

What's Doing In The Country

MORE PUPILS AT LA PINE SCHOOL

LA PINE, Oregon, October 1.—The attendance at the school is increasing. Violet Howard of Fort Rock, having entered in the first year of the high school, and Everett Donahue in the eighth grade. A literary society was organized with the following officers: Marian Raber, president; Lee Bogue, vice-president; Ruth Farr, secretary; Anna Demins, treasurer; and Kathleen Masten, Helen Clark, and Jewel Swazey, were appointed as a program committee. Seven high school students are taking typewriting.

E. L. Clark and Chester Hollinshead were at Klamath Falls Friday and returned Saturday.

F. W. Weber, Miss Rose Hunnell, Miss Lilye Brown and Mrs. A. Lural Fordham and son Wilfred, were at Klamath Falls Saturday and returned by way of Crater Lake Sunday.

W. R. Riley went to Bend Monday. A show and dance was given at the Commercial Club hall Tuesday evening.

The following guests registered at the La Pine Hotel during the past week: N. B. and Miles Potter, Seaside; Rhea Lupa, Salem; Tom Cronin and son, Bend; F. O. Minor, Bend; B. Mellen, Bend; Sd. Hawes, Bend; O. H. Winkle, Bend; W. K. McCormick, Deschutes; Dan Houragan, Powell Butte; James L. Frederickson and Ned Angland, Alfalfa; J. B. Martin and wife, Burns; Geo. S. Fish, Portland; J. W. Kupp and T. J. La-Base, Silver Lake; P. M. Pitzer, Prineville; S. N. Hill, Fort Rock; H. M. Christanson and James Berry, Klamath Falls; Bud and T. J. Cronin, Tumalo, E. A. Hoss, Tumalo; B. M. Munay, The Dalles; H. Zimmerman, Crescent; E. W. Esther and wife, Klamath Falls; E. E. Allen, Prineville; S. P. Huff, Redmond; C. Howard and D. P. Shaw, Medford.

The large irrigation ditch south of La Pine will be completed by the middle of October.

C. L. Coppage, A. R. Moilan and A. H. Dryden of St. Paul, were at La Pine on business Monday.

William Masten who has been at the Bend Surgical hospital returned home Wednesday very much improved in health.

A Message For The Middle-Aged.
Foley Kidney Pills give quick relief from kidney or bladder troubles that have not reached a chronic or bad stage. They stop bladder irregularities, strengthen the kidneys and tone up the liver. Don't suffer when relief can be had. Get rid of backache, lameness, rheumatic pains, and stiff joints. Sold Everywhere.—Adv.

RETURNED NURSE SPEAKS IN REDMOND

REDMOND, Sept. 30.—Mr. and Mrs. Max Cuning, accompanied by Mrs. Cuning's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wilson and small son, arrived Tuesday evening from Cedar Falls, Iowa. The trip was made through Arizona and California and was decidedly enjoyable in every way.

Miss Maude Nichols arrived Monday morning from Medford where she has been spending the past two weeks. The Pythian Sisters were entertained at the home of Mrs. A. Wright last Friday afternoon. The hostess assisted by Mrs. Chas. Beckwith served a delicious luncheon of huckleberry pie.

Thursday afternoon Mrs. Denton Burdick entertained the members of the Juniper Reading Circle. Mrs. Cline gave a short talk on her subject of "Aviation," and then Miss Heim, who was a nurse in France and has just been back five weeks, gave a very delightful talk on her experiences over there. She is the possessor of many presents given her by her patients. One of these of especial interest is a violin four hundred years old, which was carried on the back of a German during four years of the war, and then when he was taken as a wounded prisoner, given to Miss Heim.

Old members of the high school gave a reception to the teachers and new pupils Friday night. A short program was given, after which those present indulged in games. Punch and wafers were served by members of the entertaining committee.

Mrs. C. A. Ordway returned last week from an extended visit to her daughter Mrs. Chas. Hindman and family of Mt. Vernon, Wash. She also visited Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Ordway of Portland.

The number of pupils entering the first grade this year has been so large that it was found necessary to hire another teacher for the grades, and the first grade under Miss Hill has been moved to the back rooms of the Presbyterian Church. Miss Wilson will take charge of the second and third grades, and the new teacher, Mrs. Dizney will have the fourth and fifth B classes.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Campbell returned from their vacation Monday morning. Miss Margaret Beebe leaves Wednesday for Portland, where she will attend Pehnke-Walker Business College this winter.

Chad Irvin and W. J. Buckley of Redmond and Billie and Vernon Hall of Terrebonne left Friday night for the Metolius, and it was intended that they climb Mt. Jefferson Saturday. However, the weather would not permit this, so the time was spent around the Metolius. They returned Sunday evening an enjoyable, if somewhat cold, trip.

