Former Mayor of Birmingham, Alabama, Endorses Tanlac

"You Will Hardly Know Me When We Meet Again, for I Am Getting Well," He Writes Friend.

One of the latest additions to the list of leaders of thought and action who have come forward with their unqualified endorsement of Tanlac is the name of Hon. Frank V. Evans, former mayor of Birmingham, Ala., ex-state examiner of public accounts of Alabama, and at one time editor of one of the South's greatest newspapers, the Birmingham Age-Herald.

Writing to a personal friend in Atlanta, Mr. Evans says:

"Birmingham, Ala., Feb. 2.

"By the way, you will hardly know me when we meet again because I am getting well and strong again. As I told you while in Atlanta last month, I have been suffering a long time with gastritis, as the doctors call it—really a disordered stomach with consequent constipation, pains in the shoulders, headache, belching, heartburn, loss of appetite, loss of sleep and fainting spells. For weeks I could not sleep on my back.

"One week ago, upon recommendation of friends, who tried the medicine, I purchased one bottle of Tanlac and began taking it. Since my second dose I have suffered none of these troubles to which I refer, and really believe I am going to get perfectly well and strong again. Won't that be wonderful at my age? Well, certain it is that Tanlac is a wonderful medicine, and you know I am not given to 'puffing' mere experiments and am a rather orthodox as to materia medica.

"I shall continue the treatment with perfect confidence in the final results.

(Signed) "FRANK V. EVANS."

Commenting on this splendid endorsement of Tanlac, G. F. Willis, international distributor of Tanlac, said:

"Although the list of prominent endorsers is a long one, I recall a few leading names that lend both dignity and credit to the entire array. Some of them are:

"Hon. C. W. Magnum of Atlanta, for three years sheriff of Fulton county, Ga.; Hon. McKenzie Moss, judge of the eighth districts of Kentucky; Hon. Moses R. Glenn, superintendent of printing for the state of Kentucky; Col. John B. Gains, editor and publisher, Bowling Green, Ky.; Mr. C. C. Cooper, president Georgia Cotton Oil company; Mr. H. W. Hill, bank president of South Pittsburg, Tenn.; Mr. J. F. Carroll, cotton mill superintendent of Chattahoochee, Ga.; Hon. A. E. Anderson of Houston, for seven terms sheriff of Harris county, Texas; Hon. S. S. Shepherd, ex-city councilman of Atlanta, and many others whose names have heretofore been given to the public."

Tanlac is sold in Bend by the Owl Pharmacy and in Sisters by George Aitken.—Adv.

WOMEN TO KILL PAIN.

(By United Press to The Bend Bulletin.)
WASHINGTON, July 15.—Many wounded doughboys prefer the tender care of women attendants when on the operating table. For this reason, the army is appointing women anaesthetists for the delicate work of administering the ether. Fifteen already have been appointed, the war department announces, receiving pay and privileges of first lieutenant, without, however, the actual rank.

Only graduate women physicians are eligible.

DONATES LOTS TO RED CROSS

HENRY LINSTER GIVES PROPERTY VALUED AT BETWEEN $750 AND $1,000 TO BEND CHAPTER THIS MORNING.

(From Friday's Daily.)
Three of the most valuable lots in Awbrey addition to Bend are to become the property of the Bend chapter of the Red Cross through a contribution made by Henry Linster today. Mr. Linster appeared at the office of his agent, J. A. Eastes, this morning and made the announcement that he wished to make a donation of the property to the Red Cross, the lots to be chosen by Mr. Eastes, together with Mrs. Birdsall of the Red Cross and two others.

Mr. Linster was born in Germany, but is a patriotic American citizen, having two sons now serving in the United States army. He stated this morning that it was his desire to make a contribution to the Red Cross and that perhaps a greater amount could be realized from the property than from any monetary contribution which he might be able to make.
