

BEND HAPPENINGS FROM DAY TO DAY

Tuesday—

A. A. Emblem, of Alfalfa, is spending the day in Bend.
Mr. and Mrs. Fred N. Wallace, of Tumalo, were in Bend today.
E. B. Tomes and J. N. Masten, were visitors in the city today from La Pine.
Hurton and C. W. Oney, and Harry Hill, all of La Pine, were shopping in Bend this morning.
George T. Michaelson, of Fort Rock, arrived in the city last night, and is remaining over today.
W. O. Austin, of Deschutes, was in the city this afternoon shopping and transacting other business.
Mr. and Mrs. Paul Scoggin were transacting business in Bend today, coming in from their Tumalo ranch.
Seth Stookey came in last night from his ranch on the Milliean road, to attend a meeting of the county court.
Genevieve Smith, six year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Smith, of Florida avenue, sustained a badly scalded arm last night, when boiling water from a kettle was spilled on her by a playmate. The child's condition is not considered serious.
M. A. Palmer returned to Bend today after a protracted stay in California. During his absence, he underwent an operation made necessary by a diseased condition of osseous tissue of the leg, and reports that his condition has greatly improved.
Mrs. Gene Ackley gave a Christmas dinner Sunday in honor of her sister, Miss Winnie Elliott, who left yesterday for her home in Olympia, Washington, after visiting here for several weeks. Those at the dinner were: Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Beaulieu, Miss Elliott, J. A. Ketchum, Henry Beaulieu, Frances Beaulieu, and Mr. and Mrs. Ackley.

Wednesday—

ver Lake, were in the city last night visiting friends.
N. L. Hearin and Ernest L. Miller, both of Sisters, were business visitors in Bend yesterday.
E. S. King, of Brothers, was in Bend yesterday shopping and attending to business matters.
A. J. Connelly, prominent sheepman of the Maupin country, is in the city on business today.
J. T. Hardy, Travelling Freight and Passenger Agent for the Oregon Trunk, was in the city yesterday on an official visit.

Thursday—

Claude Poyner, formerly of this city, has arrived in Bend from Portland, Idaho, and will make his home here.
F. N. Beamish, of New York City, arrived in Bend this morning to join his wife, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Newton. Mr. and Mrs. Beamish will remain in the city during the holidays.
O. M. Whittington, of the Liberty and Grand theatres, announces that pupils from the eighth grade down, Christmas afternoon at the Liberty. If possible, he will obtain a special program for that day.
J. Charles Smith, of The Parisian, will be the host Christmas afternoon, to the newspaper carriers of Bend. The boys will be taken to the Grand Theatre, and each will receive in addition, some small gift. All news carriers are asked to meet Mr. Smith in front of the Parisian at 1:50 o'clock Thursday afternoon.
Miss Genevieve Wagner and M. W. Wagner were hosts Tuesday night to a number of their friends, at their home on Congress street. Three tables of "500" were played, and dancing and music were enjoyed during the latter part of the evening.
Mrs. H. G. Ferris entertained last night at her home on St. Helens Place, with a children's party for grown-ups, more than 40 guests being present. Twelve years was the age limit, and costumes were in keeping with the spirit of the affair. Children's games were played during the early part of the evening, and were followed by dancing and refreshments.

