

FARMERS---Take Notice!
 The State advises you to dip your seed potatoes in a Bi-Chloride of Mercury solution. : : : : :

For Sale At

Reed & Horton
 THE REXALL STORE

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

(From Thursday's Daily.)
 L. E. Wahlstrom has gone to Redmond to work.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Huey are back from a ten days' trip to Seattle.

Henry O. Fawcett and C. F. Chalfan were in from Sisters yesterday.

Charles H. Erickson was in from Bear Creek Buttes yesterday on business.

John Rifer, traveling engineer for the O.-W. R. & N., was in Bend last night.

R. L. Thomas, W. B. Thomas and W. Thomas are here from Oklahoma seeking a location.

Mrs. C. J. Catlow went to Portland last night to be with her husband, who is at Vancouver barracks.

Edward Smith of Anacortes, Washington, is here to stay with his son on a homestead near Fort Rock.

Five men will go out tomorrow night to American Lake on the next draft quota from Deschutes county.

W. J. Hughes came in from Burns yesterday and spent the night in Bend before going on to Prineville.

Repairs on the Bend Steam laundry building, which was damaged by fire March 16, have been completed and the plant is again in operation.

C. D. Springer, the new forest ranger for the Crescent station, was in Bend today getting information on his new post. He was transferred from Cascadia in the Santiam forest.

George R. Ezell, deputy sheriff from Blackfoot, Idaho, is here to take Grover C. Finch back with him to answer a slacker and a forgery charge. Finch was arrested early this week.

Felix O'Neil of Hiawatha, Kansas, came here last night from Prineville with his son Charles to attend the Eastern Star party. He went on this morning to The Dalles, where he will stop before beginning his journey home.

Frank B. Foster of Prineville, was here last night to attend the Eastern Star party. Today he went up the river to the ranch he purchased recently from James Black. He plans to use it as summer range for some thoroughbred cattle he has just acquired possession of.

(From Friday's Daily.)
 Frank May is in Redmond today surveying.

John Sullivan has gone to Portland to work.

Mrs. E. Wittwer and Mrs. G. Robillard have gone to Portland to reside.

Frank Keeney went to Redmond today to ship a carload of lumber to Portland.

Rev. H. C. Hartranft was in Redmond and Terrebonne today on food conservation business.

W. A. Thomas arrived here yesterday from Sunnyside, Washington, to look over the country.

The Presbyterian ladies will hold their annual Easter bazaar tomorrow in the Sphier building.

Ranger Perry South is in from Crescent and will go from here to Sisters to take his new post there.

George H. Kaiser, scale expert for the state public service commission, is here on his yearly inspection of the local railroad scales.

Mrs. M. E. Crystal came up from La Pine yesterday and boarded the train for Dufur this morning. She had been visiting her son.

D. Robinson and two daughters, after passing four months in this section, today left for their former home in Louisville, Kentucky.

C. W. Erskine is back from a brief visit to Portland, where he went to secure information concerning enlisting in the government service.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Lewis, who were married in Vancouver this week, returned home last night and will be at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. F. M. Gasbar, on Delaware avenue. Mrs. Lewis was Mrs. Gladys M. Billups.

C. Crosby, passenger engineer on the Vancouver division, has given up his run out of Portland to take the Fallbridge-Bend run on the S. P. & S., replacing "Jake" Wassoner. Mr. Crosby will move his family here shortly.

Two men sustained injuries yesterday at the Shevlin-Hixon mill through accidentally being caught in the machinery. J. M. Olson had both bones of his right leg fractured early in the morning while working on the installation of the new band, which slipped so that it struck him. R. E. Ullrich was feeding slabs in a machine when his foot slipped and he fell, fracturing his right leg.

Four chairs at your service at the Metropolitan. No waiting.—Adv.

(From Saturday's Daily.)
 C. M. Redfield was in from Deschutes on business yesterday.

Miss Louise Raymond spent the week-end at her home in Terrebonne.

Alex. Mersdorf today purchased the Ford car belonging to W. O. Matchett.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Jobe are passing the week-end in Sisters with their son.

Sam E. Johnson has brought his family here from Minnesota and will locate in Bend.

O. H. Rhodes and C. Dettman returned to Hood River today after a short business trip to Bend.

A marriage license was issued today to Herbert B. Robinson and Laura Shipley, both of Bend.

Albert Bureibach and Fred Biery, of Portland, returned home today. They were here on a short business visit.

Mrs. A. Amery, who was here from Portland acting as nurse at the Kenneth Sawyer home, returned to the city today.

H. Hatley, an old employe of the Shevlin-Hixon Company, is here from Kelliher, Minnesota, and will work in the local mill.

Rev. H. F. Pemberton went to Prineville today. He will be back in Bend again to preach in the Methodist church tomorrow night.

Dement's grocery blossomed forth with an attractive window this morning, two live Easter bunnies in a box holding the center of the stage.