Hale Ordway was brought home from Bend last week with the influenza. It was feared that it might develop into pneumonia, but was checked in time. At present he is somewhat better, and his friends are looking for a speedy recovery.

Easier Now Than Later.
It is easier to break up a cold or check a cough now than it will be later. Persistent coughs that "hang on" all winter pave the way for serious throat and lung diseases. L. W. Day, 65 Campbell Av., E. Detroit, Mich., writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar relieves one of bronchitis very quickly." Sold everywhere.—Adv.

HAY BALERS WORK AT PLEASANT RIDGE

PLEASANT RIDGE, Sept. 29.—Rasmus Peterson was baling hay this week.

Roy Hamblin is working for O. E. Anderson and Anton Ahlstrom during haying.

Mrs. Geb. Holton of Deschutes visited Mrs. Cathrine Johnson Thursday.

Mrs. O. E. Anderson and W. H. Gray were in Bend Tuesday afternoon.

Alfred Pederson butchered a veal Wednesday which he sold among the neighbors.

Mrs. O. E. Anderson accompanied by Mrs. H. T. Mikkelsen and Alfred Mikkelsen were shopping in Redmond Saturday.

Mrs. Carrie Johnson of Tumalo visited her sister Mrs. J. W. Peterson Sunday.

Mr. Connely of Deschutes is helping Rasmus Peterson bale.

J. F. Young of Bend hauled some hay from O. E. Anderson's and Anton Ahlstrom's this week.

A. J. Sanford of Redmond was a caller at the Gray home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Anderson attended the show in Bend Sunday night.

H. T. Mikkelsen helped W. H. Gray butcher a veal Sunday.

Jim Benham is helping H. T. Mikkelsen during haying.

Mrs. O. E. Anderson made a business trip to Bend Monday afternoon.

Rasmus Peterson went to Redmond Tuesday morning on business.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Redfield and children of Deschutes were callers at the Anderson home Tuesday evening. Fred Seeling of Bend visited at the Gray home Sunday.

Rasmus Peterson went to Bend Monday morning to get help for baling.

Anton Ahlstrom and Oliver Hamblin went to Redmond Thursday evening.

Mrs. O. E. Anderson accompanied by Mrs. W. H. Gray went to Bend Friday afternoon.

J. W. Peterson made a business trip to Bend Friday.

Geo. Holton of Deschutes has been helping Rasmus Peterson bale.

Forerunners of Sickness.
Indigestion and constipation are the forerunners of half the ills of mankind. When food is properly digested, you are free from biliousness, gas, bloating, sick headache, sour stomach, coated tongue, Foley Cathartic Tablets cleanse the bowels, sweeten the stomach and invigorate the liver. Sold Everywhere.—Adv.

CIVIL WAR VETERAN SHOT AT MILLICAN

MILLICAN, Sept. 30.—Mr. Morris, a Civil War veteran, who has been working on the Rosin ranch for a long time, was accidentally shot in the knee Wednesday, while he and one of the Rosin children were out hunting rabbits with a 22 calibre rifle. Mrs. Rosin brought him to Bend Thursday.

The opening of the East End school had to be postponed until September 29, because the school house was not quite completed.

Eli Spencer was a Bend visitor Thursday.

The school directors held a board meeting on September 27th.

They now have water on the Len Smith place at a depth of less than 400 feet. The next place will be the William Ream place.

Mrs. R. R. Keller and son, Burton Neil, were Sunday afternoon visitors at the L. G. Morgan home.

R. R. Keller and family and Mrs. J. J. Holland and daughter Mary, were Bend visitors Tuesday.

Mrs. Mary Rosin made a business trip to Bend Tuesday.

R. R. Keller brought out a thousand pounds of rye for C. J. Cook, 425 pounds for L. P. Rooney and 270 pounds for Holland this week.

William A. Rahn is now busy working on the West End School house.

Leo B. Keller and Henry Trough came out Saturday on a pleasure trip expecting to return to Bend today.

A dance was enjoyed at the Spencer home Saturday night.

T. E. Golig was out here one day this week returning to Bend the following day on horse back.

L. P. Rooney called at the Holland home Saturday.

Little Mitchell E. Rooney was quite sick this week.

Mrs. Holland and daughter Mary, were engaged at the L. P. Rooney home helping Mrs. Rooney can chickens.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Smith have returned to Millican.

D. B. St. James came out Friday, returning to The Dalles Saturday to sell some of his household goods he had on his homestead.

NEWS ITEMS FROM GRANGE DISTRICT

GRANGE HALL, Sept. 30.—Mrs. H. Helgeson was shopping in Bend Wednesday.

