

What's Doing In The Country

RANCHER IS HURT BY RUNAWAY TEAM

POWELL BUTTE, March 18.—E. A. Bussett met with a very painful and what might have been a much more serious accident at his home Wednesday morning, when the mule team that his son Lloyd was driving, broke away and while running struck Mr. Bussett, knocking him down and breaking his ribs and otherwise injuring him.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parrish were in Prineville last week. It looks good to see them able to be out again as they have all had the flu.

Tom Huston was a Prineville visitor also.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. O'Callahan are in Paisley for a visit with Mr. O'Callahan's brother and partner.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Oliver are at the ranch while the O'Callahans are away.

Mrs. Anna Boettger of Redmond visited with her brothers, George Kissler and family last week.

Mrs. George Kissler had the misfortune to step on a nail and run it into her foot last week. She suffered quite badly with it awhile, but is improving now and able to walk on the foot.

Mr. and Mrs. George Truesdale gave a dinner to Mr. and Mrs. George Hobbs, Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Rei Powell and Mrs. Ella Powell with Mr. and Mrs. Walstrum of Prineville came out to attend the Redmond Glee club concert, Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Smith of Redmond attended service here Sunday.

George Whitsett went to Bend Thursday to meet his brother Wallace from Grants Pass.

A cake social was given Saturday night at Butte Valley schoolhouse where Miss Comie is teacher. A delightful time was enjoyed by all present and $160 was raised. The money to go for the benefit of the school.

Sunday, March 13, Mrs. E. A. Bussett gave a dinner party in honor of her son Lloyd's birthday. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Ross Bussett and daughter, Margaret, Lloyd and Fay Bussett, Miss Crystal Sturdivant, Mr. Phil Dobson, Miss Zola Forday and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Bussett.

Wm. Peterson lost a valuable horse last week.

Powell Butte Sorosis enjoyed a pleasant meeting at Community Hall last Wednesday with Mrs. J. A. Riggs as hostess. A delightful cozy corner was arranged with rugs and cushions and also spring blossoms and ferns which had been sent by Mrs. Riggs' mother in Linn county. Luncheon was served with Mrs. A. W. Bayne, Mrs. Roy Roberts and Mrs. E. H. Stewart assisting. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Roy Roberts at her home.

C. C. Brix was a business visitor in Prineville last week.

Mr. Brock the Federal Loan appraiser was in our community last week.

Another bunch of the Wurzweller cattle were driven over to Grandview last week leaving only a small number here.

The revival that was talked of for awhile has been indefinitely postponed. There was too much sickness and bad weather to insure any attendance.

Rev. and Mrs. Hazleton came out from Redmond Sunday, as it was Mr. Hazleton's regular preaching day.

Elma Peterson, student at Crook county high school, visited at home over Sunday.

A dance will be given at Community Hall on March 19.

Powell Butte people were given a great musical treat last Friday night when the Redmond high school Glee club came out and gave a concert in Community Hall. There was a fine bunch of young people in the club and they put on a good concert. Proceeds of the evening was $30.

which was donated by the directors of the hall, to the Glee club. The following persons acted as chaperones for the party, Miss Brandt, Miss Eubanks, Miss Edith Doty, Mrs. Smith, and Mrs. Mohler.

High Prices May Cause Illness.

At this season of the year when fresh vegetables are so high many persons suffer from deranged digestion. If you feel dull and sluggish, or if you suspect indigestion or constipation you will feel better tomorrow if you take a Foley Cathartic Tablet tonight. They banish biliousness and headache. —Adv.

POSTMASTERSHIP AT MILLICAN TO CHANGE

MILLICAN, March 18.—L. G. Morgan left Monday to go to Hood River where the Morgan's will make their future home.

Mrs. Morgan is still here until she can transfer the post office to Wm. A. Rahn. After leaving here she will visit with relatives in Spokane, Washington, until June first, before joining her husband at Hood River.

Georgena Kingsley is staying with Mrs. Morgan this week.

The Graffenberger's have been and are on the sick list this week.

Mrs. J. J. Holland was a caller at the Graffenberger home Wednesday and at the R. R. Keller home Thursday.

