BEND, DESCHUTES COUNTY, OREGON, THURSDAY, APRIL 11, 1918

No. 6

DESCHUTES IS NEARING $180,000

WILL EXCEED QUOTA BY BIG PER CENT.

Present Total Is $177,000—North End of County Now Stands at $29,200—Solicitors to Start Soon—Adjust Ratings.

(From Wednesday's Daily.) Although the posting of the rating list, showing each individual what he was expected to subscribe to the present Liberty loan, has caused most of those on the list to come voluntarily forward with their subscriptions, there are still a few who have not subscribed and a few cases of subscriptions not in accordance with the ratings. The latter are to be adjusted by the local executive committee as soon as possible and solicitors are to start at once to see those who have not yet volunteered.

With this finished little will be left of the local Liberty bond work beyond computing the totals and seeing the Boy Scouts through their gleaming activity, which will officially end the campaign all over the country.

North End Active. That the north end of the county had done its full share in selling bonds was reported this morning by Guy E. Dobson, who has had charge of that district. With a quota of $22,000, the north end is nearly 40 per cent. over-subscribed, according to Mr. Dobson, and four districts yet remaining to be heard from may bring the total up to 50 per cent. The present figure is $29,200.

The district returns, as reported by the Redmond Bank of Commerce, and compared with the quotas, are as follows:

Subscribed.	Quota.
Sisters	$ 2,200 $ 1,800
Lower Bridge	2,350 2,000
Terrebonne	1,500 1,500
White Rock	1,400 1,200
Redmond	20,150 11,000
Hoover School	1,600 1,500
Cline Falls, Cloverdale, Northwest Redmond and the north end of the Tumalo section are still to be heard from.
Will Go Over 150 Per Cent.
With these figures in it is now apparent that Deschutes county will over-subscribe its quota of $117,000 by $70,000 or more, bringing the total above the amount of the subscription to the second loan, when the county quota was higher than it is this time.
As shown by the latest reports the subscriptions are now as follows:
Through La Pine Bank	$ 2,500
Through First National	51,700
Through Central Oregon	25,000
Through Redmond	29,200
Through Shevlin-Hixon	45,100
Through Brooks-Scanlon	24,000
Total	$177,500

JURY ACCOUNTS FOR DEATH OF S. W. BEST

(From Wednesday's Daily.) After a session of the coroner's jury yesterday afternoon it was held that S. W. Best, found dead on the road from the Pine Tree mill Monday, had been knocked from his seat when the binder on the wagon broke and the wheels passed over his body. Mr. Best leaves a wife and three children, who reside in Kenwood. He had been employed in hauling lumber from the mill.

The funeral will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock from Niswonger's chapel.

MONEY FROM APPLES GOES TO SMOKE FUND

(From Friday's Daily.) Another boost was given The Bulletin's tobacco fund yesterday when the Moose club turned over $5 to purchase smokes for the boys. This was raised from a contest in which a box of apples was given the lucky man. The fruit was donated by William Moore, of the Bend Produce company, with the special request that the money raised therefrom go to the fund.

BROTHERS RESIDENT RUNS FOR OFFICE

(From Monday's Daily.) E. E. Varco of Brothers has just announced his candidacy for nomination at the primaries for county commissioner on the Republican ticket. Mr. Varco has been in this county six years, making his residence on a homestead. He came here from Michigan.

Bulletin Sends Largest Check Yet for Tobacco

Today The Bulletin is sending to the American Tobacco company the largest check yet in payment for smokes for our soldiers in France. The amount is $65.75 and with amounts formerly sent makes a grand total of $208.75, which will buy 835 tobacco kits.

The size of the check is caused by the patriotic action of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gibson, who were married in public and an admission charge made for the benefit of the fund, the affair netting $51.55 for the fund. Five dollars more came from the auction of a box of apples given to the Moose club for the purpose by William Moore of the Bend Produce Co. Two of the contributors are "repeaters," having formerly subscribed.

The list is as follows:

C. L. McCauley	$ 5.00

JUDGE BARNES IS CANDIDATE

TUMALO FRIENDS PERSUADE COUNTY OFFICIAL TO GO OUT FOR REPUBLICAN NOMINATION IN MAY PRIMARIES.

(From Tuesday's Daily.) Announcement was made this morning that County Judge Barnes will be a candidate for the Republican nomination for the office he now holds at the primary election in May. Differing from the usual political announcement, the news was given out by Tumalo friends of the judge following an interview with him in which he gave his consent to their placing his name in nomination. According to Fred N. Wallace, of the Tumalo committee, Judge Barnes had previously declined to have his name used.

W. D. Barnes became county judge of Deschutes county by appointment of Governor Withycombe on the formation of the new county in December, 1916. He came to Tumalo in 1904, taking up a Carey Act ranch, on which he lived until he sold it last year. As the first judge of the new county of Deschutes Mr. Barnes has taken an especial interest in the development of the roads of the county and also in keeping the county in a good financial condition.

