

BEND HAPPENINGS FROM DAY TO DAY

Wednesday—

Floyd Dement is on a business trip to Portland.

Charles J. Flanszau of Silver Lake is in the city today.

A. M. Pringle left last night on a business trip to Portland.

S. B. Stockman was a passenger for Portland on the night train.

W. F. Fryrear of Sisters was in Bend yesterday to attend circuit court.

Hans Zimmerman is in the city today from his home in the Crescent section.

J. C. Redtfer was in Bend yesterday from his home in Redmond, spending the day visiting friends.

Hiram Norton left last night for his home in Silverton after a brief visit with old friends in this city.

Mrs. E. G. Snyder and daughter, Lucile, have gone to Salem, where Mrs. Snyder is to undergo an operation.

The Scandinavian-Lutheran Ladies' Aid society will be entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ludwig Peterson at 2 o'clock.

L. V. Smith and family left Bend yesterday for their homestead at Millican. They will stock their 320 acres with cows and start a dairy ranch.

The Cascade hotel, on the corner of Wall and Delaware, was purchased today by William Patterson, from George Erlingson and J. N. Larson. The consideration was not given. The hotel will be under Mr. Patterson's personal management.

The body of Walter Weber, whose death was caused Monday by the accidental discharge of the rifle he was carrying, was shipped last night to Portland, where funeral services will be held.

The home service section of the American Red Cross will be glad to secure used clothing. Donors are asked to bring used garments to Mrs. V. A. Forbes, at room 3, Deschutes Investment company building, Wall and Oregon streets.

Tuesday—

J. Ryan is on a trip to Seattle.

P. Van Tassel and C. Ward were in last night from Gist.

H. E. Allen has been confined to his home for several days by illness.

F. W. Weber arrived in Bend last night, called by the death of his brother.

W. G. Fryrear and George F. Cyrus, both of Sisters, spent last night in Bend.

Claire Payne, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Payne, is reported to be seriously ill.

Frank Hodson, of Lakeview, is in Bend for a few days looking after business matters.

H. O. Wilson and wife were visitors in the city last night from their home in Redmond.

Jack Horton, of the forest service, is at Sisters getting out lumber to be used in making tables for camp grounds.

Mrs. R. S. Dart has gone to Pendleton to attend a meeting of county library board representatives from all sections of the state.

Hiram P. Norton, formerly with the Brooks-Scanlon Lumber Co., in this city, is visiting in Bend today from his home at Silverton.

Fixtures are being moved out of Logan's candy kitchen, and an arch has been cut through the wall, to allow for the enlargement of the Union grocery.

Word was received yesterday of the death of Mrs. Roy S. Hartley at Cadillac, Michigan. Until recently, Mr. and Mrs. Hartley were residents of Bend. The body will be brought to Portland tonight, and H. J. Power, with whom Mr. Hartley was formerly associated in the J. C. Penney store here, will leave tonight to attend the services.

Monday—

R. B. Campbell, of Culver, spent last night in Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Parberry, of Sisters, were callers in the city last night.

Charles Ayres, ranger in the U. S. National forest, has resigned from the service.

H. M. Stephens and M. R. Matthew returned yesterday from an auto trip to Burns.

George J. Buri, auditor for the Union Pacific, is going over the books of the O-W office today.

Rev. Owen F. Jones, of the Episcopal church of Baker, recently announced as a candidate for United States representative, arrived in Bend this morning.

W. L. Stephens, pharmacist at the Magill & Erskine drug store has returned from Portland, where he was admitted into Al Kader Temple, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine.

Carleton Swift, Cashier of the Livestock State bank of Portland, C. C. Clarkson, assistant cashier, G. W. Pierson, superintendent of the Portland Union Stock yards, and Dr. Edmund Labbe, of Portland, French Consul, motored through Bend yesterday on their way to Mr. Swift's Happy Valley ranch in Harney county.

The Ladies Guild of the Baptist church will meet with Mrs. J. B. Heyburn at her home at the foot of Oregon street at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. The meeting is called for the purpose of reorganizing the guild, and all who are interested are invited to attend. Dr. George B. Van Waters, Archdeacon of Eastern Oregon, will be present and will outline the program of reorganization.