Friday—

John E. Ryan was in from his ranch near Bend last night.
Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Van Dusen, of Prineville, spent last night in Bend.
Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Johnson went to Portland last night to spend the holidays.
Mr. and Mrs. John Susac, are the parents of a nine and a half pound baby girl, born yesterday.
Dr. Anna Ries Finley left last night for Portland to attend a meeting of the Oregon State board of health, in session today and tomorrow.
Mrs. Emma Fullmer, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. A. W. Bontrager the past month, left this morning for her home in Elkhart, Indiana.
C. A. Boyd, of the U. S. Navy, returned to Bend last night, after having received his discharge in San Francisco. He was in the service for nearly three years.
George W. McLaughlin, G. F. Jaryard, Maurice Higgins, and S. Raper, of La Pine, came in last night with the tractor ditcher which has completed the clearing of the south road.
Through American Legion members who are employees of the Brooks-Scanlon Lumber Co. the Bartlett hotel has purchased $14 worth of Red Cross Christmas seals, while a like amount was bought this noon by the Rogers boarding house.
At the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Greisen, Miss Lois Greisen was married to Marvin M. Pierce of this city at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Rev. H. C. Hartman, of the Presbyterian church, being the officiating clergyman. The bride, with her parents, moved to Bend recently, and the groom is employed by the S. P. & S. railroad. Mr. and Mrs. Pierce will be at home at 1333 Newport avenue after January 1.
Mrs. L. C. Marion, of Redmond, is spending a few days in Bend with Mrs. Jared Moore.
Dr. R. H. Hendershott will leave tonight for Portland, where he will represent Deschutes county at the meeting of the state board of health.
An allotment notice addressed to Mrs. Luella S. Chadora, has been received by the home service department of the Bend Red Cross chapter, but all efforts to locate the addressee have been in vain, it was stated today. The department desires that Mrs. Chadora report to Red Cross headquarters in the court house building, if she is still in the city.

Saturday—

R. S. Dixon of Prineville, was in Bend last night.
Frank R. Prince returned this morning from a trip to Portland.
T. A. McCann returned this morning from a business visit in Minneapolis.
Mr. and Mrs. T. J. La Brie, of Silver Lake, were in the city last night visiting friends.

N. L. Hearin and Ernest L. Miller, both of Sisters, were business visitors in Bend yesterday.
E. S. King, of Brothers, was in Bend yesterday shopping and attending to business matters.
A. J. Connelly, prominent sheepman of the Maupin country, is in the city on business today.
J. T. Hardy, Travelling Freight and Passenger Agent for the Oregon Trunk, was in the city yesterday on an official visit.

Friday—

Claude Poyner, formerly of this city, has arrived in Bend from Portland, Idaho, and will make his home here.
F. N. Beamish, of New York City, arrived in Bend this morning to join his wife, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Newton. Mr. and Mrs. Beamish will remain in the city during the holidays.
O. M. Whittington, of the Liberty and Grand theatres, announces that pupils from the eighth grade down, Christmas afternoon at the Liberty. If possible, he will obtain a special program for that day.
J. Charles Smith, of The Parisian, will be the host Christmas afternoon, to the newspaper carriers of Bend. The boys will be taken to the Grand Theatre, and each will receive in addition, some small gift. All news carriers are asked to meet Mr. Smith in front of the Parisian at 1:50 o'clock Thursday afternoon.
Miss Genevieve Wagner and M. W. Wagner were hosts Tuesday night to a number of their friends, at their home on Congress street. Three tables of "500" were played, and dancing and music were enjoyed during the latter part of the evening.
Mrs. H. G. Ferris entertained last night at her home on St. Helens Place, with a children's party for grown-ups, more than 40 guests being present. Twelve years was the age limit, and costumes were in keeping with the spirit of the affair. Children's games were played during the early part of the evening, and were followed by dancing and refreshments.

