SCHOOL AT LA PINE SUFFERS FROM SNOW

LA PINE, Dec. 22.—Mrs. Eugene Jensen entertained a few friends at her home Thursday evening, the occasion being her birthday anniversary. The evening was spent in card playing and fortune telling. Those present were: Mrs. and Mr. W. G. Fordham, F. W. Weber, Miss Lilly Brown and Miss Rose Hunnell.

Ernest Tomes and James Dosek gave an informal reception at the Tomes residence Friday evening. The principal features of the evening consisted of dancing, card playing, and games. An elaborate supper was served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Fordham, Mr. and Mrs. Cavanaugh, George Mayfield, F. W. Weber, Robert Covey, the Misses Sly, Hunnell, and Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Fordham entertained a few friends Wednesday evening at card playing, fortune telling, and dancing. Those present were: F. W. Weber, Ernest Tomes, James Dosek, Miss Rose Hunnell and Miss Lilly Brown.

A party consisting of W. L. Powers of the Oregon Agricultural college, George Murphy of Bend, J. C. Cunningham, F. A. Freeman, and F. W. Murphy, and W. A. Scott of Portland came in from the Summit station where they camped Friday night. Thursday they came all the way from Summer Lake to the Summit station. George Murphy broke his arm while cranking his car at Summer Lake. W. L. Powers was at La Pine, Bend and Redmond in 1912 doing agricultural work for the O. A. C.

George McLaughlin opened up the road from La Pine to Bend with his tractor Sunday, leaving La Pine at 2:00 o'clock. E. L. Clark and Burton Oney accompanied him to repair the telephone line near the Vandeventer ranch. W. D. Hill and the driver of the tractor also were with the tractor or caterpillar.

The roof on the north end of the schoolhouse caved in Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock and gave the schoolhouse such a loud jar that the pupils in Miss Hunnell's and Miss Brown's rooms came running out into the hall and went down into the basement and school was dismissed for the day. A crew of nine men were put to work shoveling off the caved in roof and the attendance at school Thursday was twenty and only nineteen on Friday. Mr. Harrison, Mr. Hill, Mr. Swayze, Bill Johnson and Clifford Clow succeeded in opening the road so that the pupils from the north end can be transported. Bill Johnson and Clifford Clow went to the Masten mill Friday and returned Saturday, but they were unable to get a load of lumber for the repairing of the roof at the schoolhouse on account of the deep snow.

George Graft came in from his ranch Friday on horseback. Jay Saltzman who has been at Beals since Tuesday evening with the mail for Fort Rock and Silver Lake returned to La Pine Sunday. Clarence Young started for Bend with the mail Tuesday evening but succeeded in getting as far as Harper, where he had to stay until the following Monday morning.

P. H. Sprague, of Fort Rock, walked from the Brooks-Scanlon camp to the Vandeventer ranch Friday and continued his journey to La Pine Saturday, and left for Fort Rock Sunday to look after his cattle.

Quite a number of people in La Pine are out of wood on account of the heavy snow fall. Mr. Bice and Mr. Swayze were hauling wood Saturday and Sunday.

The thermometer went 42 degrees below zero on the evening of December 12 and 30 below the next night. Almost three feet of snow fell in the vicinity of La Pine during the storm period.

Quite a number of people shoveled the snow off their roofs. The La Pine garage is full of cars and trucks. Some of the batteries froze up Friday night. Sunday school was held at the Foss residence Sunday at 11:00 o'clock.

The following people registered at the La Pine hotel during the past week: J. R. Suttill, R. L. Covey, H. D. Hill, Jake Howard, Lloyd Lineville, Casey Jones, Dean and Chester Hollinshead all of La Pine; B. J. Harvey of Seattle; B. S. Bollyell, P. E. Mallory, E. F. Stover and Al Greiser all of Crescent; C. L. Morgan and P. E. Mallory of Davis Lake; P. H. Sprague of Fort Rock; W. L. Powers of Corvallis; George Murphy of Bend; J. C. Cunningham, F. A. Freeman, F. W. Carey, and W. A. Scott of Portland.

Was Restless With Pain.
E. W. Kitt, R. F. D. 2, Box 9, Shorters, Ala., writes: "I took Foley Kidney Pills as I was restless at night with pains in my back and side, and they did me good. I can truthfully say Foley Kidney Pills is the medicine for kidney trouble." They relieve rheumatic pains, stiff, swollen joints, lameness, soreness.—Sold Everywhere.

EFFECTS OF SNOW FELT IN MILLICAN

MILLICAN, Dec. 22.—H. K. Cooke, Albert Tauscher and Mary C. Keller went to Bend with the Tauscher car Saturday and had to return by stage Monday.

C. J. Cooke called at the Keller home Thursday.

Nine of C. H. Graffenberger's calves are missing.

Chiff Evans and Frank Percival's sires died at the J. A. Smith ranch from exposure and lack of food, Friday.

We experienced one of the worst storms in the recent history of Millican. Many cattle were being taken out on account of deep snow, severe cold and lack of feed. Chiff Evans, C. J. Cooke, R. R. Keller, J. A. Smith took some out in this vicinity. J. M. James took a bunch through last week. O. O. King of Brothers, expects to take some out in a few days.

The mail route is very badly hampered, the first class mail, being taken through on horse back. The Link route has been discontinued altogether.

Mrs. L. G. Morgan is in bed with a bad cold.

The Smith's finally got back from Bend Tuesday, after having broke the frame of their car on the way in.

Mrs. L. G. Morgan returned from Bend Monday with E. W. Gurney. She was one of the Smith party Saturday, going in to Bend.

L. G. Morgan called at the Keller home Saturday.

Fred Terriel called at the Keller home Thursday evening.

F. E. Lee is a daily caller at the Terriel home.

Quite a few cars are stalled in the snow.

Mary M. Holland called at the Keller home Saturday.

Eight Children Had Croup.
"I have eight children and give Foley's Honey and Tar to all of them," writes Mrs. P. Rebkamp, 2404 Herman St., Covington, Ky.; "they all were subject to croup." It loosens mucus and phlegm, stops that strangling cough, makes easy breathing possible and permits quiet sleep. Contains no opiates. Children like it.—Sold Everywhere.
