

NATION'S PINE IS GOING FAST

BROAD PROGRAM TO STEM TIDE OF DESTRUCTION IS CALLED FOR BY CHIEF FORESTER OF UNITED STATES.

(From Tuesday's Daily.) (By United Press to The Bend Bulletin.) WASHINGTON, D. C., May 13.—Branding the lack of a national forest policy as one of the greatest dangers facing the country today, Col. Henry S. Graves, chief forester of the United States and a vice president of the American Forestry association, called for a broad program that includes private as well as public forests.

"We have hardly begun to stem the tide of forest destruction," says Colonel Graves in calling attention to these facts.

The bulk of the original supplies of yellow pine in the south will be exhausted in 10 years.

Within the next five to seven years more than 3000 lumber manufacturing plants in the south will go out of existence.

Douglas fir is now being shipped from the Pacific coast states to New England, once self-supporting in lumber.

The forests of the battle areas in France and Belgium have been destroyed. In England about 450,000 acres of forest were cut down for war-time needs. The American Forestry association has provided a fund for helping England reforest this area and is calling upon the people of this country to aid in reforesting France, Belgium and Italy. Those countries, the American Forestry association pointed out, should be a great lesson to the United States. The American need of forest conservation is great and the future welfare of many industries depends on it.

INGRAM PAYS $5 FOR BREAKING SPEED LAW

Sheepman Admits He Was Exceeding Limit When Arrested by Night Officer Frank L. Kulp.

(From Tuesday's Daily.) Arrested by Officer Frank L. Kulp, Guy Ingram, wealthy Central Oregon sheepman appeared in police court this morning and pleaded guilty to a charge of driving his auto beyond the speed limit. He was not certain how fast he had been going but was willing to take Officer Kulp's word that his speed was excessive.

He paid a fine of $5, expressed his gratitude to the court for the light fine, and departed.

PHOTOGRAPHS SHOW SCENIC BEAUTIES

As a demonstration of what can be done in the way of stimulating travel through Bend by means of outside tourist agencies, W. C. Birdsall, manager of the Pilot Butte Inn, has assembled a series of typical Central Oregon scenes, 16 in number. Similar views will be sent to Salt Lake City, if it is decided by the Commercial club to establish a tourist agency there.

K. C. TO WIDEN SCOPE OF WORK

EMPLOYMENT SERVICE FOR DISCHARGED SOLDIERS, SAILORS AND MARINES PLANNED—NEW MEMBERS JOIN COUNCIL.

(From Tuesday's Daily.) That an employment service will be started in Bend in the near future under the direction of the Knights of Columbus, as a development of the war work of that organization, was the announcement today of John F. Arnold, secretary of the Bend council. The employment service will be for all men returning from the army, navy and marine corps.

Twenty-nine new members were added to the local organization Sunday, when initiation in the first three degrees was held under the direction of F. J. Lonergan, state deputy. Among other visiting members were Pat Bacon, grand knight, of the Portland council; John Murphy and Stanley Bacon, both of Portland, and J. J. Donovan, past district deputy of Washington.

The initiates were as follows: C. C. Burns, Con Breen, Gus Chisholm, Blaine Devers, L. J. De Carufel, Michael Daly, George Hughes, C. G. Meagher, Archie McDonald, Philip Schmidt, J. Whitaker, John Cronin, John Driscoll, Dan Hourigan, Dave Kelly, Joe La Marsh, Henry Linster, John T. Meyer, Pat Mogan, Jerry D. O'Connell, Louis Rosengart, John Steinkemp, G. R. Pauly, M. R. Sullivan, Fred A. Woelfen, Barney Tekempa, Herman Tekempa, James Tierney, J. P. O'Callaghan.

ALL IS READY FOR TRI-COUNTY MEET

(From Tuesday's Daily.) MADRAS, May 13.—The annual Central Oregon school day of Crook, Deschutes and Jefferson counties will be held May 17 at Madras. The usual contests have been arranged for, and a large attendance is expected.

The opening event will be a tennis tournament at 9 a. m., and the high school declamatory contest at 8 p. m. will close the day. Track events promise to be especially interesting this year. Gold medals will be awarded as first prizes.