Thursday—

John E. Ryan was in from his ranch near Bend last night.
Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Van Dusen, of Prineville, spent last night in Bend.
Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Johnson went to Portland last night to spend the holidays.
Mr. and Mrs. John Susac, are the parents of a nine and a half pound baby girl, born yesterday.
Dr. Anna Ries Finley left last night for Portland to attend a meeting of the Oregon State board of health, in session today and tomorrow.
Mrs. Emma Fullmer, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. A. W. Bontrager the past month, left this morning for her home in Elkhart, Indiana.
C. A. Boyd, of the U. S. Navy, returned to Bend last night, after having received his discharge in San Francisco. He was in the service for nearly three years.
George W. McLaughlin, G. F. Jaryard, Maurice Higgins, and S. Raper, of La Pine, came in last night with the tractor ditcher which has completed the clearing of the south road.
Through American Legion members who are employees of the Brooks-Scanlon Lumber Co. the Bartlett hotel has purchased $14 worth of Red Cross Christmas seals, while a like amount was bought this noon by the Rogers boarding house.
At the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Greisen, Miss Lois Greisen was married to Marvin M. Pierce of this city at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Rev. H. C. Hartman, of the Presbyterian church, being the officiating clergyman. The bride, with her parents, moved to Bend recently, and the groom is employed by the S. P. & S. railroad. Mr. and Mrs. Pierce will be at home at 1333 Newport avenue after January 1.
Mrs. L. C. Marion, of Redmond, is spending a few days in Bend with Mrs. Jared Moore.
Dr. R. H. Hendershott will leave tonight for Portland, where he will represent Deschutes county at the meeting of the state board of health.
An allotment notice addressed to Mrs. Luella S. Chadora, has been received by the home service department of the Bend Red Cross chapter, but all efforts to locate the addressee have been in vain, it was stated today. The department desires that Mrs. Chadora report to Red Cross headquarters in the court house building, if she is still in the city.

Saturday—

R. S. Dixon of Prineville, was in Bend last night.
Frank R. Prince returned this morning from a trip to Portland.
T. A. McCann returned this morning from a business visit in Minneapolis.
Mr. and Mrs. T. J. La Brie, of Sil-

Francisco. He was in the service for nearly three years.
George W. McLaughlin, G. F. Jaryard, Maurice Higgins, and S. Raper, of La Pine, came in last night with the tractor ditcher which has completed the clearing of the south road.
Through American Legion members who are employees of the Brooks-Scanlon Lumber Co. the Bartlett hotel has purchased $14 worth of Red Cross Christmas seals, while a like amount was bought this noon by the Rogers boarding house.
At the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Greisen, Miss Lois Greisen was married to Marvin M. Pierce of this city at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Rev. H. C. Hartman, of the Presbyterian church, being the officiating clergyman. The bride, with her parents, moved to Bend recently, and the groom is employed by the S. P. & S. railroad. Mr. and Mrs. Pierce will be at home at 1333 Newport avenue after January 1.
Mrs. L. C. Marion, of Redmond, is spending a few days in Bend with Mrs. Jared Moore.
Dr. R. H. Hendershott will leave tonight for Portland, where he will represent Deschutes county at the meeting of the state board of health.
An allotment notice addressed to Mrs. Luella S. Chadora, has been received by the home service department of the Bend Red Cross chapter, but all efforts to locate the addressee have been in vain, it was stated today. The department desires that Mrs. Chadora report to Red Cross headquarters in the court house building, if she is still in the city.

second Brooks-Scanlon team had already lost to the Shevlin-Hixon office men on Friday night.

Brooks-Scanlon No. 1.

Shevlin-Hixon.

Fort Rock Ranger Takes Position in Deschutes Forest Office, Left Vacant by Vincent.

To take up the duties of Deputy supervisor of the Deschutes National Forest, W. O. Harriman, of Fort Rock, accompanied by his family, came in to Bend Sunday. Mr. Harriman has been in the forest service for 12 years, starting in Montana, his last post having been as ranger in the Fort Rock section. He takes the position left vacant several weeks ago when H. E. Vincent was transferred to the Siuslaw forest.

It is with the kindest thoughts to all, for a Happy Christmas and a Successful New Year that we end this Holiday Season.

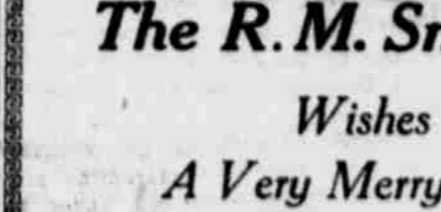

We hope that we have been of service to you through the year that has past and that in the year to come we may be able to continue the hearty co-operation now existing.

It will be our aim, in the year to come, to offer for your approval, merchandise that will justify your patronage.

THE FAIR STORE.

THE TRI-STATE TERMINAL CO. Wishes to extend the kindest thoughts for a Happy Christmas and a Prosperous New Year, to its friends and patrons.

