MCNARY WOULD AID DISTRICT

FAVORS FLYING CAMP FOR THIS SECTION.

Sends Message Saying He Will Personally Recommend That New Oregon Camp Be Located in This Section.

(From Thursday's Daily.)

That Senator Chas. L. McNary will give his undivided support to the establishment of a government aviation training camp in the neighborhood of Bend, Prineville or Redmond was the information conveyed in a telegram received from the senator by the Bend Commercial club this morning. The telegram follows: "Some days ago Senator Chamberlain, Representative Sinnott and myself requested the aviation department to locate one or more aviation camps in Oregon. The chief of the signal office promised to direct the western locating board to make a survey of Oregon and report on the most suitable location. I shall present your claim and personally speak most favorably of the district as a site for an aviation camp."

Senator McNary's message came as an answer to a telegram sent by J. A. Eastes, J. P. Keys and E. P. Mahaffey, as a committee from the Bend Commercial club, yesterday when it was learned the government was contemplating the building of an aviation camp in this state. The message was sent to all members of the Washington delegation by night letter last night, and Senator McNary's answer had arrived here shortly after 9 o'clock this morning, showing that he was intensely interested in the proposition.

In their message to the delegation the committeemen pointed out the advantage of Bend, Redmond or Prineville for such a camp, saying: "We desire to call to your attention that we have the largest area of cleared level land in the state; the finest climatic conditions, having 330 days in the year that the sun shines, also two transcontinental railway lines. We respectfully request that the merits of this location be put before the proper authorities. This refers to the Bend, Redmond or Prineville districts."

Redmond and Prineville have also sent messages to the delegation similar to the one sent by the committee here. Hermiston and Medford, Oregon, are also in the race for the training camp.

DWIGHT H. YEOMAN CALLED BY DEATH

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

Dwight H. Yeoman, Lytle addition, died yesterday afternoon at his home in this city. Mr. Yeoman had been in ill health for a number of years, but his condition did not become alarming until Monday, when he voluntarily called in a physician, but his condition could not be improved and the following day he died. He leaves a wife and three children. Funeral services will be held from the Niswonger chapel at 10:30 tomorrow morning.

BEND IS ENTITLED TO ONE BLUE STAR

(From Friday's Daily.)

Bend is entitled to a blue star on the white field of the Liberty loan flag now floating at the intersection of Wall street and Oregon avenue, according to the loan headquarters yesterday. More than 100 per cent. over her allotted quota has been subscribed. Bend's quota for the drive was $75,000 and it is now estimated by the committee that more than $170,000 in Liberty bonds have been taken.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE CLAIMS VICTIM

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

Miss Ada Lockwood, the 16-year-old daughter of Mrs. Anna Lockwood, West Eleventh and Milwaukee streets, died this morning after being a sufferer for some time from Bright's disease. Miss Lockwood was born in Oklahoma but moved to this city with her mother about three years ago. Funeral services will be held from the Niswonger chapel tomorrow at 2 o'clock.

HEART FAILURE CAUSES DEATH

Charles Gutfleisch Succumbs at Home Near Roberts—Body Brought to This City.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

Charles Gutfleisch, aged 50, dropped dead at the ranch of his son near Roberts Monday morning shortly after 8 o'clock. Heart failure was given as the probable cause of his death. He arose in the morning feeling in normal health, and after eating breakfast started out to do the chores. When he reached the back yard he tottered and fell and by the time help had arrived he was dead.

At the time of his death Mrs. Gutfleisch was visiting in this city with her son, Charles, Jr., who is employed in the mills here. The body was brought to this city yesterday and is being held at the Niswonger undertaking parlors.

BEND'S HONOR FLAG ARRIVES

WAVES BENEATH OLD GLORY AT THE INTERSECTION OF WALL AND OREGON STREETS —AFTER BLUE STARS NEXT.

(From Thursday's Daily.)

The new government honor flag, presented to Bend for her subscription to the third Liberty loan, was received by the chairman of the local committee this morning and is now flying beneath Old Glory at the intersection of Wall and Oregon streets.

Members of the committee here today expressed the opinion that if possible before the end of the drive there would be one or more blue stars in the white field, each signifying a 100 per cent. rating. The letter from the chairman of the general executive board, James K. Lynch, which accompanied the flag, reads:

"The general executive board has today approved the awarding to your town of the official honor flag of the third Liberty loan. The committee wishes to congratulate you and all who assisted you on the magnificent spirit of patriotism and unselfishness which has characterized your efforts in the third Liberty loan campaign. The committee hopes that the splendid spirit which has enabled your community to win this honor flag will be continued throughout the remaining days of the campaign and that before its close you may secure one or more blue stars to be sewed upon the white field of the flag, each star signifying that you quota has been increased by 100 per cent."

"Your patriotic response to the nation's call is a stimulus to all of us and we will watch with interest and best wishes for your further success the daily reports from your district."

HOME GUARDS REACH QUOTAS

CO. A., WITH 87 MEMBERS, IS READY TO MUSTER IN—CO. B
HAS 80—MUSTER ROLLS ARE SENT IN.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

Companies A and B of the Bend Home Guard are ready to be mustered in, with 167 men for the two companies, or 37 more than is required, but 65 men to the company being necessary. The remaining members were secured by the organizers at the regular meeting nights of Monday and Tuesday, and it is expected that the number can yet be increased.

Jay A. Saltzman will leave Saturday morning for Portland and will take with him the muster rolls and other credentials which are to be turned over to the adjutant general's office. For some time it was hoped that it would be possible to muster the men in on Liberty day, April 26, but this idea has now been given up.

WINGATE TELLS OF ATROCITIES

SAYS HUN IS TUTOR OF CRIMES.

