CAP AND GOWN SENIORS' GARB

GRADUATION WEEK STARTED AT B. A. A. C. WITH BACCALAUREATE EXERCISES—CLASS PICNICS TODAY.

(From Monday's Daily.) For the first time in the history of the Bend high school members of the graduating class appeared last night in caps and gowns when the baccalaureate exercises of Commencement week were held at the Bend Amateur Athletic club gymnasium. The 15 members of the class are Fern M. Allen, Cora C. Bates, Stanley N. Bond, Paul D. Brookings, E. Loreta Cook, Eyolf Corneliusen, Marion L. Coyner, Ida Dahle, Harry M. Hayden, Robert E. McNeely, Emmett Molitor, Jennie T. Norene, Janiece Simpson, Lela Stutsman and Ethel L. Vincent. Commencement week was officially opened last night when, during the procession, played by Constance Knickerbocker, the members of the graduating class marched from an ante room in the rear of the hall and took seats reserved for them in the front. The girls' chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Ashley Forrest, with the speakers of the evening and City School Superintendent Moore, had places on the stage.

Advising his hearers to seek to build character rather than to acquire fame, the Rev. E. B. Johnson of the Baptist church delivered the baccalaureate sermon, scripture readings and the benediction being given by the Rev. Parkinson, recently arrived in Bend from Tacoma. Selections by the girls' chorus and a vocal solo by Mrs. Forrest were the other numbers on the evening's program. At the close of the services the audience stood while the seniors filed from the building.

It is All Gone Now. Samuel L. Kramer, Box 95, Sellersville, Pennsylvania, writes: "I had kidney trouble for two years and had a terrible backache. That is all gone now after using Foley kidney pills and I feel well again." Foley kidney pills got results quickly and are tonic in their healing and soothing effect. Sold everywhere.—Adv.
