

FEBRUARY RECORDS ARE HERE

COME IN AND HEAR ALL THE LATEST RECORDS VICTROLAS $20 to $110.00 EASY PAYMENTS

Reed & Horton

NEW SPRING GOODS are on the way from New York

All the little odd lots and Winter Garments must be sold out before the new goods arrive.

Satteen Petticoats, extra quality, black and colors, sold elsewhere at $1.50 and $1.75, Our Price $1.25

Black Satteen Bloomers, heavy mercerized Satteen; sizes 4 to 14 years, 50c SPECIAL

Limited number of Ladies' Suits and Children's Coats at Less than Manufacturers' Cost.

The Peoples Store

The Store That Sells For Less

Miss Margaret Thompson returned from Burns yesterday evening.

Clyde McKay returned this morning from a business trip to Portland.

Mrs. M. W. Knickerbocker was a visitor in Bend, from Sisters, yesterday.

C. J. Stauffer came in from Stauffer yesterday and went on to Prineville today.

Mrs. A. J. Slaughter is in Metolius, where she will be the guest of her sister a week.

Mrs. W. C. Birdsall is back from British Columbia, where she went on a pleasure trip.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hudson are moving to Portland. They came to Bend last June.

Mrs. C. L. Warner was a passenger to The Dalles today. She had been here on a visit.

M. E. Martin was in from Gist yesterday arranging for his public sale, to be held February 26.

J. E. Turrell, of Portland, and J. L. Schad, of Salem, were in town yesterday and have gone on to Burns.

Mrs. Mabel Kline and small son, of Redmond, were in town yesterday on business, returning home this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Gilmore, of Millican, went to Lake today, taking with them Mrs. Love, who will teach school there, and her son.

Miss Inez Anderson, who has been staying with her sister, Mrs. W. C. Birdsall, left last night for Portland. She will attend school in that city.

Mrs. Luna Savage came in from Riley yesterday and went on to Wamie on the morning train. She has been spending the winter at the former place.

An automobile party composed of Aley Foss, of Spokane, Mr. and Mrs. Moom, J. F. Foss and James Foss, all from Terrebonne, passed yesterday in Bend.

B. F. Rife, who has been here from Shelton, North Dakota since Sunday looking over his property, left for Portland this morning. He will go east again shortly.

The Ladies' Aid of the First Scandinavian Lutheran church will meet Thursday at 2:30 p. m. at Mrs. B. Ferrell's home at the corner of Hawthorne and Harriman streets.

W. M. Cayton, of Redmond, has just had a letter from his son, Roy, now somewhere in France, saying that he is well. He enlisted last spring with the quartermaster's corps.

The meeting of the Parent-Teachers' association, which was postponed from last week, will be held tomorrow night in the high school. All parents of students are especially invited to attend.

L. L. Orr, of this city has just received word from one of his sons, Luther, stating that at the time of writing he was about to leave an Atlantic port. Another son who joined the navy with his brother last spring, left a Pacific port in December.

(From Monday's Daily.)

L. D. Low spent the day in Deschutes.

Dan Helsting was in from Metolius Saturday.

Miss Daisy Carter is visiting in Prineville.

J. B. Heyburn passed the day in The Dalles.

J. Harrington, of Opal City, was in town over night.

Mrs. W. R. Lawson, of Redmond, was visiting in town today.

H. C. Schumacher and W. N. Brown were in town Saturday from Redmond.

J. L. Walton is back in Bend after a six weeks' trip to Portland for his health.

Mrs. O. A. Thorson, who has been seriously ill recently, is much improved.

Mrs. Carl Johnson is in Portland, where she will spend a couple of months.

Miss Mabel Grant spent Sunday at her home in Lamonta, returning this morning.

J. W. Scott is back on his ranch at Deschutes after being here over the week-end.

Mrs. George Golden came in this morning from Redmond to spend the day in Bend.

J. B. Heyburn is away on a short trip to Spokane. He left on this morning's train.

M. Wayne Chase and J. B. Gates were in from Redmond today on school business.

Miss Eleanor Whitmore, who has been passing a week in Portland, returned this morning.

A. B. Cole, representative of the Underwood Typewriter Company, is in town for a few days.

J. H. Harris and A. H. Harris are in from Hemsted and will work here the remainder of the winter.

John Morell has gone to Portland to remain there permanently. He

$1.00 WILL BE GIVEN to each of several schoolboys who will deliver copies of the Curtis publications to customers. Only schoolboys—clean, gentlemanly and ambitious—need apply. The $1.00 is in addition to liberal cash profits and many other advantages. Apply to BENJAMIN GARSKE.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

Sigurd Follesen went to Prineville today.

John Minder is here from Portland looking over land.

