

What's Doing In The Country

TERREBONNE SENDS TURKEY SHIPMENT

TERREBONNE, Nov. 25.—There has been a large shipment of turkeys, geese and chickens from here this week to Bend, Portland and other places.

Mr. Perry and Mr. Snapp returned from Dufur last Sunday evening. They were picking apples at that place for the past week.

A number of young people attended a surprise birthday party given in honor of Miss Lottie Mead, last Thursday evening.

Mrs. Pellet entertained a number of ladies at a quilting bee Wednesday, Nov. 19. A delightful and hearty repast was served at noon. Those present were: Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Dietrich, Mrs. Wimp, Mrs. Snapp, Mrs. Hamilton, Mrs. Graves, and Mrs. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Davidson, and Mrs. and Mrs. W. J. Hall, spent last Monday in Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Nichols and son Lester, left for The Dalles last Wednesday, where they will spend the winter.

Mrs. Galbraith's mother, Mrs. Trapman, of Lynden, Washington, is visiting here and will probably remain for the winter season.

Mrs. Boems, the visiting school nurse, spoke at the Parent-Teachers' meeting last Wednesday, on the "Diet of Young Children." Another pleasing number on the program was the dramatization of Jack and Jill, by Miss Dietrich's pupils.

Mrs. McVicker a former pastor of this place spoke to a well filled house last Monday night.

Rev. Williams of Redmond, gave another one of his interesting talks to the Terrebonne High School and grammar schools last Wednesday morning. His subject this time was "Rural New York."

A. E. Dyer and son Lee, were here last Thursday looking up a location. After a year's ranching in Washington, Mr. Dyer has decided that the mercantile business in Terrebonne suits him well enough.

Harvey Gatch held his annual shooting match last Saturday afternoon and thus disposed of twelve turkeys and geese besides affording a lively good time for marksmen and spectators.

The first rabbit drive of the season was held Sunday and a large number of rabbits were killed.

BASKET SOCIAL IS ENJOYED BY MANY

PLEASANT RIDGE, Nov. 25.—Thursday of Mrs. G. W. Bales of Mrs. O. E. Anderson was a guest Tumalo.

Anton Ahlstrom and Rasmus Peterson have been serving on the jury all of this week.

The following people from this neighborhood attended the basket social at Deschutes Friday night: Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Pederson, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Anderson, Alfred Mikkelsen, J. Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Swalley, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Johnson and Watt Jones.

Alfred Mikkelsen spent Saturday with Hans Hanson at Deschutes. Fred Seeling of Bend, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gray.

H. T. Mikkelsen is pulling trees for Mr. Shannon.

Jimmie Hutton went to Redmond Saturday with a load of wood.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Anderson were callers at the Redfield home at Deschutes on Monday evening.

F. B. Baughman left Monday night for Portland to attend the Pacific International Livestock Exposition. H. T. Mikkelsen went to Redmond Friday after some repairs for his stump pulling machine.

Mrs. O. E. Anderson and Mrs. Cathrine Johansen were shopping in Redmond Monday.

J. W. Peterson was in Bend on business, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cabson of Prineville came out Thursday to spend a few days on their ranch.

B. S. McKay and family have moved into Andrew Nelson's house for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Anderson and children of Bend, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Anderson on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cabson went to Redmond Friday evening.

A Cheerful Recommendation.

"They should be in every traveling man's grip," writes Geo. Jenner, 416 Labor St., San Antonio, Tex., of Foley Cathartic Tablets. "They are the best laxative I have taken and I cheerfully recommend them to anyone suffering with constipation or biliousness." They cleanse bowels, sweeten stomach, benefit liver. Sold everywhere.—Adv.

LA PINE TO BEND ROAD IS BETTER

LA PINE, Nov. 25.—Mr. and Mrs. and Miss Rose Hunnell were at Math Raber, Miss Lillye Brown, Bend Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Scott and sons were at La Pine Saturday.

Mr. C. H. Clow is on the sick list.

George McLaughlin made a business trip to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sly were at Bend Friday.

Henry Reed went to Fort Rock Saturday evening with a truck load of freight.

William and Albert Johnson are hauling hay for Mr. Foss.

Felix Springstube and mother made a business trip to Bend Thursday.

F. W. Weber made a business trip to Crescent Friday evening.

W. G. Fordham and Eugene Jensen went to East Lake Friday evening.

E. L. Clark was at the Walker Basin headgate Thursday.

W. R. Riley went to Bend Saturday and returned with a load of freight. The creamery has been closed down for the winter and cream is now shipped to Bend and Redmond.

