

What's Doing In The Country

PLAINVIEW WOLVES HOLD INITIATION

PLAINVIEW, March 25.—A big band of "wolves" gathered at the home of Leslie McDaniels on Saturday evening and had a lively time. There were a number of new members initiated into the secrets of hot-hand, poker and by the time they went home they had learned by personal experience to be right good players. An excellent lunch was served by the hosts about midnight.

Messrs Miller, Kline and Christy of Cloverdale were in Plainview Saturday.

The O. D. O. club held its regular meeting with Mrs. Vern Livesey last Thursday afternoon. There was not a large attendance but those present had a very pleasant time.

Miss Jo Burgess of Bend spent the week end at the Box A ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Edgington of Sisters were guests at the Pulliam ranch Sunday.

Miss Lily Colfelt returned to her school work at Bend after being sick at home for about two weeks.

Edgar Heart returned home last Wednesday from a short trip to Portland.

F. A. Scoggin was entertained in Bend last Saturday in honor of his birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Mameru returned Tuesday from an extended trip to Portland looking after business interests.

Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Kniekerbocker were callers in Plainview Saturday. Newell Van Tassel has been working in Bend for a short time.

Messrs. Vern and Corbey Livesey have been helping A. Gipson sack potatoes the past week.

Ray Armstrong was a Bend caller Saturday afternoon.

At a recent meeting of the Farm Bureau many of the farmers put in orders for wire to be bought cooperatively.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Ward will leave the Berkhart place soon as they have received notice of its being sold.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Scoggin and Jo Burgess were guests at a lovely dinner at the home of A. W. Armstrong Sunday.

Mrs. Colfelt and daughters spent Sunday at the Anderson home.

The O. D. O. club will meet Friday afternoon with Mrs. Tweed in a joint meeting with the Tillicum club.

A number of friends of Mrs. Herman Mameru surprised her very pleasantly on her birthday last Wednesday evening.

Mrs. A. E. Hoss, Roy Heart and H. A. Scoggin attended the Silo and Sunflower meeting held at the Parberry ranch in Cloverdale last Thursday afternoon. Very good speeches were given by silo experts also by local ranchers who are gradually getting experience.

Mrs. Hartley Sr. is much better after being ill for about a week.

Mrs. J. A. W. Scoggin is spending some time in Bend with her daughter, Mrs. Louis Bennett.

Jim Pulliam and Mrs. John McKinney returned Wednesday from a three days trip to the high desert.

Mrs. Emma Patterson was the guest of Mrs. A. W. Armstrong on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobs and family have moved to the old McKinney place. Mr. Bobs is working for Mr. Wall at the mill.

Mrs. H. B. Ward was a caller at the Hoss home Sunday.

A number of friends enjoyed the evening at the Hartley home last Saturday.

Jim Pulliam was a caller at the Alex Leverenz ranch Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Scoggin and Jo Burgess were dinner guests at the Colfelt home Sunday.

Those attending the big Stockmans Ball at Tumalo Friday evening were, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hartley, Messrs Lawrence, Scharfenberg, Roy Heart, Ray Armstrong, Jim Pulliam, George Calverley and H. A. Scoggin. Miss Lily Colfelt spent the week end in Plainview.

Ida Hoss was the guest of Wilma Bennett on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jo Howard of Lower Bridge were guests at the Hartley ranch Friday.

Costs More But Price is Same.

Foley's Honey and Tar is the original and genuine honey and tar cough medicine. It costs Foley & Co. more to make than it costs others to make mixtures of cheaper ingredients, but it costs you no more than the cheap mixtures. Contains no opiates. Children like it. For coughs, colds, croup. —Adv.

SPRING SEEDING AT PINEHURST BEGINS

PINEHURST, March 25.—Mrs. T. H. Foley and Mrs. J. J. Clapp of Bend spent Wednesday afternoon at the Snyder home.

Farmers of this neighborhood are busy with spring seeding.

