

Make the most of the remaining fine weather and use an

EASTMAN KODAK

HORTON DRUG CO., Successors to Reed & Horton

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

(From Wednesday's Daily.)
 Dan Heising is in the city from the Metolius transacting business.
 J. V. Williams of Prineville was a business visitor in the city yesterday.
 N. C. Newbill of Grizley is in the city today transacting business.
 O. C. Henkle and family have gone to Crescent lake for several weeks' outing.
 Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Moore of Redmond were visiting with friends in the city last night.
 R. W. Sawyer left this morning to attend the State Editorial association meeting at Marshfield.
 S. S. Harralson of Weiser, Idaho, arrived last night and will remain here some time on business.
 Lee A. Thomas arrived yesterday from Portland, where he has been for the past several weeks.
 R. B. Mutzig arrived yesterday morning from Portland and will remain for some time looking after his business interests here.
 Harry Monroe of Gateway, accompanied by Mrs. Monroe and the children, passed through Bend this morning for a several weeks' visit on the upper Deschutes.
 R. H. Deyarmond and family have returned from a two months' auto trip to California, coming in over the McKenzie pass road. Mr. Deyarmond reports that the recent rains have made the roads on the west side of the range practically impassible.
 Dr. Turner, eye specialist of Portland, will be in Bend again Friday, August 16, at Thorson's Jewelry store. One day only.—Adv 23-24c.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)
 A. B. Gertson of Silver Lake is in the city on business.
 Jack Harlin of Portland is a business visitor in the city.
 L. W. Shannon of Madras is a business visitor in the city.
 W. C. Derrick of Brothers is transacting business in Bend today.
 P. G. Mons of Terrebonne was a business visitor in the city yesterday.
 The Misses Anna and Ernie Gaylord of Paisley are in the city for a brief visit.
 H. J. Overturf visited the properties of the Oregon Nitrate company at Sheep mountain yesterday.
 Miss Katherine Faust of Los Angeles is visiting her uncle, Ernest Frank, at his ranch north of Deschutes.
 Mr. and Mrs. Frank Weisberg, formerly of Baker City, have located in Bend. Mr. Weisberg will open a junk shop here.
 Jack Busby of Burns was in the city this morning. Mr. Busby is on his way to Portland, where he will enlist in the army.

 W. E. Lytle of Pauline passed through Bend this morning on his way to Prineville, where he has been called by the local board.
 R. M. Smith left last night for Chicago, where he expects to accept a position with Marshall Field & Co., probably being assigned western territory.
 C. S. Hudson left last night for San Francisco to attend a Liberty loan meeting, instead of waiting until tonight as originally planned. Mrs. Hudson accompanied him.

(From Monday's Daily.)
 P. B. Poindexter of Prineville is visiting in the city.
 A. E. Hutchinson of Portland is a business visitor in the city.
 Wm. Johnson of Klamath Falls is a business visitor in the city.
 A. C. F. Perry of New York City is registered at the Pilot Butte.
 Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Lee of Portland are visiting in the city.
 Mrs. C. S. Hudson and children returned yesterday from a visit to Seaside.
 J. W. Henderson left this morning for an extended visit to Walla Walla Washington.
 T. L. Russell of Portland is in the city and will remain here for the next two weeks on a fishing expedition.
 A. M. Reynolds of Warm Springs was transacting business in the city today. He will leave tomorrow morning for a short visit at Klamath Falls.
 Mrs. M. H. Boskin of Ft. Rock arrived in Bend yesterday and will remain for some time on a visit with her father, Mr. Huett, on his ranch near here.
 Miss Clara Payler, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. L. C. Rudow, and Mr. Rudow for the past few weeks, leaves tonight on her return to her home in San Diego, Cal.
 An automobile party, in which were Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Elliott-King, Dr. and Mrs. F. A. Kiehle, H. W. Mitchell, Constance Mitchell, Kathleen Mitchell, and B. F. Hollman and wife, all of Portland, Oregon, was in Bend over Sunday, resting before continuing its trip south by way of Crater Lake park.

(From Saturday's Daily.)
 W. O. Harriman of Ft. Rock is here on business.
 E. L. Clark of La Pine is a business visitor in the city.

J. C. Cameron of Portland is registered at the Pilot Butte.
 E. G. Woodward of Portland is a business visitor in the city.
 Claude Stewart of Fremont is in the city transacting business.
 Mrs. Sarah Abel of Redmond was in Bend last night visiting with friends.
 M. C. Athey, employed on the Madras Pioneer, was visiting with friends in the city yesterday.
 F. E. Walter of Burns arrived in Bend this morning on his return home after spending several days in Portland.

