

GILBERT WINS SECOND TIME FROM BURNS BY A KNOCKOUT

For the second time in five weeks, Jimmy Burns, recently of Kankakee, Illinois, went to the mat for the count under the soporific influence of Fred Gilbert's right, when the main event in the Hippodrome smoker was put on last night. Burns made a decidedly better showing than in his former bout, for he lasted through almost five rounds in his second mill, while in the first battle he went out in something less than one round.

While it lasted, the combat was well worth seeing for Burns put up a game battle, forcing the fighting through the earlier rounds, and breaking a little better than even with the Bend boy in the first and third. Both opponents were looking for the chance to land a knockout from the first tap of the gong, and twice Gilbert floored his man, once in the second, and once in the fifth, each time extending his hand to assist Burns to his feet. If the second, one of Fred's vicious rights deprived Burns of an incisor, but the Kankakee lad merely smiled a toothless smile and carried on.

Burn's long reach proved a tremendous advantage in the earlier fighting, but Gilbert showed no ill effects from the long range punches showered upon him, and bored in until his chance came in the form of an exposed chin. A short, hard right sent Burns partly through the ropes, his head hitting with such force on the boards beyond the mat that for a moment spectators feared that the knockout was a permanent one. It was fully five minutes before the beaten fighter regained consciousness, and he was apparently still badly dazed as he was helped from the ring.

With the exception of a two round exhibition match put on by a 120 pounder introduced as Greek George, and Milton Newman, the rest of the card was tame. George, although something of a grandstander, showed genuine ability, and puzzled his opponent badly with his whirlwind, shifty style of combat. It might be mentioned that for a small man, he carries and delivers a tremendous punch.

Of the other two bouts, the last said the better. Newman, in the first preliminary, technically knocked out Eugene Rose in the first round and Frenchy Le Clair, pitted against Kid Taylor, quit before the fight had fairly started, offering as an excuse that Taylor was butting.

Willard Houston was an efficient referee.

POWELL BUTTE

Mrs. Olyer and children who accompanied him to Paisley remained with relatives until the car can come through.

Mrs. E. A. Bussett's class of boys in the Powell Butte Sunday school presented her with a beautiful engraved cut glass vase for a Christmas present.

Dominic Verges arrived at home safely with his large band of sheep after coming through the snow and storm eight days without feed for the sheep.

Election of officers and teachers for Powell Butte Sunday school, was held last Sunday. The officers are as follows:

Mrs. Carl Lindquist, superintendent; Mr. Irving, assistant supt.; Will Pauls, secretary-treasurer; Mr. J. J. Phut, teacher of girls class; Mrs. Irving, teacher of young peoples class.

George Hobbs was called to Glendale Oregon, about two weeks ago because of the illness of his aged father. Mrs. Hobbs received a wire Monday, December 29 that his father had passed away at the age of 81 years. The sympathy of the entire community is felt for our neighbor in his sorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Bussett entertained with a large dinner party on Christmas day. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Ross Bussett and daughter, Margaret, Mr. Lloyd Bussett, Fay Bussett, Mr. Phil Doison and mother of Redmond, Mrs. Alma Hall of Portland and Dominic Verges of Powell Butte.

Miss Bussett's school gave a fine little entertainment Christmas Eve, at the Shepherd school home, after which sandwiches, coffee and cake were served. The social evening was enjoyed by all the school patrons of that district.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Milner are comfortably established in their new home. Mr. and Mrs. Arnold and sons have moved to Prineville.

Mr. and Mrs. John Drescoll were guests at the McCaffrey home Christmas Day.

Max Wurzweller has gone to Portland after a months stay at the company's ranches here and at the swamp.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Yates and Grandma Spray were guests at the George Kjaer home Sunday.

Will Wurzweller came out from Prineville Saturday to look over the cattle at the company's ranch here. He found all in good condition under the able management of Arthur Wurzweller.

Mr. Wurzweller returned to Prineville Sunday.

Frank Kjaer and family are enjoying possession of a Ford car purchased from John Driscoll.

Mrs. Mary V. Charlton of Powell Butte has been appointed census enumerator for the precincts of Powell Butte, Montgomery and Hat Rock. She will begin work January 2.