Mrs. Rosin called at the Holland home Sunday.

Mrs. George W. Cooke came out Monday, to stay with her son H. K. during C. J.'s absence.

Frances E. Lee made a business call at the R. R. Keller home Thursday.

R. R. Keller is expected home today or Monday.

Costs More But Price is Same.

Foley's Honey and Tar is the original and genuine honey and tar cough medicine. It costs Foley & Co. more to make than it costs others to make mixtures of cheaper ingredients, but it costs you no more than the cheap mixtures. Contains no opiates. Children like it. For coughs, colds, croup. —Adv.

NEWS ITEMS FROM PINEHURST HOMES

PINEHURST, March 18.—Mrs. Mary Gerking, Mrs. H. A. Newcomb and Mrs. F. L. McMammón were shopping in Bend Monday.

C. M. Phelps, and daughter Rozeia were callers at the C. H. Spough and C. Peterson homes Sunday evening.

Mrs. Robert Smith was a business caller in Bend Saturday.

Business callers in Tumalo Saturday were, Mrs. Grover Gerking, Mrs. Cosner, Mrs. A. H. Reed, Charles Montgomery and Mrs. G. W. Snyder and son Lester.

Ivy and Lester Snyder were guests at the F. L. McMammón home, Sunday.

F. V. Swisher was in Bend Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Mickels are moving to the brick yard this week.

Blain Devers and F. V. Swisher were business callers at the Spough home Saturday.

Mrs. Grover Gerking and Ivy Snyder enjoyed a horse back ride Friday afternoon.

Frank McMammón was in Bend Saturday.

Mrs. H. A. Newcomb spent the week end with Mrs. Frank McMammón.

Mrs. Dave Mickels was a guest at the Snyder home Monday.

Mrs. Cosner and son Ray was in Tumalo Wednesday.

D. E. Wimer and C. Peterson were business callers in Bend Saturday.

Dave Mickels was a business caller at the Snyder home Sunday.

Send your poultry through Bulletin classified ads.

DESCHUTES SCHOOL WORK COMPLIMENTED

DESCHUTES, March 18.—County Superintendent J. Alton Thompson visited the schools Tuesday. He complimented the children on the snap and vigor of their physical training, saying it was the best he had seen.

Mrs. Debing, who has been taking care of Mrs. Ham's baby, is going to take him home.

Denton Burdick and Pete Hardy of Redmond were visitors at Deschutes Sunday afternoon.

W. L. Bergstrom is driving a new Ford.

Mr. Ernest Frank, agriculturist was a social caller at the Deschutes Hotel Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Frank is in Portland, under the care of an eye specialist.

Mrs. Mary Livesly returned to Deschutes last week from Summer, Washington.

Carl Livesly has traded his ranch for property near Grant's Pass.

C. M. Redfield, with crew, was staking out new work for the Bend Water, Light & Power Co. at the C. O. I. dam above Bend the past week.

Joe Elliott, stockman from Powell Butte, was a business caller at Deschutes, Friday and Saturday.

Mr. Wells of Uncomphrage, Colorado, was looking over the irrigation project the past week.

A. E. Robinson of Salt River Valley, Arizona, who spent the 1919 season at Deschutes, writes to friends that new peas and froglegs are helping the people of that valley to reduce the H. C. of L.

John Moore of Redmond and Merrill Van Tassel of Terrebonne were purchasing excess acre water rights at the C. O. I. office last week.

Miss Nellie Griffin attended the K. of P. ball at Redmond Friday evening.

Miss Hilga Holmgreen spent several days last week with friends at Deschutes.

Lem Brandenburg says that a good cook can do more to reduce the H. C. of L. than twenty-four men on a price-fixing commission, such as politicians have arranged for the dear people.

Mrs. Debing went out to Grange Hall Monday on business.

George Holton, who has been very sick, is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Vincent were visitors at Redmond Friday.

Miss Daisy Cochran spent Sunday with her uncle, A. B. Matthews.

The Ed Swaleys spent Saturday in Redmond visiting at Jones'.

