

SANDERS TELLS OF OCEAN TRIP

WRITES INTERESTING LETTER TO HIS PARENTS IN THIS CITY —IS GLAD THAT WAR IS OVER, AND DISCHARGE IS WANTED.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)
Watching Hun prisoners tack up fourth Liberty loan posters, while a doughboy stands behind them with his bayonet fixed, is one of the most amusing things witnessed in many trips to France, says Harold J. Sanders, seaman first class, aboard the U. S. S. "Western Ocean," in a recent letter to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Sanders, in this city, which follows:

HAROLD J. SANDERS.

U. S. S. Western Ocean,
Nov. 12, 1918.

Dear Folks at Home:
I will try and write a few lines to tell you that I am well and sure happy. For why? That the war is over. We had a very nice trip back from France, though it took us about 20 days to come on account of bad weather.

We pulled into Norfolk, Va., Nov. 11, the day that the armistice was signed, and that was sure good news to us. We pulled into the bay in the morning and dropped anchor, then got orders to pull up to Baltimore, Md., and we are on our way for that town now. This is 2 o'clock p. m. and we expect to get there about 12 o'clock tonight. Gee, but I am glad that we are going there, for Norfolk is a bum town. Ask Elzie and he will tell you the same. When I got to Baltimore I hope to go up to Washington, D. C., and see the city and the White House and maybe speak to President Wilson about my discharge. Ha! ha! All you can hear is "Discharge! Discharge!" Maybe we will make another trip and maybe not. I cannot tell yet. We may get transferred into the barracks. We will know all about it in a few days after we get there.

I will now go back and tell you of a few things in France. Poor France! It sure does look like it had went through a war. And the poor, heroic people! How our hearts should bleed for them! We should never deny them anything that we can give them, though we go a little hungry ourselves. They would come down to the ship and get scraps of meat and bread and stuff like that out of our garbage barrels to eat, and most of them had very few clothes. That is the poor people. But the rich ones seemed all right. About all there is left over there is cafes and pretty girls. The funniest thing I saw there was four German prisoners putting up fourth Liberty loan signs, and they were being hurried along at the job by a doughboy with a bayonet at their rear. That was sure fun for us, but I don't believe they enjoyed it a bit. There is a thousand things I could tell you about, but I am like Miles Standish, "a fighting man; not an author of words." On our way back we passed a lifeboat afloat. No one was in it. It looked as though some ship had been sunk a few days before. But we have nothing to worry about now if we do make another trip. We will have our lights and we won't have to be forever on the lookout for the pirate U-boats of the Huns. I hope

I may be home in a few months, then I can tell you mouth to mouth all about it. But don't expect me too soon, for it takes time to clean up after a big job like this war has been.

Well, Thanksgiving will soon be here, and I am thankful that I am back in the dear old U. S. A. and that Old Glory still waves in victory and honor. Talking about our joy over the peace news, a funny thing happened yesterday. There is a young fellow here that lives at Paisley, Oregon, and he came running up to me and said: "By—, Fat, when I get my discharge and start for home, won't we burn the rails? And when I strike the old Deschutes canyon I am going right over the tender and help the fireman shovel coal so we will get there faster." His name is Gaylord and he is sure a good matie. I sure did laugh. Of course he wants to see his mamma; so do I. Well, last month I went up for a higher rating and I got it. Seaman, first class, means $4 a month more to help me pay for my fourth Liberty bond. Tomorrow we expect to get our mail, the first in two months. Won't we be glad to hear from home and friends?

I am sending you a box of souvenirs from France and the battle-front. The handkerchiefs are made by the poor little French girls, who earn no more than one franc per day. What would the dear Bend girls think of that, who make $3 per day, or about 16 francs? The rings are made from buttons cut from the uniforms of dead German soldiers. The tin money was given to the Yankee sailors to spend in their entertainment by the city of La Rochelle and was good anywhere in the city. The other coins are of French and English make of different denominations and dates. This is all I can send you for your Xmas presents this year. Goodbye. From your son,
HAROLD J. SANDERS,
Seaman, 1st Class,
U. S. S. Western Ocean.

SOLOMON IN ALL HIS GLORY WOULD BREAK

(By United Press to The Bend Bulletin.)
LONDON, Nov. 3.—(By Mail.)—Solomon's desire, "Stay me with figs, comfort me with apples," would be quite out of the question if he lived in England today, unless he was prepared to pay war prices. Flagon of Australian wine which used to be 42 cents are now $1.14, and edible apples are bringing 36 cents.

HUN SITUATION CAUSES ALARM

ANARCHISTIC RULE IS FEARED BY LEADERS.

Former Empire Broken Up Would Present Problem in Collection of Indemnities for Crimes of the War.