Saturday—

F. W. Weber, principal of the La Pine school, is a week end visitor in the city.

Burton Oney, forest ranger, returned to his home at La Pine this morning.

Miss Margaret Cook returned today from a protracted visit with relatives in Ione.

D. L. Jamison, county agriculturist, and Mrs. Jamison, were in Bend last night from Redmond.

L. J. Mills, of Portland, has arrived in Bend to accept a position as pharmacist at the Owl Drug store.

The ladies of the Catholic church will give a card party and dance at the Emblem club Thursday evening, April 22.

Douglas Mullarky, editor of the Redmond Spokesman, and Mr. and Mrs. Jared Moore, also of Redmond, were visitors in the city today.

Louis Peterson, sentenced yesterday in police court to pay a fine of $100 for violation of the prohibition law, discharged his obligation this morning and was released from custody.

Mrs. Gertrude White, candidate for the republican nomination for county school superintendent, and N. H. Elliott, both of Terrebonne, were visitors in Bend this afternoon.

A marriage license has been issued from the office of the county clerk to Glen Cox, of Deschutes, and Miss Ruth Kasemeyer, teacher at the Pleasant Ridge school. The wedding will be in Redmond tomorrow.

Harold F. Humbert, president of the State Sunday School association, will visit the various Sunday Schools in Bend and will speak at the Christian church at 11 o'clock Sunday morning. He will be present at a rally at the Baptist church at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

Friday—

L. K. Shepherd is in Redmond today on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred N. Wallace, of Tumalo, visited Bend last night.

August Anderson left this morning on a business trip to Portland.

William, Champlain, of Prineville was a visitor in the city last night.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Chapman, of Lower Bridge, spent last night in Bend.

Al C. Davis, formerly of this city, was in Bend today from Portland on business.

Colonel John Leader, formerly in charge of military training at the University of Oregon, was in the city today.

The Emera club of the order of Eastern Star, will give a dancing party in the Masonic hall tonight. All Masons and Eastern Stars are invited.

Mrs. C. H. Shumway, who has been visiting with her mother, Mrs. Peter Byberg, for the past four weeks, has left to rejoin her husband in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hodson and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Klein, of the Cloverdale section, were in Bend last night to see the Commercial, club livestock movie show.

On account of an evening session of the circuit court tonight the meeting of the Hoover republicans has been postponed until next week, the date of which will be announced later in The Bulletin.

Thursday—

R. E. Allen is in the city today from Burns.

F. M. Cleaves, of Crescent, left this morning for his home after a two day stay in Bend.

Mrs. Charles Saylor returned this morning from a visit with friends in Prescott, Washington.

E. W. Marshall has arrived in the city from Spirit Lake to accept a position at the Mannheim store.

Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Behrmer of 448 Lava road, are the parents of a nine pound baby boy born this morning.

Douglas Johnson, formerly of the forest service, has accepted a position as scaler at Brooks-Scanlon Camp No. 7.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Horn leave tonight for Portland, where Mrs. Horn will undergo an operation for throat trouble.

Miss Margaret E. Spalding left this morning for Grants Pass and Snohomish, Wash., to visit with friends and relatives.

C. D. Allen leaves tonight for Portland to join his wife at their new home at Gresham. Mr. and Mrs. Allen are early pioneers of the Central Oregon country.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Cavanaugh, of La Pine, are spending the day in Bend. Mr. and Mrs. Jared Moore have returned from a trip through Butte, Montana and Poocatello, Idaho.

Rev. J. O. Hougen, speaking at 7:45 o'clock Sunday evening at the Scandinavian church, will deliver a lecture on the subject, "A Life of Service as the Highway to Success and True Greatness."

Put it in The Bulletin.

Sell your poultry through Bulletin classified ads.

Suggestions for The Home Sewer

The discerning and well dressed woman demands—fabrics that are new in style—high in quality and priced reasonably, when fashioning her new spring wearables.

This season the home sewer can effect remarkable savings by designing and making up her own clothes.

New patterns Printed Georgette Waistings just received at, yard.....$3.50

Plain colored Georgettes, Specially priced, yd., $3.15

These being 40 inches wide, but one yard of material is required for the new kimono-sleeve blouse.

