

CORN-COLLODE PENSLAR

A GUARANTEED LIQUID
CORN REMOVER

25c PER BOX

REED & HORTON

THE REXALL STORE

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Andros went to Redmond today.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gould are the proud parents of a baby boy born today.

William Douglas was in Terrebonne today looking for several stray horses.

E. A. Stevens, of Held, was in town over night. He came in from a trip to Portland.

J. A. Engleman and B. Paul passed the day in Redmond and will come back on tonight's train.

W. O. Harriman was in town from Fort Rock in order to have repairs made on his automobile.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Dunn have moved to Meda, Oregon. They lived in Bend several months with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Shafer, who passed a few days with their daughter, Mrs. A. Kutzman, returned to Portland today.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Arnold and son have gone back to their former home at Vulcan, Alberta. They spent the winter in Bend.

Miss Irene Larson and Miss Myrtle Morse, of Madras, passed several days here on a pleasure trip. They returned to their home this morning.

Miss Mary Frances Cox, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. K. E. Sawyer since last November, went back to her home in Portland today.

Miss Mabel Short, who visited in Bend two days, went home to Opal City this morning. Miss Morna Farand has gone with her to spend a few days there.

W. E. Smith, of Burns, came in from a trip north yesterday. He had intended to start for his home during the day but automobile troubles prevented him from leaving.

Mrs. Ollie McDonald, wife of the United States Commissioner at Nenana, Alaska, who has been the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Foley, left last night for the north.

The six days old baby son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hiley died yesterday of spinal bifida. The child was born on February 20 and its death was from an illness rarely found.

Having sold his home at 1627 Newport avenue, Ed. Clark this morning left for Payette, Idaho, where he expects to live permanently. James Powers is the purchaser of his property.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

Earl Wood went to Deschutes today.

Judge W. D. Barnes was in Redmond today.

Harold McFadden was in Terrebonne today.

Vernon A. Bell, of Redmond, was in Bend today.

W. H. Martin came in today from a trip to Portland.

W. E. Walther, of The Dalles, drove into Bend today.

P. L. Jones and F. S. Farren were in Madras today on business.

J. Kauffman is visiting in Stanfield and will return to Bend shortly.

F. P. Drake is in from Hemsted today purchasing goods for his store.

Mrs. C. H. Wheeler, of Pendleton, is here visiting her sister, Mrs. Jack Horton.

Mrs. J. M. Witteman has gone to Portland to visit her sister a week or ten days.

Mrs. G. J. Addink is spending the remainder of the week with relatives in Vancouver.

Rev. H. C. Hartranft passed the day in Redmond on work for the food administration.

E. G. Williams, who has been employed in one of the local mills, has gone to Spokane to work.

Mrs. Herman Hansen is passing two weeks in Portland with relatives. She went out this morning.

C. A. Stephenson, prominent rancher from Rivers, was in Bend last night before leaving for Portland.

Frank Measingale is on his way to Hollister, California, where he will spend six weeks with relatives.

The topic of the Seventh Day Adventist meeting tomorrow night in Red Men hall is "The Bible Sabbath."

J. N. Hunter is back from California, where he has been during the illness of his brother, who died recently.

P. B. Davis and Mrs. Kelf were in from Sisters shopping yesterday. Mr. Davis also had some dental work attended to.

Miss Clarice Beaver, of Redmond, who has been the guest of Miss Elsie Wilson since Friday night, returned home today.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Myer, of Portland, are in Bend a few days. They have been looking over land in the Fort Rock district.

A. M. Holton, of the U. S. navy, went through Bend last night on his way back to San Francisco. He had been visiting his parents at La Pine.

Mrs. N. Yingling came in this week from her homestead at Silver Lake to join her husband, who is employed at the McKinley-Hampson mill.

Harry Gleason is running as conductor on the Oregon Trunk now, replacing W. H. McGrath, who has been changed to the daylight Fallbridge-Metolius run.

E. H. Imhof arrived here this morning from Tucson, Arizona, to relieve F. G. Hale as switchman in the local railroad yards. The latter will go to Vancouver, Washington.

