

BEND HAPPENINGS FROM DAY TO DAY

Monday—

J. L. Foster of Sisters is in Bend for a few days on business.

Jeanette Stevens of Prineville was a week-end visitor in Bend.

Mrs. J. F. Arnold returned on Sunday from a visit in Portland.

R. S. Hamilton and N. G. Jacobson left this morning by auto for Davis lake.

J. A. Martin arrived in Bend yesterday from his home in Lakeview and is remaining over today.

Miss Lucille Snyder has returned to Bend from Black Butte, and is working in the forest service office.

Clyde M. McKay has returned to Bend from a trip to La Grande, where he attended the Shrine ceremonial.

Mrs. A. M. Pringle is in Portland for a two weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Taggart.

Saturday—

Mrs. M. H. Horton is recovering from a severe illness.

F. E. Bevington of Burns is a business visitor in the city today.

Tom Sly and Roy E. Moffitt were in the city last night from their home at La Pine.

A six-pound baby girl was born last night to Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Cashman, of Awbury Road.

H. M. Horton drove in last night from Seattle, accompanied by his brother, Harry Horton, from Mexico.

B. F. Brown and family arrived in the city yesterday from Salem, and will make their home in Bend. Mr. Brown is a plumber by trade.

Miss Marjorie Fairlamb arrived in Bend this morning from Vancouver, B. C., and is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Brooks.

Mrs. F. A. Everett, Lela and Eva Everett, and D. W. Van Matre and Verne Skelton were among Sisters residents who visited in Bend last night.

Ralph Watson of the Oregon Journal, accompanied by Mrs. Watson, was in the city last night on his return to Portland from an outing at Odell lake.

Jay W. Stevens, manager of the Fire Prevention Bureau of the Pacific, will be in Bend in the near future to inspect local conditions, was the information received this morning by Fire Chief Tom Carlson.

Friday—

T. H. Foley left last night for Portland on a brief business trip.

Miss Stella Pollock has returned from Tacoma, where she was called on account of the recent death of her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Ashley Forrest and Mr. and Mrs. William Speck returned this morning from a week's outing at Elk lake.

L. T. Dawson has arrived in Bend from Portland and has accepted a position as bookkeeper for the Bend Water, Light & Power Co.

Paul Meyette of Guthrie, Oklahoma, arrived in Bend this morning to accept a position with the shoe department of J. C. Penney Co.

Mrs. Peter Byberg started last night for Spokane, where she will visit for a few days before leaving on a trip to the middle west. She expects to return to Bend within the next three weeks.

Clyde M. McKay returned to Bend yesterday afternoon from Portland, and left this morning for La Grande, where he will attend the Shrine ceremonial.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Mahaffey and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Lamping and son started by auto this morning for La Grande to attend the Shrine ceremonial.

O. D. Abbingham and W. E. Glover and their families arrived in Bend last night from Grandview, and will make their homes in this city during the winter months.

L. E. Smith was a business visitor in the city yesterday from his home at Redmond.

Sheriff S. E. Roberts left yesterday to spend his vacation in the eastern part of the state. He expects to be gone for the next two weeks.

William Leavett and Claud Christ of Redmond were in Bend yesterday afternoon transacting business.

Thursday—

Fred Racine, of Burns, is a business visitor in the city.

Mrs. M. H. Horton is seriously ill at her home in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Cunningham will leave tonight for Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Shaw of Crescent, are spending the day in Bend.

Tom Emery, of Silver Lake, is spending the day in Bend on business.

J. V. Kuhn, of Suplee, arrived in the city last night, and is remaining over today.

George T. Michaelson, of Fort Rock, was in the city today looking after business matters.

"Pinkie" Lewis will leave for San Francisco tonight where he has a bout scheduled with Jim Barry.

Miss Nell Markell will leave tonight on a trip to Chicago where she will spend the next two months.

Mrs. J. C. Vandever and little son accompanied by Mrs. Anna Day, left last night to spend a month in Seattle and nearby beach resorts.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Catlow started last night for Portland, where Mr. Catlow intends to study pharmacy. Mrs. Catlow will teach in the Camas schools.

Announcement was made today of the marriage of Elnora F. Roberts, and Hugh L. Dodson, both of this city, on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Dodson will make their home in Bend.

H. E. Baker has returned to Bend from an auto trip of several weeks through the western part of the state. Mr. Baker declares that Central Oregon roads, on the whole, are in as good condition as those on the west coast.

What's Doing in the Country.

