

JUST OUT! THE LATEST BOOK OF THE WAR UNDER FIRE

By HENRY BARBUSSE

REED & HORTON
THE REXALL STORE

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

(From Wednesday's Daily.)
E. M. Thompson was in Redmond today.
Isaac Wilson, of Fife, was in town yesterday.
W. L. Palmer went to his ranch at Deschutes today.
D. Keller returned this morning from a trip to Portland.
Mr. and Mrs. Paul Garrison were here from Prineville yesterday.
A baby was born to Mr. and Mrs. Roy James Sprouse on February 4.
Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Catlow are the proud parents of a baby girl, born Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. H. Swank are here from Tangent and plan to go on to Brothers to visit.
W. P. Myers is spending the day in Prineville working on the school district division case.
Oscar Larson has returned from a trip east to visit his old home. He has been gone several months.
J. W. Brown was in from Tumalo yesterday on business in connection with the Tumalo farm loan association.
B. F. Neely, of Portland, is now in the Magill & Erskine drug store. Mr. Neely's family will arrive in Bend shortly.
Mrs. J. A. Hazuka and children have gone to Portland to join Mr. Hazuka. They will probably remain away six months.
Dement's Grocery has just put in a timely window display in which is exhibited a number of the substitutes for flour recommended by the food administration.
Vernon A. Forbes returned this morning from Portland and Salem, where he went on business connected with the Squaw Creek and Snow Creek irrigation dispute.
Mrs. A. E. De Shaw, who has been visiting her daughter, Miss Gertrude De Shaw, the past three weeks, went to Portland this morning. She will go on from there to Seattle.
T. A. McCann and J. P. Keyes are in Spokane attending the meeting of the Western Pine Manufacturers' Association, which was in session yesterday and today. New officers will be elected at the gathering.
Columbus R. Johnson, Otto C. Gray and their families are here from Ineville spending the day in town with friends. Both men recently acquired part of the holdings of Walter and Dick Vandeventer and J. C. Whitfield on the upper Deschutes river.
A marimbaphone has just been acquired by the Day Music Company. It arrived yesterday and is the first of its kind in Bend. Mr. Day will use it in playing for dances. Several people can play on the instrument at one time, using sticks with wool balls on the end. The keys are wooden slats held in place over suspended pipes.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)
Mrs. P. L. Jones is visiting her mother in Baker two weeks.
A. T. Vincent is visiting his home in Crescent, Washington, before enlisting.
J. E. Warner went to Redmond today. He has been in from his ranch since Sunday.
J. B. Wiseman spent several days in town, going back to his home at Cline Falls today.
Bernard Shafer was a passenger on the morning train bound for Los Angeles. He was here looking over land.
The Universal Garage last week delivered to J. E. Warner, of Powell Butte, one of the new model Maxwell cars.
The Presbyterian Guild will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. Walter Ferguson at 2:30 o'clock.
B. McNett and Bern Young went to Prineville this morning. They had been in town in order to take their physical examinations.
Miss Florence McCoy of West Linn, Oregon, came through Bend yesterday from Paisley. She was on her way home after visiting friends south of Bend.
This afternoon the board of directors of the C. O. I. district held a meeting at Redmond. H. H. De Armond and J. Alton Thompson attended the meeting.
Notice of C. E. Reed's arrival in France safely was received by Mrs. Reed last week. Her husband is with the Twentieth Engineers and has the rank of sergeant.
The new teacher for the West End school at Millican, Mrs. Maude Hubbard, arrived here yesterday and went on to her building. She will take Mrs. I. L. Owen's place.
Mrs. Mary McGee started on her return trip to her home in Dickson, Montana. She has been visiting her grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. McGee, the past four months.
Jess R. Lasswell, vice-president of the Central Oregon Bank, came in yesterday from Portland, where he had been arranging to move here. His family will follow him soon.
The regular meeting of the city council tonight will be given over to disposing of bills. Councilmen C. M. McKay and E. P. Brosterhouse are out of town so it is unlikely that any very important business will be brought up.
On account of the need for more room, Miss Elsie Olsin and Miss Hazel Patney have moved their night school into the council room in the O'Kane building. The class was organized last night and work began. On Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays from 7:30 until 9 o'clock instruction in book-keeping and stenography will be given.