While on a four days' furlough from Vancouver Barracks, R. J. Byland visited friends in Bend, returning to his post today. He is in the aviation section of the signal corps and with Bert Rogers, another Bend man, was transferred two months ago from Camp Lewis.

(From Monday's Daily.)

L. C. Whitted spent Sunday in Redmond.

J. H. Haner returned yesterday evening from Prineville.

J. K. Irby and C. O. Gildea came in from Kent yesterday.

Roy Gilson came in last night from a short trip to Portland.

Miss Mabel Grant spent Sunday with friends in Prineville.

Mrs. Dave Engle is visiting with relatives in Spokane three weeks.

F. L. Bayley, government land inspector from Portland, is in town.

Frank Hearn is on his way to Buhl, Idaho, today. He will live there for some time.

Mrs. F. W. Taylor and daughter are in Portland passing several weeks with friends.

Rev. Butler, of Hermiston, came in Saturday evening to hold services in the Catholic church Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Williams, of Powell Butte, spent the week end in Bend, returning home today.

Miss Mary Fryrear spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fryrear, in Sisters.

Mrs. M. E. Stone, of Paisley, spent last night in town before going to Weiser, Idaho, where she is moving.

D. A. McArthur and Frank Rice, who came up from Two Springs last Saturday, returned home this morning.

Word has been received here that a baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Montell Coe in Portland on January 19.

Mrs. Guy Shelby came in from Elktion yesterday to join her husband at Camp 5. Mr. Shelby was in town to meet her.

Clyde M. McKay and A. Whisnant returned early this morning from a trip to Burns, where they spent several days on business.

Miss Gladys Brandenburgh is here from Portland visiting with her parents a few days. She may return the latter part of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Magill are receiving congratulations on the arrival of an eight pound boy yesterday morning. He has been named Lloyd, junior.

John Hayes, of Bend, and M. P. Eberley, of New Orleans, came in yesterday from Silver Lake. Mr. Eberley is spending several months in the west on a pleasure trip.

Mrs. W. H. Bond today learned that her son, Shannon, who is with the Twentieth Engineers, had arrived safely in France. For awhile it was thought that he was on board the Tuscania.

H. H. De Armond is in Salem attending a session of the Desert Land Board, which will meet members of the water users' association on the C. O. I. project tomorrow to pass on the formation of an irrigation district. He will return Wednesday.

After spending six weeks in the east visiting relatives, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Brosterhaus returned last night to Bend. They had been in Minnesota and North Dakota, where they found the temperature extremely cold.

(From Saturday's Daily)

Mrs. Maurice Cashman went to Gateway today.

Mrs. M. L. Norton, of Redmond, was in town yesterday on business.

Dr. Stowell returned last night from Michigan, where he has been for the last four weeks.

Mrs. M. Connelly, of Deschutes, passed last night with Miss Eleanor Whittemore, of this city.

Mrs. George Tripow is on her way back to Weiser, Idaho, after visiting her son, J. W. Day, a week.

Mrs. P. R. Richardson and baby went to Portland this morning. They will remain there permanently.

A new arrival last night is an infant son born to Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Grimes at the Bend Surgical hospital.

A message received from Dennis Hunt, of Lower Bridge, yesterday, said that he is now in Omaha, Nebraska.

Marion L. Martin came in from Gist yesterday. He had a sale at his ranch on February 20, disposing of much of his stock at excellent prices.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Knickerbocker were in yesterday from Plainview on a shopping trip. They took their two daughters back home for the week end.

Otto R. Erlandsen and Miss Esther Larsen were married on February 20, by Rev. J. H. Brono, at the Brono home. The witnesses were George Erlandsen and Mrs. R. M. Brono.

Mrs. Martha E. Hindman came in from Prineville yesterday morning and went on to her home at Sisters. She has been receiving medical attention in the former place the past three months and is much improved.

Highest cash price paid for all kinds of hides, pelts, wool, furs, at Briggs' Second Hand Store. 37tc

(From Friday's Daily.)

