SAFETY MUST BE THE AIM OF AUTOISTS, DECLARES NIXON

(From Monday's Daily.)

Instructions for auto owners and pedestrians, with the object of minimizing accidents, were given today by Chief of Police Nixon in an interview given to a representative of The Bulletin. The safety first movement in regard to autos is to be a feature of the policy of the police department of Bend, he declares. In this connection, he has secured a motion picture film produced by the Universal Film Co. at the instance of the Freestone Tire & Rubber Co., and is desirous that every man, woman and child in Bend shall see it when it is shown here on April 19.

"The man on foot has a responsibility as well as the vehicle driver," declared Chief Nixon. "While the former has the right of way, he is expected to use due caution and discretion. It will go hard with any policeman who fails to perform his duty in suppressing reckless and criminal speeding on the streets and highways of Bend. Never in history of mankind was human life as precious as today.

"Here are some specific rules that I wish every person in our community would clip out and keep before them.

"Don't cross the street between blocks. Remember, vehicles have just as much right to the road as you have.

"Never carry on a conversation while crossing a street. Never try to read while crossing a street. Never hold an open umbrella so you and wolverine party at her home last Saturday evening in honor of her son James' 21st birthday. The wolves retired to the McKinney house to play poker, when they returned for the delicious lunch prepared by the hostess.

Terrebonne high school enjoyed an Irish program of the Union High School Literary society last Friday evening at Redmond.

cannot see approaching traffic. Never alight from a moving automobile. Wait for it to stop. Always observe the movement of traffic when alighting, before crossing to the walk.

"Warn children not to hitch on automobiles or other vehicles, or play in the path of traffic. If you drive a vehicle learn the traffic rules. Remember, the pedestrian has just as much right to the road as you have.

"Don't disregard danger signs; they are put up for your protection. Carry a warning signal of some kind, and use it. Stop before you cross railway tracks. Examine your brakes and steering gear frequently.

"If you must drink to excess, don't drive. If you see a drunken driver, have him arrested for your own safety and his.

"Speeding will only get you to one place quicker—the grave.

"Lighting your head and tail lights at dusk may prolong your life. When the street are wet and icy, be sure your tires will not skid. This caution protects you from possible imprisonment or death.

"Never attempt to run a vehicle until you are entirely familiar with its operation and hold a license giving you the right.

"If for some unavoidable reason, you happen to run down some one, don't run away. If you do you become a hunted murderer and it goes very hard for you when you're caught—and you will be caught."

Industrial clubs are being organized in the school this week. Terrebonne school is proud of having scored the highest per cent. of completed projects in the county last year. The youthful workers are enthusiastic and expect to beat the record of last year.

An interesting ball game was played on the town diamond last Thursday evening between the town team and the school boys, which resulted in a score of 7 to 6 in favor of the town team, but the school boys expect to beat them next Friday.

Quite a number of Terrebonne people attended the Presbyterian district church conference at Redmond last Tuesday.

Trouble with the steering gear caused Mrs. Mitchell to lose control of her car last Wednesday. It ran into the sidewalk near the Pickett building and was considerably damaged.

Mr. Inker is building a wood house for the Farmers' Union hall. Everybody can afford to give one day's work for the pleasure of the youngsters, so come out Friday and help erect the new playground apparatus. A "quilting bee," a good dinner and a ball game will be interesting features of the day.