Waverly Bayley spent Saturday and Sunday at the Snyder home.

Mrs. A. H. Reed was in Tumalo Saturday.

Mrs. Robert Smith and Ivy Snyder were callers at the Swisher home Sunday.

G. W. Snyder made a business trip to Bend Monday.

Mrs. Leslie McDaniels spent Sunday with Mrs. C. H. Spough.

Mrs. G. W. Snyder and Mrs. H. A. Newcomb were guests at the Spough home Wednesday.

Mrs. Mary Gerking was a caller at the McDaniels home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. McMannon were business callers at the J. B. Couch home Wednesday.

Those who attended the Stockman's Ball in Tumalo Friday night were, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Gerking, and Ivy and Lester Snyder.

Ivy Snyder and Mrs. Grover Gerking were in Tumalo Thursday.

C. H. Spough and F. V. Swisher were sawing wood in Tumalo Wednesday.

C. M. Phelps, John Bollman and Ernest Phelps attended a sale at the White ranch, Wednesday.

Walter Andrews was hauling seed rye from Bend, Friday.

Several of the school children have been absent this week, on account of sickness.

Mrs. Mary Garner and Mrs. C. M. Phelps called on Mrs. A. H. Reed Wednesday.

Several of the men of Pinehurst attended the rabbit drive, which was given east of the Deschutes river.

Rozella Phelps spent Saturday afternoon with Gladys and Alice Spough.

The people of Pinehurst in Bend this week were, Tom Mickels, John Bollman, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Spough, and Ernest Phelps.

Restful Results For Her.

Only a person who has experienced that awful "fall night" cough that sometimes follows influenza can appreciate what a good night's sleep can be. Mrs. Annie Davison, 2080 Myrtle St., Long Beach, Cal., had such a cough. She writes: "The result of using Foley's Honey and Tar was a restful one for me." —Adv.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS AT PLEASANT RIDGE

PLEASANT RIDGE, March 25.—Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Anderson attended the dance at Tumalo Friday night given by the Cattlemen's association.

Fred Seeling came out Saturday night to remain over Sunday at the Gray home.

Rev. and Mrs. E. B. Johnson accompanied by Mrs. Ed Swalley were in Bend Friday.

Pete Robbins of Redmond has been sawing wood with his gasoline wood saw for several of the farmers in the neighborhood this week.

Anton Ahlstrom made a business trip to Bend Wednesday.

The sale held at J. S. Whites' Wednesday was well attended and most things sold at a fair price.

Rasmus Peterson was a Bend visitor on Wednesday.

Roy White of The Dalles arrived the first of the week to visit with his parents Mr. and Mrs. J. S. White before they leave for their new home in Arkansas.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cabeen came out from Redmond to spend a few days on their ranch here.

Dr. and Mrs. A. Petty returned to Portland Monday night after a few days visit at the Gray home.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Anderson made a hurried trip to Redmond Tuesday afternoon on business.

Rasmus Peterson helped O. E. Anderson cut hay for his steers on Thursday.

Anton Ahlstrom accompanied by Miss Hilma Nelson and Mrs. O. E. Anderson was in Bend Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. White and son Rollie went to Bend on Thursday where they will spend a few days after which they will leave for their new home in Arkansas.

Services were held at the Johnson home Thursday evening. A good crowd was present and a fine talk was delivered by Rev. Johnson.

Rasmus Peterson loaded another car of hay at Deschutes this week.

Alfred Pedersen went to Redmond Friday after some supplies.

Cut This Out—it is Worth Money.

Cut out this slip, enclose with 5c to Foley & Co., 2835 Sheffield Ave., Chicago, Ill., writing your name and address clearly. You will receive in return a trial package containing Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, for coughs, colds and croup, Foley Kidney Pills and Foley Cathartic Tablets. —Adv.

FIVE CARS OF SPUDS TO BE USED AS SEED

Big Shipment Received at Terrebonne to Be Planted on Burr Ranch at Lower Bridge.

