Tumalo yesterday on a shopping trip.

Julian Gardner came in from Camp Lewis this morning and will pass a few days in this city on business.

Mrs. Stella Whitney spent the day in Redmond.

Jess Harter made a trip up from Tumalo today. He says that the dance for the benefit of the Red Cross given there last night cleared $200. Exactly $127 was taken in at the door and $95 at the supper.

In order to join her husband in Seattle, Mrs. J. O. Eng and children left last night for the north. Wolf Patrol, Troop 1, of the Boy Scouts, of which her son, Oscar, was a member, gave him a fountain pen as a parting gift.

Mrs. Della Nichols, of Tumalo, was in town today.

The funeral of Ed. McGuire, of Tumalo, was held today at the Pilot Butte cemetery. A number of Tumalo residents attended.

Repairs on the bridge over Greenwood avenue and in other parts of the city will be made by a crew of 20 men in charge of A. Signs, which came in on a construction train from Vancouver yesterday. The switch shanty in the railroad yards is to be moved and work done on the trestles on the Shevlin-Hixon logging line.
The crew will probably be here a month.

(From Friday's Daily.)

E. R. Lewis is in here from Burns purchasing furs.

W. C. Van Cleve, of Deschutes, was in today on business.

E. P. Mahaffey returned this morning from a short trip to Portland.

E. L. Clark came in from La Pine yesterday and passed the day in town.

H. G. Caldwell, manager of the Sloan ranch, was in town on business
today.

In order to install the steel cages
in the new county jail, John H.
Rausch is here from St. Louis.

While looking over real estate business prospects, J. M. Dericks, of Omaha, is spending a few days in Bend.

B. C. Dew is back from a week's trip to Spokane. He came in this morning and expects to remain here permanently now.

Miss Sadie Whitfield is back from a conference of chief operators of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company in Portland.

Mrs. R. M. Follie, of Walla Walla, Washington, arrived here this morning to pass two weeks with Mr.
and Mrs. E. S. McGuire.

Miss Esther Jane Clark plans to leave Sunday to join the Ellison-White Chaatauqua circuit, with which she was formerly connected.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

I. S. Wilson is here from Prineville to visit his brother.

Mrs. Clarence Oakes was in from the Pine Tree camp yesterday.

Dr. U. C. Coe returned this morning from a short trip to Portland.

Tom Troy went to Portland today has been working in Bend the past month.

Louisa McVey went home to Terrebonne today. She was here for medical treatment.

R. M. Sackett has gone back to Walla Walla, after passing a few days here on business.

Mrs. Hugh O'Kane came in this morning from Portland, where she has been visiting two weeks.

Mrs. A. J. Moran and Miss Hetta
Moran are spending a few days with Mrs. W. J. Sturdivan in Redmond.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Searle were on the train bound for Portland this morning. They have been in Bend six weeks and are now leaving permanently.

Word has been received here that Lyle M. Richardson has been promoted to sergeant-major. This is his fourth promotion since being sent to Camp Lewis last fall.

Mrs. J. D. McComb, who was here in the interest of the food administration, has gone to Portland to continue her work. She is from Oregon Agricultural College.

Miss Sarah Murphy accompanied Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Morris to Portland today and will probably remain there a year. Mr. and Mrs. Morris visited relatives in Bend the past month.

Phil M. Smith and his bride have just returned from The Dalles, where they were married several days ago.
Mrs. Smith was Miss Lucy Crofford.
Grover Gerking came up from Tumalo today to take the couple in to their home.

Forestry Supervisor N. G. Jacobson returned yesterday from a circuit of all the ranger stations in his district. He says that a large number of new guide boards are being put up in the forest for the benefit of tourists and hunters.

The lectures on current events and the Bible which are being given in the Red Men hall are growing in interest and are well attended. Tonight L. E. Folkensberg will discuss the leading problems of the day, including capital and labor.

Bringing the Sunday school at the Presbyterian church up to the new standards was the mission which brought R. E. Blackman, of Milton, to Bend yesterday. He is district superintendent of the Sunday schools and was here holding a sort of institute. Other towns nearby were also visited. Mr. Blackman is now on his way home.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

Frank Dayton was in from Tumalo yesterday on business.

Frank Higgins, of Tumalo, was a Bend visitor yesterday.

S. H. Purdy has gone to Phoenix,
Arizona, for a short trip.

Will Sturges, who recently sold his ranch, went to Burns this morning.

Mrs. M. D. Nevel, of Prineville, came in to Bend last night from Portland.