L. Dahle and wife, from Norway, who spent two weeks visiting his brother O. Dahle left Wednesday morning for Portland. Mr. Dahle liked this country very much. He got some real experience in American farming by helping his brother hay.

Mr. and Mrs. Erickson went to Bend Friday.

Leroy Smith returned from the mountains and started to school Monday.

Mr. Helgeson has been on the sick list.

Miss Dorothy Young and Anna Smith spent Saturday in Bend visiting Nedra Toomey.

The Ladies' Aid met at Mrs. Erickson's Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Rasmussen, attended church services at the Deschutes school house Sunday morning. Missionary Harper spoke, also organized a Sabbath School.

Mr. S. A. Dutt and family were enjoying their new car Sunday.

When A Child Has Croup.

Thousands of mothers say Foley's Honey and Tar Compound is the best remedy they know for croup, coughs and colds. It cuts the thick, choking mucus, clears away the phlegm, opens air passages and eases hoarseness. The gasping, strangling fight for breath gives way to quiet breathing and peaceful sleep. Sold Everywhere.—Adv.

PARENT-TEACHERS IN TERREBONNE MEET

TERREBONNE, Sept. 30.—Some of the teachers and high school students attended the reception given at Redmond Friday evening by the student body of the Redmond Union high school.

The attendance at the Parent-Teachers' association last Friday was small but there was no lack of enthusiasm on the part of those present. A school gymnasium was the subject for consideration and it was voted to rent, if possible the Farmers Union hall for basket ball practice for the present.

Owing to the very busy season the attendance at the Pie Social given by the Ladies Pioneer club Saturday night was not as good as was expected. The returns amounted to $19.00 so the ladies are resting contented, because they are out of debt again.

Oscar Mooris of Opel City has purchased the Rillinger ranch adjoining the George Elliott place. Mr. and Mrs. Morris will make this their future home.

Roy Hill, of Kent, Wash., an old time friend of DeWitte Williams gave the latter a pleasant surprise by dropping in and spending the week end.

Grant Miller had a sale of live stock and personal property last Monday. He has rented his ranch to Mr. Thomas of Culver. Mr. Miller and family will move to Hood River.

Twelve members of the Sunday school were rewarded last Sunday with Testaments for perfect attendance during the last quarter.

They Get Action At Once.

Foley Kidney Pills invigorate, strengthen and heal inactive, weak and diseased kidneys and bladder. Mrs. O. J. Ellis, 505 8th Av., Sioux Falls, S. D., writes: "I suffered with kidney trouble; used to have severe pains across my back and felt miserable and all tired out, but after taking Foley Kidney Pills I am well." Sold Everywhere.—Adv.

THRESHING STARTS AT POWELL BUTTE

POWELL BUTTE, Sept. 30.—The Green Beard thresher came into Powell Butte last Sunday evening and commenced their run for this locality at the John Drisco ranch.

C. C. Charlton went to Prineville Sunday where he will remain to take in the fair.

Mrs. Mary V. Charlton, Grandma Spray and Charles Charlton, Jr., attended church in Prineville Sunday morning.

Henry Whitsett of this place who went with his brother Wallace Whitsett and family of Grants' Pass to attend the land sale and visit friends at Caldwell, Idaho, returned Saturday night. They attended the Idaho State Fair at Boise, while away but saw nothing that they desired to purchase in the way of Idaho lands.

Mr. and Mrs. V. Dill and children of Bend, visited at the E. H. Stewart home Sunday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor of Hood River parents of Mrs. Dill, were guests at the Stewart home on Sunday.

Geo. Whitsett and J. E. Warner who attended the land sale at Caldwell, Idaho, returned Friday. Mr. Warner purchased a 40 acre tract.

Most all the haying at Powell Butte will be finished this week, and threshing is now on in full force. The small thresher belonging to Geo. Shober is busy at the E. A. Bussett ranch, while the large "Beard" thresher is taking in most of the other jobs.

Mrs. Roy Roberts sold some fat hens to the Redmond market Saturday.

Mrs. Martha Foster with her twin grand-children, Wallace and Winnie left last Sunday for a visit with her son Terrill Foster and wife at Glen Falls, Idaho.

Miss Fay Bussett, teacher at the Shepard school, is attending institute in Prineville this week and visiting at the home of Mrs. Ida Morse. Miss Bussett will also study the exhibits at the fair while in Prineville.

Mrs. E. A. Bussett and Lloyd Bussett visited the Ice Cave Sunday and had a lovely picnic.

Mrs. Mary Brown is visiting her daughter Mrs. Henry Young at Redmond.

Dan Hourigan has gone to the mountains to look after his sheep.

An effort was made last week by sheepmen to corner the hay in this locality. Not wishing to purchase only on contracts at "going prices."