LOWER BRIDGE, March 25.—Mr. Stone private secretary of George L. Burr arrived Monday and is supervising the unloading of 5 cars of potatoes to be used as seed on the Hoskins place.

Buckley Bros. two big trucks have been busy hauling seed potatoes from Terrebonne all week and will be several days yet.

A community dinner and meeting of the farm bureau was held on March 25, at the schoolhouse.

Max Wurtzweiler passed through the community with a large drove of cattle Tuesday.

Mr. A. S. Holmes attended the meeting of the directors of the Union high school at Redmond Saturday.

Russell Chapman went to Portland with two car loads of cattle, Saturday.

Horace Brookings was a Bend visitor Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Hoskins and son Omar spent the evening at A. S. Holmes' Friday.

The George L. Burr Co. purchased two new Ford cars and a Ford truck in Redmond on Tuesday.

Dennis Hunt has been appointed superintendent of the Squaw Creek Irrigation district and assumed his duties.

J. W. Howard and wife were Bend visitors Monday.

Mr. Bruce, president of the Silica Co. came up from Portland on an inspection trip of the plant and mines.

Jas West returned to the community after several months employment in charge of George Dickson, owner of purebred cattle on Crooked river.

This Should Interest Other Women.

"My kidneys were giving me trouble for some time," writes Mrs. L. Gibson, 12th and Edison St., Le Junta, Colo. "I took Foley Kidney Pills and they helped me right away." Backache, pains in sides, sore muscles, and rheumatic twinges and "always tired feeling" are symptoms of kidney trouble. —Adv.

DESCHUTES TO HAVE SERVICES WEEKLY

DESCHUTES, March 25.—Jesse Stearns and Alfred Biles of Portland have been transacting business during the past week in Central Oregon stopping several days at Deschutes hotel.

Rev. E. B. Johnson announced that he will hold preaching service at the school house at three o'clock Sunday afternoons, beginning April 4.

W. G. Cox spent Sunday evening at the Deschutes hotel.

G. W. Bales and daughter, Ray Gerking and wife were pleasant callers at the Deschutes hotel Saturday evening, Ray Gerking and parents were shippers of beef cattle to Portland.

F. S. Stanley and C. H. Smith visited at Redmond Friday evening, Smith returning to Portland Sunday morning.

Ole Hansen of Deschutes, Oregon, a prosperous rancher and authority on county fairs, says, that the matter should be settled by locating the fair at Deschutes.

Jay H. Upton of Prineville, who is aspiring to represent Central Oregon in the state senate was a visitor at Deschutes Friday.

W. K. McCormack was a business visitor to the ranch of Morrow Keenen on Willow creek, Jefferson county last Friday.

E. J. Conley departed for Madras, expecting to dispose of a band of horses. He returned Monday morning bringing a housekeeper.

C. M. Redfield was a business caller at Moyer Bros. ranch north of Redmond last Friday.

Capt. Jack Brula of the Square Deal ranch shipped a carload of wood to Madras for the Tum-A-Lum Company Saturday.

Guy Austin attended the dance at Tumalo Friday night. Clold and Auction Sale!

TUESDAY, March 30 at 10 A. M.

CARL LIVESLEY RANCH

1 1/2 Miles South of Deschutes

1400 lb. mare, to foal March 28

1400 lb. gelding 5 year old

1000 lb. gelding

Extra good family cow

2 big Holstein cows

Cream separator

4 good cream cans

4 fine wool sheep

500 pounds barbed wire

100 cement brick

Set double harness

Stock saddle

Stump puller and cable

Land plaster spreader

John Deere corn cultivator

Light wagon

Oscillating bob sled

6 sacks sulphur

McCormick mower

Seed artichokes

Seed spuds

Cook stove

Heating stove

Some furniture

3 bure bred Guernsey cows

6 dairy and range cows

4 two year old steers

Wagon

Double harness

TERMS: All sums under $10 cash. Over $10 six months note with interest at 10 percent or 5 percent off for cash

Free Lunch. Bring your cups.

