

FIGHT WAGED ON BLACKLEG

500 DOSES OF VACCINE RECEIVED IN BEND TO BE ADMINISTERED TO CATTLE GRAZING ON DRY RANGE.

Five hundred doses of vaccine, to be used in fighting the epidemic of blackleg which has broken out on the range between Fort Rock and Brothers, were received Thursday the First National Bank from the State Livestock Sanitary board, and will be distributed free among stockmen who are desirous of vaccinating. The bank's vaccine syringes are being loaned out in an effort to expedite the work. Approximately 700 head of cattle will be treated, according to R. A. Ward, in charge of this department at the bank.

While blackleg has been supposed to be confined to rich highly fertilized pastures, and marshy meadow land, the disease has broken out in a virulent form on the dry range, and stockmen have already lost a considerable number of cattle. All the vaccine available was used, and a fresh order wired in to the State Livestock Sanitary board headquarters in Salem.

Losses among cattle infected with blackleg will ordinarily run over three per cent, but among vaccinated stock this is reduced to less than one-tenth of one per cent. Stock under two years of age should be inoculated twice a year.

The vaccination now being carried on, will when completed, make 2600 head of cattle which have been treated with vaccine furnished this season by the bank.

FIRM HAND NEEDED IN THE NEAR EAST

Growing Unrest in Armenia and Massacre Told of by Bend Woman Engaged in Relief Work.

That grave trouble may be expected soon in Armenia, if the allies do not use a firmer hand in governing affairs in the near east, is the prediction made by Mrs. P. C. Burt, formerly of this city, now with the Relief commission. A letter just received by her husband here, states that Mrs. Burt is now engaged in establishing an orphanage in a district of some 50 or 60 villages, with a population of 200,000.

Concerning the conditions prevailing in that country, Mrs. Burt writes: "It appears that no one except those on the ground can appreciate the state of affairs, or the growing unrest and the hatred between Turks and Armenians, Tartars and Kurds, and Greeks and Georgians."

She mentions also a massacre which occurred about the end of July, when 300 Armenians were killed and 70 wounded.

LUMBERMEN TO GET NO SPECIAL TRAIN

Members of Logging Congress Who Visit Bend Will Spend Nearly All Day in Woods.

Because it has so far been found impossible to obtain a special train for the Loggers' Congress, the members of which will visit Bend on October 11, it has been necessary to make plans for the entertainment of the guests somewhat less elaborate, is the statement of A Whisnant, chairman of the entertainment committee of the Bend Commercial club.

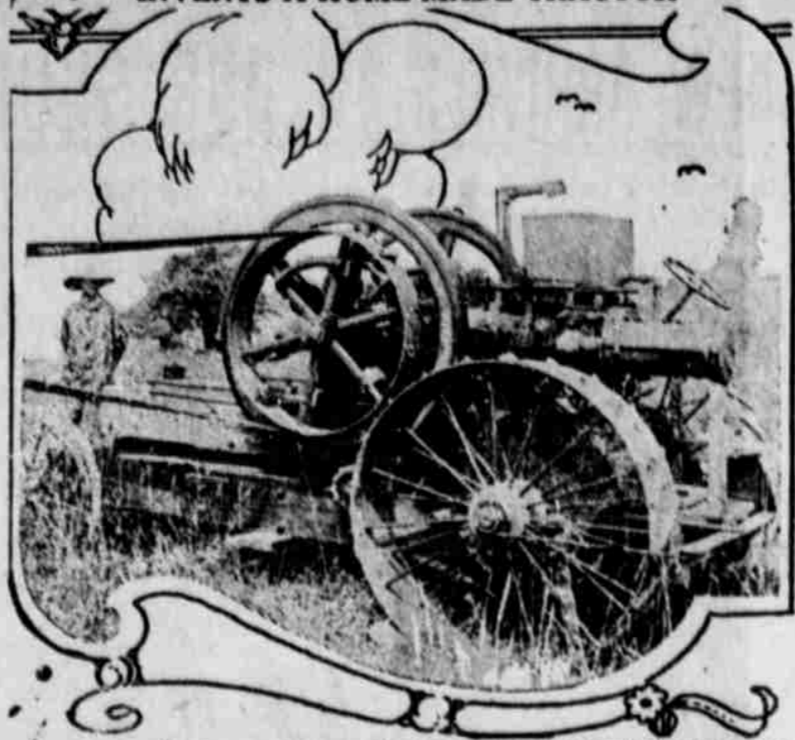

The lumbermen, more than 250 of them, will arrive in Bend on the morning train, and will be taken to the various hotels and restaurants for breakfast, meeting immediately afterward at the Pilot Butte Inn. In autos furnished by members of the Commercial club, they will be taken to the logging camps of The Sheelin-Hixon Company. A picnic luncheon will be served at The Tullies.

