

What's Doing In The Country

COUNTY FARM BUREAU MEETS AT PLAINVIEW

PLAINVIEW, March 3.—At the annual meeting of the Deschutes County Farm Bureau held at the Plainview school house last Monday evening the officers of the Progressive club were chosen to act for Farm Bureau officers. A number of new committeemen were selected. The new County Agent was present but arrived late having lost his way, and little business was done. It is hoped a more successful meeting will be held in the near future. Rabbit poison has been prepared and can be had in any quantities at actual cost by applying to J. F. Davison.

R. A. Ward of Bend and Fred N. Wallace of Tumalo made an effort to attend the Farm Bureau meeting but did not arrive on account of car trouble.

A small attendance of ladies met with Mrs. A. E. Hoss, Thursday afternoon for the regular O. D. O. club. The next meeting of the club will be with Mrs. Vern Livesay on Thursday afternoon, March 11.

Lily Colfelt came home from Bend on Thursday. She has been quite sick and is still unable to go back to her school work.

A. C. McCallister was called to Prineville the last of the week to attend the funeral of his uncle Ferd McCallister.

S. L. Burgess of the Pine Tree Mill was a caller in Plainview Tuesday.

A baby girl was born to Mrs. Bookman last Wednesday. The mother and little daughter are being cared for by Mrs. H. T. Hartley at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Mamerio are spending the week in Portland on business.

John McKinney and Jim Pulliam took their cattle to the high desert last week. John McKinney will remain there with the cattle but Jim Pulliam will return home this week.

Ray Armstrong hauled several loads of potatoes to A. P. Bales at Tumalo last week.

Paul Scoggin was a business caller in Bend Saturday.

Ruth Johnson is spending the week with Wilma Bennett.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Pulliam were week end guests at the home of Alex Levensen.

A number of friends enjoyed a very pleasant evening playing cards at the home of Phil Smith Saturday.

Mrs. John McKinney and daughter Claudia are staying at the Pulliam ranch.

P. A. Smith was a caller at the Mamerio ranch Saturday.

Cut This Out—It is Worth Money.

Cut out this slip, enclose with 5c to Foley & Co., 2835 Sheffield Ave., Chicago, Ill., writing your name and address clearly. You will receive in return a trial package containing Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, for coughs, colds and croup, Foley Kidney Pills and Foley Cathartic Tablets.

SCHOOL ATTENDANCE IS HURT BY ILLNESS

DESCHUTES, March 3.—The schools report only a few attendances because of sickness and weather condition.

Mr. George Kanoff hauled a small house from the Helmholz ranch on to his ranch.

Mr. R. V. Sefton is working in Bend this week, making repairs on the school buildings.

Mr. Allen Grant returned from Oregon City, where he and Mrs. Grant went to attend the funeral of Mrs. Grant's sister, Mrs. Grant and son Elmer will remain.

Mrs. John Vincent came down Sunday from Bend to take the place as cook for the hotel.

We hear that Miss Hilga Holmgren, who was to have served for Mrs. McCormack this week, is coming to her home in Bend with a cold.

The Swalleys and the Johnsons are convalescing from their recent sickness.

The evening train from Portland now passes thru Deschutes an hour earlier, that is, at 6:15 p. m.

Mr. F. A. Cochran is sick this week. Miss Daisy is recovering.

Mr. Ole Hanson has built a substantial stone garage.

An estrayed gray mare, which has been on the Long Butte ranch since the big snow and which has been advertised since then by Mr. Brandenburg, was found dead.

Mr. J. S. White will have a sale March 17. The White's contemplate leaving for Arkansas.

Restful Results For Her.

Only a person who has experienced that awful "all night" cough that sometimes follows influenza can appreciate what a good night's sleep can be. Mrs. Annie Davison, 2080 Myrtle St., Long Beach, Cal., had such a cough. She writes: "The result of using Foley's Honey and Tar was a restful one for me." —Adv.

FLU ATTACKS ALL IN THE GRANGE SECTION

GRANGE HALL, March 4.—The Grange school opened Monday morning with eight pupils in attendance. All but 3 were just recovered from the flu. The rest of the pupils are still sick. Scarcely a family has escaped in this neighborhood, and it is no worse in this vicinity than any other.

