HERE IS THE P

The Prize Campaign organized by The Bulletin, is undoubtedly one of the fairest and most liberal subscription campaigns ever conducted for the purpose of increasing the circulation of any newspaper in the state of Oregon.

Instead of employing a score of solicitors at a cost of hundreds of dollars, The Bulletin proposes to give the people of this section the opportunity to earn this money by giving away hundreds of dollars in valuable prizes and cash to those who will take part in the work of boosting the circulation of this newspaper.

Everybody who joins the Campaign and continues to take an active part throughout the Campaign will be handsomely rewarded according to the results of the efforts made. You get a prize or a cash commission of ten per cent.

SUREST WAY TO WIN

After reading all about The Bulletin's great offer, it is but natural to conclude that you

We Expect the Best Workers in This Prosperous Community to Take Part in this Gigantic Campaign. WHY NOT BE ONE OF THEM? The value and quality of the prizes is guaranteed by The Bulletin and by the merchants from whom purchased, to be just as advertised, and no values inflated.

RULES OF CAMPAIGN

Any lady, married or single, of respectable standing is eligible as a candidate. The Campaign Manager reserves the right to reject any objectionable nomination.

No candidate will be permitted to transfer her votes to another. In case of a tie vote for any of the prizes, each candidate tying is to share equal value in the prize tied for.

Any questions or controversies that may arise are to be settled by the Campaign Manager, and his decision will be final and conclusive.

Any salaried employe or relative of an employe of The Bulletin is not eligible as a candidate. Carrier boys and agents will not be considered as an employe.

No special favors will be shown any candidates; each and every one will be assisted alike by the management in securing votes.

The management will not be responsible for typographical errors and guarantees to make corrections in the following issue, should any such error take place.

The method of voting will be subject to the approval of the Campaign Manager at all times.

The Bulletin reserves the right to make any changes to the conditions of the Campaign that may be deemed necessary in the interest of the candidates and success of the Campaign.

In accepting nominations, all candidates agree to abide by the conditions above named.
