

J. ALTON THOMPSON SEEKS NOMINATION

Would Be County School Superintendent Another Term—Interested in War Work.

J. Alton Thompson, at present county school superintendent, has announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination to the same office at the coming primaries. He has been prominently connected with educational circles, having been engaged in pedagogical work the past 30 years.

Coming here from Flushing, Michigan, where he was superintendent of the city schools, he organized the high school at Tumalo 10 years ago. Later he accomplished a similar purpose at Redmond. Just previous to his appointment when Deschutes county was formed, he was farming at Tumalo.

Mr. Thompson is much interested in the patriotic work being accomplished through his office, the war duties which have fallen to it forming more than half of the business of the superintendent. Among these are the direction of Junior Red Cross work, distribution of war savings stamps, advertising the Liberty loan, organizing industrial clubs and assisting the food administration. In fact, the county school superintendent's office has recently been the principal medium in bringing many of these interests before the out-of-town residents.

HANER ANNOUNCES HIS CANDIDACY

Present Incumbent of County Clerkship Seeks Republican Nomination—Promises Attention to Duties.

Announcement of his candidacy for the Republican nomination for county clerk was made today by J. H. Haner, present incumbent of the office by appointment of the county court on the division of the county from Crook in 1917. Mr. Haner has been a resident of Bend for the past four years, moving here from Prineville in 1914.

As the first county clerk of Deschutes county Mr. Haner has had the extra work connected with starting the office from nothing and at the same time has overseen the transcribing of the county records in Prineville and done the greater part of the clerical work connected with the local draft board. In announcing his candidacy Mr. Haner promises, if nominated and elected, the same careful attention to the duties of his office as given in the past.

EIGHT MORE DAYS AND BIG EXTRA VOTE OFFER CLOSES

All Entitled to Votes.

Some candidates do not understand that they are entitled to votes for making back collections. Votes are issued on all subscription payments, new or old, whether they are paying up arrears or in advance.

New and Old Subscriptions.

Some candidates seem to have difficulty in determining the difference between "old" and "new" subscribers. All one needs to do is to find out if the party was receiving The Bulletin on the day this campaign was started. In every case where the party was receiving the paper on that day, even though it may have stopped since, he or she is an "old" subscriber. Only those who have subscribed since March 7 are "new."

Open Evenings.

For the benefit of those who are not able to get to the office during business hours, the campaign department of The Bulletin will remain open evenings until 8 o'clock.

Future Subscriptions.

Candidates may find in some cases friends who wish to help them in the campaign by subscribing for The Bulletin, but are already taking a paper which is paid in advance and do not desire to receive more than one paper in their home at the same time. The management has arranged to accept and issue votes on all such subscriptions and the paper to start at any future date the subscriber may designate.

Don't Hold Subscriptions.

IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO HOLD BACK YOUR SUBSCRIPTIONS UN-

TIL YOU HAVE SECURED $25.00 WORTH IN ORDER TO SECURE CREDIT ON THE OFFER. Send subscriptions in as fast as secured, as a correct account of all subscription payments turned in by each candidate will be kept by the campaign manager, and after the offer closes we will mail you the extra votes you earn.

All Will Win.

Bear in mind that all who fail to win one of the regularly listed prizes will be given a cash commission of 10 per cent. on all collections that they make during this campaign. There are no losers under this arrangement.

Get In It Today.

Study the list of contestants as they appear in today's paper and if your town or locality is not now represented by a candidate making an active effort to get subscriptions, fill out the nomination blank found in the campaign advertisement in this issue and send to the campaign department. As a special inducement to contestants we will allow them 15,000 votes in addition to the regular votes when they send their first subscription payment. Get started so that you can take advantage of this 15,000 vote coupon, as it will not appear much longer.

FARM LAND TO BE DEVELOPED

istence of the deposit has long been known and it has been worked occasionally, but only recently has the project been gone into thoroughly and steps taken for its commercial development.

At the present time a crew under S. P. Cathro, superintendent of the company, is at work removing the earth overlaying the deposit and excavating for a mill. According to Mr. Cathro, the mill will employ some 20 men this summer and by next year there will be employment for 100.

Make Inspection.