By Robert J. Bender
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—The eyes of the world are on the returning German soldiers. It is now wondered whether they are to aid in restoring order or are to follow the anarchistic pleadings of Dr. Karl Liebknecht, who is the Lenin of Germany. The return of the soldiers will determine if the enemy is to regain its feet or will join with Russia in a reign of chaos and crime.

The fear is expressed here that the German soldiers, returning to their barren cupboards in the war broken homes, will adopt the doctrine of Liebknecht, who, like Lenin, stands not only against German imperialism but has threatened the democratic peace of the allied world.

With Germany under the dominion of Bolsheviki the greater portion of Europe will be in the hands of the anarchists. The problem is giving the statesmen of the civilized governments cause for most solemn thought and worry.

As to allied aid for Germany, no definite conclusions have yet been reached. It is certain that if Bolshevism gains ascendancy in Germany the allied armies will be the only means of combatting the spread of the disorder to other nations. It might be that an armed cordon would be thrown around the nation from

ARMY AND NAVY MEN ARE IN RIOT

ATTEMPT TO BREAK UP MEETING.

Socialists Congregating in Madison Square Garden Only Saved from Riot by Intervention of Police.

(By United Press to The Bend Bulletin.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—As the result of an outbreak against 12,000 Socialists holding a meeting in Madison Square Garden last night flying squadrons of soldiers, sailors and marines surged through the streets today roughly handling all who were found to be wearing red buttons, ribbons or even red neckties. Many were beaten, and the police were unable to stop the disorder.

Service men followed the mad throngs of army men, and were aided by more than a thousand civilians in quieting the outbreaks.

The police last night were able to save the Socialist meeting in Madison Square Garden from serious riot. When it was learned that the radicals inside were waving red flags hundreds of sailors and soldiers attempted to smash the doors and gain admittance. The police were powerless to hold them back until 50 mounted officers came to the rescue, forcing the mob back for several blocks.

700,000 ARE CARED FOR BY ITALIANS

ROME, Nov. 27.—Italy expended over 100,000,000 francs ($20,000,000) in care of refugees brought here by the war. With Italy's entrance into the war some 120,000 Italians from the irredemed provinces immediately flocked into Italy for protection. Later this number was increased by those who fled before the Austro-German invasion, bringing the total number up to 700,000.

the armies of the allies, or leading cities might be occupied in the hope of restoring order.

Some officials are of the opinion that the internal troubles which are now so rampant may be but a system of camouflage, behind which Germany is hiding in hope of escaping the punishment for her crimes. Others are of the opinion that the revolutionary troubles are genuine.

Germany is splitting into states as the disintegration proceeds, and it is expected that the next whine of the German people will be that they were not responsible for the starting of the war, that the old empire, which was so foul, is dead, so why should the German people be forced to pay the bills. It is admitted that the task of collecting indemnities from scattering German independent states would be most difficult.

Oregon Farmer Gains 28 Pounds

"I Simply Feel Like a New Man," Says Welch After Taking Tanlac.
"To look at me now you'd hardly think that just a little while ago my life was despaired of and I was told to make my plans accordingly; but Tanlac has fixed me up so I am out in the fields every day forking hay, and that's a strong man's job I can tell you."
This remarkable statement was made the other day by William Welch, a well known farmer who has lived all his life about a mile north-east of Beaverton, Oregon, on Route 4, Box 31, in telling of his wonderful recovery through the use of Tanlac.

"I had always enjoyed pretty good health up to the first of last March," he continued, "when something seemed to go wrong and I got into such a rundown condition that I fell off from a hundred and fifty-five to a hundred and thirty-two pounds, a loss of twenty-three pounds. I was terribly weak, and my heart would beat and thump so fast that I could hardly rest at night. I had to be very careful about what I would eat and for three months I lived on the very lightest kind of diet. My skin had a yellowish, sallow look like I didn't have any blood in my veins, and I wasn't able to do a lick of work on my farm. I got mighty discouraged, for none of the medicines I took did me any good and I really thought my time had come."
"I was in this awful fix when I read about the wonderful way Tanlac was helping others, so I got me a bottle. Well, I began to feel better soon after starting on it and kept on improving right along as I kept on taking it. I have just finished my second bottle, and I have not only gotten back all my lost weight but am actually five pounds heavier than I was before I was sick at all, that is I have gained twenty-eight pounds since I began taking Tanlac. I don't have a bit of trouble now and simply feel like a new man."
Tanlac is sold in Bend by Owl Drug Co., in Sisters by Geo. F. Atken, and in Bend by Horton Drug Co.—Adv.

HOW A SALESMAN SUFFERED.

R. J. Porter, Sterling, Col., writes: "I suffered with a painful, weak back. As a traveling salesman I had to stoop frequently to pick up my grips, and the pain when I straightened up was awful. I was induced to try Foley's Kidney Pills. Relief was immediate. Say, they are great." Prompt and tonic. Sold everywhere.—Adv.