DANCE IS ENJOYED BY ALFALFA FOLK

ALFALFA, Sept. 10.—A party including Mrs. F. J. Clarke and Brother, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie V. Clarke and daughter Marjorie, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Clarke, Dr. and Mrs. Stout and Herbert Clarke all of Portland, Ore., spent two weeks fishing in the streams and lakes of Deschutes county. They arrived in Alfalfa Saturday evening where a dance was given in their honor. At the hall more than eighty people were present. The Clarks formerly lived in Alfalfa and have many friends here who will be pleased to learn that they may return to this section to make their home. The party left on Sunday morning for Portland, via the McKinzie pass.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smock accompanied by some Bend friends spent Sunday at Ralph Smock's in Alfalfa.

A surprise party was given at the James home Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Mildred James and Miss Elsie Shob of Portland who have been visiting at the James home.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ruffe are again residents of this section after two years in, and near Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McBroom and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dobkins of Silver Lake were visiting friends in Alfalfa Wednesday and Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Reynolds of Powell Butte visited Mr. and Mrs. Carl Larson in Alfalfa Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Irving accompanied by friends from Portland are here.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ogle returned from an extended auto trip through Oregon, Washington and Montana.

Paul Mertsching and Wm. Harsell returned Sunday from the valley with a nice lot of fruit.

Mrs. Polker is spending the week end in Bend.

A. E. Free is building a nice bungalow on his ranch, recently purchased of the Johnston estate.

The Alfalfa school building is being renovated, and school will open Sept. 15, with Miss Beatrice Pullard of Tumalo as teacher.

The Jolly Neighbors' Club met with Mrs. Geo. Ogle Thursday, and elected the following officers: Mrs. A. C. Barber, president; Mrs. Albert Shultz, financial secretary.

Several of our young people attended the Benefit ball in Bend on Monday evening.

Gustave Berry and Marshall Roberts employed at Powell Butte, visited home folks and friends in Alfalfa Sunday.

CLASSES START IN REDMOND SCHOOLS

All Teaching Vacancies Filled Before Term Began—American Legion Post Is Organized.

REDMOND, Sept. 10.—School started in full force Monday morning. All vacancies for teachers were filled in time so that there was no delay in that way. The attendance this year is somewhat larger than last year, there being more pupils from outside towns attending here.

Miss Maude Nichols returned from a short vacation to Portland Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Buckley have moved in with Mrs. Buckley's mother, Mrs. Swan Erickson. They have rented their house to Miss Hill, who is teaching the first and second grades.

The Redmond post of the American Legion met in the office of the County Agent Thursday night to sign the Constitution and obtain a Charter, and also to discuss a name for this organization.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Calbreath and son Ardath, stopped overnight Friday on their way to their home in The Dalles to visit old friends.

Miss Georgia Woods of Sisters came in Tuesday to stay with her sister Mrs. George Golden and attend high school.

Geo. Cyrus has recently purchased the Dobson property west of town and moved his family in Sunday so that the children could attend school.

Miss Laona Gooding left Tuesday night for Harrisburg, where her parents have recently moved.

Verne Skelton of Cloverdale was a caller in Redmond Wednesday.

Misses Hazel Randolph and Margaret Golob and Joe McElfresh and O. McVey spent Sunday picnicking at Opal Springs.

W. J. Buckley moved his family in from Lower Bridge, where they have been spending the summer, Sunday in order that the children might be present for the opening of school.

Mrs. A. B. Davenport and baby daughter returned home from Portland Sunday morning.

Dr. E. O. Hyde of Prineville has rented the office recently occupied by Dr. F. H. Wilson and will soon be ready to begin his practice here.

Mr. Ashley Forrest of Bend was a visitor in town Tuesday.

Miss Dona Whittemore of Deschutes is working for Mrs. Denton Burdick and attending school.

Put It in The Bulletin.

FRUIT! FRUIT!

The peach season is now on and we are ready to book orders for express or parcel post at the following prices f. o. b. The Dalles, Oregon. Add 27c for express or parcel post on peaches, prunes and tomatoes, and 50c on apples and pears. Good canning peaches, 85c; Bartlett pears, $1.75; Hungarian prunes (20-lb. box), $1.25; Italian prunes, $1.25; apples (cookers), $1.50; tomatoes, $1.00. Address The Dalles Cherry Growers' Union, Box 327, Phone 731, The Dalles, Oregon.—Adv 26-8c.

Put It in The Bulletin.

YOUR DRUG STORE

Dr. Hess
Stock Foods
and Remedies are Best.

Just Remember
Magill & Erskine
O'KANE BUILDING

Our Prescription Department is Complete in Every Detail.

YOUR DRUGSTORE

Zinc Stearate

A Talcum Powder

Prevents Chafing

Almost Invisible

Not affected by perspiration

Can be applied to most delicate irritated skin surfaces

Ideal For The Baby

OWL Pharmacy
Bend's Book Store

A County Distributor for School Books.