

What's Doing In The Country

POWELL BUTTE BOY IS AWARDED PRIZE

POWELL BUTTE, Oct. 8.—Carl Jacobson, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Jacobson of this place, took first prize on mechanical devices at the fair, he having an exhibition a miniature merry-go-round, run by electricity, all the work of his own hands and brain.

It is announced that Joe Elliott has leased his home place to Mr. and Mrs. Watson, recently from Fort Rock. They lease the ranch by the year and will soon move onto it from their temporary home on the George Hobbs homestead.

Guy Dobson of Redmond and J. E. Elliott of Powell Butte have sold their cattle to the Pasilua Valley Cattle Raisers' association. Delivery was made Monday.

C. M. Charlton bought 100 head of ewes from J. M. Williamson this week and will keep them on his land here at Powell Butte.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Lill and children of Bend came over Thursday and spent the night at the E. H. Stewart home, and they, together with the Stewart and Roberts families, attended the fair Friday.

Nearly all Powell Butte attended the fair one or more days last week, but very few had time to prepare exhibits.

Dan Hourigan, Tom Cronin and D. E. Vergees spent several days last week in Proctland, returning in time to take in the fair.

E. Earl Charlton has gone to Portland, where he will remain several weeks.

S. D. Mustard, who has always heretofore carried off all the blue ribbons and silver cups that he tried for, was too busy to exhibit at all this year at the fair. He had so much hay to look after and his threshing was not yet done.

Mrs. E. A. Bussett and Miss Fay Bussett went to Sherman county last week to visit Mrs. Bussett's uncle, Ben Brown, who is in very poor health.

The new residence of George Kinsler is nearing completion, it being now in the hands of the plasterers for the finishing touches. Mr. Kinsler has a large family and is building a modern home large enough for every comfort.

John Driscoll sold his sheep to Charles Parrish. This is a fine little band of sheep, and Mr. Parrish is buying for his four boys. While hardly in their teens, these boys are early learning business methods that will stick with them.

The farm known as the Jim Turner place of 160 acres was purchased recently by J. E. Elliott and Guy Dobson of Redmond. This is homestead land and sold for $25 per acre. These men have bought a water right for the place and will immediately begin clearing and seeding it to alfalfa. It is their intention to bring in pure bred cattle and specialize in that line.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bayne and Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Worrell visited and shopped in Bend last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Yates, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Worrell attended the Crook county fair and were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Bayne, and Mr. and Mrs. Milner in the evening, forming a merry party that took in the carnival at Prineville Saturday.

Mr. Stevens is building a stone garage at the C. L. Worrell ranch. Mr. Worrell brought out the lumber for it last Monday from Redmond.

Fred Atchinson of Redmond was a caller at the Worrell ranch Saturday last.

Threshing is in progress at the Henry Hanson ranch. Mr. Hanson has recently had a telephone installed in his home.

SWEET CLOVER CUT AT PLEASANT RIDGE

PLEASANT RIDGE, Oct. 8.—O. E. Anderson has been busy this week harvesting his sweet clover. Rasmus Peterson and Mrs. Catherine Johansen were in Bend Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. O. E. Anderson was a Tumalo visitor Thursday afternoon. Howard Young was taken sick Wednesday afternoon and went to Bend that evening to consult a doctor.

Rev. and Mrs. J. Scott and small daughter are visiting a few days at the J. W. Peterson home. Mr. Scott recently sold his farm at Terrebonne.

Mr. Hutton of Redmond is clearing some land for a Mr. Smith. The property lies north of the W. H. Gray place.

Fred Seeling of Bend was a visitor in this neighborhood Sunday. J. W. Peterson filled his silo on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Peck and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Peck of Culver visited at the W. H. Gray home Sunday. Ralph Peck just recently returned from overseas after 15 months' service with the American expeditionary forces. He was wounded once.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Anderson attended the Interstate fair at Prineville Saturday.

Anton Ahlstrom made a business trip to Redmond Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Anderson, accompanied by Mrs. Mitchell of Tumalo, was a caller at the C. P. Becker home Monday afternoon.

J. W. Peterson made a business trip to Bend Thursday.

Mrs. O. E. Anderson was in Bend on Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Alfred Pedersen has been working for Mrs. W. H. Gray a few days.

