SPARKS LAKE ROAD PUSHED

NEW HIGHWAY BEING BUILT BY FOREST SERVICE AND COUNTY MAKE TRIP TO LOST LAKE EASY MATTER.

The road which the forest service and Deschutes county are building up Duchman's creek to shorten the distance from Bend to Sparks and Elks lakes, known as the Sparks Lake road, has now reached Lost Lake, making the trip to that point an easy matter.

To reach the new highway, the autoist drives through the Shevlin-Hixon cuttings to a point just beyond a deep rock cut and snow fences, and takes the road as it turns off to the right over an old spur line. At first travel is very rough, but soon it improves, and for the rest of the distance to Lost lake the road is straight, with an easy grade.

The first water is at Big Springs and Duchman's creek comes later. The road goes between Bachelor and Tumalo mountains and out onto a high plateau, the elevation of which is 6800 feet. At one point in this section of the road an even better view of the mountains is to be obtained than from Broken Top plateau.

MILL MEN QUIT TO WORK ON THE LAND

Former Surplus of Unskilled Labor Now Finds Employment Haying and Harvesting.

A few weeks ago the number of daily applicants for work at the mills was far in excess of the number of vacancies, but jobs are beginning to be more plentiful than men, according to reports from the two Bend mills. This is on account of haying and the approach of harvesting, forms of seasonal work which offer large inducements to unskilled labor. For skilled labor, as always, there is a steady demand in the lumber industry.

Reports emanating from an unknown source have been heard in Portland and other Oregon points recently to the effect that the Bend mills are closed down. For residents of Bend and Deschutes county, this report needs no contradiction, and mill officials state, in addition, that they have no intention of closing.

CAR STEALING RING EXPOSED SAY OFFICIALS

PRINEVILLE AND BEND MEN IMPLICATED

THREE AUTOS FOUND

George Taylor Held on Crook County Warrant Charging Theft of Liquor From Pendleton Car—Two to Face Court in Klamath.

The existence of what authorities believe to be an organization for the theft and disposal of autos, with representatives in at least four Oregon counties east of the mountains, has come to light as the result of an accident which occurred to one of the allegedly stolen cars, a Ford, which broke down at Beaver Marsh while being taken from Klamath Falls to Bend. In the train of events following the delay is included the arrest of C. H. Shuter, local second-hand dealer, on a charge of complicity in the theft, the arrest of George Taylor of Bend, charged with having liquor in his possession, and the capture of Oscar Houston of Prineville on an auto stealing charge.

Houston and Shuter are both on the way to Klamath Falls today in custody of Sheriff Humphrey and Taylor, who was arrested here, will face trial in Prineville. Hanging over Houston's head is a warrant charging theft of a Buick car in Pendleton.

Whiskey Taken, Charge.

Shuter then hired Houston to drive to the marsh in his Buick and tow the stalled car into Bend. At Crescent, however, they were overtaken by the owner of the Ford, who regained his property and started back for Klamath. Sheriff Roberts, who had had Shuter and Houston under surveillance, arrested the former on his reappearance in Bend, and, shortly after, Houston was jailed in Prineville. Communications with Umatilla county authorities established the claim that the Buick driven by Houston had been stolen in Pendleton.

On arriving in Prineville, Houston had put the car in a private garage. After the arrest, it is charged, George Taylor of Bend made his appearance in the Crook county seat and abstracted 15 gallons of whiskey from the car which Houston had been driving. Taylor was picked up in Bend on a warrant held by Sheriff Combs of Crook county.

Another light car, thought to have been taken in the Tumalo section, was recovered by the authorities in the course of the investigation.

FISH SPEAR IS CAUSE OF FINE

SISTERS' MAN ADMITS INTENTION TO KILL FISH, BUT FOUND NO TROUT TO TEMPT HIM, HE TELLS COURT.

Arrested by District Game Warden H. McDonald on a charge of spearing fish at Three Creeks lake, Prentiss Van Tassel of Sisters entered a plea of guilty before Judge R. W. Sawyer Friday afternoon. After admitting his guilt, however, he stated that while he had a fish spear in his possession, and had intended to use it, he had not found trout which tempted him. He was fined $40 and ordered to pay $4 costs in addition.

Spearing of fish has been done to such an extent in the past at Three Creeks lake that it has been found almost impossible to keep the waters stocked, according to Mr. McDonald. In many places, he reports, the shores of the lake are strewn with fish which have died of spear wounds.

HE HAD TO SLEEP SITTING IN CHAIR

Gold Mine Owner Would Simply Have to Gasp For Breath—Restored by Tanlac.

"Every sign of my chronic bronchitis has disappeared and I have gained 15 pounds since I began taking Tanlac," said N. Jones, 499 Webster street, Portland, Oregon, recently. Mr. Jones is well known as a miner and mechanic and owns a gold mine in Baker county, Oregon.

"While stationed in camp at Washington, D. C., about a year ago," continued Mr. Jones, "I was put on guard duty one wet, freezing night and, as I had no heavy clothing, I contracted a heavy cold in the lungs. It left me in a very weak condition and finally developed into chronic bronchitis. I could not lie down, I choked up so, and had to get what sleep I could sitting up in a chair. Sometimes I would simply have to gasp for breath. I tried several things but got no permanent relief, and I continued to cough so people thought I had consumption. I had a shooting pain through my chest and back every time I breathed and I had to discontinue working on my mine, the outside work made me choke up so bad.

"A friend of mine over near Mt. Tabor advised me to take Tanlac, and it has certainly been a life saver to me. I took four bottles and I can now lie down as well as anybody, and there is no sign of the pain left. I work in my mine every day now and Tanlac has built me up so wonderfully I recommend it to anyone who needs a good medicine."

Tanlac is sold in Bend by the Owl Drug Co., in Sisters by George F. Aitken, and in Bend by the Horton Drug Co.
