MILL MEN WIN IN MATCH ON ALLEYS

Defeat Office Employees of Brooks-Seaton Lumber Co. By Score of 1478 to 980.

Owing to the home talent play scheduled to be given at the gymnasium Friday night, the match arranged for that evening between the office men and mill workers of the Brooks-Seaton Lumber Co. in the mill bowling league was rolled Tuesday night. The mill men had a lead of 492 pins in the first two games played, and it was decided to cancel the remaining third of the match. Springer, of the mill workers, took high score of 173, and high average of 169. The final score was 1478 to 986.

The members of the teams were as follows: Millmen, Stedl, Minor, Lyon, Horton, Springer, and Bedrow; Office men, Oliver, Comstock, Strasburger, Wagner, Briston, and Rogers.

HOME TALENT PLAY WILL BE ON FRIDAY

"In Dixieland" to be Presented by Noble's Players on December 5.

With the scenes laid in the southland, Noble's Popular Players will present the four act comedy-drama, "In Dixieland," at the B. A. A. C. on tomorrow evening, December 5th.

The play opens with the declaration of war in 1861, portraying its effects upon the citizens of the nation, life-long friends and even families. The characters that are seen are those of days gone by, true types of the period in which they lived.

The scenes as enacted are not of actual conflict, merely a suggestion of the big events that were taking place at the front. To relieve the dramatic tension, there is plenty of comedy by Uncle Mosely and Suzanne, Congressmen and Mrs. Dusenberry, Corporal Hooligan of the U. S. A. and Bangs, a war correspondent with Molly, his lively sweetheart.

Your Home Town Paper

Regardless of the size of the metropolitan newspaper with their extensive news service, editorial comment, etc. the local news about home people you want. It is your home paper which has the keenest interest in what everyone in the community is doing. You may know it and another neighbor may not. Often your neighbors and friends do not know. But when you know anything about your neighbors, if he or she be leaving, has left or is returning, if he or she is ill, or recovering from illness; if he or she has a visitor, or if any of these things happen in your family circle tell it to your home paper. Your neighbors and friends may want to know. Your home paper will be your medium. Just step to the phone. Your home paper can be reached in a few seconds if you ask the central to give you 561. The Bulletin wants local news and lots of it. It will appreciate you calling, and will give particular pains to the smallest item of local interest. In so doing it gives the community a better newsier paper—and that's what every body wants. It wants news about social functions—arrivals—departures, births—deaths—illness—churches—schools—clubs—lodges—So when you think of anything that's news, call 561.

GUSTAVO VS. TANGEN BOUT IS ANNOUNCED

Crack Middleweight Accepts Challenge From Canadian Lumberjack for December 12.

As the outcome of a challenge issued Thursday night at the boxing smoker, Ad Gustavo, well known to Bend wrestling fans, and Paul Tangen, who styles himself the "Wrestlin Lumberjack," will meet at the Hippodrome on the middleweight supremacy in a match for the best two out of three falls. Two good preliminaries are scheduled.

Gustavo, who had several bouts here last winter and spring, has spent the fall and summer in Idaho and Eastern Oregon, and has returned to Bend with a long list of victories to show that the vacation has been a strenuous one. Except in a handicap match with Ad Santelli, light heavyweight champion of the world, Gustavo met with no defeats during his wrestling career in this city.

Tangen, whose challenge from the ring Thursday night is responsible for the coming mat event, hails from the lumber camps of Canada, and is at present employed at Shevlin-Hixon

Camp number 1.