(From Monday's Daily.)
Jake Opt was a passenger to The Dalles this morning.
W. J. Salmon went to The Dalles this morning to work there.
Dr. R. W. Hendershott is back from a short trip to Portland.
Peter Thompson is passing a few days in La Grande on a business trip.
Vernon A. Forbes is away on a trip to Portland and Salem on legal business.
Alec Dipold was a passenger to Portland today. He does not expect to return to Bend.
Joe Blair, who was here a few days on business, returned this morning to his home in Seattle.
Glenn Nichols, H. A. Foster, Frank McCaffrey and E. J. Wilson were all here from Prineville yesterday.
Mr. and Mrs. E. Elliff and daughter came in Saturday from Pendleton and will make their home here.
V. W. Burke, state representative of the Western Loan & Building Company, will be in Bend within a few days.
Mrs. W. F. Fryrear, of Sisters, spent the week end with her daughter, Mary, in Bend. She went home today.
Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Kroenert came in this morning from Portland, where Mrs. Kroenert had gone for a slight operation.
Frankie Gabbert, John Gabbert and Frank McDowell, after a two months' visit in Bend, have gone to Spokane to stay.
Mrs. A. E. Edwards returned last night from a trip to California. She passed a portion of the winter there visiting friends.
The Honor Guard will meet tonight at 7:30 in the high school. R. W. Sawyer will address the members on aiding in the thrift stamps sales.
Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Haines are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a baby girl at their home yesterday. The child is their third, the other two being boys.
The Library club will hold its monthly meeting at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the library. A number of very important matters will be brought up for discussion.
The Parent-Teachers' association will hold a meeting at the high school on the evening of Wednesday, February 6, at 8 o'clock. Principal Grant, of the high school, will speak and all parents of high school pupils are especially invited to attend.

A PLAIN STATEMENT.

Everything must go. Nothing is reserved; prices cut way down. Sather's Closing Out Sale starts at 9 o'clock Saturday morning.—Adv.

Worst Winter in Years.

Snow, wind and extreme cold caused more colds this winter than in years. Foley's Honey and Tar proved its worth in thousands of homes. Mrs. Edward Strey, R. 37, Clinton, O., says: "I think Foley's Honey and Tar is the only medicine for coughs and colds and recommend it highly." Fine for children. Sold everywhere.—Adv.

(From Saturday's Daily)

Hardy Allen, from Sisters, spent yesterday in Bend.
J. W. Wright, of Cline Falls, was in town on business yesterday.
Tom Sloan and J. W. Kerr are passing a few days in Portland on business.

Frank Dayton and A. J. Halter were in today on business with the county court.
Judge T. E. J. Duffy has returned to Prineville, after holding a hearing in the circuit court.
H. H. De Armond was in Prineville today. He drove back in his car late this evening.
Mrs. L. A. Heathman and Mrs. W. O. Raiston were in from Terrebonne yesterday on Red Cross business.
Bert Wood and his sister, Mrs. J. R. Wiley, are on their way to Eugene to visit their father, who is ill.
M. Hansen and A. S. Kaster, who came to Bend this week from Fresno, California, have gone on to Pendleton.
W. A. Rahn, of Millican, has gone to Portland for medical treatment. He will probably remain away a month.
The county road roller arrived this morning from Portland and will be put to work at once in the vicinity of Bend.
A 10-pound boy was born Thursday to Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Williamson. The baby was named Charles Edward.
The baby boy born to Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Grant at the Bend Surgical Hospital Thursday, died after living 24 hours.
Ollis McDowell, of Centralia, Washington, who has been spending a few days with his parents, went north again this morning.
Mrs. H. H. Perry was a visitor in town over night. She came up from The Dalles day before yesterday to attend a wedding at Metolius.
Mrs. J. W. Taggart, after spending six weeks in Bend, returned to her home in Portland today. She has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. A. M. Pringle.
T. A. Tanaka, foreman of the local section crew in the railroad yards, came in from Seattle with his bride this morning. He has been gone eight days.
Otto A. Bittrick, of Spokane, is in this city purchasing cattle. Frank Clieg, of Brothers, Elmer Dyer, from Millican, and Jay Hague, of Alfalfa, were all in town yesterday to see him.
The small structure on Wall street north of the Lara building was moved today to a location on Hawthorne street. J. H. O'Neal has bought it from the Deschutes Investment Company.

A PLAIN STATEMENT.

Everything must go. Nothing is reserved; prices cut way down. Sather's Closing Out Sale starts at 9 o'clock Saturday morning.—Adv.

(From Friday's Daily.)

