

Our Prescription Department is Fully Prepared to Fill Any Doctor's Prescription.

PRESCRIPTIONS
CAREFULLY COMPOUNDED
BY REGISTERED PHARMACISTS
ONLY PURE DRUGS USED
REED & HORTON

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

(From Wednesday's Daily.)
Miss Ada Job is visiting her brother at Sisters.
C. E. Shepherd, of Portland, passed yesterday in town on business.
Miss Meiba Baker and Mrs. Mary Dyer left last night for Seattle.
Fred A. Shonquest was in from Big Meadows yesterday on business.
Vernon A. Forbes returned this morning from a trip to Portland.
B. B. Hanks, of Portland, has come here to work at the foundry.
W. E. Lawson, of John Day, was in town on county business today.
Myron H. Symons and small daughter returned last night from Portland.
Mrs. E. O. Ward left last night for Portland. She will not return to this city.
Roy Gilson went down to Portland last night. He will return some time this week.
Mrs. M. Crawford and son came in yesterday to visit her aunt, Mrs. M. A. Houghtaling.
Miss Cora Tuffe is in Seattle spending a month with her sister. She left Bend last night.
Mrs. E. M. Miller was in from Terrebonne yesterday visiting friends and attending to business affairs.
A marriage license was issued yesterday for Otto R. Erlanson and Miss Esther Larson, both of Bend.
Roy Smith, fireman on the Oregon Trunk, is taking a six weeks' vacation in order to visit relatives in Indiana.
Mrs. Tom Torkelson, of Spokane, arrived in Bend last night and will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Torkelson.
T. A. Donner and W. T. Phillips, from the O-W. R. & N. engineering department in Portland, were in town yesterday.
Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Partridge, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Seth Stookey, began their trip home to Wilbur, Washington, this morning.
W. E. Barker is back from a trip to Portland, where he accompanied his wife, who is ill. She will remain in the city until her health has improved.

Mrs. Pearl Rhodes and two children, from Stauffer, have been visiting Mrs. Emil Nelson recently. They went on to Redmond this morning.
New arrivals in town are Mr. and Mrs. George Carpenter, of Birmingham, Washington. They will visit Mrs. L. J. Jones and may later decide to live here.
F. V. Rose and family moved to Madras last night, Mr. Rose having taken over a barber shop there. The family has lived in Bend the past seven months.
Sheriff Roberts and Mrs. Roberts came in last night from Prairie City, where they have been visiting relatives. Mrs. Roberts has recovered from her recent illness.
Miss Cora Baxter, of Criterion, and her little niece, Della Rice, left here for Two Springs this morning. Miss Baxter has been the guest of Mrs. B. Rice, of Bend, the past ten days.
Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Albrecht and Mrs. H. Phillips were here yesterday from Silver Lake. They went on last night to Seattle and Portland. Mrs. Phillips will visit her sister in the latter place.
(From Tuesday's Daily.)
George Jones was in Prineville today.
F. S. Stanley returned yesterday from Portland.
Vernon A. Forbes has been in Portland several days.
G. L. Paxton was in from Madras yesterday buying wood.
Miss Beatrice Bertrand, of Portland, is passing a few days here.
H. J. Overturf spent the week-end in Portland, returning this morning.
Lee Riggs has gone to Redmond and Powell Butte on a business trip.
Ernest Frank brought some dairy produce in from Deschutes yesterday.
W. J. Buckley, of Redmond, was in Bend yesterday on county business.
John Adkinson is making a short trip to La Grande. He plans to return in a week.
H. H. Davies is in Redmond attending the irrigation school, which opened yesterday.
A. M. Couch came up from Tumalo yesterday to report to the county court on road work.
Sidney Wilson left today for Elmore, Washington. He will return to Bend in the fall.
Mr. and Mrs. Ira Eagles are back at their home in Metolius. They visited in Bend some time.
C. H. Miller and J. L. Galther took two degrees in the Royal Arch Masonic order Monday night.
George C. Mickles went to Wasco this morning. He will remain there through the spring and summer.
Rev. L. E. Folkenberg, who has been here conducting Adventist revivals, went to Portland last night.

