

SONS AND DADS ENJOY BANQUET

BOY SCOUT WORK IS FEATURED

Many Adopted Parents Experience Joys of Fatherhood for One Night—Men and Boys Respond to Toasts.

Fathers and sons—nearly 140 of them—gathered at the Pilot Butte Inn Friday night for their annual banquet. Many of the dads were borrowed for the one night by boys whose fathers were unable to be in attendance, but even at that the fathers and the men who were temporarily to enjoy the responsibilities of parenthood, were in the majority. The banquet featured the activities of the activities of Bend Troop No. 1, Boy Scouts of America, and while many of the youngsters in attendance were not members of the organization, many of them will make a serious effort to join before the two weeks camp at Elk Lake in the latter part of July.

Of the many families represented at the big get-together of fathers and sons, the biggest was the Bulletin family. Nine boys who distribute the daily to subscribers in the city were in attendance with their adopted dad, Claud Smith, but the surplus of parents made it necessary to relinquish the special table reserved for the family of 10, eight of the boys being distributed among fathers whose sons had failed to appear.

DESCHUTES VALLEY POTATOES POPULAR

Yakima Ranchers Highly Pleased With High Priced Shipment of Seed Sent From Here.

The high degree of popularity enjoyed by Central Oregon potatoes is clearly shown in a letter just received by J. A. Melvin, rancher near Bend from J. W. Huibregtse, of Yakima, Washington, regarding a carload of spuds shipped by the Deschutes Valley Potato Growers association to that point. The shipment brought over $2200, and the 25 tons of seed potatoes which composed it, were divided among Yakima ranchers.

"The spuds went like hot cakes, and everyone was more than pleased with the quality," Mr. Huibregtse writes. Some of the people wanted more, but the car was not big enough. Everybody came to look at them, even the spud buyers, and said they were a fine looking lot." In closing, Mr. Huibregtse expresses the wish that the Yakima ranchers will be able to order more shipments next year.

OWNER OF WHISKEY REMAINS UNKNOWN

Sample From Shipment of Liquor Taken From Logging Train Yesterday, to Be Analyzed.

Who is the owner of eight quarts of what is apparently moonshine whiskey, taken from a logging train headed for Shevlin-Hixon Camp on last Thursday, remains a mystery to Sheriff S. E. Roberts. Fear that wood alcohol might supply the intoxicating element in the liquor prevented a local test being made, but a sample of the stuff has been sent to Portland for a laboratory analysis.

Great Times

Oh, these are grand and gorgeous times, and every fellow has the dimes! I work four hours and draw more pay than father pulled down for a day, and he was doing things at dawn, and busy till the light was gone. But father, like a lot of dads, somehow arranged to save some scads; he always paid up what he owed, and had a package safely stowed where he could reach it on the day when bleak misfortune came his way. I often wonder how our dads, those provident, hard-working lads, could, from the meagre wage they drew, save dimes, the way they used to do. Oh, many roubles I have earned, and many roubles I have burned; I blow in more to buy a tire than was my daddy's monthly hire; I wear silk shirts and calf-shin shoes, and dodge the tailor with his dues, and when I see the grocer's face I feel that I am in disgrace. And if the panic seers foresee should come along and land on me, I wonder what will happen then, since I have never saved a yen? Such doubts as these swing through my head, sometimes when I am snug in bed; then chills go up and down my spine, and sad and sleepless hours are mine.

TUCK MAY GO WITH U. S. OLYMPIC TEAM

Deschutes County Boy Highly Spoken of by Stanford Coach, Who Suggests Possibilities.

When a team composed of the best athletes of the United States sails for Antwerp this year to participate in the seventh Olympic games, there is a strong likelihood that a Deschutes county boy may be among the aggregation of point winners. This is the belief of H. Wilfred Maloney, famous track and field coach of Stanford University, who in an article written for the United Press, picks Arthur Tuck, of Redmond, as one of the two most likely candidates for the javelin in the entire west.

Tuck, now in his first year at the University of Oregon, was last year's high school sensation as an all round track and field athlete, and holder of the junior national record of 178 feet, four and one-fourth inches, in the javelin throw.

SUMMER HOMESITES BECOMING POPULAR

Nine Applications Already Made to Forest Service for Lots on Elk Lake.

That Elk Lake will be a most popular summer resort this year is shown by the number of people from Bend and elsewhere who have already made application to the Deschutes National Forest service, for homesites on the edge of the lake. A. M. Pringle, Ashley Forrest, J. A. Eastes, Clyde M. McKay, W. C. Bird-sall, C. S. Hudson, and T. A. McCann have already filed on the lots offered by the forest for summer use, and in addition, J. W. Foster, Shaniko sheepman, and C. Vogel, wealthy resident of Los Angeles, plan to spend part of the hot months at the lake.

The survey made by the forest service is to be sent in to District headquarters in the near future for official approval.

ANALYSIS IS MADE OF RAISIN BRANDY

Moonshine Liquor Seized by Sheriff Found to Contain 36.7 Per Cent Alcohol.

A report received today on the analysis of specimens of liquor from an eight quart shipment seized Wednesday by Sheriff S. E. Roberts, shows 36.7 per cent of alcohol, with no trace of wood alcohol, as had at first been feared. The liquor is raising brandy of 73.4 proof, and was taken from a logging train on the way to Shevlin-Hixon Camp one. The identity of the original owner remains a mystery.