F. L. Bayley, of Portland, is a visitor in town on government land business.

George S. Pearce, editor of the Madras Pioneer, is a business visitor in town today.

J. F. Short and two sons were in yesterday from Opal City, returning home last night.

Yesterday a boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Petrenovich. The baby is their fifth child.

Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Boughten, of Crescent, came through Bend today before going to The Dalles to visit.

Miss Belle Green will spend three weeks in The Dalles visiting her sister. She went north this morning.

J. Himes, of Seattle, who has been here on business connected with the lumber industry, went to Portland today.

J. E. Terrell, who has been here from Salem looking for a location for a carpenter shop, returned today. He may return in the spring.

W. G. Steele and family left this morning for Lewiston, Idaho, where they will settle down on a farm. They came here two months ago from Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Barker and son, John, are on their way to their old home at Handon. They lived in this city eight years, coming in 1912 from Coos county.

Mrs. A. R. Davis, of Prineville, returned home today after passing three weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Coyner. Her small son was with her.

The meeting for the formation of a poultry association, planned for tonight, has been postponed and will be held next week, Thursday, February 21, in the council room.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

Mrs. M. Taylor is in The Dalles.

F. E. Studebaker, of Redmond, was in town today.

Albert Mohler and family, of Redmond, spent the day in town.

Are You Ready FOR SPRING?

It's coming, for the robins are here! Spring cleaning is at hand and you will want your old furniture repaired and some new pieces to make the house spic and span. Investigate our Easy Payment Plan.

Come In---WE HAVE THE GOODS---See Us First

The Dining Room Chairs$2.15 up Tables$12.00 up Buffets$22.50 up SPECIAL! Sanitary Couches.....$7.50 Davenport$10.50 Dining Suites ..$34.75 and up. SPECIAL! for the kids. High chairs$2.25 Iron cribs$7.50 Kid's rockers$1.75	The Bed Room Bedsteads$8.00 up Dressers$13.00 up Chiffoniers ..$15.00 up SPECIAL! Ivory Bed Room Suite 5 pieces$59.50 Just what you want. The Kitchen Charter Oak Ranges, the Old Reliable, Special, at$69.50 Your Credit Is Good.	The Parlor Axm'ster Rugs $32.50 Brussels Rugs ..$24.00 Grass Rugs$11.00 SPECIAL! Library Tables ..$8.00 Chiffoniers$15.00 Linoleum, per yard.. 75c and up SPECIAL! The "Treasure" Kitchen Cabinet — Remember the wife! Only$14.50
---	--	--

Goods New and 2nd Hand---We Buy Your Old Furniture

BRING US Your Pictures and have them FRAMED.	THE Standard Furniture COMPANY Next to the Liberty Theatre. BEND, OREGON	WE WILL Repair Your Old Furniture SEE US!
--	--	---

You'll find at this store something new every day. Drop in any day and we will treat you right.

New Silk Petticoats

New Silk Flounce Petticoats, wear-ever tops in a wide range of colors Priced at $2.50

New Silk Waists

Our New Silk Waists are here--the quality kind Priced from $3.50 up

95c--KNITTING YARNS--95c

The best quality knitting yarn. 4-oz. hanks, special at 95c. Knitting Needles, 14-inch celluloid, each 25c.

Spring Dress Materials

We have received a beautiful collection of new patterns in 36-inch spring dress materials Per Yard 75c

Hurry in today and be fitted to that new pair of Queen Quality Shoes

STOP AND SHOP AT

MANNHEIMER BROTHERS

Where Everybody Trades

has been in Bend the past six months.

Miss Grace Riggs, of Redmond, visited Miss Mary Fryrear in Bend Sunday and returned to her home this morning.

Mrs. E. B. Adams came up Saturday from Redmond to visit her sister Mrs. E. R. Edmonds. She went back this morning.

Julius Opperman and family are new arrivals in Bend and will make their home here. They came in from Spokane yesterday.

Now is the Time to Be Careful.

Avoid imitations or substitutes, get the genuine Foley's Honey and Tar, and you have a cough medicine you can depend upon. It gives prompt relief, clears throat, loosens phlegm, soothes, heals. Checks coughs, colds, whooping cough, la grippe, bronchial coughs. Contains no opiates. Sold everywhere.—Adv.

Who is Piercy & Sons, Tumalo? Adv.49p

DR. TURNER

Eye Specialist of Portland will be in Bend again Tuesday and Wednesday February 26 and 27, at Thorsen's Jewelry Store

CONSULT HIM

WARNERS

BEND'S ECONOMY CENTER

Economize on These

Buy Them Here

Chinaware	Tinware
Crockery	Enameldware
Glassware	Kitchenware
Silverware	Cutlery

Remember we Specialize at these Prices, 5c-10c-15c-25c