Rasmus Peterson and Mrs. Catherine Johansen, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Mikkelsen and Alfred Mikkelsen, attended the Prineville fair Saturday.

FUNERAL AT SISTERS FOR VETERAN OF 87

CLOVERDALE, Oct. 7.—Mr. John Burr Fryrear of this place, passed away at Mill City on Sept. 27, 1910. He was born in Henderson county, Kentucky in 1833 and crossed the plains in 1853 from Illinois. In 1858 he married Elizabeth Berry and soon after came to the Oregon country where he has lived ever since. Shortly before his death he rode horseback into the Breitenbuch Hot Springs. He was ill but a few days. He leaves a wife Mrs. Elizabeth Fryrear, four sons John, William, Dave and Joe and one daughter Mrs. Richard King, nine grandchildren and nine great grandchildren. He was buried at Sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Arnold and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hodson returned home on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Abbey, Mrs. Nancy Abbey and Charlie Abbey were visitors at the Parberry ranch on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hodson attended the Prineville fair on Saturday.

Mr. Bert Richards of Baltimore, who visited his sisters in California for the past two months is visiting his sister Mrs. Irvin Parberry. He arrived in Redmond Sunday morning.

J. L. Parberry is filling his silos this week with sunflowers, corn and oats.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Burling shopped in Sisters Saturday.

Mrs. Billy Wilson and sons Vanand John attended the Prineville fair on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Abbey were Cloverdale visitors Monday.

WORK BEGUN ON DESCHUTES BRIDGE

DESCHUTES, Oct. 9.—Work started last week on the road and bridge crossing the Deschutes River at the old Marsh Abbey cabin, about three miles north of Tumalo. This will make a shorter haul for the products in the section north of Tumalo to the railroad by from about three to five miles.

We understand a new rural mail route out of Redmond will start Nov. 1st, counting up to within three miles of Deschutes post office, which will cut off several patrons of this office.

Mr. W. K. McCormick has a large band of fine sheep grazing on the desert just east of Deschutes and the herder reports that coyotes are very troublesome. Mr. McCormick loaded two cars of lambs for Chicago market Sunday evening.

The Central Oregon Irrigation Company during the past three weeks has sold nineteen 40-acre tracts of land.

Miss Florence Foster, who formerly taught the Deschutes school, writes her friends that she is now located at Treadwell, Alaska. Has a nice school and enjoys the novelty and beauty of the scenery. She has climbed several mountains and gone into a mine 2600 feet back under the channel. She states that they have every convenience and board is good.

Miss Hilga Holgreen has gone to Newport to visit her parents for a couple of months.

Mr. Fred Wollsten of The Bend Bulletin was a caller at the Central Oregon Irrigation Company office last Tuesday, taking dinner at the hotel.

Mr. Jerry Schoelling has purchased the J. S. Churchill place, which joins him on the north; consideration $1000.00. This will make a valuable addition to his place.

We understand that Mr. Frank Bayn, who has been suffering with rheumatism all summer is improving. We sincerely trust he will soon be fully recovered.

Mr. Howard Young and Mr. Alfred Hunsell came down from Bend Thursday afternoon to see Mr. Hunsell's aunt, Mrs. L. A. Brandenburg. Alfred seemed very glad to be home again, having just recently returned from Germany. He was in the big parade at Washington, D. C. on the arrival there of General Pershing.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Stars were week end guests of Mr. F. S. Stanley. Mrs. Stars having accompanied Mrs. John Ryan and daughter from Portland in Mrs. Ryan's car last Sunday.

A Portland potato buyer spent Friday in Deschutes vicinity, inspecting the potato fields, but did not contract for any potatoes. He seems to think that the market was very unsettled and that present prices would decline.

J. R. Benham, who graduated as Master Buckaroo under the tutelage of Marshall Auberry in 1874 and later as a Master Ford Skinner, has been at the wheel of the Tumalo stage for a few days while Wat Jones is off the run.

Our little Sunday school is again organized and we had a very nice attendance on the 5th, but we would like to have a larger attendance and we cordially invite everyone in our vicinity to come to Sunday school. It is a good place for grown ups as well as children, so we hope everyone will come. Sunday school begins at 11 a. m.

