POWELL BUTTE MAN IS DEAD

POWELL BUTTE, Nov. 20.—Powell Butte community is saddened by the death of one of its most popular young men, Dewey Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moore, former residents of Powell Butte section, passed away Saturday, November 16, at the home of his employer, Arthur Wurzweller. Dewey was stricken with influenza and soon developed pneumonia. All that three doctors and the faithful, tender nursing of a loving mother was done for him, but to no avail. His remains were buried Sunday in Redmond cemetery. The sympathy of their friends, who are legion, goes out to Mr. and Mrs. Moore.

The Shultz wood saw men notified the people that he would begin operations in this section, so there is a general hustling to the desert after wood.

Joe Shearer has a small crew working on the ditch cleaning out sand, strengthening the bank, etc.

Will Arnold was taken with influenza in Prineville last week and Mrs. Arnold immediately went in to nurse him. She was soon stricken with the same disease and they are both quite ill at this time. Mrs. Arnold's father, Marion Templeton, came out to stay on the ranch with the boys until their parents recover.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wurzweller are recovering from influenza. No new cases have developed as yet that we have heard.

Dr. H. P. Belknap was called to Powell Butte to attend the sick at the Wurzweller home Friday.

Geo. Truesdale and family were here Prineville visitors Thursday last.

C. M. Charlton was called to the county seat to help make the official count of ballots last week.

A hard wind and rain and hail storm visited this section Friday of last week. The following morning the citizens of Powell Butte awoke to find the buttes covered with snow.

Ernie Inglehart from the Oreweiler mill was a dinner guest at the E. A. Bussett home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Bayne of Deschutes were guests of their old neighbor friends, the E. A. Busetts, the first of the week.

Mrs. John McDaniel has been quite seriously ill of pneumonia, but is slightly improved at present writing. The children of the family all had the flu.

Wallace Smith expects to haul his wheat to Prineville, commencing this week.

Mrs. B. Mauseau and daughter Cecelia are planning a visit to Tacoma friends soon to remain over the holidays.

Miss Josephine Mauseau will enter Good Samaritan hospital, Tacoma, soon for training.

John Tuck is carrying the mail while Reaves Willcoxon is ill with the flu.

A large number of people from here attended the funeral of Dewey Moore in Redmond Sunday. Among them we mention the names of the Pauls, Driscolls, Wilsons, Gibsons, Truesdales, Mauseaus, with others.

Carl Fisher will soon complete a nice new bungalow on his land recently purchased from Max Strichner.