The R. M. Smith Grocery Wishes you all A Very Merry Christmas and A Happy New Year

The Season's Greetings TOMORROW is Christmas—a Christmas of the real, old fashioned kind—and it is our sincerest wish that this Day of Days brings to you and yours, all that it should bring in happiness, peace and good will.

The Warner Company

Wishes to extend the kindest thoughts for a Happy Christmas and a Prosperous New Year, to its friends and patrons.

The R. M. Smith Grocery Wishes you all A Very Merry Christmas and A Happy New Year

The Season's Greetings TOMORROW is Christmas—a Christmas of the real, old fashioned kind—and it is our sincerest wish that this Day of Days brings to you and yours, all that it should bring in happiness, peace and good will.

The Warner Company

second Brooks-Scanlon team had already lost to the Shevlin-Hixon office men on Friday night.

Brooks-Scanlon No. 1.

Shevlin-Hixon.

Fort Rock Ranger Takes Position in Deschutes Forest Office, Left Vacant by Vincent.

To take up the duties of Deputy supervisor of the Deschutes National Forest, W. O. Harriman, of Fort Rock, accompanied by his family, came in to Bend Sunday. Mr. Harriman has been in the forest service for 12 years, starting in Montana, his last post having been as ranger in the Fort Rock section. He takes the position left vacant several weeks ago when H. E. Vincent was transferred to the Siuslaw forest.

It is with the kindest thoughts to all, for a Happy Christmas and a Successful New Year that we end this Holiday Season.

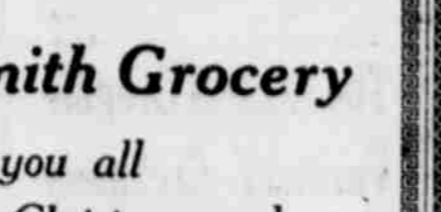

We hope that we have been of service to you through the year that has past and that in the year to come we may be able to continue the hearty co-operation now existing.

It will be our aim, in the year to come, to offer for your approval, merchandise that will justify your patronage.

THE FAIR STORE.

THE TRI-STATE TERMINAL CO. Wishes to extend the kindest thoughts for a Happy Christmas and a Prosperous New Year, to its friends and patrons.

The R. M. Smith Grocery Wishes you all A Very Merry Christmas and A Happy New Year

The Season's Greetings TOMORROW is Christmas—a Christmas of the real, old fashioned kind—and it is our sincerest wish that this Day of Days brings to you and yours, all that it should bring in happiness, peace and good will.

The Warner Company

Wishes to extend the kindest thoughts for a Happy Christmas and a Prosperous New Year, to its friends and patrons.

The R. M. Smith Grocery Wishes you all A Very Merry Christmas and A Happy New Year

The Season's Greetings TOMORROW is Christmas—a Christmas of the real, old fashioned kind—and it is our sincerest wish that this Day of Days brings to you and yours, all that it should bring in happiness, peace and good will.

The Warner Company

second Brooks-Scanlon team had already lost to the Shevlin-Hixon office men on Friday night.

Brooks-Scanlon No. 1.

Shevlin-Hixon.

Fort Rock Ranger Takes Position in Deschutes Forest Office, Left Vacant by Vincent.

To take up the duties of Deputy supervisor of the Deschutes National Forest, W. O. Harriman, of Fort Rock, accompanied by his family, came in to Bend Sunday. Mr. Harriman has been in the forest service for 12 years, starting in Montana, his last post having been as ranger in the Fort Rock section. He takes the position left vacant several weeks ago when H. E. Vincent was transferred to the Siuslaw forest.

It is with the kindest thoughts to all, for a Happy Christmas and a Successful New Year that we end this Holiday Season.

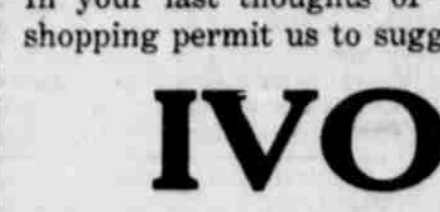

We hope that we have been of service to you through the year that has past and that in the year to come we may be able to continue the hearty co-operation now existing.

