News in Brief.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)
C. H. Miller Returns.—C. H. Miller, county commissioner, who has been in Portland for several days, where he attended the war conference last week, returned to Bend this morning.
Mother Dies.—M's Dorris Foster, who has been teaching at The Shevlin-Hixon camp, was called to Portland through the serious illness of her mother, and word has since been received here of the lady's death.
Red Cross Dance.—There is to be a Red Cross dance given at Tumalo on Friday evening at the Agricultural hall. All of the proceeds of the affair are to be donated to the Red Cross and the affair deserves the patronage of all.
Red Cross Benefit Success.—The vaudeville show given at the Liberty theatre yesterday afternoon and last night for the benefit of the Red Cross was a decided success. A large number of people were in attendance at both performances, and the class of entertainment given was appreciated by all.
Entertain Mrs. Davis.—Mrs. S. A. Blakely entertained in honor of Mrs. S. M. Davis at her home last evening. Mrs. Davis is 79 years of age, but despite her years spends all of her spare time in knitting for the Red Cross and teaching others. The evening was taken up with a musical program, after which refreshments were served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Wager, Miss Genevieve Wagner, Emerson Stockwell and Miss Bonnie Stockwell, the hostess and Mrs. Davis.
Attend Conference.—R. W. Sawyer and T. H. Foley of Bend, Denton Burdick of Redmond and Alfred Aya of La Pine left Tuesday evening for Portland, where they will attend the meeting of the war savings stamp workers, which is to be held today. Judge Barnes, who has been in Portland for the past week, will join the delegation. The purpose of the convention is to launch the month's campaign to culminate on pledge day, June 28, when it is expected to put Oregon over the top for its entire war savings stamp quota of $17,000,000.

Gillett-Kelly Nuptials.—A quiet wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gillett when their son Melvin was married to Miss Susie Kelly on Tuesday evening, May 28th, at 7 o'clock. The impressive ring ceremony was performed by Rev. W. Clyde Stewart of the Methodist church. The bride was very becomingly gowned, while the groom wore a blue serge suit. The newlyweds left on the evening train for Portland, where Mr. Gillett will enlist in the Marines. Miss Kelly has been in the employ of Warner's and her many friends wish her a most happy journey in the union of wedlock.
(From Tuesday's Daily.)
Stores Are Closed.—All of the stores of the city will be closed on Thursday, May 30, Decoration day.
Flag Window Takes.—Displaying the flags of the allies together with Red Cross symbols, a show window at Mannheimer's is attracting more than passing attention. The flags are used as a background for an exceptionally tasty shoe display.

Work Progressing.—Work on the new Bend Hardware block is progressing rapidly. Already the foundation has been completed and the brick walls are now being put in place.
More for Marines.—Sgt. Brooks, in charge of the Marine recruiting office, reports another member for the U. S. Marines as having signed up and will leave shortly for Mare Island. This is the fifth recruit to Sgt. Brooks' credit in less than two weeks since the office was opened here.
Farewell Party Given.—A large number of the friends of Rev. and Mrs. Brono gathered at the Norwegian Lutheran church last night in a farewell reception given in their honor. A musical program and speeches were the main events of the evening, following which a luncheon was served.
Visits With Brother.—Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Sather and two children of Hutchinson, Minnesota, are in Bend visiting at the home of Mr. Sather's brother, E. A. Sather of this city. Mr. Sather, who is a photographer, is looking for a location in Oregon or Washington, and will leave within a short time for Portland and Seattle to look over the fields in the country surrounding these two cities.
