TREES AS MEMORIALS.

Recently we mentioned the subject of a memorial for our soldiers and sailors and how comes the Oregon Journal with a discussion of the planting of trees for the purpose. Says the Journal:

"In many states plans are now being formulated to erect memorials in honor of soldiers and sailors. A striking feature of these plans is that the old idea of building monuments of stone or bronze is hardly discussed. Instead the general thought seems to be directed toward those constructions which have life and can be made to combine sentiment with utility.

"A favorite plan is the building of boulevards, which are to be adorned with memorial trees. At the national capital an 'Avenue of the Allies' is suggested, the avenue to be planted with trees in honor of the allied nations. In Chicago a 'Pershing boulevard' is to be lined with memorial trees, is talked of. In St. Louis the planting of trees, as a proper setting for the memorial under discussion, is urged.

"A similar suggestion is heard in Kansas City. Governor Capper of Kansas has indorsed a plan to plant memorial trees along the main highways of the state. 'Victory oaks' or 'Victory elms' are proposed in New York City.

"The suggestion that Oregon build a 'Victory Highway' between Portland and Salem is based on this general trend of thought, but is broader in conception.

"In all other plans thus far brought forward there is more or less a predominating feature of local influence and benefit.

"This phase manifests itself less appreciably in the suggestion of a highway which offers the most inviting field for the integration of a state-wide interest. Yet it affords opportunity for local expression in the way of embellishment in conformity with a general scheme. Every town or community through which the highway shall pass may honor those whom it desires to so do by planting trees, hedges or by erecting triumphal arches, statues or other memorials by the roadside. Another thought is that there is in existence something on which to build. The state has already undertaken the improvement of the road between Salem and Portland. These plans could be taken over and enlarged in conformity with the larger idea which it is desired to symbolize and perpetuate.

"From every viewpoint the suggestion of a highway makes the strongest appeal to sentiment and practicality. It is one which offers the widest field for state effort and one which could be made a subject of progressive development through the years to come."

MR. HOOVER'S REQUEST.

Mr. Hoover undoubtedly knows what he is talking about when he tells us that we must send unprecedented quantities of food abroad and that to get this food we must continue to save in every way, but in view of other announcements concerning the food situation the public finds itself in a good deal of perplexity.

Last year we shipped abroad some 10,000,000 tons of foodstuffs, practically every bit of it representing voluntary saving on the part of the American people. To effect this saving, however, definite programs were laid before the people of meatless days, wheatless days and the use of wheat substitutes in bread making. The program was followed as requested, and the savings were effected. In other words, we were given particular directions as to saving specific kinds of food and we saved them.

Today the whole thing lies in the realm of generalities. All restrictions on the use of food of every kind, unless perhaps sugar, are removed. And in the case of sugar the permitted amounts are so large as to amount to practically unrestricted use. Meat may be eaten every day and three times a day, if we desire; wheat may be purchased without substitutes, and full wheat bread may be made and purchased without restraint. The only limits are the individual's ability to purchase (still an important consideration)

(tion) and the food administration's request that we save.

The American people have shown that they are ready to save. Last winter's self-denial proved that. But their economy must be organized in some way. They must be told just what to save. Standards of economy must be set up for them. Otherwise the food program can only be a hit or miss proposition, and that is what must come from the present general-ly.

A FEW EXTRACTS.

The people who are running the affairs of the war risk insurance get some odd communications. Here are a few authentic extracts from matter received:

She is staying at a dissipated house.

He was inducted into the surface.

Previous to his departure we were marred by the justice of the peace.

I have a four months' old baby and he is my only support.

A lone woman and pasley dependent.

I was discharged from the army, as I have a goller which I was sent home on.

I do not know my husband has a middle name, and if he has I don't believe it is none.

I need his assistance to keep me inclosed.

Caring for my condition which I haven't walked in 3 months from a broke leg whose number is 975.

Your relation to him? Just a mere aunt and a few cousins.

