

Sickness No Excuse for Men Between 18 and 45 Years Not Registering September 12

PORTLAND, Sept. 4.—Every man in the United States and its possessions between the ages of 18 and 20, inclusive, and 31 and 45, inclusive, whether he is a citizen or an alien, must register on the day proclaimed as registration day by President Wilson under the new draft law lowering and raising the draft ages.

The only exceptions are men already in the military and naval service of the regular army, navy and marine corps; of the drafted forces; of the National Guard while in the service of the United States; of the officers' reserve corps and enlisted men in the enlisted reserve corps while in the service of the United States; and officers and men in the naval reserve force and the marine corps reserve while in the service of the United States.

All others, without any exceptions whatsoever, must register on the day set by the President for registration day.

Even sickness will be no excuse for failure to register. Nor will absence from home, no matter how necessary. And ignorance of the date set for registration day will not be a valid excuse. The burden of learning when and where to register, and of registering accordingly on registration day, is on the individual.

Failure to register is punishable by imprisonment up to one year. Moreover, there is no alternative of paying a fine.

Though sickness and absence from home will not be accepted as excuses for failing to register, special arrangements have been made for registering sick persons and absentees by mail.

Any man who is unable to present himself for registration on registration day must send some competent person to apply to his local board for a copy of the registration card. The friend will be authorized by a representative of the board, if he considers the case bona fide, to take the card back to the sick person and make it out for him. The card must then be mailed or taken to the local board.

A man who must be absent from his home precinct on registration day should go at once to the local board nearest the place where he happens to be and have his registration card made out and certified to.

This registration card will then be given to the man registering, with instructions to mail it without delay to his home local board in time to reach the board by registration day. This is very important, for the burden is on the registrant of seeing that his home local board receives the card by registration day.

He is not registered until his home local board does receive his card.

When mailing the card, the registrant should enclose a self-addressed and stamped envelope for the return to him of a registration certificate.

It is important that every registrant have this registration certificate, and that he keep it always on his person. Otherwise, he may be put to very serious inconvenience, including a night in jail, for all police officers are authorized and instructed to arrest men of draft age who cannot produce their registration certificates.

BILLUPS WANTS ORDER CHANGED

APPEALS TO LOCAL BOARD TO CHANGE RULING PLACING HIM IN CLASS 1-A—BOARD MAY NOT HEED PROTEST.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)
Otto F. Billups, charged with being a draft evader by the local war board, has again demonstrated that he does not desire to go to war, members of the board having received a telegram from him stating that he desired to appeal from the decision of the board placing him in class 1a and that affidavits were being sent by mail.

Billups was arrested in Portland recently after having evaded the efforts of the local board to find him for several weeks. Following the custom adopted by the war department for draft evaders, as soon as Billups was found he was placed in class 1a and ordered to report on the call for men for Camp Lewis, September 5. It is from this order that he is now appealing to the local board. There is, however, little hope for him from that source, as the members are still of the opinion that it was not necessary for Billups to hide his place of residence or change his name, which it is claimed he did, if he desired to abide by the ruling of the war department.

SENATOR SHERMAN ASSAILS PRESIDENT

Declares That Politics Are Still Existing Under the Guise of Patriotism.

(By United Press to The Bend Bulletin.)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—Senator Sherman, ridiculing the statement made by President Wilson that politics had adjourned, declared that "a worse and more rampant and rancorous politics had never abused patriotism or the generous confidence of a great nation." He said that "under the guise of war needs steps had been taken to change the cherished American government into a 'civilian autocracy.'"

NATION WANTS PEACH STONES

BOYS AND GIRLS OF THE COUNTY ARE ASKED TO MAKE SPECIAL EFFORT TO SECURE PRODUCT FOR THE GOVERNMENT.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)
Industrial club workers of the county are to be called to the service of the government in collecting plum, peach, apricot and cherry pits and all kinds of nut shells, which are being used by the government in the manufacture of carbon for gas masks.

An urgent call for this material has been sent out to the various industrial club heads throughout the state asking that these pits be gathered, the statement adding that the carbon necessary for gas masks can only be obtained from this material.

J. Alton Thompson, superintendent of schools, who has the work in charge in this county, is making a special appeal to the boys and girls of the county to save these pits. While the industrial club members will work as a body in the collection, individuals not connected with the club are requested to gather and save as far as possible. This is the canning season for peaches and practically every home will have a quantity of these pits. If the boys and girls will hold these until school commences next week, arrangements are to be made by Mr. Thompson for their collection.

Persons living in the rural districts who desire to aid the government in this manner may bring their supplies to Bend and leave them at the office of the county superintendent of schools in the court house.

MILITIA DRILL THRICE WEEKLY

WILL TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THE PRESENCE OF MAJOR COMFORT DURING STAY HERE TO IMPROVE MILITARY TACTICS.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)
Three drill nights each week are to be staged by Companies A and B of the Bend militia during the stay here of Major Comfort, possibly for the next three weeks. These nights have been divided into Monday, Wednesday and Friday. This decision was arrived at during the regular weekly meeting of the militia members last night.

Because the daylight is becoming shorter each day, it has also been arranged to set the time of drill ahead one-half hour, the companies being called for 7 o'clock now instead of 7:30 as in the past.

Prepare for Changeable Weather.

H. B. Miller, R. F. D. 10, Wooster, O., writes: "By the changing of beds and the weather, I took a very bad cold and sore throat. Four doses of Foley's Honey and Tar put me right in a day's time." It pays to get the genuine Foley's and avoid substitutes and counterfeits. Contains no opiates. Sold everywhere.—Adv.

continued Mr. Howard. "I had gotten to where I could hardly eat a thing, because everything went against me and besides I had no appetite. Every joint in me was swollen with rheumatism, and hurt so I could hardly bear to be touched. I was in such a bad fix I couldn't work, so I decided to come down here and go to a hospital for treatment.

"When I got here six weeks ago, I was so crippled up I had to use a walking stick in order to get along at all. My daughter, who lives here, got to begging me to try Tanlac, but I had tried so many things that did me no good, that I had no faith in Tanlac either. But she insisted, until just to please her I decided to try it. The first bottle made a great change in my feelings. My rheumatism soon left me, so I threw my stick aside, and now can walk as good as anybody.

"And eat, why I just can't get enough. I believe I feel all of twenty years younger, and it's the first time in that long time that I have felt like myself, and I feel like I could do as much work as I ever could. Well, the hospital has had one less to treat, but I have saved a good many dollars and have gotten rid of my troubles, besides, and when I got home the folks who knew what a bad fix I was in are going to be surprised to see such a difference. Tanlac is worth its weight in gold, and it has convinced me that there's at least one medicine that will do what they say it will and I want to do my part in letting everybody know about it."

Tanlac is sold in Bend by The Owl Pharmacy, and in Sisters by Geo. Aitken.—Adv.