Glenn Slack came into Bend yesterday with a broken arm. He had injured it while cranking his motor car.
George Clark, representative of the medical association credit bureau in Portland, is down here on business today.
Denton Burdick and Jared Moore were in Bend yesterday on business connected with the Redmond thrift stamp campaign.
Arthur Emblem, of La Pine, left Bend Sunday night to enlist in the Twentieth Engineers. He is going as a steam engine mechanic.
Tomorrow night the topic of the Seventh Day Adventist meeting in Red Men hall will be "What Constitutes the Complete Gospel."
Organization of a chicken association in this city will take place Thursday night. All interested should come to the council room on that date.
Mrs. John Welshalla and daughter came in this morning from Vancouver and will take a house in Kenwood. Her husband is on the S. P. & S. trains coming into Bend.
Probably six cars will carry members of the Knights of Pythias lodge to Prineville tomorrow evening to join in the celebration of the founding of the Crook county lodge on February 19, 1864.
Miss Gertrude Carlin was married to Chester Blodgett yesterday afternoon at the home of Rev. J. M. Nelson. Mrs. H. E. Nordeen and Mrs. Irma Nelson were witnesses. The couple will make their home in Kenwood.

A passenger on the northbound train this morning was Mrs. J. D. Rogers, who has been here visiting her daughter, Mrs. Earl B. Hueston. She will stop in The Dalles tonight before going on to her home at Silverton.
Any person desiring to take the civil service examination for typist or stenographer, who cannot arrange to do so in the day time, will be permitted to report at night. Applicants should notify the local civil service representative if they wish such an arrangement made.
Visitors at the J. W. Day home are Mrs. G. W. Triplow and Mrs. E. E. Teape. Mrs. Triplow is Mr. Day's mother and resides in Weiser, Idaho. The other guest is his wife's mother from Kellogg, Idaho. Miss Kathryn Day, who has been living with the latter the past year, came with her to see her brother Donald, who has been ill. The child is now improving.
(From Monday's Daily.)
John W. McCoy, of Kansas City, passed Sunday in Bend.
J. B. Knapp returned this morning from a trip to San Francisco.
Charles J. Hindman was in from Sisters today on business.
Alex Thompson came up from The Dalles last night on business.

Mrs. W. Salsberry left for Weiser, Idaho, to visit relatives there six weeks.
Miss Marian Lawrence has recovered from a recent illness and is back at her work.
Gilbert Poe concluded a two weeks' visit here and returned home to Metolius this morning.
Mrs. E. Klinefelter came in from The Dalles last night to be with her son at the Pine Tree mill.
Chester A. Blodgett and Miss Gertrude Carlin, both of Bend, had a marriage license issued today.
Myron H. Symons is expected back from Seattle tomorrow. He has been away since Wednesday on business.
Miss Lucile Abbott, who has been a guest at the E. M. Thompson home recently, will leave for Portland tonight.
F. M. Oldenberg is a new arrival from Montana. He is going to Sisters, where he will be connected with the saw mill.

Dr. U. C. Coe is passing several days at Camp Lewis on professional business. He will return the latter part of the week.
Charles C. Otto, national bank examiner from San Francisco, passed the day in Bend making his regular call at the banks.
Myron Powell left for Mare Island Saturday night. He was here on a furlough visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Powell.
Mrs. L. C. Catt and daughter, Agnes, are on their way to Athabasca Landing, Alberta, where they were called by the illness of Mrs. Catt's father.
Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Jones are receiving congratulations on the birth of a baby girl Saturday night at the Bend Surgical hospital. She is their first child.
James T. King was in from the Fort Rock country and went out today to Corvallis. He has sold his farm and is going to go on another in the Willamette valley.
Coming here on a tour of inspection of the S. P. & S. line, three members of the valuation bureau are spending the day in town. In the party are Paul McKay, assistant superintendent, M. Kincaid, chief of the bureau, and W. Williams, chief engineer of the road.