Mr. and Mrs. Burgess are contemplating leaving for Portland.

Noah Cripe who has a homestead in the Walker Basin, was at La Pine Friday.

The following guests registered at the La Pine hotel during the past week:

Roy R. Staton and wife, Corona, Calif.
A. B. Cray and wife, Corona, Calif.

W. H. Merriman, Bend.
Frank Hamond, Bend.
A. McCellas, Yakima.
E. B. Matmore, Yakima.
A. C. Matmore, Yakima.
Chester G. Springe and wife, Bend.

J. Cable, Redmond.
Roy Kelley, Bend.
Clyde Stokoe, Bend.
Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bear of Los Angeles.

Pete Smith, Bend.
Mike Daley, Bend.
Joe F. Mann, Bend.
Frederickson Brothers, La Pine.
A. E. Hoss, Alfalfa.
Black McGee, Bend.
J. R. McGee, Bend.
Geo. W. McLaughlin, Walker Basin.

C. H. Young, Bend.
W. C. Hollinshead, Sisk.
Henry Reed, Bend.
The road to Bend is in fairly good condition again. Some dragging and rolling would do a great deal of good as the ground is saturated with moisture.

Most of the ranchers are doing their fall plowing, Mr. Swayze having plowed 160 acres.
A turkey rifle was pulled off at the Cavanaugh Pool Hall, Saturday evening.

This Woman Found Relief.
Men and women suffering from kidney and bladder trouble will be glad to read how one woman found relief. Mrs. G. Hyde, Homestead, Mich., writes: "I had that terrible backache and tired out feeling, scarcely able to do my work. Foley Kidney Pills made me feel like a new person." Sold everywhere.—Adv.

PLAINVIEW PLANS BAZAAR AND SOCIAL
PLAINVIEW, Nov. 25.—The O. D. Club will hold a Thanksgiving Bazaar and Social at the Scott place Thursday evening, November 27. Old fashioned dances will be a feature of the evening. There will be also a fortune teller, a fish pond and lots of good things to eat. The school children will give their program, which includes a costume dance. Everyone is invited and a good time is assured. The proceeds will be donated to the new Community Hall. Frank Celfelt and son Henry, were business callers in Bend Thursday.

PLAINVIEW PLANS BAZAAR AND SOCIAL

G. C. McCallister made a trip to Redmond Saturday.
Paul Scoggin returned home on last Saturday evening from Bend, after spending a week serving on the jury.
Mr. and Mrs. P. Van Tassel visited their relatives in Terrebonne, recently.
Giles January has moved to the old Shoemaker place, which he has purchased.
Rev. Williams preached his farewell sermon at the school house Sunday, November 16. There was an unusually large crowd in attendance. No definite announcement can be made at present as to Rev. Williams' successor.
Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Burgess and family were Plainview callers on Sunday.
Ray Armstrong hauled a load of potatoes to Deschutes Sunday for the car shipped Monday morning by A. W. Bales.
The O. D. Club held an all day session last Thursday, meeting at the club rooms in the morning to make necessary preparations for the bazaar to be held Thanksgiving evening, and in the afternoon a good representation met with Mrs. C. F. Chalfan to work on the club quilt.
Miss Jo Burgess of Bend visited at the H. A. Scoggin home the past week end.
H. T. Hartley was in Lower Bridge Friday returning home Saturday.
Mrs. M. J. Van Tassel returned to her home after spending several weeks with relatives in Sisters.
Mrs. C. F. Chalfan was a guest at the A. E. Hoss home Friday.
The Plainview potato growers are looking for stronger competition from the Powell Butte vicinity as it is reported a colony of Japanese have purchased recently 13,000 acres there attracted by the qualities of the

Your Creamery Builds Business for Yourself

The Central Oregon Farmers' Creamery Will Pay One Cent Above the Market Price for Butterfat Paid by Portland Creameries

Yearly Market Fair, Honest Tests.

The Creamery Should be Your Asset.