F. G. CUTTLIP, Auctioneer

L. S. ROBERTS, Clerk

Maynard Cockran also attended.

J. S. White held a very successful sale at his ranch near Long Butte and is now in Bend preparatory to moving his family to Arkansas.

Allen Grant is moving from the Deschutes depot to the ranch he purchased north of Deschutes.

Dr. Alonzo Petty and wife from Portland have been spending a few days of the past week making arrangements to have a house on their ranch improved and furnished preparatory to spending the summer in this locality.

Miss Nellie Griffin stewardess of the Deschutes hotel, is convalescing from what appears to be an attack of the flu.

Clarence Wittmore is suffering from an attack of grippe.

Miss Mary Triplett of Bend is spending a few days at the E. B. Johnson home.

George Kanoff and wife and W. E. Van Allen drove through the Grange Hall neighborhood Sunday afternoon.

Capt. P. H. Allen and W. E. Van Allen were dinner guest with C. M. and Mrs. Redfield Sunday.

Cloyd Cochran left for Portland Sunday night to take the final physical examination before entering the army. He enlisted for one year in artillery branch.

Mrs. Ernest Frank returned from Portland Sunday night, apparently much improved in health.

Mrs. W. O. Austin was a visitor at the Elliott home Sunday.

Mrs. J. O. Hagon of Bend was a visitor at the Debing home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Elliott from Bend visited at S. Debing's Sunday.

D. A. Slaughter traded the ranch relinquished by R. V. Sefton together with cows and a car for Bend property.

W. K. McCormack was engaged in shipping cattle from Redmond for the Portland market Sunday morning.

SHADOW BRINGS $15 AT POWELL BUTTE

POWELL BUTTE, March 25.—The entertainment given at the Butte Valley school house by the teacher Miss Mary Comic and her school, Saturday, March 13, assisted by a few outsiders was a grand success.

Mr. Dan Brennan sang a number of good songs. Dominick Verges sang assisted by Dan Hourigan and Ned England, which added greatly to the program. After which the ladies shadows were sold. Shadows sold as for high as $15.00.

Word was received from Con Breen at Alfalfa, saying he could not come. He sent his check for $10. A total of $161.50 was cleared, which will be used for play ground and equipment.

A jolly bunch of young people from Powell Butte went to Silver Lake and returned last Sunday. They were caught in a snow storm coming back and found hard sledding a part of the way but enjoyed the trip greatly. They were: Dominic Verges, Phil Dobson, Lloyd Bussett, Celia Manceau, Fay Bussett, and Crystal Sturdevant.

A pleasant surprise, was the birthday dinner given last Sunday by Mrs. Ross Bussett in honor of the birthday of her husband's mother, Mrs. E. A. Bussett. Besides the numbers of both families living here at Powell Butte. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Young and grandma Brown came out from Redmond making it a jolly family party, enjoyed by all. Mrs. Bussett was the recipient of several gifts, both beautiful and practical.

(Continued on Page 7.)

You can start that first step right now

What are the Four Big Ambitions of the average man? To marry—to have a home—to have children—to succeed in business. And having money in the bank is a great aid toward obtaining these things.

We Will Help You to Save.

Our Savings Department Pays 4% Interest

CENTRAL OREGON BANK

BEND

OREGON

The Roll of Honor of The Agricultural Committee of The Oregon Bankers' Association contains the names of 39 banks which are fostering, promoting or financing an agricultural or livestock activity. The bank ranking highest on the Honor List in the number of projects carried on during 1919 was

The First National Bank of Bend

This is in line with our program of agriculture and industrial development for Central Oregon.

Come in and discuss with us these plans for the coming year.

THE BANK OF SUPERIOR SERVICE.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK of BEND