The Prineville high school band will be in attendance, and the Glee club of the Bend high school will furnish several numbers for each indoor program. A moving picture show will be a feature of the afternoon.

POOR SANITATION ALLEGED IN CASE

(From Friday's Daily.) Charged with violation of the disorderly conduct ordinance by allowing drainage water to run back under a house on Hawthorne avenue for which he is agent, J. M. Lawrence appeared before Police Judge Peoples yesterday evening and entered a plea of not guilty. He said that the place had been cleaned up and was now in good condition. The case was continued pending further investigation.

WANTS TRUCKS FOR DESCHUTES

W. C. BIRDSALL URGES THAT ACTION BE TAKEN WITH HIGHWAY COMMISSION TO SECURE SHARE OF EQUIPMENT.

(From Tuesday's Daily.) Anxious that Deschutes county should promptly receive its full share of the war department auto trucks and trailers which are to be turned over to the states for road work, W. C. Birdsall of this city urged today that recommendations be made at once to the state highway commission to insure the proper amount of equipment of this kind being sent here.

At the last session of the Oregon legislature Mr. Birdsall suggested, and was largely responsible for, the passage of Memorial Bill No. 16, which suggested the division of government trucks among the various states to stimulate highway construction and improvement.

THREE ARMIES TO HONOR DEAD

G. A. R., SPANISH WAR VETERANS AND MEN WHO SERVED IN WORLD WAR TO ATTEND MEMORIAL DAY SERVICES.

(From Tuesday's Daily.) White haired members of the Grand Army of the Republic, who wore the blue in the Civil war, middle aged men who served in the war with Spain, and youthful veterans of the world war will sit together, representing America's oldest and youngest armies, when Memorial day services are held in Bend on the morning of May 30. The Decoration day program will be held at the Bend Amateur Athletic club gymnasium, and will be largely in charge of the churches of Bend.

EARLY SETTLER SAW NO CHANCE FOR CITY

C. E. Parker, Land Owner Here Up to 1904, Foresaw No Development for Half a Century.

(From Tuesday's Daily.) Although once, the owner of the land on which a part of Bend now stands, C. E. Parker had no idea that a city would take the place of his ranch for 50 years at least, he told Fred Lockley, special writer for the Oregon Journal, according to a story appearing in the Portland publication.

"I used to own the land on which Bend is now situated," Mr. Parker said. "On October 23, 1904, I was married, and so far as I know this was the first marriage that took place on the site of the present city of Bend. I sold my place because I didn't imagine that there would be a city there for 50 years, but I was mistaken."

CITY RECEIVES ELLIS' CHECK

FINAL AUDITING OF BOOKS SHOWS NO ASSETS REMAINING IN FAVOR OF FORMER RECORDER, AND PAYMENT MADE.

(From Thursday's Daily.) Following a final expediting of the books of former City Recorder H. C. Ellis, a check for $386.25, the amount still due the city, was drawn by Mr. Ellis and handed to Max Crandall, accountant, on whose financial report was based the order made by the city council Monday night for an investigation of Mr. Ellis' accounts. The ways and means committee of the council, with City Attorney C. S. Benson, is expected to audit the former recorder's books tonight.

On April 15 of the present year, $2604.31 was turned in by Mr. Ellis, and as to the balance of $386.25 still owed the city, he deferred payment, he explains, because of a $221 item for sale of cemetery lots in 1917, which he was not certain had been included in the accountant's report. Yesterday afternoon he was informed by Mr. Crandall that this amount was already included in the report submitted to the council, and the payment of the $386.25 followed.

FEAR IS FELT FOR 5 MILLION BONDS

sufficient number of men to harvest the crops, according to reports reaching Salem.

With these conditions general about the state, the people are going to hesitate a long time before they vote to spend $5,000,000 on public buildings, especially when they know that the main purpose in spending this money is to provide employment for returning service men.

It is true that the labor market will be seriously depleted this fall if the impending shutdown of Portland shipyards becomes a reality, but unless there is a marked change in conditions generally the voters of Oregon may defeat the reconstruction program.

To Make Whirlwind Campaign.

