GOOD HEALTH RULES FOR ALL

English People Have Many Ideas Which It Would Be Well for Americans to Copy.

One of the most popular forms of food in England is cheese. This supplies a highly concentrated protein food which, when properly ripened and masticated, is usually well assimilated. Not only does this food contain a large percentage of protein, but it also contains fat and mineral salts. When combined with bread, which is a carbohydrate food, cheese makes an ideal combination, supplying as it does all the elements necessary for nourishment—protein, fat, carbohydrate and mineral salts.

Cheese and bread is a very popular form of food in England and it is eaten by all classes. Being an economical food, it is eaten to a larger extent by the laboring classes, who, owing to the sort of work they do, require a good tissue builder at a moderate price.

It is well to remember that part of the health of the English race is due to the fact that the English life is an outdoor life, and it is a very good thing for us to profit by this and cultivate at all times, in ourselves and in our children, the habit of getting outdoors as much as possible.

Where "Loot" Originated.

The word "loot" came into the English language by way of India, and is supposed to be derived from the Sanskrit "lota," signifying booty. Originally all booty taken from the enemy in war pertained to the crown of the victorious nation, the title thereto being regarded as indisputable. The crown was supposed to dispose of these spoils of war according to its pleasure, bearing in mind the services of the captors of the matter. This was, indeed, the basis of prize law at sea. But at every international congress at which the laws of war and of mutual relations came under discussion it was agreed to exempt from seizure private property on land and to restrict confiscation to the national property of the foe.

HEAVY RAINS AID STOCKMEN

PRECIPITATION IN 12 HOURS TOTALS .23 OF AN INCH—CROPS WILL BE AFFECTED BUT LITTLE BY DOWNPOUR.

Unusually heavy rainfall for the month of July was recorded Tuesday night, when precipitation, together with the slight fall of the afternoon, totaled .23 of an inch. Reports state the storm extended well into Lake county, and that practically all of Deschutes was included.

Although of great benefit to Central Oregon roads, the rain will have but little effect on crops. The range will be aided materially, but dry land agriculturists will gain to no appreciable extent as jackrabbits and drouth have already cut the possible yield almost to a minimum. Much alfalfa in the irrigated districts is already down and was being cured, and this will be delayed to a certain extent while great care will have to be used to prevent mould.

In the forests no fires have so far resulted from the lightning which accompanied the rain, but this does not mean that none will result, for the moisture will prevent any from breaking out for several days.

RUDY LOCKS AND COURAGE

Observation of English Writer Is That the Two Are Generally Found Together.

"Ginger for pluck" is an old saying which would seem to be confirmed in the bestowal of military decorations for bravery, observes London Answers. "It was in the ruined square of demolished Ypres last Christmas eve," writes a British officer, "that I was first impressed by the large number of red-haired men who were receiving the military medal.

"Since that afternoon I have noted the complexion of every officer and man wearing a military decoration, and the impression made at Ypres has been strengthened in consequence. There must be something in the old saying, for wherever soldiers are gathered together there is a red-haired, beribboned man in the midst of them.

"Take our most famous fighting division—the invincible Fifty-first. This is composed almost entirely of Highland troops, and the Highlanders are nearly all full-blooded blonds. Of course there are dark-haired heroes in plenty, but nevertheless red hair and pluck would seem to be synonymous. Red hair is common among our most daring sirmen, and although I cannot say how many holders of the Victoria cross sport roddy locks I am prepared to wager that they form a large percentage.

"Scientists say that red hair is caused by a large proportion of iron in the system, and certainly 'carrots and freckles' have been worn by men of iron while doing the work of men in the devil's own war."

Millions of Miles of Water.

The volume of water on the earth's surface is estimated at 315,000,000 cubic miles.

Put it in "THE BULLETIN."

PRINEVILLE GIVEN CARRIER SERVICE

Crook County Seat Now Gets Mail by Rail—Closed Pouch Is Added to Bend Schedule.

That Prineville has a carrier service as well as receiving mail by train, was the announcement made Tuesday by Acting Postmaster W. H. Hudson of Bend. Both started yesterday, and mail for the Crook county seat, instead of coming through Redmond, now is unloaded at Prineville Junction.