Taffeta silks are popular for the afternoon gown; plain and fancy striped patterns are being shown in all the new and wanted colors—

Plain Taffetas at.....$3.50 to $3.95

Fancy Taffetas at.....$2.50 to $3.95

Messalines, Satins and Duchess Satins, yard—$3.15 to $5.50.

Plaid Skirtings continue to be the popular fabric for separate skirts. A varied selection will be found here at prices that will effect substantial savings—

56-inch all-wool Velour Plaids, specially priced at $6.75 to $6.95 a yard.

One and a quarter to one and a half yards of this material is sufficient to make a skirt.

We have many different fabrics that can be developed in making the new accordion pleated skirt—French Serges, Poplins or silks may be used. Orders taken for pleating.

Let us show you the many new materials and assist you in designing and adding the right finishing touch to the gown you contemplate making.

Service That Excels at

MANNHEIMER BROTHERS

Quality Pioneers Since 1911

HOW'S THIS?

We offer $100.00 for any case of catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine.

Hall's Catarrh Medicine is taken internally and acts through the blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the system.

Sold by druggists for over forty years. Price 75c. Testimonials free. P. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio.

Put it in The Bulletin.

$25 IS FINE FOR RESISTING MATRON

Katherine Zeiser Denies Charge That She Cursed Dance Inspector When Corrected.

On the charge of resisting an officer, Katherine Zeiser of this city was fined $25 in police court on Tuesday. Mrs. Frank Brobert, dance matron, testified that on Saturday night at the Hippodrome Miss Zeiser had used profane language and had attempted to strike her after being warned against improper dancing. The defendant declared that she had indulged in no profanity and that her only resistance had been to push the matron to one side when the latter was in her way.

BIGGER SLEEPERS WILL BE PUT ON

Two standard sleepers containing 14 sections and a drawing room each, will be used in the near future on the run between Bend and Portland, it was announced last night by J. T. Hardy, traveling agent for the S. P. & S. The new cars, which have been ordered for some time, will take the place of the two 12 section Pullmans now in use. Tourist accommodations will remain unchanged.

Mr. Hardy reports that the freight congestion is being rapidly relieved, and that "outlaw" strikers who refused to return have already been replaced. "Some of the Bend merchants were just beginning to run short on certain lines of goods," Mr. Hardy said.

CANCER IS FATAL TO BEND WOMAN

After long suffering from an internal cancer, Mrs. Elizabeth Fowler, of this city, aged 49 years and three months, died Tuesday in Bend at the home of her daughter, Mrs. L. P. Rooney, at 1338 west Tenth street. Mrs. Fowler had undergone a drastic operation in Portland two months before.

Funeral services were conducted this morning at the Niawongoi chapel, Rev. J. Edgar Purdy of the Methodist church, officiating. Burial was at Pilot Butte cemetery.

BEND MAN RECEIVES RESERVE COMMISSION

With no application on his part, Frank R. Prince Monday received from the Adjutant General's office, Washington, D. C., a commission as captain of engineers in the Oregon reserve. Mr. Prince, who served overseas, was a lieutenant of engineers at the time of his discharge.

Put it in The Bulletin.

Put Your Stock
In Good Condition

with

Dr. Korinek's

COW
CONDITIONER

MILK PRODUCER

BREEDING
TONIC

APPETIZER

BEST FOR LIVESTOCK

1 1-4 lbs. 60c

3 lbs. $1.25

25 lbs. $5.00

KRESO DIP

Means Healthy Stock
pints, quarts, half-gallons five gallons.

Owl Pharmacy

DY-IT will do it

Best Straw Hat
Coloring.

Brighten up the last year's old straw Hat

with

DY-IT

Magill &
Erskine

Puritan Undermuslins

New, Crisp, Dainty Garments

Made of Fine Nainsook, Cambric or Muslin.
Laces and Embroideries used in trimming.
Our stock is very much underpriced according to today's prices.

Corset Covers--39c-55c-59c-79c

Night Gowns--$1.79-$2.25-$2.50-$2.95

Envelope Chemise--$1.79-$2.00

Petticoats--$1.19-$1.79-$2.25-$2.95

Bloomers--75c-85c-$1.50-$1.59

It's good judgment to supply your season's needs now.

When It's Fine Underwear We Strive to Please

THE WARNER COMPANY

QUALITY MERCHANDISE AT POPULAR PRICES