Man Who Had Lived in Turkey Many Years Says People of America Do Not Realize the Conditions.

(From Saturday's Daily.)

Depicting vividly the horrors which have been suffered by the Armenians in Turkey during the past 15 years, Prof. Wingate of Talas, Turkey, addressed a small audience at the Hippodrome last night in the interest of the Armenian relief fund.

Commencing with the closing bloody reign of Abdul Hamid, the deposed sultan, the speaker told of each succeeding atrocity that could be laid directly at the hands of the young Turks, who were supposed to have been the reformers of the Mohammedan empire, up until the present time, the last four years of which the destruction of the Christian population has been under the tutelage of the German empire.

Mr. Wingate told of the first raids against the Armenians in 1905, when more than 412 people were murdered, and many hundred more were either mortally or severely wounded, many of them having their hands nearly severed when they had thrown them up to protect their heads from the descending saber in the hands of the soldier populace. He stated that at this time he had given refuge to 125 of the people in his house, and had protected them until after the trouble had abated.

"If the Turkish government had undertaken to destroy the entire race in a day, it would not have been so horrible," said the professor. "But it was the slow and sure methods that were the awful part of it. Commencing with small uprisings, in which but a few hundred were killed in various parts of the empire, the work grew until in 1916 the order went out to destroy the entire race." In the larger cities, he said, these people were sent out by various roads, herded like cattle, with nothing to eat, and charged exorbitant prices for even a drink of water.

STOCKMAN KILLED AT KLAMATH FALLS

Reports were published in Sunday's Oregonian of the killing at Klamath Falls of O. T. McKindry. McKindry was known in this city, having lived at the Pilot Butte Inn for some time last winter. Trouble over range matters between himself and another stockman was responsible for the killing.

RECEIVES WORD OF SON'S DEATH

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

Word was received by Louis Billaudeau of this city this morning that his son Leo had been accidentally killed at Banville, Montana, when he was struck by a train. Full particulars of the accident are not given in the telegram received. Mr. Billaudeau will leave on this evening's train for Banville.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

At a meeting of a special committee held last night to take up the matter of arranging a program for the opening of the Bend Amateur Athletic club building, it was decided to set the opening date as Thursday, May 30, Decoration day, with programs for the two succeeding days.

On Thursday, May 30, the building will be formally opened to the public. From 1 o'clock in the afternoon until 5 in the evening it will be open to inspection. In the evening a program will be given in the building. On Friday and Saturday additional programs will be given. Members of the committee are now busy arranging for sub-committees to handle the work, the announcements of which will be made later.

BRUCE DENNIS WANTS NEW JOB

DID STANFIELD GET HIM TO RUN?

Friends of Stanfield Deny Allegation While Others Claim Dennis Was Forced Into Race by the Umatilla Man.

(Special to The Bulletin.)

SALEM, April 25.—Some astute dopsters around here see in the entrance of Bruce Dennis of La Grande into the race as candidate for Republican national committeeman from Oregon the final Italian hand of his master, the Eastern Oregon sheep king, who seeks a place among the seats of the mighty.

They declare that Stanfield literally took Dennis by the scruff of the neck and hurled him into the limelight as a part of his scheme in seeking to grasp the senatorial nomination.

On the other hand, some of Stanfield's friends scoff this idea and assert openly that Stanfield was sick at heart when he heard that the overweening ambition of Dennis to avenge his private grievance against Ralph Williams, his opponent for national committeeman, had gotten the best of his friendship for Stanfield.

Whatever is the real situation it looks as though the step taken by the gentleman from La Grande suggests no particular benefit to the flockmaster of the Umatilla.

Polk County Aroused.

Around Polk county way, where Stanfield had been building up a heavy following through his able lieutenant, Jim Linn, the aspirations of Dennis are looked at with distrust. While Ralph Williams now lives in Portland, he founded his fortune at Dallas in Polk county, where he owns a couple of banks and has extensive business connections. Ralph is stronger than horseradish in Polk county and in numerous other parts of the Willamette valley for that matter, and if the voters get the idea that Stanfield is behind the Dennis move it will go hard with the support that has been builded up by diligent labors.

Deschutes in Care of Linn.

Speaking of Jim Linn, who has been entrusted by Stanfield to manufacture a Stanfield support in McNary's own territory, it might be said that Stanfield made no idle choice.

Jim was a Democrat up to a few weeks ago, when along with hundreds of his Democratic brethren he registered as a Republican and now is the blackest of the black.

Jim has four hobbies: His Pilot Butte ranch in the Deschutes country; the Marlon hotel, Salem's largest hostelry, of which he owns the lion's share; good roads, and the Stanfield boom.

Of all things dear to his heart the Stanfield boom is the dearest. Jim was one of the midwives who presided at the accouchment which brought forth the Stanfield boom, as a piling and sickly infant, and he has helped nurse it tenderly until it has become quite a sturdy little lad. He has been working night and day down in the valley counties especially in this section, and it must be admitted that a trail of Stanfield sentiment can be picked up by following Jim's footsteps.

Dennis is Hurting Stanfield.

Everybody around here likes Jim Linn, even the most sable of all the sable Republicans. Consequently it is not surprising that he really has made some impression for Stanfield in McNary's own territory. Not that Stanfield will carry this section, because it can't be done, but in figuring out the final results it will be well not to lose sight of the fact that Jim has been busy around here, and whenever he gets busy politically something generally drops.

Stanfield in Tieklish Place. But getting back to Stanfield and Dennis, no matter what actuated Dennis to get into the game, it is generally conceded his candidacy is hurting Stanfield. There is no question but Dennis and Ralph Williams are bitter personal and political enemies. The personal enmity grew
