SIX WILL RUN FOR TREASURER.

selection of Pat. Tom Neuhausen is managing Senator McNary's campaign, with the aid of the senator's brother John of Salem, who is something of an astute politician himself, in a quiet way. Elbert Bede, Cottage Grove editor, and A. H. Harris, Portland newspaperman, are said to have $6,000 of somebody's money to spread around for S. B. Huston, another Republican senatorial candidate. Bede is running for state senator himself and is supporting Gus Moser for governor. With these multifarious duties he has bitten off a rather big chunk for one slim shouldered newspaper editor to chew, but Bede is a noble scion of a noble house politically. He is a son of J. Adam Bede, erstwhile famous congressional humorist, and perhaps some of his dad's humor figures in his plan to run for office himself and also boost the fortunes of two such worthies as Gus Moser and S. B. Huston.

Linn Has Big Job.
 Another sturdy henchman of Stanfield is Jim Linn, well known Democrat of Marion county. He has taken upon his shoulders the heavy burden of trying to get Stanfield "by" in McNary's own county, which will probably be some job for a Democrat to tackle all by himself, although let it be known, at that, there are some strong Stanfield supporters among some good citizens right here in Marion county. But this is only to be expected when it is considered that McNary has been a leading lawyer and strong in politics for a great many years in this section. Jim Linn is well known over in the Central Oregon country, where he owns some land which he visits semi-occasionally. Regardless of his being a Democrat, Linn is well liked in his home territory, but it is doubtful if he can rustle up enough strength to make any appreciable dent in McNary's political armor here.

Gossip Is Conflicting.
 Speaking about Stanfield's chance, conflicting reports are heard from the various sections of Western and Southern Oregon, which he has visited. Some say he has been going strong, while others say his appearance hasn't even caused a ripple.

One thing is certain that Stanfield is operating a campaign a little along brass band lines, while McNary is reaching a large number of voters by letter and by speedy action in Congress. Stanfield has visited personally every county in this end of the state and expects to visit them again. There is no doubt that Bob is affable, chummy and pleasant and has a broad smile. The fact that he has two or three millions tucked away somewhere may hurt him and it may help him. It is certain that a large number of people like to shake hands with a millionaire. When they go home they tell the folks that "that there Bob Stanfield is a great friend of mine. I was just up he street talking with Bob and he told me," and so on, et cetera. The fact that Robert has been a regular little accumulator will not hurt him in that direction, but, on the other hand, there are numerous voters who dislike the idea of his having so much wool stored away in the warehouses and so much coin stored away in the banks. From the looks of things he will have to separate himself from considerable of the coin before the campaign is over, and probably considerable of the wool to make up for the hole made in the pile of coin. But with Robert and Louis Simpson and a few of the other boys in the game it all tends to help the newspaper man, which is considered as a decidedly silvery lining.

But for all of that the folks over this way are satisfied that McNary is going to land top side up when the votes are counted. From a two months' away view it seems certain McNary will carry the Western Oregon counties by a good margin and will come out of Multnomah county strong. The quiet campaign that he is making is the same kind that has landed a number of fast working politicians into jobs in Oregon before this and apparently it will repeat.

Louis No Whirlwind.
 Probably half a dozen or more Coos county people have been in Salem during the past week and they bring surprising news. They say that Louis Simpson is not going to scare up the whirlwind in that county that the newspapers down that way say he will. If there is anything in the old proverb, he should make something of a whirlwind down there, because he certainly has been showing the wind in his best approved oratorical style.

But, getting down to brass tacks, these men say that Louis might be treated with a surprise. They assert he no doubt will get a big complimentary vote, but there are chances of his not even carrying his own territory. These reports have caused a vast amount of tongue wagging around the capitol, and this is all the more true because some of the men bringing the reports are mighty good men down in the dairy country.

Women Worst Enemies.
 For some unknown reason many of the women seem to have their little hatchets out for Louis, they say, and from others comes the statement that the fact of his being an employer of labor in the lumber mills is not going to aid him with the lumberjacks. There has been a big influx of new lumberjacks into that country during the past year and many of them never heard of Mr. Simpson before, but since arriving have heard about his home out at Shore Acres and know his affiliation with the lumbering interests.

However true these suppositions may be, the fact remains that a number of good citizens from the southwestern corner of the state say that Louis is living up to the adage about the prophet in his own country and to politicians here these assertions have come as the surprise of all surprises so far in the campaign.

A Short But Strong Statement.
 Women with backache, rheumatic pains, sore muscles, stiff joints or other symptoms of kidney trouble should read this statement from Mrs. S. C. Small, Clayton, N. M.: "Foley Kidney Pills have done me more good than all other medicines." They strengthen weak kidneys and banish sleep-disturbing bladder ailments. Sold everywhere. Adv.