In the whirlwind campaign they intend prosecuting between now and June 3, the reconstruction committee will point out that labor conditions are certain to become serious within the next few months, and they will appeal to the voters to provide a solution to a serious problem which is certain to arise. If these arguments are driven home with sufficient force, the bond measure may be saved from defeat.

The one referendum measure which appears to be certain of adoption by the people on June 3 is the market road bill, which provides a 1-mill tax levy for market roads exclusively. The rural communities, naturally, are unanimously in favor of this bill, as it will provide farmers with better roads to the markets. And urban business interests also favor its passage because it means TWO—FEAR IS FELT—increased prosperity for everybody to provide good roads for the farmers.

Hurley Bill Favored.

The Hurley bill to guarantee interest by the state on irrigation district bonds also appears to meet with general favor and undoubtedly will be approved by a heavy majority.

The fate of the Roosevelt highway bond issue probably will not be determined until the last vote is counted. The coast counties are making a sweeping campaign in all parts of the state in an effort to have the bill approved, but they are meeting with strenuous opposition in a number of Eastern Oregon counties and in other sections of the state. Too many persons feel that it is nothing more than a highway for automobile tourists and will have no commercial value.

Olcott-Hoff Case Up.

Members of the state supreme court returned this week from their semi-annual session at Pendleton, and they are now turning their attentions to the Olcott-Hoff mandamus proceedings, which are to determine Governor Olcott's right to resign as secretary of state and appoint his successor to that office.

This case has attracted more interest than any other case coming before the state's highest tribunal for many years, and a number of the state's foremost constitutional lawyers have filed briefs as friends of the court. It is expected that the court will hand down its decision the latter part of this month.

Brooks Says Tanlac Has Overcome His Troubles—Feels Like a New Man.

"My wife obtained such satisfactory results from Tanlac that I tried it myself and I have gained ten pounds and feel like a new man," said J. W. Brooks, traffic superintendent for the Western Union Telegraph Co. at Dallas, Tex., and living at 1732 Hickory street, that city. "When I began taking Tanlac," he continued, "I was suffering from a stubborn case of stomach trouble, the result of an attack of acute indigestion I had several years ago. I had an awful pain across my back, and was so nervous and worried about my kidneys that I could hardly sleep at all. I suffered from rheumatism in my legs, my feet would swell and I was tired and languid all the time. I was badly run down, lost weight, strength and energy and none of the medicines I took did me any good."

"After using Tanlac for a short time I began to pick up and kept improving till now my rheumatism is all gone, the pains have disappeared from my back and my kidneys don't worry me like they did. I have a fine appetite and can eat anything I want without suffering at all from indigestion, my sleep is sound and restful and I get up in the morning feeling fine."

Tanlac is sold in Bend by the Owl Drug Co., in Sisters by Geo. F. Aitken, and in Bend by Horton Drug Co.—Adv.

REPORT BANK ROBBER IN CENTRAL OREGON

Max Lewis, One of Three Men Who Looted Washougal Bank, May Be in Hiding Near Bend.

(From Tuesday's Daily.) That Max Lewis, one of the three men who recently looted the Washougal, Washington, bank, may be in hiding in this section was the information received today from Portland. No clues of any kind in connection with the case had been found up to late this afternoon by city or county authorities.

DOSE OF BITTERS LASTS 36 HOURS

(From Tuesday's Daily) Thirty-six hours after taking two bottles of bitters, Fred Fosbad, local tie contractor, appeared before Police Judge Peoples this morning and declared that he felt much better. He also pleaded guilty to a charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct and was fined $30, double the last fine imposed on him on a similar charge. Fosbad was allowed one day in which to raise half of the $30 with the stipulation that the remaining $15 is to be paid by the end of the month.

DON'T OVERLOOK YOUR FRIEND PIG

EVERYONE seems ready to admit that Central Oregon is not a hog country. This statement is more or less true. But is that a good reason why many of our farmers are paying 60c a pound for their bacon?

There is a place on every forty acre farm for at least one hog. Don't misconstrue this to mean ten, but every farmer should raise enough pork for his family.

Consult your neighbor who raised his own pork last year, or consult us.