Mr. Pete Hardy of Redmond and Mr. Van Huffel of Bend were guests of Mr. F. S. Stanley for dinner Sunday.

TERREBONNE TAKES MANY FAIR PRIZES

TERREBONNE, Oct. 7.—A large number of Terrebonne people attended the Prineville fair Friday and Saturday and as usual captured their share of the prizes—Harvey Gates took the $25 prize for the best farm exhibit, John Perry took three firsts on corn while Mrs. Perry took eleven prizes on needle work, one on tomatoes and one on sweet potatoes, Mrs. Galbraith took seven on needlework and crocheting and Mrs. Mitchell and Mrs. Parr each one on needlework.

Mrs. M. A. Pickett left Sunday morning for an extended visit at her old home in Indiana.

Principal Irvin of the Redmond union High School visited Terrebonne high school Wednesday.

Rev. Williams of the Presbyterian church of Redmond was a school visitor Friday.

Mrs. Strand, principal of Culver high school spent the week end with Miss Mina Elliott. A pleasant little party was given in her honor at the Davidson home Friday evening.

A son arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Hall Saturday. He has been christened, Vincent Vernon. County superintendent J. Alton Thompson visited school Monday.

Mr. Dokkin is helping the Parberry boy.

Mr. Skelton called on J. L. Parberry Monday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Fryrear is with Mrs. King in her old home here. Mr. and Mrs. Dave Fryrear returned to their Washington home on Thursday.

THE GOLDEN RULE

Our stock is filled with new arrivals in Young Men's Nifty Suits in models and designs. We claim to save you the most money--not by giving a cheap short lined garment, but one that is as durable as it is smart.

Featuring the well known L-System.

Winter won't wait--neither should you. Come in today.

Our Underwear Department is now ready for your most exacting wants. All weights in cotton, wool-mixed, silk and wool and pure wool. Seeing our line will convince you we have what you want at the right price.

We carry a complete line of Union Made--- in all colors--blue, brown, khaki and grey--light weights to heavy weight wool.

MAC & REINIE

HOME OF PERSONAL SERVICE

NEWS ITEMS FROM PLAINVIEW FARMS

PLAINVIEW, Oct. 8.—W. E. Hoss has purchased a fine new Dodge truck arriving at home with it last Saturday.

Mrs. S. L. Burgess and children and Mrs. H. A. Scoggin were guests at the A. W. Armstrong home on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Hartley, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Anderson, George Gray, Ray Armstrong and Louis and Albert Nirschal attended the Prineville fair on Friday.

Mr. Will Patterson of Portland was entertained at the Hoss home Wednesday evening. Mr. Patterson is traveling in this vicinity for a millinery house in Portland.

C. F. Chaifan, P. Van Tassel and Edgar Hentz returned from the mountains Friday evening to return to their work on the Squaw Creek levy, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. McKinney, Miss Pulliam and Jim, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Elkins and G. C. McCallister attended the Prineville fair Saturday.

Wilma Colfelt spent the week end with Ida Hoss.

S. L. Burgess of Bend, was a caller at the A. C. McCallister ranch Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Armstrong were guests to dinner at the Box ranch Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hoss will start for Paisley on Tuesday.

The regular church services were held at the school house Sunday afternoon Oct. 5th., with a small crowd in attendance. Mr. and Mrs. Andres and children of Cloverdale and Mr. Ebbe of Redmond accompanied Rev. Williams.

J. A. Wand and Paul Scoggin attended the fair at Prineville the past week entering several horses in the contests.

John McKinney and Jim Pulliam were callers in Sisters Sunday.

GRANGE HALL SCHOOL IS CLOSED FOR FAIR

GRANGE HALL, Oct. 8.—Gordon Dutt who lives in this district drives to school in Bend in their new car. The school in district 21 closed Wednesday to attend the Grange Hall fair.

A beautiful new bungalow is being built on the 120 acres of land which Mr. P. J. Young recently sold.

Mr. Charles Williamson is able to be out again after his accident in the lumber camp.

Mr. Merchant left for the mountains Monday to get his cattle.

The following people represented this neighborhood at the Prineville fair Saturday: Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds and daughter, Elizabeth, Mr. and Mrs. Erickson and daughter, Esther, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson and family, Girdon Dutt, Mr. C. Smith and family, and Miss Ida Dahle.

