THREE MEN AND THE VISION THEY SAW.

By Bruce Barton.

In a certain city dwell three men. And by accident of birth one of them is a Catholic and one is a Protestant and one is a Jew.

For thirty years they have engaged in business side by side, and the Catholic has not dealt with the Protestant; and the Catholic and the Protestant have had no dealings with the Jew.

"What is he to me?" each man has said. "He is not of my faith: I will avoid him."

So for thirty years they have dwelt together, strangers in a friendly world.

Then came the shadow of a fearful war. And out of those three homes three boys went forth alone. Three fathers waited heart-worn for the letters from over there.

"There are Soldiers of Friendliness over here," the boys wrote home. "They bring us chocolate, and motion pictures, and baseball, and good lectures; and the memory of mother and of God."

"Help those friendly agencies when you have the chance," each boy wrote home.

So it happened that the three fathers found themselves working shoulder to shoulder in a great campaign for funds.

Not as a Catholic and a Protestant and a Jew—but as good citizens united in a common cause.

And as they worked they came to know each other; and they were ashamed that for so many years they had been strangers side by side.

"Surely this is one of the compensations of war," they said, "that in our deeper love for our boys we have learned a new respect for one another."

So a new spirit was born into that city. As though in its heart it had discovered something of the greater religion, whose God is Father; and whose faith and creed are love.

AN APPEAL.

City and county authorities, in co-operation with private individuals, have made possible the establishment of the emergency influenza hospital in the new gymnasium. To obtain the full benefit of the institution and to end in the quickest time possible the epidemic now existing here they need and should have the complete co-operation and assistance of every citizen of Bend.

Measures taken this morning have removed any possible chance of friction through a double-headed management of the hospital. Steps have also been taken to have the situation dealt with calmly and sanely. Now men are needed to help in the work; and women also. Women, indeed, more than men. And all who can give themselves during the emergency should come forward.

School teachers who are laid off on account of the influenza epidemic must be paid their wages. We wonder if theatre managers have to pay rent. And what about the minister's salary? Insofar as that is dependent on "offerings" it must be coming in slowly. Would it not be a good thing for church members to make their offerings through the mail?

After the war the thing to put on all manufactured goods will be "NOT made in Germany."

Somewhat different from the election two years ago?

Germany is taking the helm away from Wilhelm.

Among those elected is included the kaiser.

News in Brief.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

TOO FAR OUT OF TOWN.

Four Hollanders arrived in Bend last night from Portland, claiming to have been sent here by a Portland employment agency to work for a local lumber company in the construction of a logging road. The work, they said, was to have been two miles from the city. When they were offered positions in the logging camps, eight miles from the city, they refused, declaring it was too far out.

MRS. ELLIS' PARENTS HERE.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Morrison and their daughter, Mrs. Blanche Brady, have recently arrived in Bend from Hooker, Oklahoma, and will make their home here, occupying the S. A. Blakely house on Greenwood avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Morrison are the parents of Mrs. H. C. Ellis, and Mrs. Brady will take charge of the office work of the Bend Insurance agency.

FINED FIFTEEN DOLLARS.

Matt Aust, an Austrian, arrested Sunday for the theft of an overcoat from an S. P. & S. brakeman, was fined $15 and costs in Judge Eastes' court yesterday afternoon. Aust gave his reasons for the theft by declaring some one had stolen his overcoat and he knew with cold weather coming on he would need another.

IS BURIED AT THE OLD HOME

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD THIS MORNING OVER THE REMAINS OF MISS KATHERINE GRACE VANDEVERT.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

Funeral services over the remains of Miss Katherine Grace Vandeventer, who died in this city Sunday evening following an attack of pneumonia brought on through illness from influenza, were held at 10 o'clock this morning on the lawn at the home of her brother, Dr. J. C. Vandeventer. Interment was made at the "Old Homestead" ranch, the family home.

Miss Vandeventer was a native of New York state, coming to Oregon nearly 25 years ago, where the family settled 20 miles southwest of Bend on the "Old Homestead." There she grew up with her father and mother, brothers and sisters as companions, and there she developed a character of unusual beauty.

She attended the Bend schools and was graduated from the Bend high school, the following year attending the Willamette university in Salem. The winter of 1915-1916 she taught in the Bend schools. August last she accepted a position in the local postoffice and became interested and engrossed in her work. Many people have received her kindly and ready service for Uncle Sam. The admirable qualities of noble womanhood were hers, loyalty, sincerity, honor and faith in a Supreme Power. Because she loved mankind she herself was loved deeply by those whose fortune it was to know her.

Her illness of a week started with a cold which developed into the dreaded influenza and then pneumonia, which became rapidly serious. She rallied from the first approach of that and the second time fought for hours for every moment of her life, but was taken back by the Power that gave her.