Bring in Your Cream

Central Oregon Farmers' Creamery

new Community Hall. Frank Celfelt and son Henry, were business callers in Bend Thursday.
G. C. McCallister made a trip to Redmond Saturday.
Paul Scoggin returned home on last Saturday evening from Bend, after spending a week serving on the jury.
Mr. and Mrs. P. Van Tassel visited their relatives in Terrebonne, recently.
Giles January has moved to the old Shoemaker place, which he has purchased.
Rev. Williams preached his farewell sermon at the school house Sunday, November 16. There was an unusually large crowd in attendance. No definite announcement can be made at present as to Rev. Williams' successor.
Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Burgess and family were Plainview callers on Sunday.
Ray Armstrong hauled a load of potatoes to Deschutes Sunday for the car shipped Monday morning by A. W. Bales.
The O. D. Club held an all day session last Thursday, meeting at the club rooms in the morning to make necessary preparations for the bazaar to be held Thanksgiving evening, and in the afternoon a good representation met with Mrs. C. F. Chalfan to work on the club quilt.
Miss Jo Burgess of Bend visited at the H. A. Scoggin home the past week end.
H. T. Hartley was in Lower Bridge Friday returning home Saturday.
Mrs. M. J. Van Tassel returned to her home after spending several weeks with relatives in Sisters.
Mrs. C. F. Chalfan was a guest at the A. E. Hoss home Friday.
The Plainview potato growers are looking for stronger competition from the Powell Butte vicinity as it is reported a colony of Japanese have purchased recently 13,000 acres there attracted by the qualities of the new Community Hall. Frank Celfelt and son Henry, were business callers in Bend Thursday.

G. C. McCallister made a trip to Redmond Saturday.
Paul Scoggin returned home on last Saturday evening from Bend, after spending a week serving on the jury.
Mr. and Mrs. P. Van Tassel visited their relatives in Terrebonne, recently.
Giles January has moved to the old Shoemaker place, which he has purchased.
Rev. Williams preached his farewell sermon at the school house Sunday, November 16. There was an unusually large crowd in attendance. No definite announcement can be made at present as to Rev. Williams' successor.
Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Burgess and family were Plainview callers on Sunday.
Ray Armstrong hauled a load of potatoes to Deschutes Sunday for the car shipped Monday morning by A. W. Bales.
The O. D. Club held an all day session last Thursday, meeting at the club rooms in the morning to make necessary preparations for the bazaar to be held Thanksgiving evening, and in the afternoon a good representation met with Mrs. C. F. Chalfan to work on the club quilt.
Miss Jo Burgess of Bend visited at the H. A. Scoggin home the past week end.
H. T. Hartley was in Lower Bridge Friday returning home Saturday.
Mrs. M. J. Van Tassel returned to her home after spending several weeks with relatives in Sisters.
Mrs. C. F. Chalfan was a guest at the A. E. Hoss home Friday.
The Plainview potato growers are looking for stronger competition from the Powell Butte vicinity as it is reported a colony of Japanese have purchased recently 13,000 acres there attracted by the qualities of the new Community Hall. Frank Celfelt and son Henry, were business callers in Bend Thursday.

G. C. McCallister made a trip to Redmond Saturday.
Paul Scoggin returned home on last Saturday evening from Bend, after spending a week serving on the jury.
Mr. and Mrs. P. Van Tassel visited their relatives in Terrebonne, recently.
Giles January has moved to the old Shoemaker place, which he has purchased.
Rev. Williams preached his farewell sermon at the school house Sunday, November 16. There was an unusually large crowd in attendance. No definite announcement can be made at present as to Rev. Williams' successor.
Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Burgess and family were Plainview callers on Sunday.
Ray Armstrong hauled a load of potatoes to Deschutes Sunday for the car shipped Monday morning by A. W. Bales.
The O. D. Club held an all day session last Thursday, meeting at the club rooms in the morning to make necessary preparations for the bazaar to be held Thanksgiving evening, and in the afternoon a good representation met with Mrs. C. F. Chalfan to work on the club quilt.
Miss Jo Burgess of Bend visited at the H. A. Scoggin home the past week end.
H. T. Hartley was in Lower Bridge Friday returning home Saturday.
Mrs. M. J. Van Tassel returned to her home after spending several weeks with relatives in Sisters.
Mrs. C. F. Chalfan was a guest at the A. E. Hoss home Friday.
The Plainview potato growers are looking for stronger competition from the Powell Butte vicinity as it is reported a colony of Japanese have purchased recently 13,000 acres there attracted by the qualities of the new Community Hall. Frank Celfelt and son Henry, were business callers in Bend Thursday.