Mr. and Mrs. Butler called at the teacher's cottage Tuesday afternoon. Charles Lowe was in Bend Wednesday.

Mr. Whiteman and Clarence Smith are in the mountains after stock.

L. C. Young made a business trip to Bend Monday.

Mrs. and Mr. C. M. Rasmussen visited at the J. Pedersen home Sunday.

Misses Isabelle and Fay Smith spent Sunday with their parents on their ranch in this vicinity.

HOUSE WARMING AT LA PINE ENJOYED

LAPINE, Oct. 8.—A large crowd attended the house warming at the C. E. Hill homestead Saturday evening and danced until the wee hours of the morning.

A Sunday school was organized at the Commercial club hall Sunday evening and elected Lilly Brown, superintendent; and Lillie Bogue, secretary. Classes will meet every Sunday at 10:30.

A. H. Stava came all the way from Dwight, Nebr., to visit East Lake. His brother R. R. Stava accompanied him. They are old friends of Louis Tomes, who used to live at Dwight, Nebr.

Alfred Schults of Bend was visiting relatives at Lapine Sunday and Monday. He returned to Bend on the stage Monday.

Mrs. F. M. Chrismean of Silver Lake was at Lapine Monday.

The following people registered at the Lapine hotel during the past week: Stava Bros., of Dwight, Nebr., Conn Breen of Lava Lake, Mike Angland of Bend, Chas. Crosby of Portland, Peter Ridgerary of Lake View, Dan Hourigan of Bend, H. Zimmerman of Crescent C. P. Dorian and Dr. J. C. Vandeventer of Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Miller of Spokane, James Bailey Barry, Hugh O'Conner and Ross McPherson of Portland, C. H. Graham of Paisley.

Bert Oney took several firefighters to the Surveyors Well Monday between Lapine and the summit station to fight a fire that has gained considerable headway in the yellow pine section. The forest service officials were unable to get anyone to fight the fire at Pringle Butte.

Louis Tomes took the Stava Bros., of Dwight, Neb., to East Lake Monday.

The following program will be given at the school house Friday afternoon on Oct. 17th., by the Lapine High School Literary society: Song, "The Star Spangled Banner," by the school; recitation, "There was a Crooked Man," by Wilfred Fordham; recitation, "Market Day," by Helen Masten; recitation, "Mary and Her Cold," by Opal Swayze; song, "Battle Cry of Freedom," by High School boys; dialogue, "Belling the Cat," by the primary pupils; recitation, "Count Your Blessings," by Ruby Oney; recitation, "Baby Bye," by Margaret Ralber; reading, "The Ideals of Life," by Ruth Farr; recitation, "The Green Mountain Boys," by Vernon Masten; reading, by Lillie Bogue; song, "Juanita," by four girls; reading, by Marian Donahue; recitation, "The American Flag," by Clifford Clow; recitation, "The Negro Boatman," by Jewell Swayze; song, "Columbia The Gem of The Ocean," J. W. McCormick, prominent sheepbuyer of Bend was at Lapine Sunday.

H. Cavanaugh went to Bend Tuesday to attend the smoker at the gym.

F. W. Weber and Miss Rose Hunsell went to Bend Friday, sheepbuyer of Bend, was at Lapine Monday.

W. R. Riley went to Bend Sunday and returned Monday.

A dinner was given at school Monday noon in honor of Helen Clark's thirteenth birthday.

Lee Bogue went hunting Sunday morning.

H. Cavanaugh was fishing on the Deschutes Monday. He came home with a story relating the fact that he had such a big fish on the hook that he was unable to pull him out.

Mrs. Beesly is sick with a severe cold.

Sell your poultry through Bulletin classified ads.

Books Books Books For Everybody

We have just received a big line of popular reprints and copyrighted books to suit the reading fancies of everybody, including the well known authors John Barr McCutcheon, Harold Bell Wright, Zane Grey, Jack London, Douglas Fairbanks, Rex Beach, Booth Tarkington and many others.

Reprints 85c

Copyrights Regular Price

AT

Owl Pharmacy

Bend's Book Store

Don't Allow Your Farm Crops or Buildings to go Uninsured. We will insure your farm and allow you one year in which to pay the premium.

C. V. SILVIS BEND, OREGON