

BEND HAPPENINGS FROM DAY TO DAY

Wednesday—

Harriett B. Ward was in Bend last night from Tumalo.
 Mrs. E. L. Vnal arrived in the city this morning from Seattle to join her husband.
 Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Chase are the parents of a five-pound daughter, born yesterday.
 Mrs. Esther Dahlquist and daughter, Lillian, left this morning to make their home in Spokane.
 R. M. Smith and family are leaving by auto today for Tacoma, to be gone for the next two weeks.
 Martin A. Hunter and Mrs. Lydia Ede, both of this city, were married yesterday by County Judge R. W. Sawyer.
 Harry W. Gard and A. O. Anderson, officials of the North Unit irrigation district, were visitors in Bend last night.

Tuesday—

Mrs. R. I. Brown is in Spokane, visiting her parents.
 F. Foley of Gold Hill has been spending a few days in Bend.
 J. G. McClellan, special agent for the S. P. & S., is in Bend.
 Mrs. C. Shuter left last night to visit friends in Portland.
 Mrs. W. A. Bontrager is visiting her son in Boise, Idaho.
 M. Laverty and T. O. Weidner left last night for Portland.
 Mrs. Harry Manion will leave Friday for Seattle to spend several days visiting with friends.
 Game Warden H. McDonald returned last night from an official trip to Elk lake.
 Clyde M. McKay is back in Bend after attending the Shrine convention in Portland.
 Mrs. Myron H. Symons and Miss Mae McCarthy left last night on a two months' visit in Seattle.
 N. V. Noble of West Linn, Ore., was in Bend yesterday on his way to his homestead near Silver Lake.
 R. A. Ward has returned to Bend from Portland, where he attended the Shrine convention.
 Mrs. A. W. Davis of San Francisco is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. M. Egbert, in this city.
 Mrs. Hannah Reno is on her way to Pittsburgh, Pa., after a short visit with relatives near Bend.
 Mrs. Alice Matthews and small son of Lakeview were in Bend yesterday on their way to Portland.
 Dan Webster, who has been visiting Clyde McKay, left last night for his home at Davenport, Iowa.
 Miss Esther Hogue of Portland, who has been visiting friends in Burns, passed through here last night on her way home.
 Miss Leona Hayward, Miss Violet Hankins and Charles Carter of Portland were in Bend today on their way to Burns.
 Mrs. Emma Johnson of Portland, who has been visiting in Bend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Lemke, left last night for her home.
 A marriage license was issued from the office of the county clerk yesterday for Violet Neel of Redmond and Earnest L. Coble of this city.
 Mr. and Mrs. I. O. Williams returned yesterday from Portland, where they were visiting Mrs. Williams' mother, who has been sick for some time.
 Miss Beatrice C. Howell of San Francisco, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. W. N. Egbert, left last night for Seattle, where she is to be married.
 Miss Gertrude De Shaw, who has been visiting in Bend for the past few days, started last night on her return to her home in Seattle. Miss De Shaw was formerly a resident of Bend.
 J. W. Mitchell, in charge of ditch screening throughout the state, and W. O. Hadley, deputy district game warden, with headquarters in The Dalles, are in Bend for a few days on official business.
 J. A. Ernst of Fort Rock was in Bend today on his way home from the Rose Festival. Mr. Ernst carried with him a bouquet of Portland roses, which he hoped to preserve until he reached Fort Rock.
 Mrs. Josephine Gurley and daughter, Marie, of Springfield, Mo., are visiting in Bend at the home of L. L. Fox, intending to remain here for the next three weeks. Mrs. Gurley is Mr. Fox's sister.
 Harle Sanders has returned from Portland, where he has been under treatment for several weeks in one of the hospitals. His arm, badly lacerated while working in the hills, will be practically normal in a year's time, although it was feared at first that he would never regain the use of it.
 Victor and Carl Anderson, who have been in Bend for the past five months, left last night for Seattle.

 Mrs. James Ryan and daughter, Jane, started last night for Seattle, where Mrs. Ryan was called by the illness of her father, John Burns. Mr. Burns previously spent several months in Bend and is known to many in this city.
 Ending a five weeks' auto tour, Judge and Mrs. H. C. Ellis and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Davidson returned to Bend last night from Portland, where they attended the Shrine convention before starting on the last installment of their trip. They traveled for the greater part of the time through California and, while they noted the gas shortage, it did not delay them at any stage of their tour.