The Richardson school is closed this week, the teacher, Mrs. Slack and many pupils have the flu.

W. J. Smith and two children are up again after an attack of the flu. Mrs. Ellingsen from Astoria is visiting her parents in this neighborhood.

The aid was held Thursday at the home of Mrs. George Erickson. It was quite well attended.

Mr. H. Helgesen has been very low with the flu, but is improving now.

Mrs. Reynolds and daughter Elizabeth called at the teacher's cottage Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Ellingsen called at the George Erickson home Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Young are on the sick list this week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Young called at the teacher's cottage also, Mr. P. J. Young's home Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. C. M. Rasmussen is able again to be in the school room but is quite weak yet.

W. J. Smith received a blooded Partridge Rock rooster thru the mail, Saturday.

George Erickson and Mr. Mosier were appraising land Saturday in the Tumalo and Deschutes districts.

Elizabeth Reynolds was an overnight visitor at the home of Esther Erickson Thursday night.

Fred Hettman's family are down with the flu.

Gladys Dahle is convalescing.

The March storm has prevented Mr. Merchant from moving to his own ranch the first of the month.

Mr. Edd Young of North Yakima Washington, arrived Sunday night to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Young and his children who make their home with their grand-parents.

Mr. Young is head chemist at the sugar factory at North Yakima, and is on his way back from Salt Lake City, Utah, where the head chemists held their annual convention.

This Should Interest Other Women.

"My kidneys were giving me trouble for some time," writes Mrs. L. Gibson, 12th and Edison St., Le Junta, Colo. "I took Foley Kidney Pills and they helped me right away." Backache, pains in sides, sore muscles, and rheumatic twinges and "always tired feeling" are symptoms of kidney trouble. —Adv.

Want to buy hay, use Bulletin classified ads.

WRIGLEY'S

For mother, father, the boys and girls. It's the sweet for all ages—at work or play.

When you're nervous or tired, see how it refreshes!

The Flavor Lasts

WRIGLEY'S DOUBLEMINT CHEWING GUM
WRIGLEY'S JUICY FRUIT CHEWING GUM
WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT CHEWING GUM

SEALED TIGHT-KEPT RIGHT

FLU FINDS ITS WAY TO MILLICAN VALLEY

MILLICAN, March 4.—CHIT Evans and wife and two little girls moved back to the ranch in Millican valley the 15th of February and on the 16th the whole family was taken sick with the flu. Jake Coiman also took the flu and is very sick at this writing at the Evans home. Mrs. Hansen of Fort Rock one of Mrs. Evans sisters is nursing them.

Mrs. Lottie Hinkle went to Bend Sunday evening to take lessons in millinery from Mrs. McIntosh.

Mr. H. Y. Dyre was a caller at the Milliecan post office Tuesday and called on W. H. Ream on his way home.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Perraville were callers at the Ream ranch Wednesday morning.

Mr. Henry Schisler of Lewiston, Idaho was a caller at the Lone Star ranch Monday morning accompanied by J. H. Buchholz of Bend.

Mrs. L. S. Ream received a telegram one day last week from Allus, Oklahoma, that her mother was very low with pneumonia.

Fred Terrill sold 14 head of cattle recently.

Mrs. J. J. Holland visited school and called at the Terrill home, where she bought some geese the past week.

Oscar Shear returned from Bend Friday.

H. K. Cooke visited at the L. G. Morgan home Monday evening, returning home Tuesday morning.

Mrs. C. H. Graffenberger and H. K. Cooke were Sunday visitors at the J. J. Holland home. The Holland children were on the sick list.

The flag pole was raised at the district No. 26 school house Saturday, quite a few were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Grinstead visited with their son Glen at Bend Tuesday. Glen was sick at his grand-parents' home but is now well again.

Miss E. Matheny left for The Dalles, Oregon, Wednesday after a seven weeks visit with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Morgan. Mrs. Morgan accompanied her to Bend returning the following day.

L. G. Morgan is on the sick list.

The Heinz children are sick with the flu.