It will be our aim, in the year to come, to offer for your approval, merchandise that will justify your patronage.

THE FAIR STORE.

THE TRI-STATE TERMINAL CO. Wishes to extend the kindest thoughts for a Happy Christmas and a Prosperous New Year, to its friends and patrons.

The R. M. Smith Grocery Wishes you all A Very Merry Christmas and A Happy New Year

The Season's Greetings TOMORROW is Christmas—a Christmas of the real, old fashioned kind—and it is our sincerest wish that this Day of Days brings to you and yours, all that it should bring in happiness, peace and good will.

The Warner Company

Wishes to extend the kindest thoughts for a Happy Christmas and a Prosperous New Year, to its friends and patrons.

The R. M. Smith Grocery Wishes you all A Very Merry Christmas and A Happy New Year

The Season's Greetings TOMORROW is Christmas—a Christmas of the real, old fashioned kind—and it is our sincerest wish that this Day of Days brings to you and yours, all that it should bring in happiness, peace and good will.

The Warner Company

second Brooks-Scanlon team had already lost to the Shevlin-Hixon office men on Friday night.

Brooks-Scanlon No. 1.

Shevlin-Hixon.

Fort Rock Ranger Takes Position in Deschutes Forest Office, Left Vacant by Vincent.

To take up the duties of Deputy supervisor of the Deschutes National Forest, W. O. Harriman, of Fort Rock, accompanied by his family, came in to Bend Sunday. Mr. Harriman has been in the forest service for 12 years, starting in Montana, his last post having been as ranger in the Fort Rock section. He takes the position left vacant several weeks ago when H. E. Vincent was transferred to the Siuslaw forest.

It is with the kindest thoughts to all, for a Happy Christmas and a Successful New Year that we end this Holiday Season.

We hope that we have been of service to you through the year that has past and that in the year to come we may be able to continue the hearty co-operation now existing.

It will be our aim, in the year to come, to offer for your approval, merchandise that will justify your patronage.

THE FAIR STORE.

THE TRI-STATE TERMINAL CO. Wishes to extend the kindest thoughts for a Happy Christmas and a Prosperous New Year, to its friends and patrons.

The R. M. Smith Grocery Wishes you all A Very Merry Christmas and A Happy New Year

The Season's Greetings TOMORROW is Christmas—a Christmas of the real, old fashioned kind—and it is our sincerest wish that this Day of Days brings to you and yours, all that it should bring in happiness, peace and good will.

The Warner Company

Wishes to extend the kindest thoughts for a Happy Christmas and a Prosperous New Year, to its friends and patrons.

The R. M. Smith Grocery Wishes you all A Very Merry Christmas and A Happy New Year

The Season's Greetings TOMORROW is Christmas—a Christmas of the real, old fashioned kind—and it is our sincerest wish that this Day of Days brings to you and yours, all that it should bring in happiness, peace and good will.

The Warner Company

The last chance to do your Christmas Shopping at STOCKMAN'S. will be given tonight, and when the store closes at 9 o'clock, it will be our wish that this will prove to be the happiest Christmas for all that has ever been experienced. Accept our many thanks for your co-operation during the past year, and our wish for success to you all through the year that is to come. STOCKMAN'S 10c-15c-25c STORE.

In your last thoughts of this season's Christmas shopping permit us to suggest

IVORY

In making our selection of Ivory for the Christmas shopping season we anticipated a great demand, therefore bought accordingly. Our judgement was correct, thirty per cent more Ivory was purchased this year than has been, to our knowledge for years past. But owing to our foresight

WE STILL HAVE A COMPLETE ASSORTMENT FROM WHICH TO MAKE YOUR SELECTIONS.

CANDY

Is the one gift that is in season for all occasions, and especially during the Holidays. It is always appreciated by anyone

MAKE YOUR REMEMBRANCE THIS SEASON A SWEET ONE.

OWL PHARMACY