NEW SHOP TO OPEN ON GREENWOOD SOON

From Eight to 10 Men Will be Employed in Establishment to be Conducted by A. J. Tucker.

With preliminary blasting practically finished, A. J. Tucker will begin work in the next few days on a $4,000 one story stone building, 35 by 60 feet, on the corner of Greenwood and Harriman, which when completed will be used by Mr. Tucker to house workshops for several allied trades, including blacksmithing, carpentering, and cabinet making, all to be under his own supervision. A specialty will be made of automobile top and body work.
Mr. Tucker expects that the building can be completed within 30 days, and once the establishment is opened he plans to employ from eight to 10 men. In addition to the equipment which he now has in his shop on Irving, he will install several pieces of new machinery.
Later in the season, on the lot back of the shop site, Mr. Tucker will erect a $4,000, five room brick residence.