G. C. McCallister made a trip to Redmond Saturday.
Paul Scoggin returned home on last Saturday evening from Bend, after spending a week serving on the jury.
Mr. and Mrs. P. Van Tassel visited their relatives in Terrebonne, recently.
Giles January has moved to the old Shoemaker place, which he has purchased.
Rev. Williams preached his farewell sermon at the school house Sunday, November 16. There was an unusually large crowd in attendance. No definite announcement can be made at present as to Rev. Williams' successor.
Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Burgess and family were Plainview callers on Sunday.
Ray Armstrong hauled a load of potatoes to Deschutes Sunday for the car shipped Monday morning by A. W. Bales.
The O. D. Club held an all day session last Thursday, meeting at the club rooms in the morning to make necessary preparations for the bazaar to be held Thanksgiving evening, and in the afternoon a good representation met with Mrs. C. F. Chalfan to work on the club quilt.
Miss Jo Burgess of Bend visited at the H. A. Scoggin home the past week end.
H. T. Hartley was in Lower Bridge Friday returning home Saturday.
Mrs. M. J. Van Tassel returned to her home after spending several weeks with relatives in Sisters.
Mrs. C. F. Chalfan was a guest at the A. E. Hoss home Friday.
The Plainview potato growers are looking for stronger competition from the Powell Butte vicinity as it is reported a colony of Japanese have purchased recently 13,000 acres there attracted by the qualities of the new Community Hall. Frank Celfelt and son Henry, were business callers in Bend Thursday.

G. C. McCallister made a trip to Redmond Saturday.
Paul Scoggin returned home on last Saturday evening from Bend, after spending a week serving on the jury.
Mr. and Mrs. P. Van Tassel visited their relatives in Terrebonne, recently.
Giles January has moved to the old Shoemaker place, which he has purchased.
Rev. Williams preached his farewell sermon at the school house Sunday, November 16. There was an unusually large crowd in attendance. No definite announcement can be made at present as to Rev. Williams' successor.
Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Burgess and family were Plainview callers on Sunday.
Ray Armstrong hauled a load of potatoes to Deschutes Sunday for the car shipped Monday morning by A. W. Bales.
The O. D. Club held an all day session last Thursday, meeting at the club rooms in the morning to make necessary preparations for the bazaar to be held Thanksgiving evening, and in the afternoon a good representation met with Mrs. C. F. Chalfan to work on the club quilt.
Miss Jo Burgess of Bend visited at the H. A. Scoggin home the past week end.
H. T. Hartley was in Lower Bridge Friday returning home Saturday.
Mrs. M. J. Van Tassel returned to her home after spending several weeks with relatives in Sisters.
Mrs. C. F. Chalfan was a guest at the A. E. Hoss home Friday.
The Plainview potato growers are looking for stronger competition from the Powell Butte vicinity as it is reported a colony of Japanese have purchased recently 13,000 acres there attracted by the qualities of the new Community Hall. Frank Celfelt and son Henry, were business callers in Bend Thursday.

G. C. McCallister made a trip to Redmond Saturday.
Paul Scoggin returned home on last Saturday evening from Bend, after spending a week serving on the jury.
Mr. and Mrs. P. Van Tassel visited their relatives in Terrebonne, recently.
Giles January has moved to the old Shoemaker place, which he has purchased.
Rev. Williams preached his farewell sermon at the school house Sunday, November 16. There was an unusually large crowd in attendance. No definite announcement can be made at present as to Rev. Williams' successor.
Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Burgess and family were Plainview callers on Sunday.
Ray Armstrong hauled a load of potatoes to Deschutes Sunday for the car shipped Monday morning by A. W. Bales.
The O. D. Club held an all day session last Thursday, meeting at the club rooms in the morning to make necessary preparations for the bazaar to be held Thanksgiving evening, and in the afternoon a good representation met with Mrs. C. F. Chalfan to work on the club quilt.
Miss Jo Burgess of Bend visited at the H. A. Scoggin home the past week end.
H. T. Hartley was in Lower Bridge Friday returning home Saturday.
Mrs. M. J. Van Tassel returned to her home after spending several weeks with relatives in Sisters.
Mrs. C. F. Chalfan was a guest at the A. E. Hoss home Friday.
The Plainview potato growers are looking for stronger competition from the Powell Butte vicinity as it is reported a colony of Japanese have purchased recently 13,000 acres there attracted by the qualities of the new Community Hall. Frank Celfelt and son Henry, were business callers in Bend Thursday.