Of her immediate family she is the first to go. Her mother and father and oldest brother, William, live on the home ranch; Dr. J. C. Vandeventer in Bend; Claude, a private in the 56th division, 162nd Infantry, is now on the way to New York; George, a medical student, in Portland; Arthur in the Students' Army Training camp, Eugene; one sister, Mrs. Catlow, teaches in La Pine; Mittie, residing with relatives in Arkansas. All are here except Claude and Mittie.

CALDWELL HERE TO VOTE.

Mayor S. C. Caldwell arrived in the city this morning from Vancouver, Washington, where he is employed as shop foreman in the sheet metal department of one of the large shipyards there. He stated his return to Bend was made expressly for the purpose of casting his vote at the state and city election today. He will remain here for several days.

LEGAL BOARD OPEN.

The legal board, for the purpose of aiding registrants in filling out their questionnaires, was opened in the circuit court rooms this morning with R. S. Hamilton and E. O. Stadler in charge. With the exception of one hour for lunch and another for dinner, the rooms will be open until 10 o'clock this evening.

FORMER BEND MAN DEAD.

Word has been received in this city of the death of Julius Kortzman, a former resident of this city. He had been working at the shipyards in Vancouver, Washington, and his death, which was the result of an attack of influenza, occurred about two weeks ago.

MILL MEN COME FIRST.

Dr. R. W. Hendershott, county health officer, is at the logging camps today of The Shevlin-Hixon Company and the Brooks-Scanlon company administering serum for influenza. He is being aided in this work by Dr. Hyde of Redmond.

GOES TO VIRGINIA.

Lieut. Harry Newton has been ordered to Virginia, supposedly for embarkation overseas, according to word received by his father, W. G. Newton, of this city. Lieut. Newton has been at Salt Lake City during the past four weeks.

VARCO RETURNS HOME.

E. E. Varco, candidate for county commissioner, two-year term, returned to his home at Brothers this morning after spending the past two weeks on a canvass of the county.

(From Monday's Daily.)

QUESTIONNAIRES ARE OUT.

Between 750 and 800 questionnaires to the men between the ages of 18 and 19 and 37 and 45, inclusive, were mailed out by the local war board yesterday and received by the registrants this morning.

EXAMINATIONS EACH TUESDAY.

Physical examinations of men in class 1, September registration, are being made on Tuesday of each week. The men are notified on what days to appear by the local war board.

SCHOOL CENSUS BEING TAKEN.

Teachers of the public schools of Bend commenced taking the census of the city at 9 o'clock this morning. The district has been divided into 16 sections, two teachers taking a section and making a house-to-house canvass. It is expected the work will be complete this evening.

(From Saturday's Daily.)

TUMALO BOY FOR SERVICE.

Mahlon Couch of Tumalo has been called by the local draft board to entrain November 11 for Camp Lewis, under the order received by the local board yesterday. Couch's name was next in the list and a substitute was required, a vacancy being made in the call as announced yesterday through the death of L. P. Mikkelsen at Baker City.

SCHOOLS ARE CLOSED.

Practically all of the schools of the county have been closed as a re-

MORE SUGAR MAY BE USED

GOVERNMENT RAISES AMOUNT TO THREE POUNDS PER PERSON PER MONTH, FOLLOWING STOPPING OF CANNING.

(From Friday's Daily.)

Consumers are again permitted three pounds of sugar per month per person, provided the purchase is made before the 15th of the month. This announcement was made by County Food Administrator Hartranft this morning, following the receipt of a telegram from the state office.

Mr. Hartranft stated that the increase in the proportion was undoubtedly due to the withdrawal of canning sugar from the market, yesterday being the last day on which sugar was sold for this purpose.

Customers are permitted the family supply for the month at one purchase.

Twelve pounds of substitute is required with each purchase of 50 pounds of sugar, Mr. Hartranft announced. There had been some confusion regarding this, he declared, many of the grocers and the public generally believing that ten pounds is all that is required.

sult of the epidemic of Spanish influenza, it has been reported by the county school superintendent's office. While the disease has not made its appearance in all county districts, the boards are taking the closing order as a matter of precaution.

L. P. MIKKELSON IS DEAD.

Word was received in this city this morning of the death of L. P. Mikkelsen, a former Bend resident, at Baker City. Mikkelsen was of draft age and had been called to report for entrainment to Camp Lewis on November 11. The cause of his death was not given in the report.

100 POUNDS IN 48 SPUDS.

Forty-eight potatoes make up a sack of 100 pounds which has been donated to The Bulletin tobacco fund by Bert Meeks of Hampton. The potatoes are to be auctioned off, the proceeds to be turned over to the fund.

GETS GOOD CROP.