CHAUTAUQUA TO BE HERE EARLY IN JULY
(From Wednesday's Daily.)
Dates for the 1918 appearance of the Ellison-White Chautauqua in Bend have not yet been definitely set, says a letter just received by the Commercial Club, but it is very likely that it will be here the first week in July.
The principal part of the club correspondence for the week has consisted of inquiries concerning lands in this territory. Four writers are prospective purchasers while another wishes to take up a homestead.

Unusually Smart
Silk Waists
in Crepe de Chine and Georgette--neatly embroidered or trimmed with lace. Priced
$3.50 to $9.75

Silk Hosiery
Phoenix Silk Hosiery in all the wanted shades Havana, dark tan, silver, battleship gray, khaki and olive brown. Priced at 90c and $1.50

New Silk Camisoles
in Crepe de Chine and Wash Satin--daintily trimmed with filet lace. Priced at $1.25, $1.75, $2.00, $2.25

Queen Quality Shoes Gossard Corsets

STOP AND SHOP AT MANNHEIMER BROTHERS
Where Everybody Trades

IMPROVED FARM SOLD.
(From Wednesday's Daily.)
Sale of the T. G. Garrison ranch six miles north of Bend to F. E. Toomey, a foreman at the Brooks-Scanlon mill, was completed early this week through the Eastes-Anderson Farm Land Company. Horses, cattle and farm machinery are included in the deal. All of the 40-acre tract is improved.
Now is the Time to Be Careful.
Avoid imitations or substitutes, get the genuine Foley's Honey and Tar, and you have a cough medicine you can depend upon. It gives prompt relief, clears throat, loosens phlegm, soothes, heals. Checks coughs, colds, whooping cough, la grippe, bronchial coughs. Contains no opiates. Sold everywhere.—Adv.
Who is Piercy & Sons, Tumalo? Adv. 49p

$1.00 WILL BE GIVEN to each of several schoolboys who will deliver copies of the Curtis publications to customers. Only schoolboys—clean, gentlemanly and ambitious—need apply. The $1.00 is in addition to liberal cash profits and many other advantages. Apply to BENJAMIN GARSKE.

And the next day you will go back to McBride's because the Lunches served there are served just right.

McBride's Confectionery
Oregon Street Phone Red 1751 O'Kane Bldg.

PAY CASH AND CARRY POLICY

Was adopted by this store when it was started. We have always stood by this policy.

THE U. S. GOVERNMENT
now advocates this policy for all stores as a war measure---

Eliminate Credits----Eliminate Delivery
Eliminate Losses -----Eliminate Waste

These are the very reasons our prices average lower than is possible by a Credit--Delivery Policy.

SAVE THE DIFFERENCE AND BUY THRIFT STAMPS WE SELL THEM

WARNERS
BEND'S ECONOMY CENTER

AN UP-TO-DATE BOYS' CLOTHING STORE!

That is what we have here, we can prove it. Next time your boy needs a suit bring him here and try our suits on him. Examine the materials, workmanship and then let your own judgment rule. Business is business--that's all we ask.

M. P. CASHMAN
BEND'S LEADING CLOTHIER

DR. TURNER
Eye Specialist of Portland will be in Bend again Tuesday and Wednesday February 26 and 27, at Thorsen's Jewelry Store
CONSULT HIM

You will want to see these New Spring Waists-- They are truly the most attractive and the most distinctive lot we have ever shown, and the prices are so reasonable. All the New Spring Colors in Georgette, Crepe de Chine and Washable Taffeta.
$3.85 to $10.00

The Peoples Store
"The Store That Sells For Less"