G. C. McCallister made a trip to Redmond Saturday.
Paul Scoggin returned home on last Saturday evening from Bend, after spending a week serving on the jury.
Mr. and Mrs. P. Van Tassel visited their relatives in Terrebonne, recently.
Giles January has moved to the old Shoemaker place, which he has purchased.
Rev. Williams preached his farewell sermon at the school house Sunday, November 16. There was an unusually large crowd in attendance. No definite announcement can be made at present as to Rev. Williams' successor.
Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Burgess and family were Plainview callers on Sunday.
Ray Armstrong hauled a load of potatoes to Deschutes Sunday for the car shipped Monday morning by A. W. Bales.
The O. D. Club held an all day session last Thursday, meeting at the club rooms in the morning to make necessary preparations for the bazaar to be held Thanksgiving evening, and in the afternoon a good representation met with Mrs. C. F. Chalfan to work on the club quilt.
Miss Jo Burgess of Bend visited at the H. A. Scoggin home the past week end.
H. T. Hartley was in Lower Bridge Friday returning home Saturday.
Mrs. M. J. Van Tassel returned to her home after spending several weeks with relatives in Sisters.
Mrs. C. F. Chalfan was a guest at the A. E. Hoss home Friday.
The Plainview potato growers are looking for stronger competition from the Powell Butte vicinity as it is reported a colony of Japanese have purchased recently 13,000 acres there attracted by the qualities of the new Community Hall. Frank Celfelt and son Henry, were business callers in Bend Thursday.

G. C. McCallister made a trip to Redmond Saturday.
Paul Scoggin returned home on last Saturday evening from Bend, after spending a week serving on the jury.
Mr. and Mrs. P. Van Tassel visited their relatives in Terrebonne, recently.
Giles January has moved to the old Shoemaker place, which he has purchased.
Rev. Williams preached his farewell sermon at the school house Sunday, November 16. There was an unusually large crowd in attendance. No definite announcement can be made at present as to Rev. Williams' successor.
Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Burgess and family were Plainview callers on Sunday.
Ray Armstrong hauled a load of potatoes to Deschutes Sunday for the car shipped Monday morning by A. W. Bales.
The O. D. Club held an all day session last Thursday, meeting at the club rooms in the morning to make necessary preparations for the bazaar to be held Thanksgiving evening, and in the afternoon a good representation met with Mrs. C. F. Chalfan to work on the club quilt.
Miss Jo Burgess of Bend visited at the H. A. Scoggin home the past week end.
H. T. Hartley was in Lower Bridge Friday returning home Saturday.
Mrs. M. J. Van Tassel returned to her home after spending several weeks with relatives in Sisters.
Mrs. C. F. Chalfan was a guest at the A. E. Hoss home Friday.
The Plainview potato growers are looking for stronger competition from the Powell Butte vicinity as it is reported a colony of Japanese have purchased recently 13,000 acres there attracted by the qualities of the new Community Hall. Frank Celfelt and son Henry, were business callers in Bend Thursday.

G. C. McCallister made a trip to Redmond Saturday.
Paul Scoggin returned home on last Saturday evening from Bend, after spending a week serving on the jury.
Mr. and Mrs. P. Van Tassel visited their relatives in Terrebonne, recently.
Giles January has moved to the old Shoemaker place, which he has purchased.
Rev. Williams preached his farewell sermon at the school house Sunday, November 16. There was an unusually large crowd in attendance. No definite announcement can be made at present as to Rev. Williams' successor.
Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Burgess and family were Plainview callers on Sunday.
Ray Armstrong hauled a load of potatoes to Deschutes Sunday for the car shipped Monday morning by A. W. Bales.
The O. D. Club held an all day session last Thursday, meeting at the club rooms in the morning to make necessary preparations for the bazaar to be held Thanksgiving evening, and in the afternoon a good representation met with Mrs. C. F. Chalfan to work on the club quilt.
Miss Jo Burgess of Bend visited at the H. A. Scoggin home the past week end.
H. T. Hartley was in Lower Bridge Friday returning home Saturday.
Mrs. M. J. Van Tassel returned to her home after spending several weeks with relatives in Sisters.
Mrs. C. F. Chalfan was a guest at the A. E. Hoss home Friday.
The Plainview potato growers are looking for stronger competition from the Powell Butte vicinity as it is reported a colony of Japanese have purchased recently 13,000 acres there attracted by the qualities of the new Community Hall. Frank Celfelt and son Henry, were business callers in Bend Thursday.