Miller for Commissioner.

Coincident with the announcement of the Barnes' candidacy, County Commissioner Miller announced himself a candidate for the Republican nomination for county commissioner. Mr. Miller has been a member of the county court since February, having been appointed to succeed L. E. Smith on the latter's resignation. He is a resident of Redmond, where he settled in 1910. His business interests have been in connection with the Deschutes Mutual Telephone Co., which he reorganized and put on its feet, and in the stock shipping business with H. J. Harris. The first carload of hogs to be sent out of Central Oregon was shipped by Miller & Harris and last year they shipped over $30,000 worth of stock. Mr. Miller was also for two years manager of the Redmond Warehouse Co.

HIDE IDENTIFIED IN COURT ROOM

RANCHERS TESTIFY CUT OF SMALL MILLS AGAINST WARNER.

Members of Party Who Assisted Sheriff on Witness Stand in Cattle Stealing Trial—Defense Begins This Afternoon.

(From Wednesday's Daily.) Introducing in evidence the hide, head and feet of a steer which J. T. Houston, a High Desert rancher, claims was stolen from him by J. E. Warner and G. W. Conrad, now on trial in the circuit court, the attorneys for the state yesterday afternoon and this morning attempted to prove the charges against the defendants. Early this afternoon Mr. Warner's side of the case was taken up.

R. S. Bradley, Floyd A. Rowell, C. R. Harvey, R. A. Ammons, John L. Garske, Sheriff S. E. Roberts, Samuel W. Merrill, Eli Wilson, J. T. Houston, Charles Houston and Mrs. Alice Neilson were all witnesses called by the state. Most of the men are ranchers who took part in the rounding up of Warner, his son Gordon and companion Conrad on November 10 of last year, when the arrest was made. All of them told of following Warner and Conrad when they drove to the Alkali ranch with a load of hay, in which, they claimed, was later found three quarters of beef, presumably from the missing animal. When the farmers asked to examine the wagon their request was refused. Merrill thought the wagon contained a missing heifer of his own, so he notified the sheriff. When the sheriff arrived Warner said he had the meat on the wagon and showed him the three quarters.

J. T. Houston and others identified the hide and head exhibited as being those of a steer belonging to him. These parts were found on Warner's

BIG LUMBER DEAL IS MADE

CUT OF SMALL MILLS CONSOLIDATED.

Ray Wilkinson and John Steidl Form I X L Lumber Co. to Operate in This Section—Will Build Planer at Bend.

(From Wednesday's Daily.) The most important development in the local lumber world since the construction of the Brooks-Scanlon, the Shevlin-Hixon and the Pine Tree mills has just been made public in the plans of Ray Wilkinson and John Steidl for the installation of a number of small mills in this section whose cut will be consolidated and shipped from Bend. Included in the plan are mills hitherto operated by Mr. Wilkinson and one or two others now under other management.

Back of the local men in the enterprise is said to be an unusually strong financial and selling organization which assures the complete success of the undertaking.

One Mill Moved.

As so far announced, the mills to be included in the enterprise are the Red Rock mill, now in operation in Red Rock canyon, west of town; the J. N. Masten mill at La Pine, the Markell & Branton mill at Gist, Wilson mill, north of Sisters, the latter formerly located at Sisters but now being moved to a location upriver from Bend. When all are in operation a cut of over 100,000 feet a day is assured. Announcement of the plans furnishes an explanation of the request recently made of the county court by Mr. Wilkinson for permission to use the river to drive logs on. After drying, all the cut will be brought into Bend for planing. For this purpose a three or four machine planing mill will be built on the site of the lumber yard near Terminal addition. Between 100 and 150 men

MAKES BIG WAR STAMP PURCHASE

Tumalo claims the credit for the biggest purchase of War Savings certificates yet made by one individual in Deschutes county, according to Fred N. Wallace, who has charge of the campaign in that section. The purchase was made by William M. Gaskell, who took 100 of the big stamps last month. Mr. Gaskell's purchase cost him $414 and on January 1, 1923, he will receive $500 in exchange.

ARNOLD DISTRICT FORMS AUXILIARY

An auxiliary of the Red Cross has just been formed in the Arnold district, east of town, with 11 charter members. Iris A. Trotter is the chairman and Mrs. J. W. Lowell secretary. The auxiliary will meet every other Thursday during the summer and every Thursday in the winter. Its formation followed a visit made to the district by Mrs. H. K. Brooks in connection with Liberty loan work.

EIGHT INDICTED BY GRAND JURY

WARNER AND CALDWELL MUST EACH FACE TWO CHARGES—COUNTY OFFICES ARE FOUND IN GOOD CONDITION.