H. C. Riecken, of Catlow, and F. A. Rowe, of Olympia, Washington, were in Bend yesterday. They took the stage to Burns this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Rice of Redmond were in town Saturday afternoon shopping.

Amy Ingemann and Gail Forbes were two Bend high school students who today took the civil service examination for stenographer and typist.

C. P. Niswonger accompanied his father, M. Niswonger, to The Dalles today. The latter will live there, but the son expects to come back tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Osmer and the latter's father, John Byers, came to Bend yesterday from Clarkston, Idaho, to go on their land near Tumalo. They will make their home in this section.

Mrs. William Boegli and daughter came in from Culver today to spend the week-end in town. Mr. Boegli will be in tomorrow morning to attend the Sunday school convention of the Christian church.

S. Murasaki, who has been in Seattle since early in the year and who had planned to return to Bend on or about April 1 to enter the cattle brokerage business, wires he does not know when he will arrive in this city as his baby is ill. However, he will come as soon as possible.

Grazing Inspectors Horton and Kuhns, of the local forest service office, returned yesterday from a short trip to the range adjoining the national forest in the Arnold district. They inspected the territory in order to find out whether it would accommodate any cattle this season. A favorable report was made on the conditions.

BEND COUPLE MARRY.

(From Thursday's Daily.)
 Mrs. Gladys M. Billups, daughter of Mrs. Frank Gasbar of Bend and Luther M. Lewis were married in Vancouver, Washington, today. They are expected to return to Bend tomorrow and will make their home here, as Mr. Lewis is employed by the Brooks-Scanlon mill. The couple went to Portland Sunday night.

THIS WOMAN FOUND RELIEF.
 Backache, sore muscles, stiff or swollen joints, rheumatic pains, dizziness and like symptoms are caused by disordered kidneys and bladder. Mrs. Thos. H. Davis, Montgomery, R. F. D. 3, Ind., writes: "I doctor'd months without relief. I commenced using Foley Kidney Pills and got relief. Eight bottles cured me." Sold everywhere.—Adv.

WARNERS
 BEND'S ECONOMY CENTER

Look Over These Values and You Will Say
THEY ARE THE BEST EVER

Women's Cotton Union Suits

Fine rib, round neck, lace and tape neck and armholes with wide lace bottom.

Sizes 34 to 44. A real good value... 48c

Same only made with cuff knee. A Suit... 48c

Men's Cotton Union Suits

Balbriggan Union Suits made up with long or short sleeves. Closed crotch. Ecru color. All sizes. Per Suit... 85c

Boy's Same kind... 49c

Men's Ribbed Union Suits a good weight for now. A big value. Suit... $1.50

Special Prices Ladies Waists

This season's best styles All white voiles and lawns. Handsomely trimmed. Daintily made. This week's special:

$1.09

Bedsread Special

Perfect Bleached Heavy Cotton Bed Spreads—78x88—large sizes. Plain, scalloped or fringed edges. Cut or square corners. If bought on today's market would be worth $3.50. Our price... $2.49

Unsurpassed Values in Women's Wearing Apparel

NEW COATS---SUITS---DRESSES---SKIRTS
 ---WAISTS, arriving on every express from New York's Leading Fashion Makers.

A Special Shipment of Lovely New Voile Waists arrived this morning
 Priced, $1.95

THE PEOPLES STORE
 THE STORE THAT SELLS FOR LESS

Agents for R & G Corsets.

Agents for Armor Plate Hosiery

The New Silks
 Are Here A-Plenty

Quality Silks Only Will be Found Here

New Foulards, 36-inches wide, of heavy quality, beautiful in design... $2.25 yd.

Georgette Crepes, a heavy dependable all silk fabric, in 15 shades... $2.00 yd.

36-in. Corticella Chiffon Taffetas specially priced at per yard... $1.85 & $2.00

Corticello, Black Oil Boiled Taffeta, a dependable quality... $1.95 yd.

Plaids and Fancy Silks, per yard... $1.50-$1.75-$2.65-$2.75

Black Duchess Satin, 40-in. wide, an excellent fabric. Special priced... $2.25 yd.

32-in. Natural Imported Shantung Ponge, per yard... $1.15-$1.45

Sun Ray Silk, 32-inches wide at... 75c yd.

BUY LIBERTY BONDS TO BRIDGE THE POND

STOP AND SHOP AT

MANNHEIMER BROTHERS

Where Everybody Trades

Something to sell? Advertise in The Bulletin's classified column. One cent a word is all a little want. Ad will cost you.

BAKED POTATO

BIG, white, mealy—with butter melting on it. Um-m-m! And you like it because it is baked. Same with Lucky Strike Cigarette

IT'S TOASTED

Cooking makes things delicious—toasting the tobacco has made the Lucky Strike Cigarette famous.

10c If your dealer does not carry them, send $1.20 for a carton of 12 packages to The American Tobacco Co., N.Y. City

Guaranteed by The American Tobacco Co.