G. C. McCallister made a trip to Redmond Saturday.
Paul Scoggin returned home on last Saturday evening from Bend, after spending a week serving on the jury.
Mr. and Mrs. P. Van Tassel visited their relatives in Terrebonne, recently.
Giles January has moved to the old Shoemaker place, which he has purchased.
Rev. Williams preached his farewell sermon at the school house Sunday, November 16. There was an unusually large crowd in attendance. No definite announcement can be made at present as to Rev. Williams' successor.
Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Burgess and family were Plainview callers on Sunday.
Ray Armstrong hauled a load of potatoes to Deschutes Sunday for the car shipped Monday morning by A. W. Bales.
The O. D. Club held an all day session last Thursday, meeting at the club rooms in the morning to make necessary preparations for the bazaar to be held Thanksgiving evening, and in the afternoon a good representation met with Mrs. C. F. Chalfan to work on the club quilt.
Miss Jo Burgess of Bend visited at the H. A. Scoggin home the past week end.
H. T. Hartley was in Lower Bridge Friday returning home Saturday.
Mrs. M. J. Van Tassel returned to her home after spending several weeks with relatives in Sisters.
Mrs. C. F. Chalfan was a guest at the A. E. Hoss home Friday.
The Plainview potato growers are looking for stronger competition from the Powell Butte vicinity as it is reported a colony of Japanese have purchased recently 13,000 acres there attracted by the qualities of the new Community Hall. Frank Celfelt and son Henry, were business callers in Bend Thursday.

G. C. McCallister made a trip to Redmond Saturday.
Paul Scoggin returned home on last Saturday evening from Bend, after spending a week serving on the jury.
Mr. and Mrs. P. Van Tassel visited their relatives in Terrebonne, recently.
Giles January has moved to the old Shoemaker place, which he has purchased.
Rev. Williams preached his farewell sermon at the school house Sunday, November 16. There was an unusually large crowd in attendance. No definite announcement can be made at present as to Rev. Williams' successor.
Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Burgess and family were Plainview callers on Sunday.
Ray Armstrong hauled a load of potatoes to Deschutes Sunday for the car shipped Monday morning by A. W. Bales.
The O. D. Club held an all day session last Thursday, meeting at the club rooms in the morning to make necessary preparations for the bazaar to be held Thanksgiving evening, and in the afternoon a good representation met with Mrs. C. F. Chalfan to work on the club quilt.
Miss Jo Burgess of Bend visited at the H. A. Scoggin home the past week end.
H. T. Hartley was in Lower Bridge Friday returning home Saturday.
Mrs. M. J. Van Tassel returned to her home after spending several weeks with relatives in Sisters.
Mrs. C. F. Chalfan was a guest at the A. E. Hoss home Friday.
The Plainview potato growers are looking for stronger competition from the Powell Butte vicinity as it is reported a colony of Japanese have purchased recently 13,000 acres there attracted by the qualities of the new Community Hall. Frank Celfelt and son Henry, were business callers in Bend Thursday.

G. C. McCallister made a trip to Redmond Saturday.
Paul Scoggin returned home on last Saturday evening from Bend, after spending a week serving on the jury.
Mr. and Mrs. P. Van Tassel visited their relatives in Terrebonne, recently.
Giles January has moved to the old Shoemaker place, which he has purchased.
Rev. Williams preached his farewell sermon at the school house Sunday, November 16. There was an unusually large crowd in attendance. No definite announcement can be made at present as to Rev. Williams' successor.
Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Burgess and family were Plainview callers on Sunday.
Ray Armstrong hauled a load of potatoes to Deschutes Sunday for the car shipped Monday morning by A. W. Bales.
The O. D. Club held an all day session last Thursday, meeting at the club rooms in the morning to make necessary preparations for the bazaar to be held Thanksgiving evening, and in the afternoon a good representation met with Mrs. C. F. Chalfan to work on the club quilt.
Miss Jo Burgess of Bend visited at the H. A. Scoggin home the past week end.
H. T. Hartley was in Lower Bridge Friday returning home Saturday.
Mrs. M. J. Van Tassel returned to her home after spending several weeks with relatives in Sisters.
Mrs. C. F. Chalfan was a guest at the A. E. Hoss home Friday.
The Plainview potato growers are looking for stronger competition from the Powell Butte vicinity as it is reported a colony of Japanese have purchased recently 13,000 acres there attracted by the qualities of the new Community Hall. Frank Celfelt and son Henry, were business callers in Bend Thursday.