Monday—

N. L. Deadmond of Silver Lake is in Bend.
 Will Wosen is spending a few days in Portland.
 Mrs. L. F. Conn of Lakeview was in Bend yesterday.
 Mervin Horton returned this morning from a business trip to Portland.
 D. E. Verges, Powell Butte sheepman, was a business visitor in the city today.
 J. Swift of the fire department has returned to Bend after an absence of several days.
 Dr. R. W. Hendershott and Charles W. Erskine are back in Bend after a trip to Portland.
 Mrs. Lenore Hogue and Mrs. Adeline Yancey, of Prineville, were visitors in Bend Sunday.
 E. P. Mahaffey and Wilson George are on their way to Chicago to attend the Elks' convention.
 E. L. Payne has returned to Bend from an auto tour through Washington and British Columbia.
 Grover Gerking, of Tumalo, left last night for a business visit of a few days' duration in Portland.
 Miss Gertrude De Shaw, who has been visiting Mrs. Harry Manion, leaves tonight for her home in Seattle.
 Roy Mitchell, forest ranger in the Fort Rock district, has returned to his home after spending Saturday in Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Dodson of this city are the parents of a six-pound baby girl, born yesterday at their home on Division street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Galtner returned to Bend this morning after a two weeks' vacation, spent in Portland and other coast points.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Rhodes and H. E. Allen, who have been on a three weeks' auto tour through Washington, returned to Bend yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Neils Osgard, of Melrose, Minn., who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Lee King, of this city, left last night for their home.

Mrs. Peter Valley and two children are on their way to Seattle, where they will visit for the next two weeks with friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Snow were in Bend yesterday from Crescent. Mr. Snow, who is forest ranger in that district, coming in to secure medical advice.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Gasbar returned last night from Portland, where they attended the Shrine convention. They were accompanied to Bend by their daughter, Mrs. Tadden.

Mrs. George Hoover has returned to Bend from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. W. S. Tromblee, of Sand Point, Idaho. Mrs. Tromblee and little son returned with her for a short stay.

Rudolph Brentano and Miss Mildred Burleigh were the principals in a wedding at the home of the bride last Thursday evening, at which the Rev. Williams of the Christian church officiated. The groom has made Bend his home since receiving his discharge from the army, while Mrs. Brentano was popular in high school circles. After a brief wedding trip the young couple will return to make their home in Bend.

Saturday—

John Bollman of Tumalo is spending the day in the city.
 Louis Bennett left for his home in Silver Lake this morning.
 Al Tucker was in Bend today from his home in Silver Lake.
 F. M. Chrisman, of Silver Lake, is in the city today on business.
 Ole Halvorson and family left last night on a trip to the Puget Sound country.
 A. M. Pringle has returned from a

Copyright 1920, The House of Kruppenheimer.

—on Liberty

The "Fourth" suggests many new ideas on the liberty subject. A man needs to be financially free as well as free in other ways.

Kuppenheimer Good Clothes

help a man towards financial liberty. They are not only an investment in right appearance and good fit that stays, BUT—they are an investment in economy, wear longer, cut down the yearly clothes budget.

And now when we offer these CLOTHES AT 20% Discount

The advantage is all yours. Buy your suit for the Fourth here and save—

- $70.00 Suits For $56.00
- $65.00 Suits For $52.00
- $60.00 Suits For $48.00
- $55.00 Suits For $44.00
- $50.00 Suits For $40.00
- $35.00 Suits For $28.00

Get into these Smart Clothes for the Fourth. See the AER-O-WEAR Fabrics for hot weather, priced at $26.75.

Cool furnishings to go with them.

MANNHEIMER BROTHERS

The House of Kruppenheimer Clothes

June White Sale Ends Saturday, July 3

Money Saving Specials--- Things You Need Now

Women's white canvas Ked Boot, a regular $5.50 value Special $4.75

Girls' white canvas Oxfords, leather soles, low heels, sizes 9 to 12 $1.95
 Same in sizes 12 1-2 to 2 $2.15

Women's White Silk Hose--special 89c, $1.45, $1.98

Women's Nainsook Night Gowns, a wonderful assortment at $1.98

Women's White Voile and Lawn Waists, a beautiful lot priced at $1.98

June sale of Sweaters, Corsets, Silks, House Dresses, Millinery

THE WARNER COMPANY

Quality Merchandise At Popular Prices

trip to Portland, where he attended the Shrine convention.

Mrs. D. T. Carmody is back in Bend after visiting with friends in Portland for several weeks.

James Graham of Fort Rock is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Buchwalter in this city.

R. S. Dart returned this morning from Portland, where he was present during the Shrine convention.

E. P. Mahaffey, Wilson George and A. Whisnant will leave tomorrow to attend the Elks' convention in Chicago.

L. L. Baker and J. B. Coon of Grass Valley were in Bend yesterday.

They will spend several days in this vicinity fishing.

Mrs. L. B. Brasfield, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Brasfield and John Holmstead, all from the Alfalfa section, were in Bend, shopping, this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. George Weber, of this city, have removed to Susanville, Cal., where Mr. Weber has accepted a position as bookkeeper for the Fruit Growers' Supply Co.

Ray Canterbury, vice president of the International Timberworkers union, is in Bend from Seattle on an official trip. Mr. Canterbury was formerly secretary of the Bend local.

Friday—

Mrs. V. A. Smith is visiting friends in Portland.

Ralph L. Jordan of Prineville is here today on business.

Mrs. C. P. Becker was up from Tumalo this afternoon.

Mrs. A. E. Bartlett and granddaughter, Virginia, are spending the summer at Santa Cruz, Cal.

W. O. Hadley of The Dalles, deputy district game warden, is on one of his official trips to Central Oregon.

D. A. Boyd of Seattle, brother of Charles Boyd of this city, is in Bend looking after his property interests.

Victor and Carl Anderson, who