J. B. Elkins and sons were callers at the Giles January place Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Scoggin were Bend callers Friday.

The O. D. O. club will hold its regular meeting and have annual election of officers at the home of Mrs. Mamera. A good attendance of members is desired.

Brace Galloway of Portland, arrived in Plainview last week and will spend some time at the P. O. Scoggin ranch.

The regular preaching services, the baled hay in this section is more were held at the school house on Sunday afternoon with a good attendance. Services will be held again in two weeks. The regular appointed pastor, Rev. Schnabel is expected on the charge by May 20. Will Patterson of Portland, spent Sunday at the A. E. Hoss home.

Mr. and Mrs. Morfett and party, enjoyed fishing on the Deschutes Sunday.

Frances, McCormack, J. Burgess, and Carl Gerhart of Bend, were week end guests at the Box-A ranch.

Never Saw Anything Better.

Mrs. A. B. Griffith, box 154, Andrews, Ind., writes: "Last winter my family all had the 'flu.' I tried Foley's Honey and Tar and never saw anything any better. From now on I will not be without Foley's Honey and Tar in the house." Sold everywhere.—Adv.

TERREBONNE ENJOYS PROGRAM AT SCHOOL

TERREBONNE, Ore., May 4.—The whole program announced last week was a decided success. This program is the last one the school has planned to give this year and it marked the last meeting of the Parent-Teacher association. Each part of the program came off without mishap and was greatly enjoyed by the large crowd that attended. After all the numbers were rendered the Filipinos, working near here, played a few pieces of excellent music. A free lunch was served to all present and another good time recorded in Terrebonne.

A few of the young folks of Terrebonne gave a party for Clifford Ralston in honor of his twenty-seventh birthday last Sunday. The crowd went to the Deschutes river for dinner and returned after a very enjoyable afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Drew are the proud parents of a baby boy born Tuesday, April 27.

Mrs. M. C. Davidson was the hostess at a Grandmother party at her home last Tuesday. Those present were: Mesdames Morris, Archer, Vantassel, Deitrich, Elliot, Hall, W. Pickett, D. H. Gates, Truman, T. Alderdyce, and Dyer.

Rev. H. C. Hartrauff of Bend, gave three lectures Sunday to large and appreciative audiences. His illustrated charts are wonderfully fine, and Terrebonne was fortunate indeed to obtain the services of such a Bible student and scholar.

How to Destroy a good Disposition. Bad digestion will ruin the best disposition. If the world looks dark and blue, if you are generally "out of sorts" and feel stuffed up and uncomfortable, just take a Foley Cathartic Tablet. Relieves mean headaches, biliousness, bloating, sour stomach, constipation and all that follow disordered digestion. Sold everywhere.—Adv.

POWELL BUTTE HAS METHODIST CHURCH

POWELL BUTTE, May 3.—Powell Butte Methodist church was organized last Thursday night at the home of George Kissler. The following named men were elected officers of the organization: Trustees, J. L. Gibson, Peter Pauls, and Hans Jacobson; Stewards Mrs. E. A. Bussett, Mrs. Carl Lindquist, Mr. Irving; Financial secretary, Mrs. George Kissler; Treasurer, Ross Bussett; Recording secretary, Mrs. Ross Bussett.

Mr. and Mrs. Orrin Mills of Paulina, brother and sister-in-law of Mrs. Arthur Wurzweller, were guests at the Wurzweller ranch last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilcox are moving to the Shuerer eighty north of Clifford Worrell's ranch. They have leased the place for one year.

"Dad" Kissler is carrying the mail between Redmond and Powell Butte, as Mrs. Wilcox is nursing her husband who is seriously ill.

The demand for trucks to move the baled hay in this section is more than can be met. Teams are also hauling, but it will take two weeks more to clear up the baled hay and place it on board cars at Redmond. As soon as that is gone the wool will be ready to move. Shearing already is on in some places.

Samuel Tweet visited in Redmond the first of the week, at the home of Henry Beard.

