START TIE LAYING FROM TERREBONNE

TERREBONNE, April 27.—A train crew of Filipinos is here laying new ties between here and Bend. The work is going on rapidly and more workers are coming soon.

The farmers are very busy these days making up for loss of time caused by the bad weather.

Three car loads of grain were shipped from this point last week.

An unusually good time is in store for Terrebonne people next Friday evening when the high school will give a play entitled, "Taking Father's Place." The grades will crown the Queen of the May, and give some numbers, and Attorney Denton G. Burdick will speak on the two mill tax bill. After the program the Parent Teacher's association will take care of the crowd in a social hour.

The Misses Adeline Deitrich, Nina Elliott and Gladys Gates spent Saturday shopping in Bend.

Rev. H. C. Hartranft, of Bend, is scheduled for three chalk lectures here next Sunday—morning, afternoon and evening. A community dinner will be given at noon and everybody is invited.

Some inquiries have been made as to why the Terrebonne school was not included in the school thrift report in The Bulletin. For some reason Terrebonne did not receive the circular letter sent out from the county office requesting such a report. Though not as active as during the war the school is doing something along this line. The report just taken shows the number of thrift pupils to be 42 with savings amounting to $725.80.

F. N. Cadnau and family have returned after spending the winter in Portland. We have in addition to our high school as in Cadnau has entered here. Mr. R. L. Walker came with the Cadnau family and expects to purchase a farm in Central Oregon.

FARCES WILL BE GIVEN AT GRANGE

GRANGE HALL, April 27.—Thursday evening, May 6, the Grange Hall school will give two plays at the half. Three boys from the seventh grade will present a negro farce entitled, "Embalming Ebenezer." The characters are: Herbert Nelson, as Horace Harlip; Le Roy Smith, as Ebenezer Rosensteyn; Chris Stock, as Dr. Jackson. Horace Harlip has spent his friend Ebenezer's "two quarts" for an insurance policy in his own favor. Ebenezer "ain't got no notion of dyin'," but when the agent arrives he plays the corpse, not without some expostulations. Jackson proceeds to embalm "the corpse," but flees in terror leaving Ebenezer master of the situation and of the insurance money.

The second play is entitled, "Jumbo Jum," or "Mr. Gobbleton's Ward." The characters are: Bennett Young, as Jumbo Jum; Katharine Helgeson, as Hannah Phillips; Elizabeth Reynolds, as Mr. Gobbleton's Ward; Anna Smith, as Lawyer Chooten; Dorothy Young, as Mr. Gobbleton; Karna Hettman, as Mrs. Gobbleton; Clyde Smith, as Harry, the young officer with whom Mr. Gobbleton's ward is in love, very much against his wishes. LeRoy Smith, Clyde Smith, and Herbert Nelson are laborers.

In addition to the plays there will be music, recitations, and singing.

After the program there will be a pie social. Every lady is asked to bring a pie, and everyone is invited.