(From Friday's Daily.)
 John Hayes of Silver Lake is visiting in the city.
 Ed. L. Moore of Seattle is a business visitor in the city.
 Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Brewer of Silver Lake are in the city.
 U. C. Hollinshead of La Pine is transacting business in the city.
 Mr. and Mrs. John Hayes of Portland arrived in the city last night.
 Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Sherman of Portland are registered at the Cozy hotel.

(From Thursday's Daily.)
 Mrs. F. S. Gunning of The Dalles is visiting in the city.

Gus Stadig of Lower Bridge is a business visitor in the city.
 A. J. and C. I. Summers of Bonanza are in the city on business.
 Lieut. H. A. Paage of Burns passed through Bend yesterday on his way to Portland.
 H. H. Kilgore, accompanied by Mrs. Kilgore and the children, is in the city from his home at Cloverdale.
 Rev. Weston F. Shields passed through Bend yesterday on his way to Burns after spending several days at Eugene.

News in Brief.
 Mrs. Reed in Portland.—Mrs. N. R. Reed of Burns, formerly of this city, left last night for a brief visit in Portland.
 Goes to The Dalles.—C. P. Niswonger left last night for The Dalles, where his father is seriously ill.
 Society to Meet.—The Women's Missionary society of the Methodist church will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. H. Staats.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)
Marines Raise Age Limit.—Sergeant J. E. Brooks, in charge of the Marine corps recruiting station, room 26 O'Kane building, has been notified that the maximum age for enlistment in the Marine corps has been raised from 36 to 40 years. The minimum age for enlistment in this branch of the service remains at 18 years as formerly. Men between 18 and 21 years of age can enlist in the Marine corps without obtaining permission of their parents. Men who are planning on enlisting before the coming registration day can secure full information by calling and having a talk with Sergeant Brooks in the O'Kane building. Mechanics for aviation, telegraphers and radio operators are needed immediately.
Son Is Wounded.—Mr. and Mrs. H. Mell, formerly of Boulevard addition, but now of Spokane, Washington, have been notified that their son, Private Leroy H. Melchisedeck, has been officially reported severely wounded in battle July 15, 1917. Melchisedeck enlisted April 13, 1917, at Minneapolis, Minn., in the Rainbow division, 151st field artillery. He left for over seas in October, 1917.

Addresses Meetings.—H. C. Hartman, county food administrator, returned this morning from the north end of the county, where he has been since Sunday. On Sunday evening he addressed a patriotic meeting at Terrebonne and spent all day yesterday on administration business in the various north end communities.
Three Trips to Europe.—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Innes have just received a message from their son Robert announcing his safe arrival in France. This makes three trips Robert has made across the Atlantic

Daughter's School Clothes Must be Made, and Mother Thinks Now a Good Time to Start---

--She wants to play safe and get material now.
 --She knows stocks and prices today.
 --But she doesn't know what what tomorrow will bring.
 --She's going to take no chances She's going to get everything done now.
 --And besides, she has more time than she'll have later

WASH GOODS SUGGESTIONS FOR SCHOOL DRESSES

Romper Cloth, 35c Yd.
 A splendid wearing material and so attractive for dresses; comes 32 inches wide in a selection of over 50 patterns.
FANCY GINGHAMS, 25c
 About 1,000 yards of plaid and checked Dress Gingham in all colors. 27 inches wide.
 Red Seal Gingham in plaids, checks, stripes. A fine wearing gingham; in all colors.
 35c Yard

WOOL MATERIALS FOR FALL AND WINTER DRESSES

36-inch Plaids at 65c, 75c, 85c, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50 yd.
 Splendid materials for Winter Dresses for school wear. The designs are all good and every girl will like them.
STORM SERGE
 65c, 85c, $1.25 Yd.
 A good material—makes up prettily with bright plaids or stripes—all colors.

STANDARD PATTERNS combine good styles and economy, and economy is the watchword today

STOP AND SHOP AT

MANNHEIMER BROTHERS

WHERE EVERYBODY TRADES

YOUR DRUG STORE

The Boys at the front will appreciate a letter written on any of our select line of Writing Paper

Just Remember

Magill & Erskine

O'KANE BUILDING

YOUR DRUG STORE

WARNERS

BEND'S ECONOMY CENTER

NEXT WEEK IS MID-SUMMER TOY WEEK!

Keep the Little Ones Busy with their Toys Buy Them New Ones if necessary.