I received $61.00 and am certainly provoked tonight.

In service of the United States Army.

I received the insurance Polish, and have since moved my post office.

You ask for my allotment number. I have four boys and two girls.

Please correct my name, as I could not go very well under a consumed name.

Date of birth? Not yet, but soon.

I have been in bed thirteen years with one doctor and I intend to get another.

Dear Mr. Wilson: I have already written to Mr. Headquarters and received no reply. Now if I don't hear from you I will write to Uncle Sam Himself.

Money was kept for the elopement for money which I never received.

Please return my marriage certificate; baby hasn't eaten for two days.

Now, Mrs. Wilson, I need help bad; see if the President can't help me. I need him here to see after me.

If you don't send my allotment I will be forced to lead an immortal life.

My Son is in the middle of the Mediterranean Sea.

SENIORS TAKE UP HOME STUDY

PLANS MADE BY SUPERINTENDENT FOR MEMBERS OF GRADUATING CLASS TO MAKE UP REQUIRED NUMBER OF CREDITS.

(From Tuesday's Daily.) So that members of the senior class in high school may be able to complete their studies and make the required number of credits for graduation, a course of home study was given out to all members of the class by Superintendent Moore yesterday morning and will be continued by the students at their homes until such time as the schools of the city are again opened.

With the schools closed for more than six weeks, it was feared that under any plan which might be adopted by the school board for the reorganization of school classes with the lifting of the ban, members of the senior high school class would not be able to complete the course and gain the required number of credits for graduation unless home study was taken up.

Hindenburg Will Be Taken by Workmen and Soldiers Council

(By United Press to The Bend Bulletin.) COPENHAGEN, Dec. 4.—The Leipzig workmen and soldiers' council has decided to arrest Von Hindenburg and thereby dissolve the great general headquarters, it was announced today in dispatches received here.

GOES 30 MILES TO GET MORE TANLAC

Throws Walking Cane Away After Being Relieved of Rheumatism—Gains Fifteen Pounds.

"When I first started on Tanlac I was so crippled up with rheumatism that I had to use two walking sticks in order to get about at all. But after taking four or five bottles every pain was gone, and I have actually gained fifteen pounds besides."

The above statement was made by William Choate, 34 West Riverside Ave., Spokane, Wash., recently.

"Rheumatism," he continued, "was only one of many troubles Tanlac relieved me of. I had suffered from a bad stomach for twelve or fifteen years. I couldn't eat scarcely anything but what gas would form and almost cut off my breath, and bring awful faint, weak feeling over me. There was a terrible burning in the pit of my stomach, and if I ventured to eat anything except the lightest food it would almost put me out of commission."

"This was my condition a little over a year ago when I made my mother and brother over in Iowa a visit. Soon after I got there my troubles got worse. My kidneys started bothering me, I had awful pains in the small of my back, and constantly had headache. Then started in a siege of rheumatism which I will never forget. I was laid up for six months and was flat on my back for several weeks hardly able to move. I started in my legs, then got in my arms, and the pain was something awful, from the tips of my fingers to my toes."

"When I did get up I was in such a bad shape I had to use two canes in order to get about at all and this is the fix I was in when I got Tanlac. I read the statement of a man in the paper one day, that fit my case exactly, and decided to see if it would do me any good. Well, to make a long story short, Tanlac simply did wonders for me. Before I finished my second bottle, I throw my canes away, and could walk as good as anyone. And eat; why, I never had such an appetite. All the sourness left my stomach, my backache and headaches disappeared and I haven't had a touch of rheumatism to this good day. One of those bottles of Tanlac I drove 30 miles to get, our local druggist being out at the time, and I would do so again under the same circumstances. It's a real pleasure for me to recommend Tanlac, and I will gladly tell anyone personally what it has done for me."

Tanlac is sold in Bend by Owl Drug Co., in Sisters by Geo. F. Aitken and in Bend by Horton Drug Co.—Adv.