P. H. Allen, court reporter of Portland, is working with the C. O. I. force this week in the office. Mr. Allen has just returned from five years' service in France and this is his first work of peace.

C. H. Smith is also working in the C. O. I. office this week.

Dennis Hunt of the Squaw Creek Irrigation project called at Deschutes Monday.

Restful Results For Her.

Only a person who has experienced that awful "all night" cough that sometimes follows influenza can appreciate what a good night's sleep can be. Mrs. Annie Davison, 2089 Myrtle St., Long Beach, Cal., had such a cough. She writes: "The result of using Foley's Honey and Tar was a restful one for me." —Adv.

BUGGY SMASHED BY CARELESS AUTOIST

TERREBONNE, March 18.—B. E. Nichols met with a bad accident while coming out from Redmond last week. A careless auto driver ran into him smashing up his buggy and leaving Mr. Nichols with a good many bruises but nothing serious.

Miss Dietrich visited the Culver and Tetherow Buttes schools during the time the Terrebonne school has been closed.

Mrs. U. J. Hall has been teaching the 7th and 8th grades in the Culver school the past week.

Mrs. Mackey spent last Saturday in Bend, where she took an examination for postal service.

Four carloads of silica were shipped from here during the last two weeks.

Mr. Williams of the Terrebonne faculty visited the Davidson ranch with the eighth grade agriculture class to hear E. L. Westover lecture on silos.

As proof that land is coming up, the McCallister farm at Terrebonne sold for $5,000 a short time ago.

Mrs. Allen and her daughters of Grandview, Washington, have arrived to assist the Adams families who are recovering from the flu.

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Nichols announce the birth of a fine baby boy, born Thursday, March 11th.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Ralston and Mr. and Mrs. W. Osborn at Grandview were pleasantly surprised Sunday by a party of young folks who motored from Terrebonne. A delightful dinner was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralston. All returned late in the evening reporting a very enjoyable time. Those present were: Misses Nina Elliott, Irma Keeny, Adeline Dietrich; Messrs Raymond Elliot and Mark Forest.

Miss Irma Keeny went shopping in Bend last Saturday.

The following resolutions were drafted at a recent meeting of the Terrebonne Parent-Teachers association in behalf their principal Mrs. Whiteis. She has been principal of the Terrebonne high school for the past three years taught for several years in the high school at Heppner and also in the Prineville school. She is a graduate of Pacific College has the required life certificate and has taught for sixteen years in the state. She also assisted the county Superintendent of Moro county for four years. Knowing her special qualifications for the office they feel it their duty to submit the following resolutions to the others of Deschutes county:

Believing that our principal, Mrs. Gertrude L. Whiteis, is especially qualified for the office of county superintendent of schools, and believing it is to the best interests of the schools of Deschutes county that she be elected to that office, be it resolved, that we, the Parent-Teachers' association of Terrebonne, Oregon, heartily recommend her to the voters of said county, and pledge ourselves to give her our undivided support. We believe this office should be non-partisan and solicit the vote of all who are interested in the advancement of our schools, regardless of party affiliations.

FARMERS PRESENT AT ROAD MEETING

PLEASANT RIDGE, March 18.—Several of the farmers from this neighborhood attended the meeting in Bend on Wednesday regarding the right of way for the highway.

Alfred Mikkelsen and Oswald Pedersen were in Redmond on Saturday.

Mrs. C. M. Redfield and Miss Hilga Holmgreen called on Mrs. O. E. Anderson Thursday afternoon.

J. W. Peterson made a business trip to Redmond Saturday.

Mrs. O. E. Anderson was on the sick list the first of the week.

W. B. Hutchins arrived from Oregon City Monday morning. Mrs. Hutchins will visit with her parents at Corvallis for a time after which she will join Mr. Hutchins at their home here.

Rev. J. E. Williams of Prineville came over on business Tuesday, and was the guest of Anton Ahlstrom while here.

Mrs. A. M. Petty of Portland arrived Tuesday to spend a few days visiting with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gray.