Another change was made in the Bend mail schedule, according to which there is now a closed pouch service for registered mail, from, as well as to Portland on the Oregon Trunk. For this class of matter it is estimated that a day will be saved on mail coming to Bend.

SALE OF LAYING HENS.

In order to make room for young stock and to install 299 trap nests, the E-Z-Way Poultry farm will place on sale 300 of its choicest White Leghorn hens at $1.50 per head. There is no choice in this flock—every bird is guaranteed a heavy layer and now laying. No favor shown. Nothing held back. Bring your crate and step into a flock of 500 and take your choice under the positive guarantee that it is a No. 1 bird, and all we claim for it. If we say it won't lay don't buy it at any price, expecting to get eggs, for it is no use.

No birds sold until Monday, July 21st. Out of town customers may get the same square deal for the number they want and their order will be filled satisfactorily. Ask any of our customers whether or not our stock is all we claim for it.

Cash with order, and remember no birds sold until July 21st, and then only 300.

W. H. LAVIGNE, E-Z-Way Farm, Redmond, Oregon. —Adv.

Amendment to Prayer.

SUDDEN BLAZE DESTROYS MILL

PLANT BELONGING TO FIRST NATIONAL GOES SO QUICKLY THAT WORKMEN HAVE BARELY TIME TO MAKE ESCAPE.

Fire starting in the planing mill located on the tracks near the Bend Iron Works Monday totally destroyed the mill, the property of the First National Bank of Bend, in the neighborhood of 50,000 feet of lumber belonging to the Liberty Lumber Co. of Portland, operating the mill through Frank Lee, and in addition consumed a box car standing on the siding, partly loaded. Insurance covers the mill, valued at $2000, and the lumber.

While the exact cause of the fire is not definitely known, it is considered that a puff of flame from the firebox reached the shaving bin, while the mill was in operation this morning. In a moment the place was a mass of flame, and men who were employed inside dropped their work and ran for their lives, without even time to secure their coats as they left. No one was hurt.

The Bend volunteer fire department answered the call in record time, but no hydrants could be reached, although a main was in easy distance. Chemicals were used, and firemen and employes joined forces in moving lumber piles menaced by the flames, but which had not already caught.

The planing mill had a capacity of 35,000 feet daily.

Why Hair Stands on End.

When hair stands on end on the back of a dog or cat when frightened it is moved by tiny muscles attached to the roots. The hair follicle is like a little seed buried in the flesh. Attached to either side of this seed are tiny muscles which run diagonally through the flesh from the lower part of the follicle. These little muscles are like the guy ropes of a tent. They are what are called the erector muscles, and when fear or cold is experienced these muscles promptly tighten up in such a manner as to "hoist" the hair very quickly.

DESCHUTES CANYON OF GREAT INTEREST

Compared Favorably with Colorado Canyon from Geological Standpoint by Government Expert.

That the Deschutes river canyon is more interesting geologically than the Grand Canyon of the Colorado, and that he hopes to return to Central Oregon at a later date to study it, was the declaration of Professor W. O. Crosby, head of the party of government experts investigating reservoir sites, after returning to Bend Tuesday from an inspection of the canyon in the Madras district.

SAILOR ENDS VISIT HERE WITH WEDDING

Ray Jackson and Miss Frances Steidl Joined in Marriage Yesterday at Home of Bride.

Ray Jackson, U. S. navy, and Miss Francis Steidl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Steidl of this city, were quietly married Monday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. E. B. Johnson of the Baptist church, pronouncing the marriage service. Only close friends and immediate relatives of bride and groom were in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson left Monday for Seattle, where they will remain until Mr. Jackson's furlough is over, when Mrs. Jackson will return to Bend. Her husband will probably be in the service for several months more.

Gypsy Language.

The language of the Gipsies, Romany, is said to be Hindoo dialect derived from Sanskrit. Ethnologists pretty well agree that the Gipsies are descendants of an obscure Hindoo tribe. The popular belief that Gipsies are descendants of the Egyptians has no other basis than the similarity of the two words. The word "Gipsy" as a matter of fact, is from the Bohemian, and means "vagrabond." The first Gipsies appeared in England early in the sixteenth century, but were found in eastern Europe at least two centuries earlier. They are now scattered all over the world.