Charles F. Hindman, of Sisters, came in today on business.
Frank Edward Klacker has gone to Redmond to work.
Joe McKenna is visiting in Pendleton for a short time.
Ray Gerking was in from Tumalo yesterday to buy a horse.
George Messenger came in from Prineville yesterday on business.
A. Whisnant returned this morning from a short trip to Portland.
C. S. Hudson came in yesterday from a short business trip to Portland.
Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Morris have gone to Maupin to visit friends two weeks.

THE 1918 LINWEAVES HAVE ARRIVED!

TO our older customers nothing more need be said, but to those unacquainted with our merchandise, we have only to add—Linweave is to white goods, what sterling is to silver.

Whether you wish a fine material for the baby's dress, a more substantial goods for the little sister or a fancy suiting for a skirt for yourself, among our large assortment of Linweaves you will find the correct fabrics at the lowest prices.

- Plain Batistes, 27-in. .... 20c yd.
- Plain Batistes, 40-in. .... 25c to 65c yd.
- Plain Voiles, 40-in. .... 25c to 65c yd.
- Fancy Voiles ..... 35c to 60c yd.
- Checked Nainsooks, 27-in. .... 25c yd.
- Checked Nainsooks, 32-in. .... 35c yd.
- Checked Nainsooks, 36-in. .... 25c yd.
- Fine Crepe, 44-in. .... 45c yd.
- Piques ..... 25c to 60c yd.
- Poplins ..... 35c yd.
- Plain Suitings ..... 30c to 45c yd.
- Fancy Suitings ..... 35c to 75c yd.
- Beautiful Striped Organdy, 46-in. .... $1.15 yd.

Grey and Brown Fibre Silk Hose
just in by express.

STOP AND SHOP AT

MANNHEIMER BROTHERS

Where Everybody Trades

Dr. R. W. Hendershott is passing a few days in Portland and will return Sunday night.
Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Couch left this morning for Denver, Colorado, where they will remain a month.
Fred Lucas will leave tonight for Portland, where he has accepted a position in the office of the Union Meat Company. He has recently been employed as weighmaster in the local railroad yards.
J. E. Stram, traveling agent for the O-W. R. & N. railroad, was in town yesterday on business.
Fred N. Wallace was in from Tumalo to attend the patriotic meeting at the Hippodrome last night.
Jay H. Upton returned to Prineville this morning, after working here on the irrigation hearing.
Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Webster and small child have left for El Paso, Texas, to make their home there.
H. M. Stephens returned this morning from Roseburg, where he was called by the illness of his father.
City Engineer Robert Gould is back from Portland, where he recently had an operation performed for appendicitis.

Martin Kenfield came in yesterday from Portland. He took Mrs. Kenfield down to receive medical treatment.
Who is Piercy & Sons, Tumalo? Adv. 49p
Now Is the Time to Be Careful.
Avoid imitations or substitutes, get the genuine Foley's Honey and Tar, and you have a cough medicine you can depend upon. It gives prompt relief, clears throat, loosens phlegm, soothes, heals. Checks coughs, colds, whooping cough, la grippe, bronchial coughs. Contains no opiates. Sold everywhere.—Adv.
All kinds of hides, furs, pelts, wool bought at Briggs' Second Hand Store. 37c

$1.00 WILL BE GIVEN to each of several schoolboys who will deliver copies of the Curtis publications to customers. Only schoolboys—clean, gentlemanly and ambitious—need apply. The $1.00 is in addition to liberal cash profits and many other advantages.
Apply to BENJAMIN GARRETT.

WARNERS BEND'S ECONOMY CENTER

Enameled Ware of All Kinds

Gray Enameled Ware
Blue, white lined Enameled
Ware
All White Enameled Ware

We are now showing a large and complete stock in these colors.

Bought Right and will be Priced Right.

We Will Save You Money
on Enameled Ware.

When the roof leaks
Apply a layer of

Malthoid Roofing

easily applied and sure of keeping the water out.

For Sale by

Skuse Hardware Co.

These Little Legs—

In their active, healthful, romping play, soon wear out their stockings unless Mother selects the kind that best resists their attempts. So we recommend to Mother that she choose

ARMOR PLATE Hosiery

They stand the pace best of any—other against tears—reinforced against wear—and rock good to the feet.

—Buy your Hose here and you KNOW you are getting the best.

Why pay interest on the money you spend?

We buy for cash.

You buy for cash.

We both save interest on our money

You get more for your $$$ here.

THE PEOPLES STORE