Two tons of potatoes were raised on less than a half acre of land by E. E. Varco of Brothers at his ranch there by the dry land method this year, giving an exceptionally good crop. Some few of the tubers weighed over two pounds each.

SHEEP GOING THROUGH.

George Stillwell, in charge of a band of 800 sheep belonging to Guy Ingerman, is in town on his way to the Mackintosh ranch. The sheep are in the vicinity of Lava Butte and working in. Mr. Stillwell reports them in fine condition.

STANDARD SLEEPER OFF.

The standard sleeper between this city and Portland on the O. T. has been discontinued until further notice, it was announced by railroad officials here today.

MRS. LAWRENCE RETURNS.

Mrs. J. M. Lawrence returned this morning from a several days' trip to Portland.

WILSON RANCH IS DISPOSED OF

ALFALFA, Nov. 6.—Billy Wilson of Powell Butte has disposed of all his holdings in Alfalfa to Con Brien, a sheep man.

Mr. and Mrs. McBain of Prineville have moved onto the place vacated by Curt Holloway.

Peter Grabler and family of Bend have moved onto the Curt Muller place. V. S. Bushnell of Roberts was looking after his cattle interests in Alfalfa this week.

The Alfalfa school opened again Monday after being closed to prevent the flu.

Carl Larson is clearing some new land on the Guerin ranch.

Albert Ferry, a mail clerk on the Portland-Baker run, is home, convalescing from an attack of influenza.

Mrs. M. L. Pyatt received a letter Saturday stating all her people now in Montana are afflicted with the flu.

Mrs. Frank Ogle of The Dalles is visiting old friends in Alfalfa.

Considerable work is being done on the irrigation canals under the supervision of Rae Leonard.

Ralph Ferry, who has been in active service in France for more than a year, has been disabled and returned to the U. S. He is at present in a hospital in the east, but hopes to return to his home in Alfalfa soon.

But few people visited the polls at Alfalfa November 5. Such indifference should be discouraged.

Howard L. Burright and Albert Schults were in Bend Wednesday attending to the filling out of their questionnaires.

The Jolly Neighbors' club at their last meeting voted the money received from their Red Cross quilt, which amounted to about $170, turned into the Bend headquarters. Their regular meeting has been postponed to help prevent the flu.

Mrs. Mary Benn is visiting relatives in Portland and Aberdeen. Frank Tatti is looking after her alfalfa ranch and cattle during her absence.

Frank Hafener has been summoned to Bend for physical examination for the U. S. army.

POLITICS NOW IN BACKGROUND

his friends who have been here insist that he has got the thing right by the forelock. Gordon declared in his pre-primary campaign that he was down on the Bolsheviks and a regular rip-roaring hunter after the scalps of all of that ilk and clan.

He is a large gentleman, with a very stern, set face which probably would cause a Bolshevik to jump a mile were he to come into contact with it in some lonely spot. Seymour Jones, on the other hand, used to be a lawyer in Chicago, which might spell most anything. He now raises fruit and all of the political disturbances he is able to, which so far has not been very much. Mr. Jones worked against the $5,000,000 bond bill in the last session and for it after the session was over. This didn't queer him in Marion county, as those who were opposed to the bill besieged him for what he did in the legislature, and those who favored (who, by the way, were few and far between in this county) blessed him for what he did after the session was over, and they all voted for him in the primaries and the general election. His having formerly been a Chicago lawyer may have made it possible for him to get away with it, but it is doubtful if it could have been pulled in any other county than Marion.

It is certain that Jones made a number of legislators quite peeved at the stand he took on the bond bill in the last session, and very few of them having been in the county during the campaign following, it is not likely he has wormed himself back into their good graces. The chances are that he hasn't much chance, although this would meet with a loud denial for him.

What chances Denton Burdick has repose largely in his own bosom and that of his prospective supporters, as far as any information that can be heard around here. A few legislators who have drifted in have been asked that question on they say that they don't figure him as a very heavy contender. Probably they have intended to vote for someone else any way. Logically, however, it appears that he could have a good opportunity to put it over, with a Willamette valley man bucking against a Multnomah county man and the Eastern Oregon man standing on the sidelines. Frankly Burdick was not approved of by a number of the members of the last legislature. Whether this disapproval will stretch over into the one coming up is a problem still to be decided. So far prospective legislation in the next session seems to be in rather a hazy and cloudy stage. It is certain there will be a large number of 'break measures about war proposals, there will be considerable jockeying about as to appropriations and the usual grist of amendments sought by the various state departments will all take up time. Generally, however, the atmosphere has been freer from discussion of possible legislation than it has been this far away from the beginning of a session for many years. Legislation has suffered the same handicaps as politicians and apathy is in the air as to all questions except those of war and peace.