The Powell Butte Sorosis Club held a delightful meeting at the home of Mrs. Carl Fisher September 24. The club decided to not send a delegate to the State Federation of clubs, which meets at Corvallis in October. It has been decided that the club and their families will have a Thanksgiving dinner at Community Hall Thanksgiving Day. At the close of the meeting Mrs. Fisher, assisted by Mrs. Arthur Wurzweller and Mrs. E. Hugh Stewart served delicious refreshments. This was the first time Mrs. Fisher had entertained in her new home, which is a modern bungalow complete and furnished in excellent taste.

The Sorosis Club has ruled that, any member failing to notify the hostess at least twenty-four hours previous to the meeting, of her inability to attend, will be subject to a fine. The next meeting will be with Mrs. E. L. Iverson, October 8.

Schools in this part of Crook County were dismissed the first three days of the week, in order that the teachers might attend institute.

Mrs. Arthur Milner, Mrs. George Hobbs and Miss Gladys Pauls are attending institute in Prineville this week.

Cut This Out—It Is Worth Money.
Don't Miss This. Cut out this slip and send it to Foley & Co., 2325 Sheffield Ave., Chicago, Ill., writing your name and address clearly. You will receive in return a trial package containing Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, for coughs, colds and croup, Foley's Kidney Pills and Foley Cathartic Tablets. Sold everywhere.—Adv.

PLAINVIEW VISITED, BY KILLING FROST

PLAINVIEW, Sept. 30.—John McKinney has hauled a number of loads of potatoes to Sisters recently.

There will be a regular preaching services at the school house next Sunday afternoon, October 5.

A hard frost Sunday night was the first killing frost of the season. This is several weeks later than frosts usually arrive at Plainview.

Hubert Armstrong returned home Friday, September 26, on a 30 day furlough from Camp Lewis. It is still undecided whether he will receive his discharge.

Mrs. A. E. Hoss, Mrs. Patterson and Mrs. H. A. Scoggin attended the meeting of the Tillium Club held with Mrs. Minta Howard last Friday afternoon.

Mrs. C. F. Chalfan, Edgar Heardt, P. Van Tassel and Newell have been working the past week on a small lake near the head of Squaw Creek.

F. A. Powers received a shipment of numerous kinds of fruits from Mosier the past week.

George Gray went to Redmond Thursday.

A. E. Hoss made two trips to the La Pine country the past week.

Roy Armstrong and Roy Heardt have been helping G. C. McCallister with his hay crop the past week.

An epidemic of colds and some sore throats has been in Plainview this week.

Wilma Colfelt was the guest of Wilma Bennett last Thursday evening.

H. A. Scoggin is putting up a silo this week.

Fred Wilson and Mrs. Howard, from Tumalo were callers at the Hoss home Thursday.

Rev. Williams of Redmond was a caller in Plainview last week.

Roy Heardt took a load of potatoes to Bend Saturday.

G. C. McCallister was a Bend caller Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Scoggin and Misses Lucilla and J. Burgess were guests to dinner at the Hartley home Sunday.

James Pulliam was a Sisters' caller Saturday.

Have anything you want quickly Bulletin classified ads will get it.

FOREST OFFICIALS SURVEYING RANGE

Forest Supervisor N. G. Jacobson, accompanied by Grazing Examiner Jack Horton, are on an extended trip through the western part of the Cascade National Forest, making a survey of range conditions. The sheep range of the Cascade National forest was placed under the jurisdiction of Deschutes forest officials in the spring of the present year.

VINCENT TRANSFERS TO SIUSLAW FOREST

After eight years on the Deschutes National Forest, H. E. Vincent, Deputy supervisor here, received notice last week from the district office that he had been ordered transferred to the Siuslaw, with headquarters in Eugene.

Don't Allow Your Farm Crops or Buildings to go Uninsured.
We will insure your farm and allow you one year in which to pay the premium.

C. V. SILVIS
BEND, OREGON

The Farmer

If you want to get the quickest action on a small amount of money, offer what you have to sell through the Classified Column of the Weekly Bulletin.

Mr. Farmer

If you want anything, make you want known through the Classified Columns of the Weekly Bulletin.

Hundreds of Farmers Read Classified Ads.

COSTS
1 to 20 words, each insertion, 20c.
More than 20 words, 1 cent per insertion.

Demonstrations That Demonstrate=No. 5

WATCH FOR No. 6.

A certain Western Sheepman nearly smashed the world's wool record when he sheared 51 pounds from his Registered Rambouillet Ram, "San Peter." This man has demonstrated that every ewe lamb sired by San Peter shears several pounds more wool than the ewes sired by ordinary rams. San Peter's clip sold for $25.50 this year.

Can YOU use such a Buck in YOUR Band?

THE BANK OF PERSONAL SERVICE

The First National Bank of Bend

BEND, OREGON.