MOOSE PREPARE FOR CARNIVAL

ANNUAL EVENT TO START ON NOVEMBER 24—TICKETS NOW OUT FOR AUTOMOBILE AWARD—CONTEST FEATURE.

From November 24 to 29 the annual Moose carnival will be held in Bend, and preparations are already being made for one of the big features of the week, the giving of a Ford car to some one of the carnival patrons. Tickets on the car were placed on sale Thursday, and with each ticket purchase, 1000 votes will be given away and may be used in the popularity contest. The young lady who wins in this, it is stated, will be the recipient of a $100 diamond ring.

The definite program for the carnival, which is to be held in the Hippodrome, has not yet been arranged, but dancing will be an important part of the entertainment, with a first class orchestra on the job nightly. As another feature, it was learned that turkeys, chickens, ducks, and geese, will be the awards in some of the games, and the Moose are urging their friends to get their Thanksgiving dinners at the carnival. Members of the committee in charge of arrangements, which is headed by J. H. Morton, are George Stokoe, R. H. Blade, Harry Reingold, A. E. Estebenet, Ed Peterman, R. D. Stowell, Dudley Shaw, Taylor Rhodes, J. A. Swift, and H. D. Innis.

G. P. SMITH BUYER OF WRIGHT HOTEL

Policy of General Improvement Will be Adopted by New Management in Conducting Business.

Announcement was made on Saturday of the purchase by G. P. Smith, representative for the Pennsylvania Vacuum cup tires in Bend, of the Wright Hotel from Munn and Littlefield, the former owners. The consideration was not made public. Mr. and Mrs. Smith, who have both had wide experience in hotel management in past years, assumed charge of the business on Saturday. Mr. Smith will retain his tire agency, but has transferred the repair business in connection with it, to L. F. Frederickson.

A general policy of improvement in the upkeep of the building and the tone of the establishment will be inaugurated at once by the new management.

SINNOTT'S ABILITY GETS RECOGNITION

Oregon Congressman is Lauded as Best Chairman Public Lands Committee Ever Had.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 6.—A splendid tribute to the legislative industry and ability of Congressman N. J. Sinnott of Oregon was paid him on the floor of the House by Congressman Scott Ferris of Oklahoma when he stated that Sinnott was the best chairman that the Committee on Public Lands had ever had.

The tribute, which was warmly applauded, was all the more gracious and forceful on account of the fact that Congressman Ferris had himself been Chairman of this big Committee for several years prior to the recent session of Congress. He is Chairman of the National Congressional Democratic Committee, at the present time, as well as ranking minority member of the Public Lands Committee. The compliment to the Oregon member was made during remarks by the Oklahoma Congressman on the Mineral Land Leasing Bill now being considered by the House; and appears in the Congressional Record as follows:

"The gentleman from Oregon (Mr. Sinnott) is entitled to the very greatest credit. He spent nights and nights and tedious nights they were, in the most thorough investigation in connection with this bill. The gentleman has always been active on the Committee, but this year he has assumed the responsibility of the chairman with all the term implies, and is really the best chairman the committee has ever had."

SHEEPMAN PAYS $10 FOR CUTTING CORNER

Con O'Keefe Admits Intoxication, But Cannot Remember Whether or Not He Was in Car.

Charged with cutting corners Saturday night, Con O'Keefe, prominent sheepman of the Silver Lake country, appeared in Police Court Wednesday afternoon, entered a plea of guilty, and paid a fine of $10.00. He informed the court that he knew he was under the influence of liquor at the time of his arrest, but that he was not certain whether or not he was in an auto. He was inclined to think that he was not, but was willing to accept the word of Officer Frank Kulp, to the contrary. He had been trying to get out of his sheep camp, he said, but had missed the road.

FRIENDS PAY LAST TRIBUTE

FUNERAL SERVICES CONDUCTED THIS AFTERNOON IN FLOWER-FILLED ROOM, FOR MRS. W. C. BIRDSALL.

In a room filled with floral tributes, funeral services were held Friday at the Pilot Butte Inn for Mrs. W. C. Birdsall, who died Wednesday morning. The more intimate friends were gathered in the ladies' room of the hotel where the casket banked with flowers, was placed, others who attended assembling in the main lobby of the hotel. Rev. Purdy, of the Methodist church, conducted the funeral services, and told simply but effectively of the work which Mrs. Birdsall had done in the Red Cross during the war, and in general in the relief of sickness and distress. Practically all in attendance at the services were also present later at the Pilot Butte cemetery, where interment was made.

CHRISTMAS CARDS FOR THE HOLIDAY SPIRIT

In no other way has the spirit of the Christmas season been better shown than in the development of the use of Christmas greeting cards. It is a time of the year when people are thinking of each other, members of the family are preparing gifts and little remembrances are being selected. Between friends where the expenditure of money in any amount for gifts involves something outside the idea of the season the Christmas card has come to be used more and more. It is pretty, colorful and suggestive of the holiday season. The fact that a card is sent shows that the recipient has a place in the thoughts of the sender and the sentiment on the card gives the desired Christmas message.

Because of the popularity of the Christmas card and its widespread use The Bulletin this year has made arrangements to meet the local demand. Samples of a beautiful line of holiday cards have recently been received and a representative will shortly be prepared to take orders, calling at homes and places of business. Or the cards may be seen at The Bulletin office.

In order to insure delivery in time orders should be given in as soon as possible.

Our Different Worlds.
I once stood in a dome with different colored glass in each window. Thus four men touching each other might each see a different scene; a red ocean, a green city, blue fields, and yellow mountains. A rare man might climb to the top of the dome and see the whole circle of the landscape under the white light of a pure atmosphere. But most of us look through one window, each upon a different world, each world colored by our own individuality.—Robert S. Barrett.