Several new cars have arrived for residents of Powell Butte. Among them Arthur Wurzweller has a new Essex, John Driscoll a brand new Ford, James McDaniel a new Dort.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Roberts and daughter, Ina, braved the bad roads Christmas Day to enjoy the hospitality of their former Hood River friends, Mr. and Mrs. Hartley of Tumalo. They were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Verna Lill and two children of Bend and a delightful visit was had. They came home by way of Cline Falls, reporting the roads better that way.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Roberts entertained a jolly party at their home on Christmas Eve, a tree and all the trimmings were a delightful part of the evening's pleasure. Those enjoying this hospitable home were: Mr. and Mrs. George Truesdale and daughters, Catherine and Dorothy and Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Roberts and daughters Ina.

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM GIVEN AT REDMOND

REDMOND, Jan. 1.—The community Christmas tree and program given at the gymnasium Wednesday evening was a decided success, and although the program was gotten up on rather short notice everything went off very smoothly. Mayor J. R. Roberts gave the opening address, followed by the audience singing, "Joy to the World." Rev. Cabeen of the Baptist church read the Christmas story, followed by Rev. Wilson of the Presbyterian church leading the audience in prayer. Then the program, by members of the four churches, was given, closing with the introduction of Santa Claus by Rev. Hazleton of the Methodist church. Santa gave a very interesting talk of his work during the past year then ordered the ushers forward, placed them upon oath, and gave them the candy and nuts to distribute. The hall was very tastefully decorated in the Christmas colors, and the tree was declared by all to be one of the best had in this community for some time.

The Ray Johnson Post of American Legion gave a dance in the K. of P. hall Thursday night. It was very well attended, and reports are that a splendid time was had by all. Mr. Paul Irving, principal of the Redmond high school, returned to Redmond Saturday morning from Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Cuning returned home early this week from Portland where they spent Christmas.

The County Agent's office has just received a large supply of trichlorine for rodent poisoning. This trichlorine is some thirty-five cents cheaper than the former supply and many farmers will doubtless avail themselves of this opportunity to rid their farms of rabbits at a nominal cost.

Miss Eunice Wilson, second and third grade teacher, returned to the city Saturday evening from her home in Portland.

Friends will be grieved to hear of the sudden death of the mother of

W. J. Shingler Tuesday morning. Mrs. Shingler has been ailing for some time, but was not considered in a serious condition, so that her death came as a surprise. As yet arrangements have not been made for the funeral.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Van Duyn a daughter early last week.

W. J. and J. J. Buckley are enjoying a visit of their brother, B. L. Buckley of Spokane, who arrived in this city Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Smith and Miss Grace Sherwood returned to Redmond Sunday morning from their Christmas vacation.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Van Cook a daughter on Christmas Eve. School started Monday morning after being closed nearly three weeks on account of bad weather.

Miss Cora Conway of Newburg is staying with her sister, Mrs. Wayne Chase and attending high school in Redmond. She is in the junior class.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pyett, on Christmas Eve, a son.

Students of the University gave a dance at Metolius Saturday night for the benefit of the Women's Building in the U. of O.

Elmer Erickson is home from Portland where he has been employed in the ship yards.

Mrs. B. A. Kendall is working in the Kendall Hardware store during the absence of Sidney Lloyd.

RIPPLING RHYMES

By WALT MASON

Getting Back.

Let us all get back to working, back to earning honest rocks; back to baking, painting, clerking, back to winding eight-day clocks. Long enough we've whooped and clamored, making all the welkins ring; long enough we've knocked and hammered every sane and useful thing. If we'd all get back to toiling like a bunch of earnest men, industries now dead and soiling would be cutting grass again. There would be a trade revival that would simply beat the band, and a boom without a rival in the annals of this land. There would be no idle pulley, smoke would come from every stack, if we'd be less wild and woolly, if we'd hit the old time track. Let's get back to useful labor, as we labored long ago, peeling onions with a saber, sawing firewood with a hoe. Let us all resume our knitting, make the shining needles fly, working blithely, nor admitting any "agitator" guy. Let us darn the socks and mittens, prune the hedge and shear the cow, hunt the eggs and drown the kittens—let us all get busy now.

Suits for every figure --fit guaranteed

WE have lively suits for the young men. But we haven't overlooked the older men who prefer to dress more quietly. We have a suit for every figure, for every age, perfectly tailored and made to fit.

There's a perfect combination of style and dignity in every suit.

Hart Schaffner & Marx

know how to accomplish this. They use nothing but all-wool fabrics, and put the newest developments of style and workmanship into the tailoring.

These clothes are made for us to give absolute satisfaction. Money back if you don't get it.