G. C. McCallister made a trip to Redmond Saturday.
Paul Scoggin returned home on last Saturday evening from Bend, after spending a week serving on the jury.
Mr. and Mrs. P. Van Tassel visited their relatives in Terrebonne, recently.
Giles January has moved to the old Shoemaker place, which he has purchased.
Rev. Williams preached his farewell sermon at the school house Sunday, November 16. There was an unusually large crowd in attendance. No definite announcement can be made at present as to Rev. Williams' successor.
Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Burgess and family were Plainview callers on Sunday.
Ray Armstrong hauled a load of potatoes to Deschutes Sunday for the car shipped Monday morning by A. W. Bales.
The O. D. Club held an all day session last Thursday, meeting at the club rooms in the morning to make necessary preparations for the bazaar to be held Thanksgiving evening, and in the afternoon a good representation met with Mrs. C. F. Chalfan to work on the club quilt.
Miss Jo Burgess of Bend visited at the H. A. Scoggin home the past week end.
H. T. Hartley was in Lower Bridge Friday returning home Saturday.
Mrs. M. J. Van Tassel returned to her home after spending several weeks with relatives in Sisters.
Mrs. C. F. Chalfan was a guest at the A. E. Hoss home Friday.
The Plainview potato growers are looking for stronger competition from the Powell Butte vicinity as it is reported a colony of Japanese have purchased recently 13,000 acres there attracted by the qualities of the new Community Hall. Frank Celfelt and son Henry, were business callers in Bend Thursday.

G. C. McCallister made a trip to Redmond Saturday.
Paul Scoggin returned home on last Saturday evening from Bend, after spending a week serving on the jury.
Mr. and Mrs. P. Van Tassel visited their relatives in Terrebonne, recently.
Giles January has moved to the old Shoemaker place, which he has purchased.
Rev. Williams preached his farewell sermon at the school house Sunday, November 16. There was an unusually large crowd in attendance. No definite announcement can be made at present as to Rev. Williams' successor.
Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Burgess and family were Plainview callers on Sunday.
Ray Armstrong hauled a load of potatoes to Deschutes Sunday for the car shipped Monday morning by A. W. Bales.
The O. D. Club held an all day session last Thursday, meeting at the club rooms in the morning to make necessary preparations for the bazaar to be held Thanksgiving evening, and in the afternoon a good representation met with Mrs. C. F. Chalfan to work on the club quilt.
Miss Jo Burgess of Bend visited at the H. A. Scoggin home the past week end.
H. T. Hartley was in Lower Bridge Friday returning home Saturday.
Mrs. M. J. Van Tassel returned to her home after spending several weeks with relatives in Sisters.
Mrs. C. F. Chalfan was a guest at the A. E. Hoss home Friday.
The Plainview potato growers are looking for stronger competition from the Powell Butte vicinity as it is reported a colony of Japanese have purchased recently 13,000 acres there attracted by the qualities of the new Community Hall. Frank Celfelt and son Henry, were business callers in Bend Thursday.

G. C. McCallister made a trip to Redmond Saturday.
Paul Scoggin returned home on last Saturday evening from Bend, after spending a week serving on the jury.
Mr. and Mrs. P. Van Tassel visited their relatives in Terrebonne, recently.
Giles January has moved to the old Shoemaker place, which he has purchased.
Rev. Williams preached his farewell sermon at the school house Sunday, November 16. There was an unusually large crowd in attendance. No definite announcement can be made at present as to Rev. Williams' successor.
Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Burgess and family were Plainview callers on Sunday.
Ray Armstrong hauled a load of potatoes to Deschutes Sunday for the car shipped Monday morning by A. W. Bales.
The O. D. Club held an all day session last Thursday, meeting at the club rooms in the morning to make necessary preparations for the bazaar to be held Thanksgiving evening, and in the afternoon a good representation met with Mrs. C. F. Chalfan to work on the club quilt.
Miss Jo Burgess of Bend visited at the H. A. Scoggin home the past week end.
H. T. Hartley was in Lower Bridge Friday returning home Saturday.
Mrs. M. J. Van Tassel returned to her home after spending several weeks with relatives in Sisters.
Mrs. C. F. Chalfan was a guest at the A. E. Hoss home Friday.
The Plainview potato growers are looking for stronger competition from the Powell Butte vicinity as it is reported a colony of Japanese have purchased recently 13,000 acres there attracted by the qualities of the new Community Hall. Frank Celfelt and son Henry, were business callers in Bend Thursday.