An Extra Big Display Awaits You Here. Low Prices Prevail.

since he finished his naval training at Mare Island.
Leaves for Home.—Frank R. O'Brien, who has been spending the past several weeks with his brother, C. A. O'Brien, left Sunday for his home in Tucson, Arizona.
Presbyterian Guild.—The regular monthly meeting of the Presbyterian guild will be held at the home of Mrs. A. G. Powell on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30.
Visits Sister.—Mrs. John Ferguson and niece, Miss Golda McGilvray, arrived recently to visit the former's sister, Mrs. E. P. Brosterhaus, for several weeks.
 (From Monday's Daily.)
Monthly Dance Tonight.—The first regular monthly membership dance of the Bend Amateur Athletic club will be held at the gymnasium tonight. All members are urged to attend and to bring with them any who wish to join the club. Tickets will be $1 per couple.
Car Is Damaged.—H. K. Brooks, driving his Cole eight, ran into the supports on a bridge between this city and La Pine yesterday afternoon, causing heavy damage to his car. Passengers in the car with Mr. Brooks were uninjured.
Library Meeting.—There will be a meeting of the library association on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Business of importance is expected to come up and it is requested that all who can will be in attendance.
Rooms Are Closed.—The surgical dressing department of the Red Cross has been closed on account of lack of material. Notice will be given when the workers are again expected to report.
Goes to Prineville.—Judge H. C. Ellis left this morning for Prineville on a business trip.
 (From Saturday's Daily.)
Safe Overseas.—"I arrived safe overseas," is the word conveyed to The Bulletin by Private William Glenn Cox, Supply company 346, Field Artillery, with the American expeditionary forces. Mr. Cox left Bend early this year, and a card was received from him but a few weeks ago when he arrived at Camp Greene.
Visits with Daughter.—Mrs. W. Markel arrived in Bend from the east this morning and will visit with her daughter, Mrs. V. A. Forbes, during the next two months. Miss Elizabeth Peasley, her granddaughter, accompanied her.
Gives Tobacco to Boys.—Frank Massingale this afternoon contributed $1 to The Bulletin tobacco fund for the boys at the front, thereby helping to swell the fund for the "one pleasure" of the boys over there.
Change in Ellis Offices.—H. C. Ellis of the Bend Insurance Agency has enlarged his offices in the First National Bank building by taking over one of the rooms formerly occupied by Vernon A. Forbes.

(From Friday's Daily.)
Joined the Devil Dogs.—Arless F. Winebarger, age 21, has enlisted at the local Marine corps recruiting station at room 26 O'Kane building, and left last night for the Mare Island navy yard for training. Winebarger's home is at Mitchell, Oregon.
Takes Dr. Manning's Practice.—Dr. J. T. Walls of Portland recently arrived here and will for the next month occupy the offices of Dr. W. G. Manning, who left this morning to attend the university training school at Eugene.
Visits with Parents.—Mrs. George R. Stapleton of San Francisco arrived yesterday for a month's visit with her parents, Judge and Mrs. J. A. Eastes, who traveled by machine as far as Portland to meet her.
Barrows Trail Rough.—Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Eastes returned Tuesday evening from a pleasure tour to Portland. They returned over the Barrows trail, which is reported by Mr. Eastes to be exceedingly rough.
Mrs. Dement Home.—Mrs. Floyd Dement returned yesterday morning from Spokane, where she has been visiting for several months.
Miss Ward Leaves.—Miss Grace Ward, who has been the guest of Mrs. H. E. Allen for several weeks, left last night for Portland.
 (From Thursday's Daily.)
Military Spirit Evident.—In the new literature of the University of Oregon, which is just being sent out from the college in preparation for the coming school year, a wonderful war time development in college activities is noted. Nearly all of the illustrations show men wearing the uniform of the university cadet battalion, which during the past year has been training students for military service. Other pictures show the development of war service among the women, not only in preparation for hospital work, but also in training to take the places of men in the industries of the state.
Mr. and Mrs. Neely Leave.—Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Neely left this morning for Portland after making their home here for the past six months, during which time Mr. Neely has been employed at Magill & Erskines. W. L. Stevens, a former employe at the store, will arrive in a few days to take up his former duties and replace Mr. Neely.
Joins Merchant Marine.—Thos. J. McAndrews left this morning for Seattle, where he will join the merchant marine. Mrs. McAndrews and her son James will remain in this city during the absence of her husband and will reside at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Florence McAndrews, whose husband is also in army service.
Goes to Union.—Walter Ferguson left last night for Union, Oregon, where he will join Mrs. Ferguson, who has been there for some time. His stay will be indefinite.
Give your boy a chance.—Mt. Angel College, St. Benedict, Ore. Address Rev. E. L. Meier.—Adv 23.

Early Arrivals of Silk Dresses

Some very clever new models in satins, taffetas and combinations of georgette crepes and silk, colors are navy, green, brown, tan and black. Very moderately priced---

$12.50 to $27.50

The Peoples Store

Agent for R & G Corsets and Armor Plate Hosiery