C. J. Cooke returned from an extended trip, Thursday.

Mrs. Morgan called at the Keller home Friday morning.

Mrs. J. J. Holland called at the Keller home Wednesday and Thursday.

Mrs. R. R. Keller visited at the Morgan home Friday afternoon.

The Beaver Supply Co. store was closed by some of the creditors, Thursday evening.

The L. G. Morgan family are selling all their household goods, they calculate to leave here in about 2 weeks or less.

Had a Cold All Winter.

Colds that "hang on," coughs that rack your body and wear you down, the weakening that comes from loss of sleep—these are afflictions from which relief is a blessing. Nick J. Whres, Zahl, N. D., writes: "Had a cold all winter, but since taking Foley's Honey and Tar it has entirely disappeared." —Adv.

GRIPPE WIDESPREAD AT POWELL BUTTE

POWELL BUTTE, March 4.—While many people have been ill during the epidemic of bad colds and flu, none of the cases has proved fatal nor have any been prolonged beyond the shortest possible limit for complete recovery.

J. A. RIGGS, well known rancher of our community, is quite ill of flu. Mrs. RIGGS is nursing him.

The members of the family of Joe Manceau are all down with flu but their neighbor, E. B. Williams is looking after them.

Aunt Sarah Zell of Prineville came out to look after the Henry Edwards family and with her care they are all improving nicely.

Other people who have been on the sick list are Mrs. A. W. Bayne, Mrs. J. F. Rice, Mrs. John Skeen and several members of the Bushwell family. John P. O'Callahan, little Wallace Foster, Con Breen, Dewey Shober, and Fred McCaffrey. All improving at present writing.

Miss Edith Bales spent several days last week as a guest of Mrs. Arthur Wurzweller.

Jack La Mont and Miss Ethel Watson came out from Redmond Saturday night to attend the social at Miss Bussetts school.

Mrs. Bert Reynolds and baby of Redmond spent the week end at the E. A. Bussett home.

Phil Dobson of Redmond visited among Powell Butte friends over Sunday.

A little daughter of Lee Hobbs is quite ill of flu complications.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Fisher was quite seriously ill for a few days as were also Mr. and Mrs. Fisher, but they are all improving now.

At the Clarence Ferguson home (Continued on Page 8.)

Sensible shoes lay a smooth path for your feet—

Sensible shoes for sensible men—shoes that fit well, wear well, look well—these are BUCKHECHT Shoes. "Extra service every step, comfort every minute"—is more than a slogan—it's a fact stitched into every BUCKHECHT Shoe.

BUCKHECHT SHOES

BUCKHECHT Shoes for you—for active men in all walks of life—are sold in a variety of styles and leathers from $8 to $12 by principal shoe dealers in the West

If not sold by your dealer, send his name and your order to BUCKINGHAM & HECHT MANUFACTURERS Since the early fifties SAN FRANCISCO

Central Oregon Garage

REDMOND, OREGON

Exclusive Agents for Northwest Auto Co. for Deschutes, Crook and Jefferson Counties

Selling

Marmon-Cole, Reo and Dort Cars Bethlehem, Indiana and Duplex Trucks

Ship Your Livestock

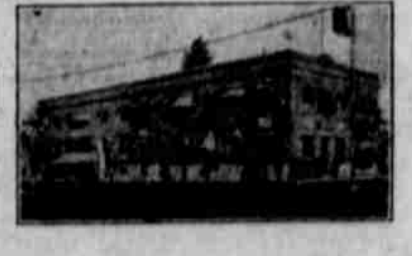

TO

Oregon Live Stock Commission Company

A Company that will work for the welfare of Central Oregon Stockmen

Dealers in Cattle (grade and stock), Sheep & Hogs

North Portland, Oregon

THIS Bank extends to you the services of an organization adapted to every business and agricultural need of Central Oregon.

THE BANK OF SUPERIOR SERVICE.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK of BEND

You will find what a simple operation it is to set aside $5 a week if you determine upon a regular weekly deposit day.

You will actually look forward to this day with a great deal of pleasure.

We Will Help You to Save.

Our Savings Department Pays 4% Interest

CENTRAL OREGON BANK

BEND OREGON