Eight indictments were issued as the result of the session of the grand jury of the circuit court, which has just been completed. The final report was presented to Judge Duffy just before noon. Following are the cases on which a true bill was found: State vs. J. E. Warner and G. W. Conrad, cattle stealing; State vs. J. E. Warner, mutilation of hide; State vs. Grover Caldwell, cattle stealing; State vs. D. R. Dunn, assault with intent to kill; State vs. Rose Hansen, arson; State vs. Fred Schmidt, shooting a bull; State vs. John Kofzman, stealing a sheep.

Practically all of these were handed up from the justice court. The second charge against Warner is the outrage of the introduction of evidence in the case now on trial of a mutilated steer's hide. Both Caldwell and Warner must face two charges.

The grand jury's report and recommendations are as follows: "To Honorable J. E. J. Duffy, Judge: "We, your grand jury, duly chosen to investigate and report the various matters that were brought to our attention as a grand jury of this county, having finished our work, beg leave to submit the following report and recommendations:

"As per your instructions, we have made a thorough examination of all the county offices and find in each instance nice, neat offices, that they are kept and maintained in a neat and up-to-date manner. We have also examined the jail and find that the jail is of sufficient size, is well kept, sanitary and modern in every respect.

"We would recommend that the jury should have swivel chairs with cushions and a trial jury room.

"That the grand jury shall have a room with outside windows and large enough to insure comfort for jury and witnesses and situated so as to insure privacy.

"Respectfully submitted, "MEREDITH BAILEY, "R. M. SMITH, "BOB BLACKWELL, "CLAUDE MANNHEIMER, "J. O. MCKINNEY, "S. W. MERRILL, "FRANK BODYFELT."

SCHOOL BOYS TO BE EMPLOYED ON FARMS

(From Tuesday's Daily.) In response to a request from the federal director of the United States Boys' Working Reserve, City School Superintendent F. Thordarson is sending to Portland a list of 102 names of Bend boys who might be available for farm work this summer. These are school boys between the ages of 16 and 21. Some are willing to take up agricultural occupations during their vacation and others have already procured other kinds of work. The list was sent in today.

CROWD ATTENDS LIBERTY RALLY

STIRRING ADDRESSES GIVEN.

Hippodrome Filled to Overflowing—Many Come in From Out of Town—Speakers Tell What "Home Folks" Must Do.

(From Monday's Daily.) Led by a band playing martial airs and practically the entire staff of employees from the two local mills representing the Loyal Legion of Loggers and Lumbermen, probably 2,000 people marched or rode to the Hippodrome yesterday afternoon to attend the Liberty loan rally and overflow meeting. Mrs. Alexander Thompson, member of the state legislature from The Dalles; Private P. L. Smith, who was with the Canadian Highlanders in France, and Thomas G. Ryan of Portland, member of the state Liberty loan committee, were the speakers for the occasion.

Yesterday's meeting was attended by people from many nearby towns, auto loads coming from Redmond, Tumalo and other points. Even the Redmond band contributed its services and vied with the local orchestra in blaring out patriotic airs. Assisting with music were the girls of the high school glee club, a male quartet who sang "Liberty Bell," and Fred Lucas with a solo, "What Are You Going to Do to Help the Boys?" H. J. Overturf, city chairman for the drive, presided at the gathering. The speakers sat on the platform beneath the folds of a monster American flag. The entire front of the room was decorated with Liberty loan posters, flags of the allies and Liberty bells.

Liberty a Heritage.

Mrs. Thompson was the first speaker on the program. In a heart to heart talk to the "folks at home" she urged them to back the boys in every way in their power. "We shall conquer," she said. "We fight not for dominion, not for power, but for the rights of humanity—democracy itself. America must preserve her self-respect. The things we are fighting for today will be handed down to our children's children as a priceless heritage.

"Does any European ruler dare to crush us now? Germany reckons without the host—a united nation. "Does the Kaiser forget that while America is a commercial nation he cannot question her spirit? "We have to lick the Kaiser—and we have to lick the Kaiser to keep him from licking us. "Every element in our social, business and economic life must be coordinated to this end—winning the war. We know we are big enough and brave enough to combat the 45 years of German preparation for this great conflict."

The speaker paused here in her theme to point out the necessity of observing food conservation rules, fighting profiteers, forgetting labor troubles in the necessity of the bigger consideration and assisting in Red Cross work. This part of her appeal was directed especially to the women.

"We cannot all of us cross the ocean and do the spectacular work," she proceeded. "The least we can do at home is to give our money. We cannot with good conscience send the flower of our manhood where we would not send our money. This war calls for three big things, money sacrifices and lives. A government is not worth much unless the people at home support it.

"The end of this war is the end of all war. We have reason to be proud of ourselves in this state for Oregon has sent more volunteers than any other in the union. We believe the sons of Oregon have the good old fighting blood in them and will never stop until they take the Star Spangled Banner to Berlin and make the Kaiser salute it.

"It is said money talks. Let it talk to the Kaiser until he understands our money will last until Prussianism is wiped from the face of the earth and let him know that the language it talks is the language of the bayonet. When the boys come home they must find us holding the lines behind the trenches beneath the folds of Old Glory, the flag for