A. J. Slaughter is in Metolius two days on business.

Miss Bernice Morgan is spending the week-end in Portland.

Miss Alma Westermeyer is in Salem spending a few weeks.

Louis Van Orman is here from Portland today on business.

Dr. U. C. Coe returned yesterday from a trip to Camp Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Smock are in Culver with Mr. Smock's father, who is ill.

ANNOUNCING

--the early arrival of the season's smartest vogue in

Spring Dresses

Foulards--Taffetas and Serges

Specially Priced from

$14.50 to $26.50

Just in--New Cooperative

Shoes for Men

the kind you ought to wear.

Leather has no substitute--neither has these shoes. Made by skilled workmen for men who want either style or conservatism. We have them in all leathers and lasts. Priced from

$7.00 to $9.00

STOP AND SHOP AT

MANNHEIMER BROTHERS

Where Everybody Trades

And the next day you will go back to McBride's because the Lunches served there are served just right.

McBride's Confectionery

Oregon Street Phone Red 1751 O'Kane Bldg.

House Dresses & Aprons

More than thirty different styles to select from and every style in a variety of colors and patterns. Dresses and Aprons to please every woman. Some of striped gingham and plain chambrays. Others of high grade percales, in light and dark colors--

Aprons..... 25c to $2.25

Dresses..... $1.00 and Upwards

Official Red Cross Aprons..... $1.35

Get Your Red Cross Aprons Now and Do Your Bit.

THE PEOPLES STORE THE STORE THAT SELLS FOR LESS

WARNERS

BEND'S ECONOMY CENTER

FRENCH HATS FOR LADIES

Are the Practical, Sensible, Economical
Headgear for these Early Spring Days.

Silk $1.98 Worsted $1.89

Formal Opening of Spring Millinery

March 14th-15th-16th

Matt Duffy, roadmaster on the O.-W. R. & N. line, passed last night in Bend.

Mrs. Myrtle Wright is expected in from Portland on tonight's train to visit her sister, Mrs. J. R. Todd.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Jones have gone to Portland for a two weeks' visit with their daughter. They left last night.

Mrs. H. S. Williams, who has been the house guest of her sister, Mrs. E. W. Carlon, returned to Portland today.

Mrs. E. G. Snyder, who has been in Bend since Wednesday on business, went back to Prineville this morning.

John Minder, of Klamath Falls, spent the past week in town and went on today to Stanfield, where he will stay permanently.

Members of the cattle association using the forest range in the Pine Mountain region will hold a meeting tomorrow at Millican.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. French, of Grass Valley, returned to their home today. They have passed a few days with their nephew, A. L. French.

Miss Mabel Burroughs and her sister, Mrs. J. M. Phillips, went to Portland on this morning's train. Their mother and another sister went down a few days ago. They do not expect to return.

Max Crandall and his staff of assistants, including Miss Bessie Robert, J. T. Lucas and Clarence Bixby, came in from Prineville this morning to audit the county books. They may also look over the city records. Mr. Crandall is an expert accountant.

A. Crato, with his son and wife, arrived in Bend this morning and will go on to their homestead 50 miles south of here. They have come from Seattle, where Mr. Crato resided for 15 years. Mr. and Mrs. Crato were just married this week.

All kinds of hides, furs, pelts, wool bought at Briggs' Second Hand Store. 37tc

CARD OF THANKS.

I desire to express to the people of Bend my appreciation for the sympathy extended me in my recent bereavement. I desire especially to thank the men of the Union Pacific and the Western Union for their valuable assistance.

DR. R. D. STOWELL.

Who is Piracy & Sons, Tamalo? Adv.49p

We buy all kinds of hides, pelts, furs, wool. Briggs' Second Hand Store. 37tc

$1.00 WILL BE GIVEN to each of several schoolboys who will deliver copies of the Curtis publications to customers. Only schoolboys--clean, gentlemanly and ambitious--need apply. The $1.00 is in addition to liberal cash profits and many other advantages. Apply to BENJAMIN GARRKE.