The deposit is 40 feet thick and is estimated to amount to about 5,000,000 tons. Although there are about 250 deposits of a like nature in Oregon, this one has been selected for development because of its unusual purity and ease of production. From the mill, where the silica will be ground and the slight impurities removed, it will be taken by truck to Terrebonne for shipment.

A party of Bend men consisting of C. S. Hudson, A. Whisnant, C. M. McKay and R. W. Sawyer inspected the diatomite operations yesterday and were taken over the Long Hollow ranch by Mr. Miner.

Fifteen Years Ago This Week

John Steidl and his brother-in-law, Mr. Tweet, came in Wednesday from Portland and way points, including Prineville, where they were held up by the Crooked river flood. Mr. Steidl was very anxious to get home, so he built a bateau in which to ferry his wagon and effects across the torrent. His scow was not large and strong enough, however, and it sank, losing some of the goods which Mr. Steidl was bringing to Bend.

Max Lueddemann of Antelope, the proprietor of the Bulletin, and Fred N. Wallace, the lanky sage of Pine Hollow, were victors in Bend on Friday and Saturday of last week. Mr. Lueddemann expressed himself as highly pleased with the outlook here, and Mr. Wallace said the outlook would have tickled him to death if it had not been so cloudy. He hopes to come again soon when conditions are more favorable. Mr. Wallace was here just before Lava Butte erupted, and is very anxious to visit that region again in order to note the changes in the earth's complexion and features. He says he heard the report from afar, but that the "hot air," smoke and general effluvia were as nothing compared to the outpourings of the Oregon Irrigation Congress—and Mr. Wallace knows.

The entertainment at the school house on Saturday evening was an unqualified, howling, uproarious success, both regarding the entertaining ability of the school master and his flock and from a financial standpoint.

Following the program, in which Mr. Hampton, Miss Iva West, Charles Low, A. H. Kennedy, Miss Marion West and Miss Maude Vandever took part, Mr. Charles Cotter auctioned off the baskets which had been prepared by the ladies with such good success that after the last one had been sold the sum of $35 had found its way into the school master's pockets and a fine nucleus for a school library is assured.

A part of the program not down on the schedule took place after the visitors had stowed away the contents of the baskets. A "Donnybrook" riot was nearly precipitated outside the door and if it had not been for the cooler counsel of some of the older heads a great deal of hair, whiskers and gore would have been contributed for the benefit of the library fund.

PINEHURST WINS SPELLING MATCH

Many Attend Contest—Union Sunday School Gives Pleading Program.

PINEHURST, April 3.—The spelling contest between the schools of Tumalo and Pinehurst, which was given at Pinehurst Saturday night, was attended by about 70 people. The pupils of both schools acquitted themselves in a very creditable manner, and for a time the issue seemed doubtful, but the close showed Pinehurst victorious with a score of 11 to Tumalo's 9.

A Conversation

Between Mr. Doubtful and Mr. Right

Mr. Doubtful: "I don't see how I can buy any more Liberty Bonds. I bought all I could last fall. I'm not a rich man and I don't think it's fair or just to expect me to do anything more than I have done."

Mr. Right: "Let's see—your next door neighbor's boy enlisted, didn't he?"

Mr. Doubtful: "Yes, he's over in France now. Mighty fine, stalwart boy, that!"

Mr. Right: "Exactly, and some day that splendid boy, the pride of his parents' hearts, may go 'over the top' in a gallant charge, stop a German bullet, and fall in the mud and debris of No Man's Land. Isn't that asking too much of him, and of his family? Is that 'fair'? Is that 'just'?"

Mr. Doubtful: "Why, it's awful of course, but it can't be helped. This is war, and men have to be killed in it."

Mr. Right: "You've said it—this is war! To win the war it might be necessary for the government to take your factory away from you, and ruin your business. It might be necessary to take your house and turn you out in the street. What of that? Is that as great a sacrifice as your neighbor makes, or stands ready to make, when he gives his boy to his country? Yet you don't think it's your duty to pinch and save, and borrow if need be, in order to buy Liberty Bonds, and thus help shorten the war, make victory certain, and save the lives of thousands of American boys who will otherwise be uselessly sacrificed."

Mr. Doubtful: "I guess that's true, Mr. Right. I have been thoughtless. I'll stop complaining and criticizing, and put up my last dollar if need be, to help win this war."