Harold M. Charlton of Portland, was a recent guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Charlton.

C. M. Charlton has been seriously ill at his home.

The ladies having in charge the Salvation Army drive, report that they more than raised the quota for this section, as is usually the case at Powell Butte.

Powell Butte Sorosis met with Mrs. George Truesdale as hostess. A full attendance and a pleasant afternoon was spent. Mrs. Collins Elkins of Prineville, vice-president of the federated clubs of the state, was present and gave an instructive address on the school tax measures to be voted on at the coming election, after which the club voted unanimous endorsement of these two bills. Ice cream, cake and coffee was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Pauline Powell and Mrs. Wahlester of Prineville.

The entertainment given at Community hall on Friday night, by the Edwards school, was enjoyed by a large crowd. The children showed that they had been well trained by their teacher, Mrs. Arthur Miller, and while but a small school, they gave an entertainment equal to schools of a greater number of pupils. Coffee and cake was served at the close of the program, netting the sum of $2.85 for the school.

J. P. O'Callahan started a large band of sheep toward summer range the last of the week. As fast as they are through shearing he will push them out to summer pasture.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Bussett, and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Reynolds were among the Powell Butte people attending the junior play at Redmond Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Beard and family of Redmond, and Mr. Beard's brother-in-law, Frank Banfield, were guests at the Green Beard home at Powell Butte Sunday. Mr. Beard is just recovering from a very serious accident and while able to walk without crutches, it will be a long time before he is able to work.

Mrs. Bertha Brown has been elected to teach the Wilson school next year at a salary of $110 per month. Mrs. Brown and her family own forty acres in the vicinity and will go from home to her school.

Cut This Out—It Is Worth Money.

Cut out this slip, enclose with 5c to Foley & Co., 2835 Sheffield Ave., Chicago, Ill., writing your name and address clearly. You will receive in return a trial package containing Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, for coughs, colds, and croup, Foley Kidney Pills and Foley Cathartic Tablets. Sold everywhere.

SKATING ENJOYED AT PRINGLE FLAT

PRINGLE FLAT, May 5.—The Pringle Flat dance hall makes an excellent skating rink. Each Sunday a crowd gathers there for a few hours of roller skating. Last Sunday the Held and Pringle Flat people all enjoyed a picnic there. The "spread" was delicious and the afternoon was spent in skating. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Settlemeyer and family, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Rickman and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Demaris and family of Barnes, Martin Grabar, Mrs. Mecklingberg and her daughter, Marie, Aleck Ammons and his daughters, Mildred and Madge, Mrs. Clark and daughter, Edna, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Balsley and family, Archie Gay, Mrs. Blackstone, Arthur Blackstone, Floyd Honston, Warren Libbey and Mr. and Mrs. H. Evans and family. Everyone reports a good time and say they will be sure to attend the next picnic, on Decoration day, May 30. Everybody will be welcome. Bring your dinner and friends.

Mrs. Roland Cross of Prineville is visiting her mother, Mrs. Frank Ramsey of Held, for a week or two.

Floyd Houston has been putting forth efforts in behalf of the Salvation Army. So far, he says, the donation drive has been most successful.

El Wilson has suffered the loss of several beef cattle since turning them on the range a few weeks ago. The spring weather, so far, has been too decidedly winterish here to permit range grass to grow.

Gus Grill left here for Prineville last week, where he expects to work on the Ochoco dam.

C. A. Balsley is busy doing his spring plowing and seeding.

The Pringle Flat school has been moved from the Ransom cabin, where school was held during the winter, to the real school house at the Warm Springs. The term will end May 28.

She Feels Fine. Your kidneys need help if your hands or feet are swollen and there is a puffy look under the eyes. Mrs. L. Gibson, 12th and Edison St., La Junta, Colo., writes: My kidneys gave me a great deal of trouble for some time. I took Foley Kidney Pills and they helped me right away. There is such a change in me I feel fine now. Sold everywhere.