G. C. McCallister made a trip to Redmond Saturday.
Paul Scoggin returned home on last Saturday evening from Bend, after spending a week serving on the jury.
Mr. and Mrs. P. Van Tassel visited their relatives in Terrebonne, recently.
Giles January has moved to the old Shoemaker place, which he has purchased.
Rev. Williams preached his farewell sermon at the school house Sunday, November 16. There was an unusually large crowd in attendance. No definite announcement can be made at present as to Rev. Williams' successor.
Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Burgess and family were Plainview callers on Sunday.
Ray Armstrong hauled a load of potatoes to Deschutes Sunday for the car shipped Monday morning by A. W. Bales.
The O. D. Club held an all day session last Thursday, meeting at the club rooms in the morning to make necessary preparations for the bazaar to be held Thanksgiving evening, and in the afternoon a good representation met with Mrs. C. F. Chalfan to work on the club quilt.
Miss Jo Burgess of Bend visited at the H. A. Scoggin home the past week end.
H. T. Hartley was in Lower Bridge Friday returning home Saturday.
Mrs. M. J. Van Tassel returned to her home after spending several weeks with relatives in Sisters.
Mrs. C. F. Chalfan was a guest at the A. E. Hoss home Friday.
The Plainview potato growers are looking for stronger competition from the Powell Butte vicinity as it is reported a colony of Japanese have purchased recently 13,000 acres there attracted by the qualities of the new Community Hall. Frank Celfelt and son Henry, were business callers in Bend Thursday.

G. C. McCallister made a trip to Redmond Saturday.
Paul Scoggin returned home on last Saturday evening from Bend, after spending a week serving on the jury.
Mr. and Mrs. P. Van Tassel visited their relatives in Terrebonne, recently.
Giles January has moved to the old Shoemaker place, which he has purchased.
Rev. Williams preached his farewell sermon at the school house Sunday, November 16. There was an unusually large crowd in attendance. No definite announcement can be made at present as to Rev. Williams' successor.
Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Burgess and family were Plainview callers on Sunday.
Ray Armstrong hauled a load of potatoes to Deschutes Sunday for the car shipped Monday morning by A. W. Bales.
The O. D. Club held an all day session last Thursday, meeting at the club rooms in the morning to make necessary preparations for the bazaar to be held Thanksgiving evening, and in the afternoon a good representation met with Mrs. C. F. Chalfan to work on the club quilt.
Miss Jo Burgess of Bend visited at the H. A. Scoggin home the past week end.
H. T. Hartley was in Lower Bridge Friday returning home Saturday.
Mrs. M. J. Van Tassel returned to her home after spending several weeks with relatives in Sisters.
Mrs. C. F. Chalfan was a guest at the A. E. Hoss home Friday.
The Plainview potato growers are looking for stronger competition from the Powell Butte vicinity as it is reported a colony of Japanese have purchased recently 13,000 acres there attracted by the qualities of the new Community Hall. Frank Celfelt and son Henry, were business callers in Bend Thursday.

G. C. McCallister made a trip to Redmond Saturday.
Paul Scoggin returned home on last Saturday evening from Bend, after spending a week serving on the jury.
Mr. and Mrs. P. Van Tassel visited their relatives in Terrebonne, recently.
Giles January has moved to the old Shoemaker place, which he has purchased.
Rev. Williams preached his farewell sermon at the school house Sunday, November 16. There was an unusually large crowd in attendance. No definite announcement can be made at present as to Rev. Williams' successor.
Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Burgess and family were Plainview callers on Sunday.
Ray Armstrong hauled a load of potatoes to Deschutes Sunday for the car shipped Monday morning by A. W. Bales.
The O. D. Club held an all day session last Thursday, meeting at the club rooms in the morning to make necessary preparations for the bazaar to be held Thanksgiving evening, and in the afternoon a good representation met with Mrs. C. F. Chalfan to work on the club quilt.
Miss Jo Burgess of Bend visited at the H. A. Scoggin home the past week end.
H. T. Hartley was in Lower Bridge Friday returning home Saturday.
Mrs. M. J. Van Tassel returned to her home after spending several weeks with relatives in Sisters.
Mrs. C. F. Chalfan was a guest at the A. E. Hoss home Friday.
The Plainview potato growers are looking for stronger competition from the Powell Butte vicinity as it is reported a colony of Japanese have purchased recently 13,000 acres there attracted by the qualities of the