W. K. McCormack of Deschutes has been out several times this week to look after his sheep.

Mr. Wagner who is working for J. W. Cabean went in to Redmond Saturday night to spend Sunday with his family.

Mrs. Alfred Pedersen worked at the Deschutes hotel several days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Anderson attended the show in Bend Saturday night. They were accompanied by Miss Hilga Holmgreen who remained in Bend.

Mr. J. S. White went to Bend on Saturday. Mrs. White who has been in Bend for some time returned home with him.

Fred Seeling of Bend visited at the Gray home Sunday.

O. E. Anderson sold a fine veal to some buyers from Bend.

Mrs. A. M. Petty of Portland who has been visiting at the Gray home several days this week went to Bend Saturday night to meet her husband who came in on the Sunday morning train.

W. B. Hutchins went to Redmond Saturday afternoon.

Miss Hilga Holmgreen spent Friday as the guest of Mrs. O. E. Anderson.

F. K. Dahl of Redmond was in this neighborhood the first of the week.

FLU EPIDEMIC AT GRANGE IS ENDED

GRANGE HALL, March 18.—There are no cases of flu in the Grange Hall district now. Everyone seems to have had it at once.

Lester and Payne started their sheep Monday to the Park for the summer.

Mr. Jackson has rented the Lester and Payne hay ranch, 5 miles north-east of Bend. Mr. Jackson will continue to live on his own place which is near the hay ranch.

Tom Merchant moved his family to their ranch, 5 miles south of Bend.

P. J. Young purchased a cow last week from Mr. McLain for $60.

Elizabeth Reynolds in taking music lessons from Mrs. Dickey.

Mr. Helgeson drove his car to town Tuesday.

Mrs. Fred Hettman was not able to have the Ladies Aid Thursday, on account of an accident. Mrs. Hettman is not able to walk. Mrs. E. E.

Butler had the Aid meet at her home.

Mr. Tom Merchant has purchased a Ford car.

Mr. E. E. Butler, Mr. O. Dahle, Mr. George Erickson and Mr. J. Pedersen motored to Tumalo Saturday to attend the meeting.

Edd Young and parents called at the L. C. Young and Crowe ranches Sunday afternoon.

Chas. Williams hauled a load of wood to the school home Thursday

(Continued on page 7.)

Gordon

Good feel because it's good felt — pass your hand over your new Gordon hat and you'll get the idea

THE GORDON HAT

CASHMAN BEND'S CLOTHIER

Brooks-Scanlon Lumber Company

Lumber, Lath, Shingles, Building Material, Kiln Dried Flooring and all kinds of Finish

SASH AND DOORS

COMPLETE STOCK of Standard Sizes.

BROOKS-SCANLON LUMBER CO.

Local Sales Agent, MILLER LUMBER CO.

Central Oregon Garage

REDMOND, OREGON

Exclusive Agents for Northwest Auto Co. for Deschutes, Crook and Jefferson Counties

Selling

Marmon-Cole, Reo and Dort Cars Bethlehem, Indiana and Duplex Trucks

Ship Your Livestock

TO

Oregon Live Stock Commission Company

A Company that will work for the welfare of Central Oregon Stockmen

Dealers in Cattle (grade and stock), Sheep & Hogs

North Portland, Oregon

It's Silo Week in Central Oregon

THE value of a Silo on every livestock ranch has been set forth in the series of meetings now in progress in Central Oregon. The visits to the various silos and the lectures by Professor Westover have made many silo converts in the Deschutes valley. The silo has come to stay.

Silos, sunflower, dairy cows and sheep are combinations that will make your Bank Balance grow.

This Bank stands ready to continue on a more comprehensive scale than ever its campaigns for better agriculture and better livestock. It will be worth your while to discuss these matters with us when in Bend.

THE BANK OF SUPERIOR SERVICE

FIRST NATIONAL BANK of BEND

You can start that first step right now

What are the Four Big Ambitions of the average man? To marry—to have a home—to have children—to succeed in business. And having money in the bank is a great aid toward obtaining these things.

We Will Help You to Save.

Our Savings Department Pays 4% Interest

CENTRAL OREGON BANK

BEND OREGON