E. A. Easley, of Portland, and Paul
G. Freeman, of Vale, are here looking over land.

Yesterday a boy was born to Mr.
and Mrs. H. D. Masters at the Bend
Surgical hospital.

Mrs. F. S. Washburn, who has been the guest of Mrs. Alice Cayton, returned to Portland today.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Smith have returned to their home in Portland after visiting with Dr. Norris, of Bend, a short time.

Having spent a month at La Pine on a visit, Mrs. D. O. Stanton came to Bend yesterday on her way home to Walla Walla, Washington.

Hours at the Western Union have been changed so that the office will

THE FOOD ADMINISTRATOR

says you must buy one pound of substitute for every three pounds of wheat flour. We suggest:

- Buckwheat
- Corn Meal
- Barley
- Corn Starch
- Hominy
- Oat Meal
- Rolled Oats
- Rice

Phone 401

F. DEMENT & CO.

The Preferred Stock Store
Groceries Hardware

THE RED CROSS

Needs your help. More American Boys will soon be "over there". They will need bandages. Its up to the American women to supply them. You can spare an afternoon or an evening—if you can't knit or sew you can fold bandages. In response to requests by Members of the Red Cross we have acquired a number of

RED CROSS APRONS
SPECIALLY PRICED at $1.35

These aprons fill all the requirements of the organization

The Peoples Store

WARNERS
BEND'S ECONOMY CENTER

Spring Display of Aprons and House Dresses

- Scout Percales--Bungalow Style ..... 79c
- Scout Percale--Slip-over Style ..... 89c
- Amoskeag Gingham--neatly made with contrasting colors at ..... $1.19
- Best Grade Dress Gingham, a very good looking House Dress ..... $1.49

Buy them now for less than the present cost of the goods

A WOMAN'S DAINTINESS

depends upon her undergarments. Never before have we had such exquisite Nain-sooks and Longcloths for fashioning such apparel, nor such dainty, fairy-like laces for trimming them. To satisfy the ever-increasing demand for flesh-colored fabrics we have Nainsooks, fine Silk Mulls and Wash Satins in a delicate shade of shell pink;

- White Nainsooks, from ..... 25c to 50c yd.
- Flesh Nainsooks, at ..... 35c yd.
- White Silk Mull ..... 35c to 50c yd.
- Flesh Colored Silk Mull ..... 35c to 50c yd.
- Flesh Colored Wash Satin, at ..... $2.50 yd.
- Fine Nainsooks, 10-yd. pieces, boxed, at ..... $3.00 per piece
- Japanese Nainsook, 10-yd. piece, boxed, at ..... $4.00 per piece
- 12-yd. boxed Nainsooks, at ..... $4.50 per piece

STOP AND SHOP AT

MANNHEIMER BROTHERS

Where Everybody Trades

The Bend Garage delivered to E.
W. Beeler, of Milliean, a model
"Four-Ninety" Chevrolet this week.
Last week a car of the same model was sent to Ed. Stoehr at Spokane.
The car was shipped with the Buick belonging to Emil Swansen.

J. H. UPTON MAY RUN.

(Oregonian.)

SALEM, Jan. 28.—Word which has been received here from Bend carries the intimation that J. H. Upton may become a candidate to succeed Vernon Forbes from the 21st Representative District, which includes Crook.

Grant, Klamath and Lake, and that Mr. Forbes may become a candidate for the state senate. The word is not definite, but this is a lineup considered probable by friends of Mr. Upton. Denton G. Bardick is also a candidate for re-election to the House from the same district.

NOTICE OF MEETING.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Reed-Smith Mercantile Company will be held in the company's office at Bend on February 8, 1918. adv.48-45c

Four chairs at your service at the Metropolitan. No waiting—Adv

MAURICE P. CASHMAN'S MEN AND BOY'S STORE

YOU are most welcome to come and look over our stock of Dependable Ready-to-Wear. It will do you good.

WE promise you the Best Suit of Clothes your money can buy these days of high prices. This is very important, for true value cannot always be measured by the price you pay. What you get is the thing that counts, and we positively promise to give you the MOST.

WE promise you a wide choice of the most dependable fabrics it is possible to obtain, fabrics plainly marked and guaranteed to be as stated. Fabrics of reliability and such as you would expect from a house whose reputation is the highest. We work on the square.

WE promise good workmanship, careful and painstaking, and in strict accordance with the best ideas of high class tailoring. Linings and trimmings will be found of the best quality positively at the price and detail perfectly executed.

MAURICE P. CASHMAN

The HOME of HART SCHAFFNER & MARX Clothes
Florsheim Shoes O'Kane Bldg. Dutchess Pants