Driving by way of Spring River, the lumbermen will visit the logging camps of the Brooks-Seaton Lumber Co., returning to Bend in time to take the evening train for Portland.

CRIMINAL CASES BECOMING FEWER

Criminal cases in Justice court have been reduced very nearly to a minimum in the last six months, for in that time, costs have amounted to only $15, according to Justice of the Peace J. A. Eastes.

INVENTS A HOME-MADE TRACTOR

A one-cylinder gasoline engine bought second-handed nine years ago, with a bunch of wheels and parts taken from the junk heap—Result, a farm tractor that hauls three plows and takes care of a threshing outfit. The tractor cost about $250 completed. It was invented by Abraham Gelsinger of Roseburg, Ore.

O. A. C. MEN TO BE JUDGES AT TUMALO

That two men from the Oregon Agricultural college will be available to act as judges at the Tumalo fair, was the information received this morning by R. A. Ward. Of these two, one will be Henry Fjelsted, of the Animal Husbandry department of the college, who will judge livestock.

R. D. WARD CLAIMS PENDLETON BRIDE

While attending the Round-Up at Pendleton the marriage of R. D. Ward, of Bennett-Cooper Co. and Miss Evelyn Kenman, of Pendleton was solemnized. Mr. Ward has returned to Bend and will soon be joined by Mrs. Ward. Mr. Ward was formerly a resident of Pendleton.

POISONOUS INSECT COLLECTION GIVEN

Of especial interest to students in biology at the Bend high school, is a fine collection of poisonous insects presented to the school by Mrs. Mary E. Knotts, of this city. More of the specimens comprising the collection, were obtained in Arizona.

ONE DAY'S TAXES AMOUNT TO $3200

Bearing out predictions made last week, taxes are coming in at a rapid rate in the office of Chief Deputy Sheriff August Anderson. Yesterday's collections amounted to $3200, and Mr. Anderson sees no chance of a let-up before the end of the week.

16 LOT TRACT BRINGS $14,000

CENTRAL OREGON REALTY CO. ACQUIRES PROPERTY ON WALL STREET—WILL PLACE ON MARKET.

Announcement was made Thursday afternoon of the purchase by the Central Oregon Realty Company of the 16 lot tract bounded by Greenwood, Wall and Bond, from D. E. Hunter, at a consideration of $14,000. Excellent business and residence sites are included in the tract which will be divided and placed on the market by the new owners.

A sale was made through the Central Oregon Realty Co. reported in a transfer from P. J. Riedel of his residence on Newport, to William O-

Brien, recently arrived in Bend from Salt Lake city.

SOLDIERS ACCEPT STATE ASSISTANCE

Considerable interest is being taken in and near Bend by returned service men, in the state law which provides $25 a month aid for those desiring to attend college, reports Mrs. V. A. Forbes, Home Service Secretary of the Bend Chapter of the American Red Cross. Six applications have already been filed, and a number more are expected.

FORMER INJURIES PRODUCE INSANITY

Cranial injuries received in childhood by Robert G. Bowser, of the Tumalo section, brought about a mental derangement, and he was adjudged insane Thursday by County Physician R. W. Hendershott. Attendants have been summoned from the state asylum at Pendleton, where the patient will be committed.

Put it in The Bulletin.

A Most Remarkable Transaction

TO KEEP THE COST OF GROCERIES DOWN

Realizing that the cost of doing business is gradually mounting, necessitating on the other hand an increase in price commensurate,

Smith's Grocery Has Purchased the Entire Grocery Stock of F. Dement & Co.

As a matter of business reasoning if we increase our volume of business with the same general overhead we can therefore do business on a generally smaller margin. By purchasing this large stock of highest quality merchandise at present day costs

We Will Absolutely Guarantee That The Price for Some Time to Come Will Not Be Advanced.

It is our most sincere desire to keep down the cost of merchandise. Groceries make up a large part of the living expense of every household. We will try to make the dollar go the limit for you in purchasing value.

We Most Cordially Invite All the Patrons of F. Dement & Co. to Become Our Customers

assuring them that they will have the identical merchandise, coupled with service and value as they have in the past. For a time at least the stock of F. Dement & Co. will remain in its present quarters and service will be rendered by the same selling force, but under the management of R. M. Smith.
