THIS IS Pig Club Week

IN CENTRAL OREGON

The banks of the United States have been the chief backers of the Boys and Girls Pig, Sheep and Calf Clubs and have advanced the money for their operation

FOR the purpose of encouraging and assisting the boys and girls on the farm to engage in intelligent and scientific stock raising, and at the same time teaching them the principles of business and thrift, we are starting the First National Bank of Bend PIG CLUB and will supply the pigs to those children filling out this coupon and mailing it to the First National Bank of Bend:

I HEREBY APPLY for Membership in the FIRST NATIONAL BANK PIG CLUB. I am _____ years old and my address is _____

I agree to give my note for the cost of the pig I get, payable six months after date with interest at six per cent. per annum. I agree to take good care of my pig, keep careful records of his feed cost, and I agree to exhibit him at the First National Bank Pig Show in Bend, in the fall of 1919. I will sell my pig in the fall, when the Bank makes the Pig Club shipment, and whatever profit there is over the amount of the note and interest is to be my own.

Signature of applicant _____

I agree to sign the note, as per your plan, and to assist the child in his work.
